

City Council Holds Regular Meet Tuesday

Reports of Officers for the Month Received and Number of Matters Discussed.

From Wednesday's Daily—The city council held its regular session last evening with all of the members present, Councilman Tiekotter being home from his holiday visit to join in the deliberations of the session.

The meeting being the first in January was largely occupied with the reports of the various city officers. City Treasurer Brown reported that there was $15,928.24 on hand in the Plattsmouth State bank at the close of the month of December. City Clerk Albert Olson reported that $299.57 had been collected in his office in the past month. Chief of Police W. M. Barclay reported five arrests and fines and costs of $13.25 for the month. Police Judge Graves also filed his weekly reports, for the week of December 29th one arrest and fines and costs of $13.25 and for the week of January 5th, one arrest and fines and costs of $5.

A communication was received from Acting Postmaster R. J. Larson stating that the extension of the rural free delivery routes would make it necessary to have streets widened out some to make Maiden Lane a part of the route of the carriers. This was referred to the streets, alleys and bridges committee.

A communication had been received from W. M. Wheelen, of Hastings, assistant secretary of the Nebraska Public Power district, in which he informed the city of the intention to buy the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., properties. He assured the cities that they would suffer no tax loss by the sale of the private utilities to the power districts. This was placed on file, the council having had a session with the power district officials on Monday night at Lincoln.

A communication was received from F. S. Pollard, of the tax department of the C. B. & Q. railroad, asking that $194.32 in taxes be refunded the railroad as illegally levied against the railroad property.

Mayor George Lushinsky, reporting for the board of health, stated that William Thorburn had been moved from the Monroe building under a court order and that his property had been stored in the old Perkins hotel building for safekeeping. The chief of the fire department reported one fire, that at the home of David Robinson on Lincoln avenue, where the garage and car had been burned up.

Councilman W. C. Tippens reported that the street workers had been cleaning leaves out of watercourses and tiling and also fixing up the streets for the winter season and that at this time the dirt streets were in very good shape.

Councilman Schultz, chairman of the fire and water committee, called on Henry Jasper, acting chief of the fire department, who stated that the department was considering the formation of a rural fire district near the city where the department could prepare to aid in the fighting of fires. Mayor Lushinsky asked that the department send their committee or present the same in writing to the council so that they could get together on the proposition.

Chairman Comstock of the lighting committee reported that he had been very much impressed with the conference at Lincoln Monday night with the power district representatives and believed that it would be worked out very satisfactorily. He thought the rate scale would be arranged satisfactorily and the district officials had seemed willing to preserve all of the rights held by cities at present as regarded utilities.

Councilman Webb of the finance committee, who is a member of the legislative committee of the League of Municipalities to prepare a bill for submission to the state legislature, expressed confidence in the result of the meeting. He also praised the work of Varro E. Tyler of Nebraska City, who had been one of the leading figures at the conference and watching closely the interests of the cities. Mr. Webb looked for a great deal of good derived from a meeting of the committee to be held on January 22nd at Lincoln.

Mayor Lushinsky reported that Chief of Police W. M. Barclay, who had been off duty for a short time would probably be back on the job soon. In his absence Officer Herbert Johnson has been covering the day work.

C. E. Markham of the local WPA office was present and gave a short report of the activities on the Chicago avenue sewer project. There has been 200 feet completed and the work moving on at the rate of twenty feet a day now. The drag line at the quarry had completed the contracted work but it would probably be needed for a day and a half or two days yet to uncover the rock needed. Mr. Markham was of the opinion that the expenses would become less as the sewer moved on southward.

ACADEMY EXHIBITS GORILLA, BELIEVED LARGEST KILLED
PHILADELPHIA (UP)—A group containing the largest gorilla ever shot has been placed in the African Hall of the Academy of Natural Sciences here.

The display shows the huge 550-pound anthropoid ape standing erect, with two smaller gorillas beside him, one a baby in a nest. The scene represents a jungle spot in French Equatorial Africa.

