

UNION ITEMS.

Roy Mullis and family were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Becker last Monday.

On Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Phil F. Rihn were in Plattsmouth, guests at the John Alwin home.

Mrs. Mollie Garrens departed last Monday for Kansas City where she will visit with relatives for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter were entertaining for Christmas and had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Keedy of Ashland.

Moss McCarroll and wife spent Christmas day at the home of relatives of Mrs. McCarroll at Lawrence, Kansas, returning home Monday.

Messrs. Grant and Schuyler Hackenberg of Mynard were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn Monday of this week.

Henry A. Chilcott and wife were dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Withrow, they being parents of Mrs. Withrow.

Frank Bauer and sister, Miss Anna were in South Omaha last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of Mrs. John Chase, a sister of Frank and Anna.

Thomas Chapman and wife, who are engaged in business at Lexington, Neb., were guests on Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitworth.

Henry H. Becker was hauling wood to Plattsmouth last Monday as was also Ray Becker, who is to move to the county seat the latter part of the week to take up his duties as register of deeds early in January.

Pat Roddy and wife of Beatrice spent Christmas day in Union as guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Roddy, where a number of other members of the family were also gathered to enjoy the day.

George A. Stites, wife and daughter, Miss Gwen, were in Avoca last Sunday, guests of Mrs. Edwin Terrell and husband. Mrs. Terrell is mother of Mr. Stites. They spent Christmas with the mother and husband.

A. J. Ross and Wife Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph J. Ross of east of Nehawka, were host and hostess at their country home Christmas day and had as guests Frank Martin and wife, Wm. Jorgensen and family, George Martin and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Martin, who with others, in all some twenty-seven were celebrating the occasion, enjoying an especially delightful Christmas dinner.

Entertain Friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard had a number of friends with them on Christmas day when they entertained with a very delightful day of visiting a fine Christmas dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hild of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hansen and family and Mesdames Henry Pollard, mother of George, Mrs. Henry Wolfe of Avoca, mother of Mrs. Pollard.

Visited with Father in South. Charles Land and family were down to Warrenburg, Mo., where he found the father feeling fairly well and while he would like to come back to Cass county for a visit he still prefers to remain where the weather is not so cold during the winter.

Passing Her Natal Day. Mrs. W. A. Taylor was passing her birthday anniversary last Monday and was receiving congratulations and enjoying a fine dinner tendered by her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Hoback and daughter, Miss Marjorie, at which the entire family of the daughter were present. Mrs. Hoback and daughter baked a very fine cake which was served at the dinner, and it was excellent as the writer can testify. Their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hathaway also provided a nice cake and as well provided a list of delicious catables which in themselves would make a complete dinner and which was also augmented by a list of good things provided by Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn.

Passed Eighty and Three. W. L. Hoback last Friday rounded out 83 years and is feeling pretty well thank you. He is enjoying fair health and loves to meet his friends. In the summer he loves to meander down along the riverside and try his hand at fishing.

Meets Severe Accident. While tapping a tree, sawing off a large limb, Garrett Taylor was knocked from the tree, falling some 20 feet, lighting on his feet, but with too much shock the limb of the tree following him crushing him to the ground. He is at the hospital where he is receiving treatment and it is feared there will have to be a plate placed in the shoulder to keep it in place during the healing process.

Improving Nicely Now. Mrs. Elmer Withrow who has been at the St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City for some time but who returned home last week, has been showing good improvement since her return home which is very encouraging and it is expected she will soon be well again.

Mrs. C. E. Withrow Not So Well. Elmer Withrow was over to Palmyra last Sunday, Christmas, going to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Withrow and specially his mother, who has been very sick and is still seriously ill.

Found Patient Improving. Roy Becker, accompanied by his mother were in Omaha Monday to visit Mrs. Roy Becker who has been at the hospital since the birth of her babies, and very seriously ill. She is now showing good improvement.

Home From Hospital. H. W. Griffin, who has been in poor health for many months, was taken with a severe attack of appendicitis some weeks ago and was taken to an Omaha hospital where he underwent an operation. He was able to return home last Friday and has continued to improve. His many friends are pleased at his rapid recovery.

At A. L. Becker's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker had as their guests the entire family last Sunday, Christmas, where a very fine dinner was served. Those present were Henry H. Becker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoback, John Becker and wife of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker, Roy Becker, Otto Ehler and family and Mary Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Banning Entertain. Christmas day was a glad some at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning at Alvo when they entertained the other members of the Banning family. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning of Union, their son, Hallis of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters of Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Banning and son Lucean and Miss Pearl Banning, all of Union.

