MANLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth made a business trip to Wahoo last Thursday.

Fred Fleischman and wife were in Louisville, where they spent the day last Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mockenhaupt of Greenwood visited at the C. E. Mockenhaupt home Thursday.

Frank Earhart was looking after business matters in Weeping Water one day the latter part of last week.

Ray E. Wiles and family were in Plattsmouth Monday, where they visited with friends and looked after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz were in Plattsmouth Monday of last week, where they visited friends and also looked after some shopping for the day.

The many friends of Mrs. Paul Fleming got together and went to her home last week where they assisted her in a proper celebration of her birthday.

A very pleasant meeting of the Extension club was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Keckler on November 10. Mrs. Ralph Keckler was a guest and assisted with the lesson on "Candy Making."

Last Sunday evening the family of Lawrence Krecklow were guests at the home of Mrs. Krecklow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz. A six o'clock dinner and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Theo. Harms was attending a meeting of the Woman's club at Weeping Water, of which she is a member, last Wednesday. The meeting was a big one and took her away from home over the noon hour, so during her absence the two "Teddy" were batching for their mid-day meal.

Married

Miss Margaret Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Baker, of Plattsmouth, and Mr. Chris Meier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Meier of Louisville and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mockenhaupt of Manley surprised their many friends by the announcement of their marriage.

The ceremony took place Saturday, November 5, at 8 a. m. in St. Patrick's church, Manley. Rev. James Hennessy officiating at the ceremony and at the Nuptial Mass which followed.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Mary Meier, the bride's brother attending the groom. Only immediate relatives attended the ceremony and the wedding breakfast which was served at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baker, of near Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Meier have gone to housekeeping in Louisville, where the groom is employed. Best wishes of hosts of friends are extended to the happy young couple.

Attended Banquet and Rally

Messrs. and Mesdames John C. Rauth, Theo. Harms, Walter Mockenhaupt and W. J. Rau comprised a merry group from this vicinity who went to Plattsmouth Saturday evening of last week for the democratic banquet and rally—the closing gathering of the campaign for this county. Governor Cochran was on the speaking program.

Armistice Program at Schools
Under the auspices of the Weeping Water American Legion post, a short program was given for the children of the Manley school on Armistice day.

Superintendent L. S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth schools gave an interesting address which was listened to most attentively by all the children, including those of the Primary grades. Mr. Devoe stressed the great blessing of "Peace," and at the same time the necessity of "Preparedness." In simple language adapted to his listeners, he urged them to prepare for the duties and responsibilities now being carried by their elders. His remarks were interspersed by humorous anecdotes which kept the children amused and interested.

The program closed with the Flag Salute led by Miss Minerva Schliefer.

Weeping Water post was represented by Sterling Amick and Ben Olive of Weeping Water and by Mrs. John C. Rauth of Manley.

Birthday Celebration

Mesdames Harry Haws, Rudolf Bergman, Oscar Dowler and Herman Rauth, of Manley, together with Mesdames Ralph Keckler, Rasmus Larson, I. R. Markland and L. A. Wiseman, of Weeping Water, made up a merry group of Cass county ladies who took a covered dish luncheon with them and journeyed to Omaha, where they joined in appropriately celebrating the passing of the birthday of Miss Rena Christensen. A splendid time is reported by all. All returned home in the evening except Mrs. Herman Rauth, sister of Miss Rena, who remained until the following day (Sunday), when Mr. Rauth drove over to Omaha to bring his wife home.

Celebrated Passing Birthday

Messrs. and Mesdames Oscar Dowler and Harry Haws were visiting in Lincoln last week, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy. Mr. Murphy was passing another milestone of the journey through life and the occasion was being celebrated by a large number of friends of the Murphy family, with those from here included among the guests.

A most delightful time was had at cards and other amusements, and a delicious luncheon was served before the time arrived for departure. All expressed their wishes for the continued good health, prosperity and happiness of the guest of honor.

Elmwood News

An addition has been made at the Clement funeral home which will provide better accommodations for the public.

Last Monday the Elmwood Fire Department, which is a very lively fire fighting organization, held their regular meeting last week.

