Ad for Plattsmouth, Tues., Wednes., Nov. 29-30

W. H. M. S. Meeting—The Methodist Home Missionary society met this week at the home of Mrs. Albert Funk where a very interesting program was enjoyed and covering "New Horizons in Christian Social Relations."
 Mrs. J. C. Lawson had charge of the devotions.

There were six minute talks given by the members of the society on different phases of the theme of the program, "Christian Homes," by Mrs. Fred Howland, "Medical Service," Mrs. Val Burkel, "Christian Social Service" by Mrs. J. C. Lawson, "Woman's Missionary Service," Elizabeth Spangler, "Christian Education," Mrs. R. B. Hayes.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to add to the enjoyment of the members.

Celebrates Birthday—On Tuesday, November 22, Shirley Burcham celebrated her thirteenth birthday with a party, having seventeen girl friends present. The decorations, contests and games were carried out to correspond with the Thanksgiving holiday.

Delicious refreshments were served by Shirley's mother, assisted by Blossom Burcham. Those present were Donna Faye Mason, Leona Coolman, Donna Bee Seiver, Elinor Eaton, Charlotte Jaeger, Bonnie Walters, Betty Gundersly, Ruth Farmer, Millie Kozachik, Eileen Aaylor, Gladys Faye Rhoades, Marie Blake, Darlene Hackenberg, Catherine Kaffenberger and Dorothy Cappell.

Shirley received many nice gifts and well wishes, as well as the assurance that a fine time was had by all present.

Entertain Newlyweds—Mr. and Mrs. John Rice, Cedar Creek, entertained at their country home Thursday evening, Nov. 17th, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earney Newton, who were a recent fall bride and groom.

The evening was spent writing advice for the couple, making clothespin brides, and a spelling contest. Mrs. Margaret McClennahan was winner for the making of the best bride and Mrs. Evelyn Franke won in the spelling contest.

The hostess served a delicious lunch, being assisted by Mrs. Louis Hennings.

The evening was happily spent and everyone wished the bride and groom a happy married life. They received many very beautiful presents which will long be cherished.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long and daughter, Janice of Mynard; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Eager and infant son, Glenn Warren of Louisville; Mrs. Margaret McClennahan, Mrs. Elmer Taylor, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Richard Beverage and Margaret Taylor of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newton; Mrs. Franz Peterel and daughter, Vera Elaine; Mrs. Evelyn Franke, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Gene and Patricia Anne, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Meisinger, and son Albert, Mrs. Louis Hennings, Myrtle Hennings, Marilyn Jane Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Earney Newton and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Rice.

From Saturday's Daily—K. B. Club Meets—The K-B card club was entertained very pleasantly Friday evening at the home of Mrs. John F. Wolf, bridge serving to pass the time most delightfully. Mrs. H. A. Schneider was winner of high score, Mrs. R. W. Knorr second and Miss Laura Meisinger the third honors.

Entertain at Country Home—Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Barnard entertained at their pleasant country home near Mynard on Thanksgiving day for Mrs. W. H. Venner of this city, Mrs. William B. Porter of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tremble of near Mynard. A sumptuous dinner was served and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Honor Emil Ptak—Mrs. Emil Ptak entertained at a dinner party today in honor of her husband who is celebrating his 65th birthday today. The party was a surprise to Mr. Ptak. It was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ptak and Denny, A. W. Cloidt, Pat and Billie, and Miss Margaret Ann Valery.

VISIT AT HUMBOLDT
 Mrs. Beattie Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bourne, of this city with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansemer and family of Murray, have returned from a holiday visit near Humboldt at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bourne. They enjoyed the traditional Thanksgiving dinner together and had a very pleasant visit.

Death Comes to a Pioneer Elmwood Lady

Throughout Life, Mrs. Sophia McLaughlin Found Delight in Unselfish Service to Others.

Death came to Mrs. Sophia McLaughlin, a pioneer resident of Elmwood, last Monday evening, November 21, 1938. She was born March 4, 1855 near Topferis, New York, and was 83 years, 8 months and 17 days old. Her father was born in Bremen, Germany, and her mother in Hanover, Germany, but soon after their marriage came to the United States to establish their home.

When Mrs. McLaughlin was two years old her father died, and six years later her mother also passed away, leaving her an orphan at the tender age of eight. For a short time after the death of her mother, she was cared for by an aunt, and was then taken to a children's orphanage in New York City. When she was about twelve years old, in company with a car load of orphans, she was sent to Henry, Illinois, where she was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. James Hiosic, who gave her the same parental care and treatment as their own children. She attended school, Sunday school and church services with her foster sisters and brothers, having fortunately been adopted into a real Christian home.

She continued to make her home with her foster parents until her marriage on November 16, 1873, to Henry McLaughlin. They lived on a farm in that vicinity for seven years, coming to Nebraska in the spring of 1880 and locating on the farm now occupied by their son Leonard. For 21 years they resided on the farm, until the spring of 1901, when they retired from farm life and moved into Elmwood.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, one of whom, William, preceded his parents in death. Those surviving are Mrs. Anna Rogge, of Lincoln; Harry, of Lincoln; Leonard, of Elmwood, and Mrs. Minnie Creamer, of Waverly.

