Pick Farmers for RURAL POWER DIRECTORS
 Rural power loans must be repaid in full by patrons, plus 3 per cent interest. No grant; no tax monies. Directors are non-salaried, elected on non-partisan ballot; must give surety bonds.
 A kilowatt of electricity saves 13 hours of human drudgery on the farm. Approximately 1,200 customers are being served. Funds are available for connecting 6,200 more. Rural Power is ENTIRELY A FARM PROBLEM. Customers on private company lines cannot be served. Rural Power is NON-COMPETITIVE with Private Industry.
In Eastern Nebraska the City Vote Predominates
 The REA prefers FARMERS for directors. Members from cities do not grasp the farm situation; they nearly always cause dissension; they "gum the works." . . . A city candidate spent money lavishly in the primary. Now a "slate" has appeared, apparently well financed, to control the Board of Directors. Rural patrons are alarmed; they cannot understand WHY MONEY IS BEING SPENT TO GAIN OFFICES PAYING NO SALARY. So a number of prospective customers decided to appeal to the electorate. We solicit Support for Outstanding Farmers for These Positions
 If you had a tough job undone in the city, would you hire a 72-year-old farmer on a six year contract? Certainly not! Then WHY ELECT WILLIAM BISCHOF, AN AGED CITY MAN, TO DO A FARM TASK?
 For the long terms, farm groups urge the selection of the following:
E. H. BOETTCHER T. E. WHEELER CHARLES WARD
 All are successful Farmers, Patrons or Prospective Patrons!
 MR. BOETTCHER of Otoe County was appointed a director Aug. 1. Since that time he has organized the Douglas project and is ready for construction. Local labor will be used.
 MR. WHEELER, of Nemaha County, has been vice-president since Aug. 1. He organized the drive which resulted in securing the loan to build Project 3—Eastern Cass, Eastern Otoe, Eastern Nemaha.
 MR. WARD is a prospective customer. He is well and favorably known throughout Cass and adjoining counties.
To Fill Vacancies, We solicit Support for the following:
 For 4-Year Vacancy GUY JONES
 For 4-Year Vacancy GEORGE W. ARMBRUST
 These two men were persuaded to enter the primaries. They were unopposed. "Last Minute" petition candidates have been filed against them.
 For the 2-Year Term LEMOINE BEACHEY
 For Short Term C. H. BRODD
We respectfully urge the Importance of these Selections
