ORGANIZE NEW TEAMS

One of the most popular innovations of the public plea has been the introduction of basketball for boys who are not on the regular team. This basketball has been arranged for by the Plattsmouth high school in order to provide physical training and competitive sport for boys who are not on the regular basketball team.

Thursday afternoon was the first practice and twenty-five boys turned out for the initial contest. It is the intention of the men of the faculty to divide the club into teams and form a regular league in order to provide this physical attention for the boys who are not able to play first team competition.

PUNCH AND GRUNT—London, England—This was part of the action when "Bombardier" Billy Wells (right), one-time British heavyweight boxing champion, and the all-in wrestler Chick Knight met in the ring recently. The 51-year-old boxer was permitted to punch, but the wrestler was not allowed to hit back.

RADIO VETERAN'S SUCCESS STORY—Radio personalities come and go and are soon forgotten, but the Voice of Experience's amazingly consistent growth in popularity continues to astonish the radio fraternity. It was over one station that the Voice took to the airways in 1922; now heard over 87 stations, he will soon be heard over one hundred stations in the U.S. and Canada, the largest network to ever carry a program of this kind. A tribute indeed to — "radio's best-known veterans of the crystal set days" — remember?

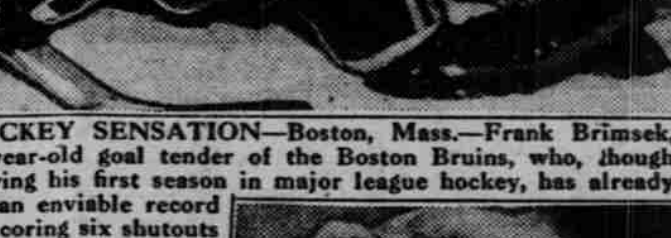

ONE OF HOLLYWOOD'S CHOSEN—Sheila Darcy, of York, Pa., who was chosen by Hollywood as one of its ten leading beauties.

WORLD'S SMALLEST—After 32 years of breeding down from a standard Plymouth Barred Rock hen, weighing 8 pounds, Arnold E. Dibley, of Van Nuys, Calif. has produced this world's smallest Plymouth Barred Rock hen, now two years old, and weighing only 10 ounces.

This American society girl has forsaken social activities and sailed for Europe "to lead her own male band at Monte Carlo's famous 'Sporting Club.' She is Miss Louise McNamara, of New York, daughter of James F. McNamara, industrial executive. Composer and singer of note, she writes her own orchestrations and has assumed the professional name of Louise Duke.

HOCKEY SENSATION—Boston, Mass.—Frank Brimsek, 23-year-old goal tender of the Boston Bruins, who, though playing his first season in major league hockey, has already set an enviable record by scoring six shutouts in seven games.

BEAUTY AND HER BEAST—Judith Barrett, the Venus from Venus, Tex. and her wire-haired terrier, Pat, are inseparable companions. Even when she goes swimming, the dog takes a dip too.

FASHION NOTE—(1) Colorful flowers and veils deck this formal evening hat, worn with cian draped gown of turquoise blue silk crepe. (2) A Scotch plaid hat and bag of pure silk in red, white and blue, enlivens the all black outfit. The hat is banded with black grosgrain.