The group was collected and presented to the Academy of Natural Sciences by George Vanderbilt of New York.

Visited at Old School Town.
Sunday being a nice day Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and daughter took a ride in the country, and as the day was fine and the going pleasant they drove to Nebraska City and then continued on south until they arrived at Peru where the doctor went to school some twenty years ago and looked over the town and while it was still the same place in appearance it seemed greatly changed which made places hard to recognize.

The Attorney, Not the Doctor.
Dr. Mrs. Ashly Smith of Omaha was not the party who died last week but Ashly Smith, the husband of Dr. Smith, Dr. Smith being a lady practitioner and Ashly Smith her husband. The party who died was a practicing attorney of Omaha.

Heir Arrives at Union.
The mail on the rural route was

Murray

Mrs. A. G. Cisney was spending the week-end visiting at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Watson at Lincoln.

Herman Reike of between Union and Murray was looking after business in Murray last Friday and also visiting his many friends.

Victor Wherbein was in Platts-mouth last Thursday visiting at the home of C. R. Troop who has been in very poor health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray-Creamer were in Weeping Water last Thursday where they were looking after some business matters as well as visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frizel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reike making their home near Weeping Water were in Murray last Monday morning, stopping to see their family doctor, R. W. Tyson as they were on their way to Omaha.

George Lopp, who has been without sufficient water for some time past, and has been compelled to haul water from Nehawka has during the past few days been working on the digging of a well and has been assisted by E. J. Kruger.

Oscar Gopen of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray last Monday visiting his many friends here where he resided many years near Murray and is acquainted with everyone in this vicinity. He with the wife are making their home in Plattsmouth at this time.

Last Sunday eighty-one were in attendance at the Bible school of the Murray Christian church. This is a very neat increase in the regular attendance. All are interested in the work of the Bible school and by this token the school is progressing very nicely.

Victor Wehrbein last week moved from the Boedeker place some four miles west of Murray to a place owned by R. W. Knorr where he will farm in the future. The fodder which he had cut was hauled to the new home by Tommy Troop and E. J. Kruger the first of this week.

While Mrs. W. O. Troop was about her housework and was rendering lard after they had dressed a few hogs, she slipped and in falling the jar caught the fingers of one of her hands, inflicting a severe cut, which compelled the lady to have the wounded member bound up.

Municipal Well Completed.
The new well for the water supply for the water system of Murray was completed early this week at the home of Frank Mrasek and which promises an abundant supply of water for all uses for the city in any emergency. Ten test wells were sunk before one was obtained which would supply the needs. The water witches were invoked and the well sunk within less than a foot of the place designated by J. A. Scotten and on line which John Urish located, which ran some distance then diverted in a different direction. Both gentlemen were right and the well was at the intersection of where they said the water would be and so it was.

The test will be made and then it will be absolutely known the strength of the well. However all are pretty well pleased now that there is plenty of water as for some time the water has been very scarce.

Visited at Wehrbein Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gorder and daughter, Mary Catherine were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein last Sunday as was also the family of W. O. Troop which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop and sons, Tommy and George and the two daughters of George, Annette and Phyllis, also Mrs. Nelle Wehrbein and friend, Mr. Crawford of Omaha.

carried by the substitute carrier Monday of this week, but during the afternoon last Sunday the telephone of the postmaster rang and when it was answered a cheery voice with a laugh in it, said: "Have Harry Albin carry the mail, for a brand new baby boy has come to our home with the little man and his mother getting along nicely." The voice was that of Eugene Roddy, the regular carrier.

Very Pretty Home Wedding.

At the home of the father of the bride, John A. Davis, his daughter, Miss Marie Davis was united in marriage with Mr. Marlon Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles.

The young people are two of the very fine young people of this portion of the county. They will for the present make their home with the father of the bride, J. A. Davis. The wedding occurred Thursday of last week. The Journal joins in extending hearty congratulations and well wishes for the newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. Shrader Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Nickles where they enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mr. Shrader, who has been very sick with an attack of the flu is reported as being entirely well at this time. Messrs. and Messdames J. D. Kelsey and Myron Ruse of Shenandoah, Iowa, were also present at the gathering.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, January 15th

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Peter Sees Christ's Glory"
Matt. 17:1-18; II Pet. 1:16-18.

