Large Number at Convention
Greenwood was well represented at the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary conventions in Plattsmouth last Wednesday. A total of nine Legionnaires and five Auxiliary members from here were present.

The Legion business session was held in the Bekins building and the Auxiliary ladies met in the auditorium of the Evangelical church.

The convention brought a large number of department officers of the two organizations to Plattsmouth, who appeared on the programs during the day. Mrs. Emma Nutzman, of Nehawka, district Auxiliary president, was re-elected. The seventh district president, Mrs. Marguerite Bosch, was among the guests.

A detailed account of the Legion convention was published in Thursday's Journal and the Auxiliary convention article is found in today's Semi-Weekly.

One of the features of the parade was the Greenwood canon (miniature size) which was behind the local post colors and followed by the entire Greenwood delegation. The army field piece of which this was a replica, made its last appearance in the county seat a number of years ago, when an extra heavy charge broke the windows out of the second and third stories of the Bekins building, in which the Legion held their meeting.

Separate banquets were enjoyed, followed by the dance. Greenwood Auxiliary had three of its members seated at the table reserved for salt and pepper club members. Carnations were presented to each lady attending the banquet and miniature salt and pepper shakers and crystal baskets went to the salt and pepper group.

Mrs. Mildred Comstock, of Greenwood, Cass county chairman, was awarded the trophy for best county membership in the district; Nebraska City won the history award and

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers Totmen, who were spending Thanksgiving day at Pueblo, Colorado, where they enjoyed a fine visit with relatives and friends, returned home last Sunday.

Charles Aldrich, who has been employed at Wichita, arrived in Elmwood last Saturday and will remain here for some time at the home of his mother, Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hodgins and Derrill and Andrew were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thimgan and family, enjoying a very fine dinner there.

The Christian church gave a very fine program last Saturday evening, and also conducted a bazaar during the afternoon. A neat sum was realized to carry on the work of the church.

Ted Brinton, who has been setting a lot of traps for the catching of fur bearing animals, while making the rounds of his traps a few days ago, sighted two coyotes which he was able to kill, thus adding considerable to his catch and revenue for the day.

Birth of Daughter
A new citizen has arrived in Elmwood and will make her home here, having engaged room and board at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Phillips. Baby and mother are doing nicely. The mother was formerly Miss Mary Brinton. At the home of Mr. Phillip's parents, Hiram Phillips and wife, of near Eagle, a baby daughter was also born last week. Thus they became parents and grandparents at about the same time.

Plan Nice Christmas Here
A move is on foot for the very best sort of celebration of Christmas, with treats and candies for the kiddies. With anything like the present good weather prevailing, the celebration could be held out doors and be a decided success. Included in the plans are appropriate street decorations, and the placing of trees at the intersections.

George Blessing, Jr., has had in hand the raising of funds for the treats and has made substantial success in his initial efforts.

Christmas is a season of the year when hearts should be gay and impulses liberal, so if you are asked to help out this good cause, do your part and feel happier for having done so.

Bridge Players Meet
Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schlichtemeier entertained a group of bridge players at their home last Monday evening, when a fine luncheon was served. Besides the host and hostess, those present included Messrs and Mesdames Orley Clemeff, Guy Clement, Bud Clement, J. Elmer Shreeve, Harry Linder, Emil Rosenow and Doan Stark. Mesdames Ronald Schlichtemeier and Orley Clement proved themselves the best players of the evening.

I. O. F. Elects Officers
The Independent Order of Odd Fellows at their meeting during the past week, elected officers for the coming term. Those selected were: Francis Backemeyer, Noble Grand; R. J. Miller, Vice Grand; Chris Backemeyer, recording secretary and Earl Elliott, treasurer. The appointive officers will be announced at the next regular meeting to be held in two weeks.

The Daughters of Rebekah also elected officers at this time.
