SOCIAL

From Friday's Daily—
Hold Christmas Party—
Mrs. Edgar Newton entertained the pinochle club at a Christmas party last evening. Miss Helen Smetana won the first prize and Mrs. Charles Waters won second. Mrs. Frank Horskak was a guest of the club. Christmas gifts were exchanged.

W. D. S. Club—
Regular meeting of the W. D. S. club was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Lancaster.
The afternoon was spent in piecing quilt blocks and playing bingo.
There was an exchange of Christmas gifts which was enjoyed by all.
At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Stitch and Nibble Club—
Miss Mary Swatek, hostess, and Mrs. Wm. Nelson, assistant hostess, last night at the Nelson home entertained fifteen members of the Stitch and Nibble club at the regular semi-monthly meeting which also served as a Christmas party. Each person brought a gift, which was hidden. After refreshments were served a toy Santa Claus handed out written clues enabling the members to find their gift.

Entertain Sewing Circle—
Miss Mildred Hall entertained the members of the Sewing Circle at a Christmas party last night at her home. The home had been decorated with a Christmas tree and other seasonal decorations. The circle has met with Miss Hall each December for the past three years for their Christmas party and this year it was also a farewell party. The evening was spent in playing games and gifts were exchanged. Delicious refreshments were served.

Delta Decks Christmas Dinner—
Mrs. L. W. Egenberger entertained the Delta Deck club at 6:30 last evening at a sumptuous Christmas dinner. Christmas carols were heard, throughout the serving, bringing the holiday spirit to the group. The home had been beautifully decorated in keeping with the season. The evening was spent in playing cards, prizes being won by Mrs. Henry McMaken of Omaha, first; Mrs. Frank Gobelman, second; Mrs. Lillian Livingston third.

Social Workers Flower Club—
The Social Flower club held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Donald Harris.
The Harris home was decorated for the Christmas season. The gifts were placed under a large Christmas tree to be delivered by Santa.
The club voted to hold two all day meetings, the first in January at the home of the president, Mrs. Spangler. After the meeting, Mrs. J. L. Stamp presented a fine program.
Mary Katherine Mumm gave a recitation; Marilyn Wurga a pantomime. A short play was given by some club members. In the contest Mrs. Martin won first prize and Mrs. Lepert second.
A delicious two course luncheon was served by the committee, Mrs.

Gilmore, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Kaffenberger.
Mrs. Newton Sullivan and baby and Miss Catherine Shinn were visitors.

M. E. Federation—
The Glensers circle of the Methodist Federation met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hayes. There were eighteen of the members present. The program consisted of a "Professor Quiz," with Mrs. William Baird asking questions from the Bible on Christmas. Miss Margaret Mapes received the prize for the most correctly answered questions, and Mrs. Hayes was second. Christmas gifts were exchanged by the members. The home was decorated in keeping with the season. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Dorcas circle members were entertained at the home of Mrs. H. B. Perry. Hostesses were Mrs. Pete Carr, Mrs. E. Sundstrom, Hermina Windham, Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. C. C. Westcott. Twenty-five ladies were present. Mrs. Carr presided. Mrs. James Rishel gave devotions and Mrs. J. C. Lowson read a Christmas