This lesson is one of the high spots in the life of Christ. The significance is apparent to the student; here is the Christ in his glory on a mountain; six months later on Mt. Olivet—in Gethsemane in his deep agony; for it was in the garden where man fell, it is in a garden where the redeemer paid the price for man's disobedience. As to time and place, not much need to be said; three evangelists testify to the facts, and that is sufficient. Part of eight days have passed since Peter's great confession, which took place near Caesarea Philippi; going south towards Galilee, the company comes to Mount Herman, where Jesus left nine disciples, but takes Peter, James and John and ascends the mountain.

It is night—Jesus spent many nights alone with his father in prayer on mountains. Why did Jesus select these three disciples? The law required two or three witnesses to testify to the facts in a case; Jesus gives no reason for the selection, but they are unimpeachable, so he has them with him in the home of Jairus to be witness of his power over death; here to be witnesses to his glory; later, in Gethsemane to be witnesses to his greatest agony and suffering. It is night—Jesus prayed—the disciples fall asleep; night is the time for sleep. While communing with his Father, the glory from within shines through flesh, it was not a reflected glory, like Moses', who had been forty days in the presence of God—we need not speculate how Jesus was transfigured—he was clothed with flesh, in the form of man, the Word was made flesh—the incarnation. John says, "We beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the father." (John 1:14). So have many saints reflected the glory of God while in prayer. Think of Stephen (Acts 6:15). It is still night! Jesus in his glory is ready to receive his heavenly visitors, Moses, the representative of the law; Elias, the representative of the prophets; Christ, the end of law and prophecy. A convocation is held regarding the redemptive work of Christ. It is a very solemn hour, it is the hour of consecration of Christ for his suffering and death—the fulfillment of law and prophecy. Moses, who had been buried on Mount Pisgah by the hand of God; Elias, for whom a chariot was sent from heaven to bring him home.

The three disciples are aroused and open their eyes, seeing Moses and Elias. Peter suggests to prolong the meeting, and build tabernacles for Jesus and the visitors; at this moment a cloud appears and takes Moses and Elias up, and as the disciples look for them, they see no one save Jesus.

But the Father testifies—this is the second time: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear him!" "God hath spoken in these last days unto us by his son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things." (Heb. 1:2). Never could these disciples forget these scenes. The healing of the only son of a pleading father is the next event—from a mountain top experience into the depths of human misery. So is off the lives of God's children. Jesus went through the same experiences as his children. But when we fall in the crisis of life—like the disciples—"Jesus never fails;" He is always near to lend a helping hand when Peter, walking on the water, begins to sink. Here the glory and power of Jesus was manifest, the enemies routed, God glorified and a great victory won. Well may the Christian shout and sing:

"Just when I need him, Jesus is near,
Just when I falter, just when I fear;
Ready to help me, ready to cheer
Just when I need him most."

Thirty years later Peter recalls the transfiguration when he writes his Epistles to the church, scattered throughout "Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia Bithynia . . . regarding his Gospel . . . we were eyewitnesses of his majesty . . . when we were with him in the holy mount" etc. This letter was written to encourage the Christians, that the gospel he had preached was not made up of cunning fables about Jesus Christ as were the fables or myths about the Greek and Roman gods, Zens, Juno, Apollo, Jupiter, Jove, Aphrodite—who never existed; but Jesus lived among men and his miracles and teaching were known to many, and, he proved himself to be what he claimed to be, the Son of God, the Redeemer of man.

The Christian will some day experience transfiguration. (II Cor. 3:18; I John 3:2). This change or transformation begins here and now. (Rom. 12:12). It is the working out of the indwelling Christ, not completed in this life, but when he appears, we will be like him, and so be ever with the Lord.
