

MANLEY NEWS

Business called Arnold Schlieft to Omaha last Wednesday.

Fred and Chris Stohlman transacted business in Lincoln last Monday.

Miss Mary Murphy went to Omaha last Wednesday morning to spend a few days with her brother, John Murphy and wife.

John A. Stander and some friends spent part of last week at Bridgeport, where they enjoyed some very successful duck hunting.

Miss Margaret Bergman, who is taking a Nurse Training course at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha, was able to spend Thanksgiving day with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haws and Elmer Salsberg and wife of Omaha, were Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virtus Haws at Clay Center, Kansas.

John Bergman and wife of Plattsmouth were guests at the Frank Bergman home near Manley last Sunday, attending church services at St. Patrick's Catholic church here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were at York over Thanksgiving day, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rauth, where they enjoyed a sumptuous Thanksgiving feast.

Oris Schlieft, John Carper and John C. Neumann were called to Plattsmouth last week for jury service. They were able to be home on Thanksgiving day, however, and again on Sunday.

August Krecklow, who has been feeling poorly for many weeks, is now considerably better and able to get some sleep at night, which he could not do prior to the improvement of his condition.

The state bank examiners were in Manley last Wednesday, going over the books of the Manley State bank, which they found in splendid shape. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rau are experienced bankers and bookkeepers and keep their records in first class condition.

Guests at Theo. Harms Home
Thanksgiving day guests at the Theo Harms home were Mrs. Henry Peters and daughters Evelyn and Aetha, William Birkman and family and Julian Birkman and family, all of the vicinity of Talmage, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters of Nebraska City.

Reunion of Army Nurses
John C. Rauth and wife, and Walter Mockenhaupt, wife, son Billie and daughter Anna Marie, were in Omaha Thanksgiving day, where they were guests at the home of Miss Lillian Tighe, sister of Mesdames Iauth and Mockenhaupt.

While in Omaha, Mrs. Rauth met and was accompanied home by her friend and former fellow army nurse, Miss Anderson, who is now a resident of Quincy, Illinois. The two enjoyed a very pleasant reunion and recounted incidents of their days of service with the American army overseas a score of years ago.

STOVE KILLS SIX

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 24 (UP)—A mother and her five children, huddled around an oil stove while the season's most severe snow storm howled outside were killed when the stove exploded. The victims were showered with flaming oil. They were Mrs. Carrie De Rose, 27 and 5 children, the oldest 9.

Subscribe for the Journal.

WE ALWAYS PAY Highest Prices FOR CREAM Poultry and Eggs

PLATTSMOUTH CREAMERY
Lower Main St. Phone 94

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Anna Earl is visiting at the home of her son, Dwight Earl and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wright spent last Sunday in Weeping Water with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hite.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Vinson of Lincoln were in Eagle last Saturday evening visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sexson of Ravenna spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sexson.

Miss Marian Axtell of Lincoln was an overnight guest last Thursday of Rev. and Mrs. Donald Springer.

Mrs. Carrie Stover has been visiting near Palmyra with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Slye since last Thursday.

Mrs. Bertha Wulf and Mrs. Carrie Daugherty of Lincoln visited Mrs. Pauline Ollerman Sunday afternoon.

Voyal Wall and Dwight Earl who are husking corn near Hamburg, Iowa, spent Sunday with home folks.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jones last Thursday were Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. Charles Sweet and Mrs. Lucy Williams of Palmyra.

Mrs. George Reitter and Miss Freda Reitter motored to Omaha last Sunday. While there they called on Mr. and Mrs. Mark Havens.

Mrs. E. H. May and son, Ormond, motored to Palmyra last Sunday afternoon and visited at the home of her father, Charles Gray, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trunkenbolz visited the latter part of last week in West Point with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Schumaker, Mr. Schumaker and son.

Mrs. Mack Williams spent a week in Greenwood with her sister, Mrs. John Stradley and other relatives. She returned home on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Verne Waldon of Valley visited from Thursday until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Hamilton. Mr. Waldon and daughter, June, came for her on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Milford Axe and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Piersol and children and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Piersol of Lincoln were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Piersol on Sunday.