The husband and father passed away March 20, 1917. From early life on, Mrs. McLaughlin was a devout Christian. For many years she was a faithful and devoted member of the Church of Christ at Elmwood. The Sunday school class which she taught for years will miss her greatly, but, we feel sure, will remember her Christian teachings and be influenced to right living by them.

She was also a member of the Order of Eastern Star at Elmwood, which organization she served as chaplain for a quarter of a century.

As a neighbor and friend she was loyal in every way and could always be counted among the faithful in every time of need. She derived pleasure from being of service to others and oftentimes taxed her own strength and health to assist those in need or distress.

In her passing from the community, the memory of her unselfish Christian life will long linger in the hearts of those who knew and loved her best. She has fought a good fight; she has finished her course; she has kept the faith—and now goes to the rich reward she has so justly earned.

Besides the four children, there are left to cherish and revere her memory eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, three foster sisters, one foster brother and a host of friends.

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. B. BATES
 The funeral services of the late Mrs. T. B. Bates were held at the Brailley & Dorrance chapel in Omaha Thursday morning at 10:30, the impressive and simple rites being conducted by Dr. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church of this city, an old family friend, who brought words of comfort to the bereaved.

During the service the organist of the chapel played softly three of the old and loved hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with Me."

Dr. McClusky also conducted the rites at the grave in Oak Hill cemetery, the departed being laid to rest beside her husband who had preceded her in death seven years ago.

The pall bearers were selected from among the members of the immediate family, they being Jay Smith and Ned French, of Omaha; Guy French and Esten Acre, of Kansas City; Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ned and Mrs. Guy French, Mrs. Acre and Mrs. R. A. Bates accompanied the cortege from Omaha.

"SNOW-WHITE AND THE THIRTY DWARFS"

A very delightful and clever Thanksgiving program was presented by the kindergarten class of the Central school to about fifty parents and friends Wednesday forenoon at 10:45. The theme of the program was "Snow-White and the Thirty Dwarfs." Marilyn Bourck, master of ceremonies, asked the people to step on her magic carpet to take a trip to Fairyland where they were welcomed by the 30 dwarfs who performed individually in a very clever and interesting manner.

Those participating in the program were: Aileen Lawson, Dale Gray, Johnnie Glaze, Florence Reed, Bruce Dale Fleischman, Barbara Burke, Billie Kieck, Wayne Shryock, Curtis Winters, Richard Gopen, Ernest Schubeck, Donald Grassman, Patty Ann Mason, Lois Schroeder, Marie Bashus, Rita Fuiton, Howard Herrington, Ethel Grant, Raymond Graf, Betty Jean, Sander, Betty Howland, Vonetta Sloan, Lulu Yardley, Freddie Colyer, Allan Roehlf, Bobby Moore, Francis Dean Christensen, Stuart Spidel, Allen Parker, Barbara Jane Lamphar.

BASKETBALL IN-FULL SWING

Coach Hoffman started basketball in full force Monday night. About thirty boys reported. Only three regulars are back from last year's squad. Captain Hayes, Rebel, and Reed are the regulars returning. Jacobs, Smith, Wall are other members who were on last year's squad. Monday night practice was devoted to passing, shooting, offensive work, and a short scrimmage. The lineup had Rebel and Tidball at forward, Hayes center, Reed and Davis guard. On the defense, James Yelick and Martin forwards, Nobis center, Minor and Wall guards. Other boys reporting are Mauzy, White, Armstrong, B. Yelick, Neilson, Gayer, Hild, Brink, McClain, Slatinsky, Gradoville, Wohlfarth and several other boys.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ARBOR LODGE DISTRICT

The annual meeting of Arbor Lodge district, Boy Scouts, is to be held Tuesday evening, November 29, at Nebraska City, beginning with a 6:30 dinner at the Grand Hotel. Raymond Larson, Scoutmaster, and the entire Scout committee—E. H. Wescott, Elmer Webb, E. G. Ofe, Fred Lugsch and J. A. Capwell from this city expect to attend.

There will be discussions on such important subjects as Advancement, Finance, Activities, and New Ideas in Scouting. Also the annual election of a district chairman. Claude Wilson, president of the Cornhusker Council, of which Arbor Lodge district is a part, will speak.

RECEIVES HOLIDAY GREETING

Joseph F. Hadraba of the firm of Weyrich & Hadraba, received a very pleasant remembrance on Thanksgiving from his son, Ted Hadraba, a cablegram from Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he is a member of the staff of the American ministry.

The condition of affairs in central Europe with its uncertainty has made the message doubly welcome and with its assurance of the welfare of the relatives at Prague.

TARKIO WINS FROM PERU

The Tarkio Owls, on which team several Plattsmouth young men are members, Thanksgiving turned back the Peru State teachers team by the score of 9 to 0, in a touchdown and a field goal.

The Tarkio touchdown came in the first three minutes of the game when Schoonover, quarterback of the Owls, returned a Peru punt forty yards, then dashing off twenty yards to the touchdown.

