Blair Continues Victory March by 20 to 7 Win

Effective Passing Makes Possible Two of Visitors' Scores in the Game Last Night.

From Saturday's Daily—
Paced by R. Long, the Blair high school team piloted by "Choppy" Rhodes, last evening maintained their unbroken string of wins by annexing a 20 to 7 victory from the blue and white of Plattsmouth.

The visitors gained much of their ground in the effective runs of Long and Rounds and in the scoring territory the passes by Long were most effective and accounted for the first two scores of the visitors, the locals being unable to break up the plays.

The Platters suffered a great deal from fumbles and the scoring was made on straight football and the driving of Captain Ronald Rebal in the third period.

The first score was in the opening quarter when after the excellent work of Reed and Steinkamp had brought the ball deep into the Blair territory, they were held for downs and Blair secured the ball on their own twenty-five yard stripe. With Blair it was a succession of brilliant runs by Long and Rounds that brought the ball well into the deep Platter territory and where Long heaved a bullet like pass to Thornberg that permitted his scoring. Long was able to make around the end for the extra point.

The half ended with the score standing 7 to 0 for the visitors. Rebal kicked off to the visitors and the boot was returned by Thornberg to his own forty-four yard line and from there Long again started his end runs that brought him to the Plattsmouth thirty-six yard stripe and from there Rounds raced to the twenty-five yard line and the ball again menaced the Plattsmouth goal. Long then took to the air and his bullet like pass was received by Wright and was good for the second touchdown of the struggle. The try for point was good and the score stood at 14 to 0 for the visitors.

It was in the third period that the Platters started a march that was good and which swept down the field to overcome the defense of the Blair warriors. Debolt of Blair kicked and the ball was returned by Rebal twenty-four yards, Rebal again picked up two yards and then Reed on a spinner took over seven more yards of the visitors. Rebal then took the ball to the Blair forty-five and was into the enemy territory. Steinkamp gained eight yards over the visitors left tackle and Warren Reed raced eighteen yards to bring the ball into the threatening territory and the ball was in possession of the locals on the Blair twenty-six stripe. White gained six yards and Rebal one, and then Reed fumbled but recovered and the march continued toward the Blair goal posts. Rebal smashed his way for four yards, carrying the ball to a first down on the Blair 16.

Rebal then gained six yards in a smash. Reed was halted by Long, but in the succeeding play Rebal was able to advance to the Blair four yard stripe. Reed picked up two yards on a fake that brought the ball under the goal and in the succeeding play Rebal smashed over for the touchdown. In a pass Rebal to Steinkamp, the extra point was good and the score stood 14 to 7 for Blair.

The last score was in the closing quarter and in which the Blair backfield all took a part in the drive and ball carrying. Long gained to the local twenty-four mark and then Rounds carried the ball on a spinner to the Plattsmouth twenty, but the visitors drew a five yard penalty. Debolt and Thornberg each gained three yards to place the pigskin on the Plattsmouth twelve yard mark. Long was stopped by Sedlak and Minor in one of his runs, a pass Long to Debolt failed to gain ground. Plattsmouth held on their own eight yard line and received the ball. Steinkamp fumbled and the ball was recovered by Stanley Blair crew on the Plattsmouth six. Blair drew a penalty. Long gained five yards. Long lateraled to Debolt who went over for the touchdown. The score was 20 to 7 at the final.

The Blair band was her; with a large crowd of rooters and who were rejoiced in the victory which is the fifth straight win for their team.

At half time the visitors' band paraded the football field and the drum major gave a fine exhibition of her skill that was much enjoyed by the spectators. The Blair band is under the direction of R. B. Hanks.

The Plattsmouth band under the direction of David Fowler and Cary Marshall as drum major, also drilled and played during the game for the entertainment of the large crowd.

Blair had one of the largest delegations seen here this season and who were certainly a real group of rooters for their purple clad warriors.

Plattsmouth People Return from Denver

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Taenzler and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves Attend Christian Church Meet.

From Saturday's Daily—

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves and Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Taenzler returned this morning from Denver, Colorado where they have been attending the International convention of the Disciples of Christ during the week.

The convention was a great success, with 2,000 registered delegates and many others who did not register present. The meetings were held in the city auditorium in Denver. There were 34 missionaries from many foreign fields, including South America, the Orient, Canada, Porto Rico, Hawaii and from many home missions in different states of the United States. Natives of India, China and Japan, dressed in their native clothes, were on the program of the convention. The theme of the convention was "Strengthen the Church to Advance the Kingdom of God," and many interesting and inspiring talks were heard.

One of the most pleasing features of the convention to Rev. Taenzler was meeting many of his former classmates at Drake University, who were present.