William Muenchau, who has been drawn to serve on the jury, reported at the court house in Plattsmouth Monday morning. He returned home on Tuesday, but will have to report again next Monday morning.

Mrs. Isabel Jack, Mrs. Everett Morton, Mrs. S. H. Palmer, Mrs. Donald Springer and Miss Dorothea Keil motored to Lincoln and heard E. Stanley Jones deliver an address at the Nebraska Wesleyan chapel last Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutton came from Fremont last Sunday evening for their daughter, Marla Mae, who has spent the past two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Francke. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton have recently moved from Columbus to Fremont.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wall and Mr. and Mrs. George Mayer went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Umland last Friday evening, where they helped Mrs. Umland celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent at cards.

O. E. S. Kensington

Mrs. Clarence Slosson was hostess to the ladies of the Kensington at her home last Wednesday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. M. E. Boren, Mrs. Mary Lanning, Mrs. Guy Jones and Mrs. John Peterson.

During the business meeting plans were made for a luncheon which will be served December 14 at the home of Mrs. Floyd Dysart.

Refreshments were served following the social hour.

W. C. T. U.

The local Union met at the Methodist parsonage with Mrs. G. H. Palmer as hostess last Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Horch was a welcome visitor.

The members answered roll call by telling something for which they were especially thankful.

The "Thanksgiving" theme was also used as the lesson topic. Mrs. Springer gave a whistling solo as a special number of entertainment.

The hostess served pumpkin pie, topped with whipped cream and coffee.

We will appreciate phone calls of news items from our readers.

Thomas Walling Company
Abstracts of Title
Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

Elmwood News

R. M. Dennis was a brief business caller in Weeping Water last Tuesday.

The volunteer fire department met Monday evening for their regular business session.

Mrs. Guy Clements returned home last Sunday from a visit of several days with friends in Omaha.

Tony Neilson and wife of Lincoln were guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Penterman.

George Eldermiller and family spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Wm. J. Hayes, mother of Mrs. Eldermiller.

The family of Mrs. Floy Buell as well as Mrs. Lucy Lyle were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon N. Starke Thanksgiving day. A fine dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. Lillian Muenchau has purchased one of the striking new Buick cars and B. I. Blements is driving a new 1939 Chevrolet, both of them very fine looking vehicles.

W. E. Maxfield, of Weeping Water, service man for the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, was doing some work on the lines of the company here one day last week.

Frank W. Lorenz and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson were guests at the home of friends in Council Bluffs Thanksgiving day, returning home that same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones of Omaha, accompanied by Mr. Jones' mother, who resides in Pasadena, California, but is visiting at the home of her son in Omaha, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene Sunday of last week.

Enjoyed Thanksgiving in Lincoln
Mary Talhurst, of Lincoln, was hostess on Thanksgiving day to a number of friends and relatives. A fine dinner was served. Those present included Donald Gonzales, who is attending the University of Nebraska, and his mother, Mrs. Emily Gonzales, of Elmwood, and Harry Talhurst, of Raymond. In the afternoon the entire group attended the football game at Memorial stadium and watched the Cornhuskers ring down the curtain on the 1938 football season.

They Played Contract Bridge
Members of the M. I. B. C. (More Intelligent Bridge club) gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rosenow Monday evening for a spirited session with the pasteboards, engaging in competition with members of the older club for supremacy. Again the old timers came out with the long end of the score and added to their lead for season's play, established in the first games. A delicious lunch was provided for both the winners and the losers.

Thanksgiving at Williams Home
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams and Mrs. Carl Schneider had as guests on Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reeder and twin babies of Plattsmouth; Miss Anna Williams, who is teaching at Brock and Carl Schneider of Lexington, where he is engaged in business. A splendid dinner was served and all enjoyed the family reunion.

Taken to Lincoln Hospital
Lorenz Albers, who resides west and south of Weeping Water, has been in poor health for some time and seemed to be getting in worse shape as time went on. He was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln where he could receive the benefits of expert medical attention.

