Contributions From 3,300 Nebraska Employers Shows Increase and Wage Increase Noted.

LINCOLN, Nov. 23—Nebraska had the sum of $7,022,443 available for payment of Unemployment Compensation insurance when tabulation of third quarterly contributions amounting to $974,423 from 3,300 Nebraska employers, who are subject to the law, was completed on November 15 by the Nebraska Unemployment Compensation division.

An increase in wages paid over the second quarter of 1938 was noted, since contributions based on a two and seven-tenths percent tax on payrolls, totaled approximately $24,000 more during the third quarter, which ended September 30.

Initial claims for unemployment benefits may be filed by eligible unemployed Nebraskans, who are covered by the law, after January 1, 1939. First benefits will be paid in Nebraska for unemployment experienced during the third week of January, 1939, as all eligible claimants must first serve a two-weeks' waiting period, after filing claims for benefits through the nearest office of the Nebraska State Employment Service.

The Nebraska Unemployment Trust fund will amount to approximately $7,036,000 by January 1, 1939, according to estimates. This does not include the fourth quarter contributions of 1938, which will not be payable by subject Nebraska employers until January 31, 1939. Fourth quarterly contributions will bring the fund to nearly $8,000,000 by February 1, 1939. All of this money must be used entirely for payment of unemployment insurance to eligible covered workers.

Interest on the trust fund, which is held in reserve by the treasury of the United States, now amounts to $71,723. Of this sum $33,900 in interest was credited to the Nebraska Trust fund in October.

Employment in Nebraska increased two percent in August over July and nine-tenths of one percent in September over August. Payrolls decreased one and three-tenths percent in August over July, due to reduced payrolls in wholesale and retail trade, printing and binding, and the finance and insurance groups. However, an increase in payrolls of four-tenths of one percent was noted in September over August.

SHOOT HOLES IN TRUCK

LINCOLN, Nov. 23 (UP)—Nine bullet holes pumped through the metal sides of a truck driven by Francis Massie of Lincoln during a drive from Omaha last night remained undiscovered until he checked in at the Nebraska Interstate Lines terminal.

Massie said the holes were not there when he stopped in Gretna and that he heard no shooting. Police indicated that the shots were fired at close range from a sawed-off shotgun. Guy E. Stamper, manager of the company which has had a contract with the general drivers union believed the shots had not been fired by highway pickets in the truck strike.

Justice Day of the Supreme Court is Dead

Youngest of Tribunal and One of the Youngest Ever Elected to State Bench.

LINCOLN, Nov. 23 (UP)—Associate Justice L. B. Day of the Nebraska supreme court was dead today.

He died early last night at a Lincoln hospital of heart complications which developed from pneumonia. Judge Day was hospitalized Nov. 6, but his condition did not become critical until last Saturday night when he suffered a heart attack.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the First Presbyterian church in Omaha with Rev. Thomas Niven in charge. Judge Day's body will be cremated, it was announced.

Gov. R. L. Cochran will appoint a successor to the 49-year-old jurist, who represented the second district of Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties. Justice Day was one of the youngest men ever to be elected to the supreme court bench. He was 39 when elected in 1923 and at the time of his death was completing his 10th year with the high court. He was re-elected for another six-year term without opposition in 1934.

Judge Day was born at Westboro, Mo., Feb. 3, 1889 and came to Nebraska with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day, 48 years ago. The family settled in Boone county near Albion. L. B. Day (he had no given name) was graduated from Albion high school and at 22 received his arts degree from Creighton university. At 24 he obtained his law degree from the same school. He was admitted to the practice of law at Omaha in 1914 and in 1920, at 31, was elected district judge.

As district judge, he was in charge of the domestic relations court and served six years in that post, gaining a reputation as an authority on domestic problems.

Once he threatened to step down from the bench and punch a man who had appeared before him on several occasions on wife beating charges and had threatened his wife again just as he was leaving. "If you don't think I can do it, step back in the cloakroom and find out," Judge Day told the man. His challenge was not accepted.

PAYROLLS ARE UP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (UP)—Secretary of Labor Perkins said today that weekly factory payrolls jumped approximately $5,000,000 in October while all non-agriculture employment increased by approximately 248,000 workers.

It is estimated the employment gain since the upturn began last July 19th which brought the number of persons at work now to 34,400,000 compared with 37,000,000 in September 1937 and 38,000,000 in 1929.

The outstanding employment gain in October was in the automobile, body and parts industry. Approximately 85,000 workers were returned to jobs she said.

From Friday's Daily—Attorney Guy L. Clements to Elmwood, was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters of business.

Postal Department Figures on Parcel Post

Local Postal Authorities Give Interesting Facts Relative to the Scope of Mailing.

The post office department, during the month of November, is observing National Parcel Post Month and is endeavoring to inform the public with every means at its command of the facilities that are available for mailing and receiving packages. This month marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the inauguration of this particular service by post offices throughout the United States.

Domestic parcel post (fourth class matter includes merchandise, farm and factory products, gifts, clothing, personal articles, in fact everything that can be properly packed for transportation in the mails, that weighs over eight ounces and that does not contain writing.

The minimum weight for parcel post is determined by whether the package weighs under eight ounces or over. If under, it is classed as third class matter and subject to postage at the rate of 1 1/2c per each two ounces or fraction thereof, if over it is classed as parcel post and the amount of postage chargeable depends on the weight of the package and the distance it will travel in the mail. The maximum weight of any parcel post package is 70 pounds, regardless of distance.

There is also a limit of size of parcel post. Packages may not exceed 100 inches in length and girth combined. In measuring a parcel the greatest distance in a straight line between the ends (but not around the parcel) is taken as its length, while the distance around the parcel at its thickest part is taken as its girth. For example a parcel 36 inches long, 12 inches wide and 16 inches high measures 94 inches in length and girth combined and is acceptable for mailing.