While in Denver they visited the many points of interest including Lookout Mountain, the Red Rocks, the Gardens of the Gods, the Cascade Mountains and the museum in Denver. In all they traveled 1,440 miles with no car trouble, pleasant weather and enjoyed a very delightful trip.

LOCAL GIRL ON PROGRAM

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 20.—Miss Eleanor Minor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O. Minor of 714 Main street, Plattsmouth, is a member of the Rockford College verse-speaking choir which will present a demonstration program before the Rock River Valley division of the Illinois Educational association at Dixon, Ill., on Friday, Oct. 21 under the direction of Professor Mildred Freburg Berry of the English department.

PHEASANT FEAST

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kraeger royally entertained a group of their closest young friends and relatives to a combination pheasant and covered dish supper Tuesday evening. They furnished the pheasant and some of the trimmings which Carl was fortunate enough to bring home, his quota of the birds.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pipal, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kraeger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long and daughter, Janice and Otis Baker and the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Kraeger, Bob and Betty.

PROGRAM AND PLATE SUPPER

I will give a plate supper and program for the members of the school on Thursday evening at the school, Dist. 13, which is known as the Swan school, some three miles southeast of Union. Ladies bring your boxes and let the boys buy them. A good time, a good program.

MRS. ELVA OPP,
Teacher.

Farmers Have Better Price in Sealing Corn

Those Who Have Participated in the Corn Allotment Program Have Advantage.

At the close of the 1938 season, who is better off in your neighborhood—the man who met his corn allotment or the man who stayed out of the program and planted a big acreage of corn?

The man who met his corn allotment this year can seal or reseed any eligible 1937 corn which he has on hand. The loan rate is 57 cents, which is 20 to 25 cents above the market price.

The man who met his corn allotment this year will be able to seal his 1938 corn crop at a loan rate of from 57 to 61 cents, which is likely to be from 25 to 30 cents per bushel above the market price when the loan goes into effect the latter part of November.

The man who met his corn allotment can buy all the corn he wants to buy from anyone and feed the purchased corn while he seals his own.

A man who seals corn and takes the loan does not lose title to the corn. On or before the date the loan matures he can—

1. Pay the loan and interest and keep the corn, or
2. Turn over the bushels and grade of corn called for in the loan agreement, or
3. Reseal the corn if a resealing program is offered next year.

In effect, the man who takes a loan has guaranteed himself 57 to 61 cents per bushel for his corn, and a chance to get core if corn goes up above that figure.

Corn payments for meeting allotments will be paid regardless of corn yields this year.

Looking ahead to next year, if the present agricultural act of 1938 is not changed, the adjustment in corn acreage is expected to be about the same as in 1938, the total corn payment for acreage adjustment and price adjustment will be from 13 to 17 cents per bushel, and the loan privileges will be continued.

We hope you study the statements in this letter and apply them to your own farm, and then talk to your neighbors about the outcome of the corn adjustment and corn loan program in your neighborhood this year. Please keep all these things in mind as you plan your farming operations for 1939.—ALFRED GANSEMER, Cass county chairman, Agricultural Conservation committee.

HERE FROM WASHINGTON

From Saturday's Daily—
John Iverson, who has been located in Washington, D. C., for the past several years, arrived home last evening for a visit here with his mother and other relatives. John motored through and will spend some three weeks in this locality and enjoying the duck and pheasant hunting.

RETURNS TO WEST

Mrs. Marie Hoffman, of Los Angeles, who has been here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Tartsch, has returned to her home in the west. Mrs. Hoffman is a sister of Mrs. Tartsch and resided here in her girlhood.

YOUNG CITIZENS CONTEST

The Young Citizens contest for 1938 will be held on Saturday, October 29th, at Weeping Water, it was announced at the office of Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent of schools, Wednesday.

The contest will be held to select an outstanding boy and girl to compete in the state contest and will be held under the supervision of Miss Peterson and Sterling Amick, county commander of the American Legion who are also sponsors of the event. Superintendent Behrens of Weeping Water will be one of the directors of the contest. The meetings will be held at the Weeping Water high school building.

Garden Club Names Officers for Coming Year

Mrs. Luke L. Wiles Selected to Head Local Organization—Plans Very Active Year.

From Thursday's Daily—

The members of the Plattsmouth Garden club held their election of officers last evening in connection with their meeting and chose as the persons to head the group for the year, the following:

President—Mrs. L. L. Wiles.
Vice-President—Mrs. E. H. Westcott.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. W. H. Schmidtman.

The members of the club enjoyed an unusual talk in that of Mrs. J. C. Lawson, who took the members on a journey to her native land of England and here she described the flowers of that land. She spoke particularly of the wild flowers that had grown in her home in the north of England, of the beauties of the countryside where the climbing roses over the cottages with their thatched roofs make a very charming picture to the eye. The climate of England is such that the abundant moisture keeps all things green and refreshed and the Gulf stream serves to make the winters ordinarily mild in comparison with that of the United States and Canada.