Miss Shirley Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene, who is a student at the University of Nebraska spent the week end at home. Mesdames Willard Clapp and C. M. Totman were called to Lincoln Monday of last week, where they looked after some shopping and also visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lamb of Lincoln were visiting in Elmwood last Sunday, being guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene.

Miss Irene Plymale of Ashland has accepted a position as cook and general worker in Mom's Pantry, the popular eating house which seems to be doing a good business.

Lemuel Parish and A. J. Alford were in Plattsmouth Monday of last week, where they looked after business matters and visited friends. While there Mr. Alford had an ailing tooth removed.

Miss Kathleen Lorenz, who is employed in Omaha, visited at the parental home here over Sunday. Her mother, Mrs. Frank W. Lorenz, has just recently returned from a Lincoln hospital, where she underwent a major operation.

were hosts last Sunday to a group of friends from Nehawka. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McReynolds, their daughter, Miss Lanna McReynolds, who is postmistress there, and son, Elmer McReynolds. On the following day, Elmer departed for Florida, where he will spend the winter.

Visited at Weeping Water

Frank Gillet and wife were in Weeping Water Monday of last week, where they visited friends and also looked after business matters. The Gillets formerly made their home in Weeping Water for a number of years, but of late have resided in and near Elmwood. They were married in Plattsmouth more than 54 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gillet were guests two years ago at a banquet given to Cass county couples by the King Korn Carnival.

Ladies Pay Lincoln Visit

A party of Elmwood matrons went to Lincoln last Tuesday, where they visited friends and transacted business. Included in the group were Mesdames O. E. Liston, Emily Gonzales, Guy Clements and Bess Street-er Aldrich.

Will Make Home in Omaha

Following the passing of the late J. F. Fitch some time since, Mrs. Fitch has maintained her home here until last week, when she decided to make her home with her daughter, Miss Ruth, who has a very lucrative position in an office in Omaha. So Mrs. Fitch shipped a portion of her goods to Omaha and she and her daughter, Miss Ruth, will make their home there. The goods were taken to Omaha by the Bornemeier Transfer company last Tuesday.

Decorating Bank Interior

The interior of the American Exchange bank has been changed considerably, providing more space for the working force and less for the lobby. When the remodeling work is completed the interior will be redecorated and look like a new place of business.

Attended Kansas-Nebraska Game

V. G. (Bud) Clement likes a good ball game, whether it be baseball, softball or football, so when he was assigned to deliver the car which Mr. Fitch formerly drove, and which was sold by Mrs. Fitch to Spencer Ledger, former superintendent of schools here, at the present home of the latter at Burchard, he concluded it would be a good opportunity to take in the Nebraska-Kansas football game at the same time. Driving to Burchard, he was joined by Supt. and Mrs. Ledger and they all went to Lawrence for the game. Afterwards, Mr. and Mrs. Clement were brought home by Mr. and Mrs. Ledger in the car they had purchased.

Birthdays of Two Citizens

Paul Marshall was born November 8, 1859, and celebrated the passing of his 79th birthday last Tuesday. On that day he was also returned to the office of precinct assessor by the voters.

Just twenty years later on the same day of the month, William W. Centman was born, and so was 59 years old. Both are good citizens of Elmwood and were receiving the congratulations of their friends.

BULL WRECKS TWO TRAINS

LA CROSSE, Ind., Nov. 12 (UP)—A bull in a china shop would be hard pressed to match a 1,500-pound Red Shorthorn responsible for wrecking two trains on the Logansport-Chicago division of the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday.

The bull wandered onto the railroad's right of way and was hit by a freight. The engine and 30 cars were derailed.

An hour later, a passenger train, detouring past the wreckage over Chicago and Erie railroad tracks, backed into an open switch and three cars were derailed. No one was injured. The bull died.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Charles Atcherry, of Union, transacted business with L. Neitzel last Thursday.

Albert Bauer, who has been staying in Lincoln, came to Murdock on election day to cast his vote.

Ray Gamlin took a load of live stock to the Omaha market Tuesday for a number of farmers living in this vicinity.

Rev. F. C. Weber returned home last week from a strenuous four weeks Evangelical campaign in Omaha and Milford.

O. B. Lupaeus was looking after some business matters in the western part of the state, which will require some days to complete.

Mrs. Herman Wendt, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the hospital where she underwent an operation last Monday. She is reported improving.