Spends Christmas in Iowa. Mrs. Thomas Murtey was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Vera Loslaka of Shelby, Iowa, going over about 10 days ago and returning last Monday evening. Mrs. Murtey enjoyed a very fine visit and was happy to meet her granddaughter Anna who has been making her home in Chicago where she is overseer of two fraternity apartment houses who was visiting at the home of her parents and was there at the same time as Mrs. Murtey and also enjoyed meeting her granddaughter, Dorothy who was also home from school. The weather report which told of the temperature going to be 20 degrees below zero, caused Mrs. Murtey to return home sooner than she had intended and then the sun came out and the weather settled down.

Mrs. Annie Nelson Passes. Mrs. Chris Nelson has not been in her usual health for some time past was taken suddenly ill last Friday and hurried to the Bryan Memorial hospital where the seriousness of the case seemed to warrant an immediate operation from which the patient passed away last Monday morning at 4:10 a. m. The remains were brought to Weeping Water by the Hobson funeral home and the funeral held at that place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The funeral was held at the Congregational church of which the deceased was a member for many years. Burial was at Oakwood cemetery, conducted by Rev. Hunt, pastor of the church. The husband preceded the wife in death about ten years ago. There remains to mourn the passing, the mother and two sons Milton and Talma, who farm the place and Miss Ella, who also co-operates with the brothers in their farming operation.

PERFECT MOBILIZATION PLANS. TOKYO, Dec. 28 (UP)—The National Mobilization Council today approved six drastic imperial ordinances, invoking additional sections of the mobilization law.

Under the ordinances the council may control wages and working hours, restrict dividends and profits and requisition factories, lands and commodities for war purposes.

FIRE AT INTERNATIONAL FALLS. INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn., Dec. 28 (UP)—More than 100 persons were forced into 20 below zero temperatures here early today when one of the worst fires in the city's history destroyed two hotels, two bar rooms and two cafes. No lives were lost but property damage was estimated at nearly $100,000. Numerous persons were treated at hospitals for exposure but physicians said no one was injured seriously.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

Mrs. Jack Bolz of Weeping Water and their grandson, Ralph Binger, of Lincoln, Monday, which was considered a semi-holiday, the above friends were guests at the home of G. R. Binger.

Work Waiting on Material. The work on the new community building for which the excavation has been completed in Weeping Water is being delayed on account of the inability to secure the needed material for the work on the foundation. Workmen employed on the building are very anxious to work as the unforeseen unemployment is making it hard on them during this severe weather.

Hold Christmas Exercises. At the Congregational church last Thursday was held a very novel and interesting program for the Christmas season. One feature was the chorus of more than 50 voices. The first Christmas was very ably presented and those who had gathered to enjoy the program were more than pleased at the way the program was presented.

Mrs. Mary Dunsire Entertains. Mrs. Mary Dunsire was hostess to a number of her friends at her home Christmas day and had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. George Clizbe, Mr. and Mrs. John Wishart, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Henderson, Miss Maude Mullens and Frank Bailey. The guests all enjoyed the fine evening and excellent supper which was served.

Four Generations Celebrate. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer J. Marshall on Christmas day they entertained relatives, their parents and as well their son and wife and grandson. There were there for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marshall of Douglas, parents of Spencer Marshall and as well Nissley Marshall and wife and their little son, making four generations present.

Spends Christmas in Iowa. Mrs. Thomas Murtey was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Vera Loslaka of Shelby, Iowa, going over about 10 days ago and returning last Monday evening. Mrs. Murtey enjoyed a very fine visit and was happy to meet her granddaughter Anna who has been making her home in Chicago where she is overseer of two fraternity apartment houses who was visiting at the home of her parents and was there at the same time as Mrs. Murtey and also enjoyed meeting her granddaughter, Dorothy who was also home from school. The weather report which told of the temperature going to be 20 degrees below zero, caused Mrs. Murtey to return home sooner than she had intended and then the sun came out and the weather settled down.