Packages should be carefully packed to withstand handling while in transit. For transportation on trains, parcels are placed in mail sacks and these sacks are usually handled quite swiftly, on some occasions being allowed to drop several feet onto a truck or platform. Under the circumstances if patrons would pack their parcels with the expectation of having them receive such handling while en route, the danger of breakage would be considerably lessened.

Parcels may be sent anywhere within the United States or to any of its possessions at domestic rates. These rates vary according to weight and distance. There are 560 different rates. For example a ten-pound package may be sent from Plattsmouth to Omaha for 18c, to Chicago for 42c, to Los Angeles for 75c, to the Canal Zone for $1.14.

Parcels may be insured against loss, rifting, or damage, by the payment of small additional fees; in case of unsatisfactory condition on arrival, the sender can file a claim which should be paid within one month.

SUGGEST ALASKA FOR JEWS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (UP)—Secretary of Interior Ickes today suggested the possibility of considering Alaska as a haven for refugee Jews from Germany or other European nations.

Ickes pointed out that Alaska is the only United States possession which has not been fully developed. He added that he favors doing everything possible to assist refugees.

The suggestion came at a press conference when Ickes was asked whether any United States areas or possessions had been considered as a haven for refugees.

The secretary limited his suggestion to a proposal that Alaska's possibilities as a haven be considered. He was asked whether he would recommend such consideration to President Roosevelt.

"Well, I wouldn't go that far," he said.

Strike Closes the Chicago Live Stock Exchange

Livestock Handlers Union Strike Cripples Market and Leads to Close of Exchange.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23 (UP)—The spokesman of the Chicago livestock exchange—the 350 "middle men" of the world's largest livestock market—stepped out of an emergency meeting today and announced:

"There will be no market today." He was Charles R. Rice, president of the exchange and his announcement brought complete paralysis to a market already crippled by a strike called Monday by the livestock handlers union, affiliate of the CIO.

The union had permitted the commission men to go into the yards yesterday and clear the large stocks of hogs, cattle and sheep gutting the pens. Today Rice said there were only a few animals remaining and the exchange voted unanimously to suspend trading over the Thanksgiving holiday. He declined to forecast what action would be taken Friday.

The American Federation of Labor handlers, meanwhile were reported considering a proposal that they break the CIO picket line and attempt to handle the market. Normally some 600 handlers are employed and the CIO union recently won a majority in an election to determine a bargaining agent, the Union Stockyard and Terminal company which handles all shipments into the Chicago market.

Ben Brown, president of the CIO local threatened to extend the strike to the entire packing industry if any attempt is made to break the strike. He made the threat after O. T. Henkle, president of the Union Stockyard or Transit company had hinted that an attempt would be made to resume operations.

MANY VISIT SANTA CLAUS

The Gamble store in this city was the scene of the greatest activity Friday evening when Santa Claus made his appearance at the store and gave to the children a treat of candy and as well many of the older ones who swarmed into the store.

Long before the hour of 8 o'clock, the vicinity of the store was filled with a crowd of between seven and eight hundred of the young people and their parents ready to wait the opening of the doors into the store.

As the doors were opened there was a general rush and in a scant few seconds the store was filled as the rush for the genial Santa was one. Manager Randall York and his assistants were kept busy in handling the crowd and at times it was necessary to close the door until the youngsters were served.

It was a very great success and brought many from all sections of the nearby territory.

SEEK CLARIFYING AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (UP)—Wage-Hour Administrator Elmer F. Andrews said today that he may ask the next congress for a clarifying amendment covering wage reductions in cases where the rate is about 25c an hour.

Andrews expressed his opinion that such reductions were "most illegal." Taking cognizance of labor complaints that the act might permit wage reductions despite a section declaring that no provision of the law would justify cuts, Andrews said that congress will be asked to tighten up this section and to make certain that "penalties apply to all cases where penalties should apply."

DISCOURAGES LABOR MIGRATION

Because a sufficient number of laborers are already available for harvesting the Arizona cotton crop, the Plattsmouth office of the Nebraska State Employment Service has been asked to assist in discouraging the migration of labor to Arizona. Workers are also urged not to go to California in search of employment, as a surplus of qualified labor is already in existence.

From Friday's Daily—This morning at the invitation of are Ad club a group of business men met in the conference room of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co. office and considered plans for the public observance of the Christmas season. ### MAY DEMAND RESIGNATION

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 23 (UP)—Parliament overruled Premier Bela Imredy today in a vote on its Agenda and his resignation was believed imminent.

Imredy's defeat was caused chiefly by secession of many members of the chamber of deputies from the government party. The vote was 118 to 95. The majority of deputies had protested Imredy's plan to limit debate on important bills. They charged he was using "dictatorship" method's policy toward Jews.

The premier had believed last night that he would overcome difficulties with parliament by gaining the confidence of other friendly parties, at least for the duration of the threatening crisis in central Europe over the autonomous Czechoslovak province of Ruthenia.

Germany in Protest to Hungary and Poland

Nazi Government Firm in Position That the Present Czech Border Shall Remain.

BERLIN, Nov. 23 (UP)—Germany has made energetic representations to Poland and Hungary over their attitude toward Ruthenia, reliable sources said today.

Germany emphasized her desire that the present Slovakian border shall be permanent and reclarified German opposition to a common frontier between Hungary and Poland. It was understood.

An official declined to confirm the report and said nothing was known at present. It was known, however, that the German ambassador, Hans Von Moltke, visited Foreign Minister Joseph Beck yesterday immediately on his return from a visit to Berlin. It was also noted that the Ruthenian press which until yesterday openly sympathized with the "insurgents" has now changed to expressions of hope for a plebiscite in the troubled area.