The members and friends also will have the opportunity if they wish, to enjoy a series of lectures by Mrs. Paul Grossman of Omaha, state president of the garden clubs, on the arrangement of flowers.

There was a large number at the meeting, held at the dining room of the Stewart cafe.

GIVEN APPRECIATION CHECK

Elmer Sundstrom, employe of the Lyman-Richey Sand and Gravel Corporation since April, 1906, who has taken a year's furlough from his work for that concern to accept the position of Director of Cass County Recreation Service, has received a very pleasing recognition of his long years of faithful service to Lyman-Richey in the form of a substantial check which accompanied a letter from the Omaha headquarters commending him on his work in various capacities during the past 32 years. The officials wish him well in this new position and speak of his ability to handle men and get things done.

SUFFERS INJURED ARM

From Thursday's Daily—
Captain Ronald Rebal, full back of the high school football team, while in practice last night at Athletic park, suffered an injury to his left forearm that may bar him from playing Friday night. The injured arm was X-rayed this morning and no breaks found but is very badly swollen and bruised.

MRS. HAYES IMPROVING

Mrs. R. B. Hayes, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is much better. Her many friends will be glad to learn of the improvement in her health.

ENJOYING CALIFORNIA

Word has been received by the parents and friends of Fred Knieke that he has arrived in California safely and is enjoying a very pleasant vacation.

Auxiliary Holds Another Meeting in the Country

Good Attendance Friday at Home of Mrs. Ed Tritsch—Number to Attend County Meeting

Twenty-three American Legion Auxiliary members attended the October meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Tritsch, west of town. Associate hostesses were Mesdames Frank Bestor, Willard N. Brink and Ralph Hill.

Guests included District President Mrs. Eugene Nutzman and District Secretary Mrs. Verner Lundbergh, both of Nehawka.

At the business session, it was decided to send cash to the U. S. Veterans hospital for Rehabilitation work this year instead of materials.

The Child Welfare fund used for relief work among Plattsmouth's underprivileged children, has been increased by $16 proceeds inuring to the local unit from the recent sale of extracts it sponsored.

There was considerable discussion and a dozen have signified intention of attending the county convention at Weeping Water on Wednesday, October 26. A noon-day covered dish luncheon is included on the program. Other members desiring to attend, call the Unit president.

Plans were also evolved for handling the political banquet the Unit will serve November 5th. Due to the extensive work this will involve, the public chicken pie supper planned for Armistice eve has been given up. However, Auxiliary and Legion members and their families will have a get-together party and covered dish luncheon Armistice night, following the afternoon public program the Legion is arranging for that day. Last year the two organizations held an Armistice night get-together that was attended by 130 persons.

Most important discussion was of plans for the district convention to be held in Plattsmouth, November 30. Committee members were announced and many of the details worked out in conformity with the desires of the district president, Mrs. Nutzman.

A number of additional caps were cut ready for sewing, twenty-five of these now being finished. The caps will bear the letters A. L. A. and the unit number, 56. They will be worn at the district convention when the new unit banner and flag now nearing completion will be carried in the parade.

Membership reports showed nearly one-third of the year's quota now signed up. Next month is set aside on the Auxiliary's official calendar for membership activities, with citations going to members who bring in three or more members. These will be awarded at the district convention here.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to conclude the meeting.

November meeting, on the 18th, will be held at the home of Mrs. James Maury, Associate hostesses, Mesdames John Hallstrom, George Conis and Ed Ofe.

SCHOOLS TO DISMISS FOR TEACHERS CONVENTION

The Plattsmouth public schools will dismiss for the state teachers convention to be held on October 27 and 28. The convention this year will have some of the outstanding speakers of the United States. District conventions are being held at Lincoln, Norfolk, Omaha and North Platte. Some of the teachers from out in the state plan to attend other district meetings.

HERE FOR VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Davis of Geneva, Nebraska, are here for a visit over the week end at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis.

PLATE SUPPER - PROGRAM

HUNTING PARTY AT "SHACK"

A hunting party has been enjoying the shooting this season at the "shack" of W. R. Holly on the Platte river north of the city. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Muncie, of Auburn have been here and with other friends have had a great deal of success in securing ducks and a few geese in the shooting since the opening of the season.

Tommy Graham and Fred Dolezal of Omaha, were also guests at the shack and brought with them some venison secured on a hunting trip in the west, regaling Mr. Holly and party with a venison feed.

Borrowers of FSA Loans Not to Sell Property

Mortgaged Property Not to Be Disposed of Without Consent of the Loan Agency.

