

Nehawka

Herbie Kuntz was called to Murray and Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon to look after some business.

Ben Martin of Nebraska City, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday and was looking after some business matters.

Mrs. A. A. McReynolds and Miss Lanna McReynolds, postmistress of Nehawka were over to Omaha Monday of this week looking after some shopping.

Glen Rutledge of the Nehawka Enterprise was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday forenoon, called to look after some business matters at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son Kenneth were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens at Lorton, parents of Mrs. Anderson, where all enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner.

Miss Margaret Steffens, a sister of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson, who is a nurse in Chicago, has been spending the past two weeks at the home of relatives in Nehawka and as well at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of Lorton. She is soon to return to her work in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Palmer were host and hostess at their home in Nehawka last Thursday when they were entertaining for the day and a very fine dinner. They had as their guests James Dunbar and wife and their son and family, all of Auburn; Miss Edith Quinton, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and daughter of the late C. D. Quinton, who is teaching at McCook; Miss Ruth Palmer and also Quinton Palmer, both of Lincoln.

To Hard Surface 22 Miles.

The work of crushing rock at the quarries east of Weeping Water which has been in progress for many months is now completed and the crushing outfit has been moved to Nehawka where it is in charge of David Ebersole who will operate the plant here. The amount of rock to be used in the hard surfacing of the 22 miles of roadway will require some twelve months and will employ a number of men and also many haulers of stone to the roads to be improved. This should be of benefit to the merchants of Nehawka as well as to all the citizens.

Home From the East.

On election day just after he had voted, Stuart Rough stepped into his auto and departed for Iowa City where he was a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Dane and family. During the time Mr. Rough has enjoyed staying in Iowa and also the very fine visit with the family of his daughter there. He returned to Nehawka last Sunday and will remain here for a time.

Showing Some Improvement.

Frank M. Massie, 87, a resident of Cass county for the past eighty years, as he came here at the age of seven, and who has farmed during the intervening years was taken some two weeks ago with a severe attack of pneumonia which with his advanced years was a very severe drain on his strength. However with that characteristic which has sustained him in all the years, he was able to fight off the attack and come out the victor. During the past few days he has been showing good improvement and it is hoped that he will soon be well and about again.

Has Crucial Experience.

The little less than two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scuttler and granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton was not feeling the best and was placed in bed with a hot water bottle against her side. However, unknown to the parents, the water bottle leaked and the water was very hot. The child was badly burned and manifested the fact as the pain was great. When the parents noticed the burn that had been inflicted they in the middle of

Annual Dinner, Business Meeting and Election of Arbor Lodge District Last Night

Thirty-four Arbor Lodge district Scouters, including five from Plattsmouth, attended the annual dinner and business meeting at Nebraska City Tuesday evening.

The dinner was served at 6:45 in the private dining room of the Grand hotel. Following the dinner and a short session of group singing, reports were given on activities, advancement and publicity in the Arbor Lodge district during the past year. E. H. Wescott reported on the successful Camporee held at Camp Wheeler here in June, Rev. Walter Jackson reported on Courts of Honor and Elmer Webb reported on publicity. It was interesting to note that the Journal had given more inches of space to Scouting activities than any paper in the district, the figures compiled by a clipping bureau showing 215 (nearly eleven newspaper columns) for Plattsmouth, 156 at Nebraska City, 91 at Auburn, 30 at Talmage, 27 at Peru, 12 at Nehawka and 10 at Syracuse—all of which towns maintain one or more active troops. Plans to organize an Arbor Lodge Scout press bureau, with older scouts in the various troops as news reporters are being formulated for the coming year.

Carl Damast, finance chairman, stated that for the first time in several years he was able to report the per capita dues of Arbor Lodge district.

trict to the Cornhusker council for the year paid in full, and two towns in the district have already turned in their 1938 dues. Only The Arbor Lodge and one other district of the fourteen have achieved this.

Willis Elliott, of Lincoln, assistant executive, reported on the district membership, which is slightly below last year, due to dropping of three troops and transfer of one to Lincoln district, but an increase in the membership of those troops that remain active.

Plan Another Camporee Here

The meeting was adjourned for twenty minutes of group discussion, at the end of which the Scoutmasters group brought in a recommendation that this year's summer activity be another Camporee and that it be again held at Camp Wheeler here. Another recommendation was that the district give consideration to the establishment of a Cubbing program (for boys 9 to 12) during the coming year. The advancement group recommended that strict examinations be continued as the requisite for advancement and merit badges in the future as during the past year, to hold up the high standards set by the National organization.

Election of Officers

The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers, giving its unanimous approval to the report of the Nominations committee.

Bert Swalley was renominated as the district chairman. The four vice chairmen named are Dr. C. A. Lutgen of Auburn and E. H. Wescott, Plattsmouth (re-elected); F. L. Clements, of Peru, and Glen Rutledge, of Nehawka. Carl Damast, of Nebraska City was renominated finance chairman and promised backing to keep up the Arbor Lodge district's record for promptness of payment again this year.
