Gov. Cochran Tells Truckers Use Highways

Urges Not to Refrain From Use of Highways in Douglas County Because of Strike.

LINCOLN, Oct. 29 (UP)—Governor Cochran told a delegation of 12 outstate truck operators today to assume that the highways are open and not to refrain from using the roads in Douglas county.

In response to questions, the governor said that no escorts or additional helpers should be used. "I may be stepping off a bit, but this is the best way to find out" he said.

Don C. Beach, secretary of the Dodge county truckers association which requested the conference remarked "that's what we want."

Beach said later that "it looks very promising and I believe the truckers will operate without protection."

Governor Cochran said "a thorough investigation" is under way of the truck strike situation in Douglas county where Sheriff Hopkins is under fire for alleged failure to enforce the state anti-picketing law.

One member of the group mentioned that some truck operators were opposing Governor Cochran's candidacy for re-election.

"I know it" the governor replied. "I have seen several trucks carry 'Beat Cochran' banners on them."