Visited in the West
Dr. and Mrs. Meyers Totman departed last Tuesday morning for Scotia, Nebraska, being accompanied by Mrs. O. E. Liston. After a short visit there they proceeded on to Denver, where they left Mrs. Liston to spend Thanksgiving day with her son, James, at Evergreen, Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Totman went on to Pueblo, where they had Thanksgiving with friends.

Thanksgiving in Omaha
While Morris Penterman and wife looked after business at the Penterman store, the parents, Herman Penterman and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Penterman drove to Omaha on Thanksgiving day and visited first at the home of Harry White and later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lottis Meadows, of Benson. The two Omaha ladies are sisters of Messrs. Herman and Edward Penterman.

A fine dinner was enjoyed at the Meadows home and the party returned in time for Morris Penterman and wife to go to Lincoln for a portion of the day, being evening dinner guests there.

Called from the West
The Rev. Hawkins, pastor of the Christian church, accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins, departed last Monday for the western part of the state, where they were expecting to spend Thanksgiving day with relatives of Mrs. Hawkins. Mrs. Sylvia McLaughlin, an aged member of the congregation passed away, and the funeral was set for Wednesday afternoon, and a call sent out for Rev. Hawkins to come back and conduct the funeral service, which he did.

A more complete account of the death of Mrs. McLaughlin appears elsewhere in this issue of the Journal.

Child Bride a Mother
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 26 (UP)—A 14-year-old "child bride"—wife of a former mill worker now on relief—gave birth today to a 6 pound 6 ounce baby boy in a Johnstown hospital. Both the mother, Mrs. Lucy Moreno and the child were reported "doing nicely." The father is 33.

German Plane Crashes
BATHURST, West Africa, Nov. 26 (UP)—Eleven persons were burned to death today when a Junkers plane of the German Luftwaffe Airline crashed in the Bathurst airport.

The plane hit a palm tree in taking off. The plane was making a trial flight from Germany to Dakar.

Ran Nail Through Hand
Wayne Wessel, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessel ran a nail protruding from a board thru his hand when he fell while at play about the yard at the home east of Avoca. When the little fellow cried out, his mother ran to him and found the nail protruding from the back of his hand. She grasped the board and it required all the strength she could muster to pull the nail out. A doc-

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

Spent Thanksgiving at Adams
Accepting an invitation from relatives at Adams, Louis Carsten, Sr., Fred Carsten and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Carsten and Ted Ruhge drove to that place, where they enjoyed a very pleasant visit and a magnificent dinner on Thanksgiving day.

Sustains Broken Hip
Mrs. E. R. Straub, 68, while about her household duties, had the misfortune to slip and fall, sustaining a fractured hip. She had to be placed in a cast and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Visited in the West
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer departed early last week for Crete, at which place a daughter resides, and where they were guests at Thanksgiving dinner. Later they continued on to Franklin, where they spent the week end at the home of their son, who is a teacher in the schools. From Franklin they continued on to Bertrand, where they are now visiting friends.

GEISHA GIRLS STRIKE
TOKYO, Nov. 25 (UP)—Ninety Japanese geisha girls went on strike today. The girls picketed their quarters demanding higher wages and shorter hours for their work as tea house entertainers.

AVOCA NEWS

Elmer Hallstrom had county business to transact in Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser visited in Lincoln last Monday, having business matters to look after there.

Montie Lum visited in Omaha Sunday, returning home Monday by way of Lincoln, where he had business matters to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moreley, who reside at Nebraska City, were guests at the home of Ralph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moreley on Thanksgiving day.

Hilbert Nutzman, who has been working for the past several months near Dunbar, was home Thanksgiving day and enjoyed a fine visit with the home folks.

The A. Z. Thomas family of Shenandoah enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Grandfather W. H. Bogaard. Clyde Bogaard, of Otoe, was also present.

Dr. Brendel had three truck loads of cattle taken to Omaha Monday and Tuesday went in himself to see the cattle sold. He received a very fair price for the shipment.