Mrs. Annie Nelson Passes. Mrs. Chris Nelson has not been in her usual health for some time past was taken suddenly ill last Friday and hurried to the Bryan Memorial hospital where the seriousness of the case seemed to warrant an immediate operation from which the patient passed away last Monday morning at 4:10 a. m. The remains were brought to Weeping Water by the Hobson funeral home and the funeral held at that place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The funeral was held at the Congregational church of which the deceased was a member for many years. Burial was at Oakwood cemetery, conducted by Rev. Hunt, pastor of the church. The husband preceded the wife in death about ten years ago. There remains to mourn the passing, the mother and two sons Milton and Talma, who farm the place and Miss Ella, who also co-operates with the brothers in their farming operation.

PERFECT MOBILIZATION PLANS. TOKYO, Dec. 28 (UP)—The National Mobilization Council today approved six drastic imperial ordinances, invoking additional sections of the mobilization law.

Under the ordinances the council may control wages and working hours, restrict dividends and profits and requisition factories, lands and commodities for war purposes.

FIRE AT INTERNATIONAL FALLS. INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn., Dec. 28 (UP)—More than 100 persons were forced into 20 below zero temperatures here early today when one of the worst fires in the city's history destroyed two hotels, two bar rooms and two cafes. No lives were lost but property damage was estimated at nearly $100,000. Numerous persons were treated at hospitals for exposure but physicians said no one was injured seriously.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

NEHAW

Stuart Chappell was Granville Heebner had Monday.

Marvin Edmonds was visiting here for some time return to his studies at school at Faribault, Minn., January.

Last Thursday Mesdames Kruger and Lyle Kruger of Plattsmouth looking after some things and also visited with Harry and Mary Kruger just before they departed for Oklahoma and Texas for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bucholtz of Syracuse entertained at their home on Christmas day and had as guests Lyle Kruger and wife of Nehawka, Fred Geade and family of Nebraska City, Harry Bucholtz and family of Unadilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Sturm entertained at their home last Sunday when they had as guests the Yeiser family of Omaha as well as Victor Sturm, Suzanne Yeiser, who has been visiting her grandparents, returned home with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Drennen entertained a number of friends for the day and dinner last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Sutton and the kiddies, Frank Kruger and family. They had an extra large turkey to grace the center of the table.

Stuart Rough departed Monday morning for Los Angeles where he will stay for some six weeks and enjoy the milder climate on the coast after which he will continue on to a point in Texas. At Los Angeles he will visit a son and in Texas will visit with a daughter.

Miss Ruth Palmer who is teaching, is home for a time, it being her vacation and as well Quinton, her brother, who is attending school at Lincoln, also is home with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Palmer. The mother is quite ill and during the vacation is being nursed by the daughter.

American Legion is Santa Claus. The American Legion gave a very worthwhile Christmas program at the Nehawka Auditorium when they also had a Christmas treat and Santa Claus which provided treats for the kiddies and also to many of the grownups.

Thomas James Bobbitt. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bobbitt were blessed last Friday, December 23rd by the arrival at their home, a son who has been named in honor of the father. All are getting along nicely. It being difficult to secure a nurse, the kindly neighbors came in and supplied the want.

Verner Lundberg's Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Verner Lundberg entertained at their home last Sunday, Christmas, when they had the members of the family as guests for the day and a fine dinner. Those present were the parents of Verner, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lundberg and Mrs. Anna Harshman, mother of Mrs. Lundberg and daughter, Miss Ella Harshman as well as Roy Harshman and wife and Harold Dodson and family.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at the United Brethren church, Rev. Small united in marriage Miss June Peck and Mr. Marion LaFollette, the latter of Weeping Water. This church building was built fifty-two years ago, and has been used for church services and for Bible school, for the meeting of the different societies of the church and many other purposes, but this is the first marriage ceremony which was performed in it. It is nice though waiting for fifty-two years that this sacred ceremony was performed the church. The church is located five miles north of Nehawka and the same pastor ministers to the church in town.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Christmas at Lorton. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained Christmas day. Their son J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family went to enjoy the occasion and also meet other members of the family.

At Gilbert Edmonds Home. Christmas was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds as there were many of the relatives of this estimable family present and enjoying the family gathering. Marvin Edmonds, brother of Gilbert whose home is at Faribault, Minn., where he is a student at Shattuck military school with his lady friend, Miss Ida Fern Hallstrom were among the guests, also Ivy King of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Edmonds of Nehawka. The day was greatly enjoyed and a fine dinner was served.

Very Pretty Church Wedding. Last Sunday following the morning services at