In the final period of the game Tarkio drove to the Peru ten yard stripe four times but were held. In this period Hall of Tarkio place kicked from the Peru 17 yard marker for the score.

The game was the last with Tarkio for Kenneth Armstrong, all conference tackle and Stuart Porter, fullback, both of whom were in the game to the close and had a large part in checking the Peru offensive play.

Armstrong may enter the ranks of the professional football leagues at the close of his college work in the spring.

Joseph Case, local boy played at right halfback for Tarkio and Wayne Falk held a guard position for the Missourians in the game.

A number of the Plattsmouth fans were in attendance at the game.

MANY ATTEND DANCE

Friday evening County Attorney-elect Walter H. Smith and bride entertained their friends at a dancing party at the American Legion building which was attended by several hundred of the residents of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith returned Friday morning from their honeymoon in the east and are now at home in their residence at the Herold apartments.

The music for the dance was furnished by Peter Gradoville and orchestra and their delightful program of music was enjoyed until a late hour by the jolly party of dancers.

JOLLY WORKERS CLUB NOTES

On November 4th the club met at the home of Mrs. Emma Kaffenberger with all members present. After the business meeting the ladies played pinocle and high score went to Mrs. Fred Buechler and low to Mrs. Max Valley. This being the birthday of Mrs. Kaffenberger, each member presented her with a lovely towel. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Tuesday of last week the club met at the home of Mrs. Max Valley, at an all day quilting, with a delicious dinner served at noon. The ladies enjoyed the day very much.

RIVER CLOSING UP

The keen and cold days of the past week has had a tendency to start the annual freeze up of the Missouri river at this point. The slush ice that was flowing the first part of the week is now turning to heavier ice along the sides of the stream. The center where the current is stronger is still open but with continued cold will probably close up in a short time. The boats used in the river improvement work which are at the "harbor," have kept the river open at that point by their operations.

AT STETSON-OGLETHORPE GAME

The Trocette drill team, composed of 68 Lake Worth (Fla.) High School girls, will journey to Deland, Fla., on Saturday to be guests of Stetson University and take part in the parade that precedes the Stetson-Oglethorpe (Ga.) football game. The Trocettes have also been invited to march between halves of the game. Miss Marilyn Wilcox, formerly of Plattsmouth, Neb., is a member of the Corps.—Lake Worth (Florida) Leader.

RETURNS FROM WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Speck and son, Marion, returned Friday from Plainview, Nebraska, where they were in attendance at the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie, on Thanksgiving day.

VISIT WITH OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy James, of Rockwell City, Iowa, are here to enjoy a visit over the week end at the home of Ward Whelan, brother of Mrs. James.

RETURNS FROM KANSAS

S. S. Gooding, who has been visiting at Republic and Hadam, Kansas, has returned home to this city. He found it quite cold in his stay and much threat of snow, this causing him to cut short his visit.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

The committee responsible for the program at the high school Wednesday was composed of Stuart Sedlak, president of the student council, John Tidball, vice-president; and Norma Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

The program consisted of two vocal solos by John Jacobs "All Ashore" and "I've Got a Date With a Dream," his accompaniment being played by Ruth Westover. The second number was two accordion solos by Helen Slatinsky, "I Like to Dance" and "Cathedral in the Pines."

Allan White provided the next number on the program by rendering a trumpet solo, "Gypsy Love Call." Whipple Leonard played his accompaniment.

Rev. Lawson gave a very fine address to the student body in keeping with the Thanksgiving theme.

AVIATION OFFICER HERE

Oliver Johnstone, captain in the U. S. aviation corps, who has been stationed at Seattle, Washington, as instructor of cadets, was in the city for a short time Thanksgiving as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt and family. This cadet instruction is a new branch of the service and Captain Johnstone is leaving for Pensacola, Florida, where he will serve in a similar capacity.

Mr. Johnstone is a son of Marguerite Walters Johnstone, former resident of this city and has visited here frequently in the lifetime of his grandfather, the late Emil Walters.

He is a graduate of the University of Wyoming and has had special training in his work at the University of Southern California.

Thanksgiving Very Quiet Day in This City

Community Services Held Wednesday Evening and Day Largely Spent in Home Gatherings.

In observance of the Thanksgiving season, community union services were held on Wednesday night at the First Christian church where a fine congregation of the residents came to offer up their thanks for the blessings that the year had brought and for the sparing of the entire nation from many of the evils that have been found in other parts of the world.

Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the church, presided over the services and in which other ministers of the city participated.

Mrs. O. C. Hudson played the prelude as the congregation was seated for the service.

Rev. G. A. Pahl, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church, had the scripture reading and Dr. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church, the Thanksgiving prayer.

The choir gave the very beautiful and appropriate number, "The Lord Reigneth, Let the World Rejoice." The sermon was given by Rev. J. C. Lawson, pastor of the First Methodist church, who brought a strong message on the American's opportunity for thanksgiving, for the benefits that had come to us and which in a world of unrest offered real cause for Thanksgiving.