Elmer Hennings and family were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of the mother of Mrs. Hennings, Mrs. John Gauer, where they enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner.

Fred Marquette, who has had some corn stored in his cribs, accumulated through various small purchases from time to time, had the same shelled Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Gollner, who is employed in Lincoln, was a guest at home over Sunday and returned to Avoca again for Thanksgiving day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barnes was made happy last Thursday when the stork brought them a fine baby daughter, who has been named Joan. She weighed eight and a quarter pounds on her arrival.

While Floy Mahr was driving a few miles south of Avoca, he had the misfortune to lose control of his car, which crashed into a bridge with the result that the car was damaged badly. It was fortunate indeed that the young man did not sustain serious injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maseman went to Lincoln last Sunday to visit Carl Maseman, a traveling salesman out of Lincoln, who has been seriously ill for some time. They found him improving and continued reports are that he is now well on the road to recovery.

Most Enjoyable Thanksgiving
Mr. and Mrs. Lois Schmidt had as guests at their Thanksgiving day dinner Postmaster Roy Goerthey and the children, which included Miss Geraldine, the beauty shop operator at Murdock.

Children Home Thursday
Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Richards had their children, with the exception of a son who is living in Portland, Oregon, at home Thanksgiving day and all enjoyed the feast that had been prepared for the occasion. Those present included Ralph Richards and family and Howard Richards, of Lincoln.

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

Sustains Broken Hip
Mrs. E. R. Straub, 68, while about her household duties, had the misfortune to slip and fall, sustaining a fractured hip. She had to be placed in a cast and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Visited in the West
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer departed early last week for Crete, at which place a daughter resides, and where they were guests at Thanksgiving dinner. Later they continued on to Franklin, where they spent the week end at the home of their son, who is a teacher in the schools. From Franklin they continued on to Bertrand, where they are now visiting friends.

GEISHA GIRLS STRIKE
TOKYO, Nov. 25 (UP)—Ninety Japanese geisha girls went on strike today. The girls picketed their quarters demanding higher wages and shorter hours for their work as tea house entertainers.

Ran Nail Through Hand
Wayne Wessel, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessel ran a nail protruding from a board thru his hand when he fell while at play about the yard at the home east of Avoca. When the little fellow cried out, his mother ran to him and found the nail protruding from the back of his hand. She grasped the board and it required all the strength she could muster to pull the nail out. A doc-

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

Sustains Broken Hip
Mrs. E. R. Straub, 68, while about her household duties, had the misfortune to slip and fall, sustaining a fractured hip. She had to be placed in a cast and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Visited in the West
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer departed early last week for Crete, at which place a daughter resides, and where they were guests at Thanksgiving dinner. Later they continued on to Franklin, where they spent the week end at the home of their son, who is a teacher in the schools. From Franklin they continued on to Bertrand, where they are now visiting friends.

GEISHA GIRLS STRIKE
TOKYO, Nov. 25 (UP)—Ninety Japanese geisha girls went on strike today. The girls picketed their quarters demanding higher wages and shorter hours for their work as tea house entertainers.

Ran Nail Through Hand
Wayne Wessel, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessel ran a nail protruding from a board thru his hand when he fell while at play about the yard at the home east of Avoca. When the little fellow cried out, his mother ran to him and found the nail protruding from the back of his hand. She grasped the board and it required all the strength she could muster to pull the nail out. A doc-

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

AVOCA NEWS

Elmer Hallstrom had county business to transact in Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser visited in Lincoln last Monday, having business matters to look after there.

Montie Lum visited in Omaha Sunday, returning home Monday by way of Lincoln, where he had business matters to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moreley, who reside at Nebraska City, were guests at the home of Ralph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moreley on Thanksgiving day.

Hilbert Nutzman, who has been working for the past several months near Dunbar, was home Thanksgiving day and enjoyed a fine visit with the home folks.

The A. Z. Thomas family of Shenandoah enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Grandfather W. H. Bogaard. Clyde Bogaard, of Otoe, was also present.

Dr. Brendel had three truck loads of cattle taken to Omaha Monday and Tuesday went in himself to see the cattle sold. He received a very fair price for the shipment.