Henry Amgwert, accompanied by the wife, were in Omaha Wednesday of last week, where they were looking after the purchase of goods for the store here.

Oscar C. Zink, who was named to serve on the election board, was in such poor health he was unable to serve and someone had to be substituted to fill the position.

J. Johansen, Mathew Thimgan and son Victor are all working on the new community building being built at Weeping Water. They drive back and forth to and from their work.

Miss Bertha Ellington, of Plattsmouth, has accepted a position on the farm of H. E. Carson and brother west of Louisville, and is caring for Grandmother Carson, who is very seriously ill.

John Gakemeier and Frank A. Melvin made a trip to Plattsmouth Wednesday to take the election returns, and also tarried in the county seat for a short time, looking after business matters.

Rev. F. C. Weber, Mrs. Weber and son Earl, who is pastor at East Peoria, Ill., motored to Columbus Friday to help Rev. Weber's father celebrate his 92nd birthday. He reports him quite well for his advanced age.

Frank Dean and the family, who have made their home here during the past five years, moved last week to Elmwood. Mr. Dean will be employed on some of the government work between Elmwood and Weeping Water.

Mrs. Edward Brunkow, who was seriously ill at her home for so long a time, is feeling considerably improved, although still confined to her bed. Miss Viola Everett is assisting with the housework and the care of the patient.

The election board at Murdock remained in session until 3 o'clock Wednesday morning before their labors were concluded. They had their report of results phoned in some ahead of that however and were among the early ones turning in their figures.

Ed Ganaway was in Lincoln on Armistice day, visiting at the home of his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Robson, and was also a guest at a Father and Son banquet which was given at the parlors of the Methodist church in the capital city.

Mother Very Poorly

Grandmother Carson, mother of Henry E. Carson, who has been residing at the home of another son on a farm between Murdock and Louisville, is reported seriously ill. Despite the best of medical attention and nursing, she has failed to gain and much apprehension is felt as to her recovery.

Gave Fine Entertainment

In co-operation with the Extension club, the three churches in Murdock and vicinity gave an entertainment last week at the church in Murdock. The program, divided into three parts, comprised a half hour of readings, followed by a play and then thirty minutes of music. Each of the three churches presented one section of the program.

This was one of a series of similar entertainments being sponsored by the Extension club, and was attended by a large number of people. Next month a different time assignment will be made, so that eventually each church group will have opportunity to present its musical, oratorical and dramatic talent.

Such get-together meetings are fine for foistering the community spirit.

Visited Here for Short Time

Albert Rikli, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rikli, who has been farming near Ord, was a visitor for a number of days with his parents and other relatives and friends in and about Murdock, returning to Ord last week, where he went to accept a position as mechanic in a garage. He will work there for the winter and again return to his farming operations.

Showing Marked Improvement

Mrs. W. O. Scheve who for several weeks was at the hospital, underwent a serious operation from which she has recovered sufficiently to return to her home here and is continuing to show good advancement, although still required to remain in bed.

Doing Nicely at Hospital

James Mills, who has been troubled with recurring attacks of acute appendicitis, was taken to an Omaha hospital last week for an operation. He came through the ordeal very well and should be able to return home, barring the possibility of complications or relapse.

Voted Just Before Polls Closed

Ray Gamlin and wife were kept pretty busy on election day and as the hour of closing the polls drew near, Henry Carson went to their home to inquire if they had voted. Advised that they had not, but both could not get away and leave the baby alone, Statts acted as nurse while Mr. and Mrs. Gamlin went and performed their obligation to the government by voting.

Justice and Assessor

In the local election last Tuesday Paul Stock was selected for the position of Justice of the Peace, and is now Judge Paul Stock. William Bourke was again selected as the precinct assessor.

Here for Pittsburgh Game

Fred Lowe and family came from Hyannis to enjoy a short visit with the Neitzel families and take in the Pittsburgh game Saturday. They are taking advantage of the pleasant weather that makes travel a pleasure.

Four-Square Club Activities

Members of our club looked a little different at Mr. Wm. Eisele's November 7, as all came in their winter wraps.