Clients of the Farm Security Administration who, without consent of that agency, sell property on which it has a mortgage are subject to criminal prosecution, Leonard Hanks, county supervisor, announced following receipt of a letter received this week from Cal A. Ward, regional director. Purchasers of such property are liable to civil action if they do not return it upon demand.

Ward's letter again emphasized the established policy of FSA with regard to unauthorized sales of mortgaged property. A number of cases are on record in the regional office where willful sale of such property has resulted in prosecution and conviction.

"We go a long ways with our loan clients in helping them rehabilitate themselves," Mr. Hanks said, "but in instances where unauthorized sales by borrowers constitute bad faith, our only alternative is to prosecute and take them off our rolls, even if it means foreclosing their remaining property."

If the borrower is unable to make restitution to the government for the loss in security, the county supervisor said, the Farm Security must demand the purchaser to return the property. Where such properties cannot be returned the purchaser are liable for the value of the property or the full amount of the debt secured by the mortgage.

"Purchasers should make every possible check before buying property to see whether or not it is mortgaged, and if it is, whether or not permission has been given to sell," Mr. Hanks said. "This is simply a matter of self-protection as, while the title to the property passes to the purchaser, it is still subject to the lien of the mortgage."

When it is evident that the sale of property mortgaged to FSA will aid in the rehabilitation of the client, it is only necessary that the borrower discuss the situation with the county supervisor and secure authorization for sale.

DOINGS IN COUNTY COURT

From Friday's Daily—
Ernest E. Myers of Louisville was given a sentence of thirty days this morning in the county court. The charge was that of operating a car without the proper license plates and also not having a license to operate the car. The defendant has already served ten days and the remainder of the sentence was suspended during good behavior.

Louis Hermann and Elizabeth Shaffer of Elmwood were in the court to attend to some matters in the probate section in which they were interested.

Democrats Stage Rally at Rock Bluffs

Congressman Henry C. Luckey and County Candidates Visit at Mass Meeting at School.

Thursday evening at the Rock Bluffs school, was held a largely attended meeting of the democrats of that section of Cass county and to enjoy an evening of real enthusiasm and a fine talk by Congressman Henry C. Luckey, nominee for reelection.

The school house was filled with interested voters as Mike Kaffenberger, precinct committeeman, called the meeting to order and in turn presented George E. Nickles, county chairman, to take over the meeting.

The members of the party enjoyed a short period of group singing with Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger at the piano.

Mr. Nickles then presented the various candidates for the county offices, Carl Keil, candidate for treasurer; Homer Sylvestor, candidate for sheriff; Bernard Wurl, candidate for clerk; Walter H. Smith, candidate for county attorney; Lillian White, candidate for register of deeds; Robert Fitch, candidate for surveyor; William A. Metzger, candidate for the state legislature; Lora Lloyd Kieck and J. R. Reeder, candidates for superintendent of schools, all of whom gave short talks relative to the offices and their qualifications.

Congressman Luckey was introduced and received a very warm reception from the members of the party, Chairman Nickles in his introductory praising the fine record that Mr. Luckey has made in the halls of congress.

Congressman Luckey gave a very fine talk that covered the matter of the farm policy of the government and his viewpoint of steps that should be taken to secure a workable and smooth operating safety measure for the farmer, a protection that had been denied before the advent of the Roosevelt administration. Mr. Luckey gave some figures as to live stock importations that had been claimed were heavier in 1937 than at any time, showing that in 1927, 28-29 in republican years, that the importation had been larger regardless of the fact that in 1937 drought had cut down the local stock production.

In speaking of the farm problem, Mr. Luckey stated that at the time of the presentation of the farm bill he had spoken in congress and stated that while not satisfied with the measure he would vote its approval as a distinct step forward to aid the farmer and the only one that had been made. It required time to perfect a farm price control and farm aid bill as many things would have to be regulated, changed and made to fit the needs of the time. In his recent trip abroad he had consulted many of the leading economists of the old world and who had found that the handling of the crops for local consumption at the established price and the disposal of surplus at the world standard had proven most effective in caring for the surpluses.

He urged the support of the present administration that it might be possible for farm legislation to be regulated by friends of the farmer.

Congressman Luckey scored the warlike sentiment of the present day and the World war for its starting the world wide depression that has so long continued.

At the conclusion of the speaking the ladies of the precinct gave the members of the group a pleasant surprise by serving coffee and doughnuts that aided in making a most perfect evening.

DRAWS DOWN FINE

Thursday afternoon in the court of Judge C. L. Graves, Bert Young was arraigned on a charge of intoxication and resisting an officer. The court on hearing the evidence in the case assessed a fine of $10 and costs for the intoxication and $5 and costs for resisting arrest.