Elmer Hennings and family were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of the mother of Mrs. Hennings, Mrs. John Gauer, where they enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner.

Fred Marquette, who has had some corn stored in his cribs, accumulated through various small purchases from time to time, had the same shelled Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Gollner, who is employed in Lincoln, was a guest at home over Sunday and returned to Avoca again for Thanksgiving day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barnes was made happy last Thursday when the stork brought them a fine baby daughter, who has been named Joan. She weighed eight and a quarter pounds on her arrival.

While Floy Mahr was driving a few miles south of Avoca, he had the misfortune to lose control of his car, which crashed into a bridge with the result that the car was damaged badly. It was fortunate indeed that the young man did not sustain serious injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maseman went to Lincoln last Sunday to visit Carl Maseman, a traveling salesman out of Lincoln, who has been seriously ill for some time. They found him improving and continued reports are that he is now well on the road to recovery.

Most Enjoyable Thanksgiving
Mr. and Mrs. Lois Schmidt had as guests at their Thanksgiving day dinner Postmaster Roy Goerthey and the children, which included Miss Geraldine, the beauty shop operator at Murdock.

Children Home Thursday
Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Richards had their children, with the exception of a son who is living in Portland, Oregon, at home Thanksgiving day and all enjoyed the feast that had been prepared for the occasion. Those present included Ralph Richards and family and Howard Richards, of Lincoln.

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

Sustains Broken Hip
Mrs. E. R. Straub, 68, while about her household duties, had the misfortune to slip and fall, sustaining a fractured hip. She had to be placed in a cast and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Visited in the West
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer departed early last week for Crete, at which place a daughter resides, and where they were guests at Thanksgiving dinner. Later they continued on to Franklin, where they spent the week end at the home of their son, who is a teacher in the schools. From Franklin they continued on to Bertrand, where they are now visiting friends.

GEISHA GIRLS STRIKE
TOKYO, Nov. 25 (UP)—Ninety Japanese geisha girls went on strike today. The girls picketed their quarters demanding higher wages and shorter hours for their work as tea house entertainers.

Ran Nail Through Hand
Wayne Wessel, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessel ran a nail protruding from a board thru his hand when he fell while at play about the yard at the home east of Avoca. When the little fellow cried out, his mother ran to him and found the nail protruding from the back of his hand. She grasped the board and it required all the strength she could muster to pull the nail out. A doc-

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.

Organize Young Peoples Club
The young people of the Avoca Congregational church, which includes the young married couples, were gathered last Sunday evening at the church, where they organized a Young Peoples club, elected officers and made other arrangements for their work during the coming winter.

Entertained for Thanksgiving
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained at their home in Avoca on Thanksgiving day. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marquardt, Fred Marquardt and family and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt.

Sustains Broken Hip
Mrs. E. R. Straub, 68, while about her household duties, had the misfortune to slip and fall, sustaining a fractured hip. She had to be placed in a cast and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Visited in the West
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer departed early last week for Crete, at which place a daughter resides, and where they were guests at Thanksgiving dinner. Later they continued on to Franklin, where they spent the week end at the home of their son, who is a teacher in the schools. From Franklin they continued on to Bertrand, where they are now visiting friends.

GEISHA GIRLS STRIKE
TOKYO, Nov. 25 (UP)—Ninety Japanese geisha girls went on strike today. The girls picketed their quarters demanding higher wages and shorter hours for their work as tea house entertainers.

Ran Nail Through Hand
Wayne Wessel, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessel ran a nail protruding from a board thru his hand when he fell while at play about the yard at the home east of Avoca. When the little fellow cried out, his mother ran to him and found the nail protruding from the back of his hand. She grasped the board and it required all the strength she could muster to pull the nail out. A doc-

Now Ready for the Snow
The snow fence is now all up and ready for the first snowstorm of the season. Each year there is an increasing amount of this to erect, as the roads must be kept open to accommodate our modern day mode of travel. It has taken the maintenance crew some time to get the fence up and ready.