The demonstration in candy-making reminded us that preparations for Christmas must be made. How colorful the lollipops—the assorted containers for candies as gifts. Members appreciated the privilege of tasting these candies and seeing the demonstration of making them gave assurance of greater success.

studying the last lesson. Some rooms are too large, some too small—in some the furniture is too large, in others too small, so the value of our lesson in its application to our own homes was very evident.

A special meeting for Book Review and reports will be held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Amgwert on December 5, at 7:30 p. m. The January meeting will be an open meeting, the exact date of which will be given later. An invitation to meet with Mrs. Henry A. Tool for the February meeting was accepted.

—Reporter.

Reminiscences of Delightful Trip

Mrs. Henry A. Tool returned home last Monday evening from Lexington, Kentucky, where her rug was shown in an exhibit at the National convention of Home Demonstration Club women.

As rug-making is an old art in foreign lands, it was not included in the exhibit that will represent the hand craft of the women of the United States in London, England, next June. Each state sends one choice from the exhibit shown at Lexington.

Many arts not yet used in Nebraska clubs were displayed and possibilities for the development of utilizing the things about us were shown. There were seventeen women who came from different parts of Nebraska attending this meeting and it is anticipated great progress in the extension work among women will be possible. Mrs. Tool was in company with Mary Ellen Brown, state manager, Lincoln; Miss Evelyn Wolph, state president, Nehawka, and Mrs. Nelson Berger, former Cass County Demonstration Agent, also of Nehawka.

The tour of 2,000 miles took them through the scenic Autumn beauty in the states through which they traveled. In Kentucky the great horse, "Man of War" seems to be "tops," but the shrine of Abraham Lincoln at Hodgenville; "My Ole Kentucky Home" of Stephen A. Foster at Bardstown, the Mammoth Cave and Berea College will remain. In Missouri the colored folk in the cotton fields, the ride across on the ferry where the clear waters of the Ohio and the muddy waters of the Mississippi flow side by side in the same channel; and then on to the beautiful Lake of the Ozarks which is formed by the Bagnell dam were some of the places along this tour. One could hardly tell when Nebraska was reached for the same scenic autumn beauty with the green of our wheat fields reached into our own Cass county.

Reception for New Member

Last Tuesday evening thirty members of the Bible class of the Calhoun church motored to the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hilgenfeld to spend the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hilgenfeld have recently transferred their church letter to the church here and also joined the Bible class of which Mr. H. Schlueter is the efficient teacher.

After a program under the direction of the pastor, F. C. Weber, a social hour proved to be a real treat to all present. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Wabash News

L. R. Stanley made a business trip to Plattsmouth last Monday.

A. H. Ward, of Murdock, was in Wabash Wednesday of last week assisting the road overseer with the erection of some snow fence along the highways, thus getting ready for winter.

Henry Crozier and wife of Weeping Water visited at the home of their daughter in the country near here last Wednesday. While the women folks were visiting, Mr. Crozier slipped away and came to Wabash, and enjoyed meeting many old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winkler and daughter, Betty Jean, of Elmwood were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmidt. Mrs. Winkler is a sister of Mr. Schmidt, having been Miss Leah Schmidt prior to her marriage to Mr. Winkler. Miss Geraldine Schmidt, beauty operator at Murdock, was also home over the week end.

Appreciates Support Received

I appreciate the kindness of my many friends, who voted for me for the position of road overseer, to which I was elected last Tuesday.

Has a Very Sore Arm

Clifford Browne, an employee at the government stone quarry, along with other employees, had to submit to a vaccination for small pox, typhoid and other diseases. The vaccine reacted very successfully, causing his arm to swell so badly he had to lay off his work for several days. It is getting along much better at present.

Picking Corn in Iowa

Fred Wyers and Fred Bassie, with their wagons and teams departed last week for Percival, Iowa, near where they have much corn to pick, and expect to be busy for several weeks. Frank Marshall with his truck took the horses and wagons over and the men were able to begin husking at once.

Nose is Affected

As a result of a severe cold, some pimples appeared on the nose of Ralph Richards, the infecting spreading to his face and causing him to remain home from his daily work. Both Mr. Richards and his friends are hoping for a speedy recovery from the infection.

Most Enjoyable Meeting

The Ladies Kensington of Wabash met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Albert Pool. After the busy work period, a social hour was enjoyed. All who were present report a very pleasant meeting.
