Weeping Water

John Cole was called to Omaha Tuesday where he had some business matters to look after.

Ross Shields has been laid up with an attack of lumbago, which makes it difficult for him to keep at his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sudduth and family of east of Murray were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson.

Wm. Bourke of Murdock was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday looking after business matters and visiting friends in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Pollard of near Nehawka were called to Weeping Water Tuesday morning to look after some business matters for a short time and while here were meeting a number of their friends.

Mrs. Jay Emberry has been feeling very poorly for the past two weeks and has been kept to her home and bed a good portion of the time with a heart ailment. Recently, however she has been showing some improvement.

Messrs. A. W. Dennis and Lester Dennis of Los Angeles were guests for a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Corley, Mrs. Joan Carter and many other friends in Weeping Water where they formerly resided.

Frank Farnham, a resident of the Nebraska Masonic Home at Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday and was a guest here at the home of his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jay N. Emberry, all enjoying the visit.

Messrs. Fred and David Lenz of Elmwood were in Weeping Water last Tuesday morning where they had come to look after some business at the farm bureau office. While here they were meeting with their many friends in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Fred Linville, who was so seriously crippled several months ago as the result of an auto accident, and who has been kept to her bed for many weeks, has been making good gains of late and for the first time was able to walk down town Monday last week. She was taken to town in a car before but this is the first time she was able to walk down.

Enters Hospital at Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck were in Omaha last Wednesday where they arranged for the entrance of Mrs. Buck in the hospital for treatment for a skin cancer which has appeared on her chin and which has not responded to ordinary treatment. She has therefore been placed in the University hospital in Omaha for treatment with the hope that a permanent cure can be effected.

Spend Sunday at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Cole were pleased when their two daughters and husbands of Lincoln came to spend the day with them. A very enjoyable visit was had by the entire family circle. The daughters and their husbands are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Linds.

Was Fifty-four Sunday.

Eugene E. Moore, the genial and accomplished mechanic at the repair department of the Cole Motor company took the day off last Sunday and with the family celebrated the passing of his 54th birthday anniversary. Mr. Moore was born at Marysville, Mo., and some 27 years ago came to Nebraska, first locating at Murray where he engaged in the automobile activity for a number of years, later serving as mechanic at Union and some seventeen years ago came to Weeping Water.

On the birthday the Moore family were pleased to have two uncles of Mrs. Moore, Wm. Frazier of Denver and Leonard Frazier of Greeley, Colorado, as their guests for the day.

Home from the East.

Mrs. A. H. Jones and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cliff Jones of Lincoln, who have been visiting with friends in Chicago for the past three weeks, arrived home last Saturday and report having enjoyed a splendid time.

Happy Halloween Party.

The teachers of the Weeping Water schools with the superintendent and a number of the board of education, sponsored a party last Monday evening at the school building in which games of a Halloween nature were indulged in. No one was allowed to attend except members of the school. A social dance was held afterwards in which the faculty and the scholars all joined and a happy time was had.

Many Candidates Here.

Ray F. Becker, republican candidate for register of deeds from Union was in town Tuesday morning, Miss Lillian G. White, the democratic candidate for the same office, also being in town Monday afternoon. Bernard G. Wurl, democratic candidate for county clerk, and Geo. R. Sayles, republican candidate for county clerk to succeed himself, were also in town. Mr. Sayles while here was delivering ballots for the coming election next, Tuesday.

All Ready to Start.

Crushed rock for use in the footing and foundation of the new community building has been delivered at the site of the new building. Work on the building proper is expected to be started next week. This is a step forward for the bustling city of Weeping Water. We are pleased to see so much energy and interest by the citizens for this much needed building.

Enjoyed Pleasant Game.

A number of citizens of Weeping Water were in Plattsmouth Monday of this week, accompanying the second team of Weeping Water who were playing the Plattsmouth second team. Elmer Michelsen was among those attending.

NEHAWKA

Raymond C. Pollard and wife were in Lincoln last Saturday attending the Missouri-Nebraska football game. J. R. Reeder, candidate for the office of superintendent of schools was a visitor in Nehawka last week interviewing the voters.

John H. Steffens and wife were in Syracuse last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellensick, where they enjoyed an excellent dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Miss Kettlehut, Mrs. Oscar Keil and daughter, Dorothea, all of Engle were guests at the home of Mrs. Emma Opp Sunday evening.

Messrs. Frank Lemon and Albert Anderson, both fine golf players, last Sunday morning journeyed to Nebraska City where they shot a few games of golf.

Miss Thelma Ludlow of McCook, Nebraska, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Opp Sunday evening. Miss Ludlow is a teacher in the Ord schools where Mrs. Opp formerly taught.

Hugh Warden has added to his winter reading the Plattsmouth Journal which will help beguile the long winter evenings and keep him and wife informed as to what is going on over the county, state and nation.

Very Pleasant Visit Sunday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Chapman was held a very pleasant gathering last Sunday when Marion Pittman and family of Avoca and Ward Pittman of Omaha called for the day and a visit all the family but especially to honor the mother, Mrs. T. S. Pittman, mother of Marion and Ward.

Will Have Good Game.

People go to Lincoln to see football games and forget that a very fine game can be seen at home. A game will be played in Nehawka soon between Nehawka and Hardy. Nehawka has lost but two games in the past three years, and the Hardy team has an even better record, not having lost a game in the past three years. Better keep this game in mind.

Alice Dovey Hazzard and Son Enjoy Visit With the Relatives for a Short Time.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Patterson of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John Weber Walter and children, John Charles and Mary Lou, of Falls City, Mrs. George H. Falter and daughter, Susan, of Atchison, Kansas, were at Omaha to meet Mrs. Alice Dovey Hazzard and son, John Edward, who with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore White, are en route from Hollywood to New York City.

The California party arrived on the private car of Mr. and Mrs. White on the "Challenger" from the west and stopped for a short time in Omaha, the interval permitting a delightful steak dinner with the Nebraska relatives of Mrs. Hazzard, Mrs. Patterson and the Mesdames Falter being sisters.

The party are en route east where they will spend several months at New York City and at Great Neck, the Hazzard home, before returning to the west.

Mrs. Hazzard and son had the pleasure of a visit this morning at Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Dovey, the former the youngest brother of Mrs. Hazzard.

Mrs. Hazzard and son are to leave the White family and go to Columbus, Ohio, where they will visit at Fort Hayes, with Major and Mrs. Floyd Harding, Mrs. Harding being also a sister of Mrs. Hazzard, making it possible for members of the family to enjoy a visit after some eighteen years.
