

Funeral of Francis McGinn at Cheyenne

Member of U. S. Army at Fort Francis Warren, Wyo.—Brother of Mrs. F. R. Molak.

Funeral services for the late Francis T. McGinn, 26, who passed away suddenly Thursday, January 12, were held on Saturday morning, January 14 at 10 o'clock at the Catholic cathedral in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Despite the blizzard-like weather that raged in Cheyenne that day, a large group of close associates, friends and neighbors gathered at the cathedral to pay their last tribute of love and respect to one who was called to his reward just at the beginning of life, his death coming as a severe blow to the members of the family.

The beautiful and impressive requiem high mass of the church was celebrated by Rev. Father Nealy, pastor, and who also delivered the sermon. The cathedral choir also assisted Father Nealy in the mass.

Following the services at the church, the body was borne to its last resting place in the Fort Francis Warren cemetery in Cheyenne.

Francis T. McGinn, son of Mr. Thomas McGinn, was born in Omaha, Nebr., December 5, 1912 and where the early part of his life had been spent among the friends of childhood days. He received his education in Omaha and in 1930 he departed for Cheyenne, Wyoming where he joined the forces of the United States, enlisting in the headquarters of company L of the First Wyoming Infantry. Mr. McGinn has served as sergeant in the army post for the past several years, and which position he held at the time of his death. While in Cheyenne, Mr. McGinn was united in marriage to Miss Bodill Stenberg five years ago, and since their marriage the couple had lived in Cheyenne.

Mr. McGinn was ill only a short time, suffering from a streptococcus infection of the throat which caused his death.

There is left to mourn the sudden passing of this young man the beloved wife, Bodill and a daughter, Patricia Ann aged 3 1/2 years. There is also the aged father, Thomas McGinn; three brothers, William, Leo and Gerald, all of Omaha; one sister, Mrs. Frank Molak of this city as well as a large number of friends and relatives.

His mother, Mrs. Thomas McGinn preceded the son in death twelve years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Molak returned Sunday, January 15 from Cheyenne where they attended the funeral of Mr. McGinn.

Dr. and Mrs. Molak have had the unfortunate circumstance of having three members of their family circle pass away during the past two weeks. Mrs. Molak's grandmother, Mrs. Anna McGinn, passed away at Dunlap, Iowa January 5; Francis T. McGinn, January 12; and Mrs. Molak's grandfather, P. W. McGinn passed away at the family home in Dunlap, Iowa at 1:30 p. m. Sunday.

Funeral services for the grandfather were held this morning at 9 o'clock at the St. Joseph's Catholic church at Dunlap, Iowa. Interment was at Dunlap.

Dr. and Mrs. Molak were at Dunlap to attend the funeral this morning.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Caroline Neitzel

Held at the C. C. Cotner Home on South Sixth Street Where She Has Made Her Home.

The funeral services of Mrs. Caroline Neitzel was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cotner on South Sixth street and where she has been making her home.

A large group of the old friends and neighbors were present to attend the services and pay their last tributes to the memory of this aged resident of the community.

Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, had charge of the service and conducted the last rites of the church for the departed member. He gave a sketch of the life of Mrs. Neitzel and paid tribute to her long and useful life. During the services the choir of the St. Paul's Evangelical church gave two of the old hymns that had been favorites of the departed in her lifetime.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery with the Horton funeral home in charge and the pall bearers were old friends and members of the St. Paul's church: Henry Born, Andrew Kroehler, Louis Born, Louis Friedrich, Frank Parkening, J. E. Meisinger.

The funeral services were attended by a number of the old friends and neighbors and among these were Mrs. J. R. Shelley, Mrs. Will Meyers, Mrs. A. Birch, Pete Tesson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schneider, of Preston, Nebraska; Lloyd Neitzel and wife, and Mildred Schmelezel, of Lincoln; Laverne Glaze, wife and son, of McCook, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glaze and two daughters of Fairbury, Nebraska.

Caroline Barbara Wheeler, daughter of Casper Wheeler and Eliza Wheeler, was born on February 2, 1849, at Troy, New York. She was baptized in her infancy and later confirmed in the Roman Catholic church. With her parents she moved to Chicago, Illinois, where on December 5, 1868 she was married to John Neitzel. After her marriage she affiliated with the German Lutheran church of which her husband was a member.

Their marriage was blessed with thirteen children, five of whom died in infancy and one, Mrs. Anna Harpster, died in 1909 at the age of twenty-six years. The surviving children are Mrs. Catherine Glaze of this city; Joseph Neitzel of Fairbury; Louis Neitzel, Omaha, George Neitzel, Lyons; John Neitzel, Omaha; Mrs. Carrie Schmeisel, Humboldt; Mrs. Ida Cotner of this city.

In 1869 a year after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Neitzel removed to Argo, Nebraska, where they resided until in 1883 when they moved to Preston, Nebraska, where they made their home until in 1924 when they came to Plattsmouth to spend their declining years with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cotner. Her husband preceded her in death on September 8, 1926. On January 8, 1939, she received a stroke and from which she died on Sunday, January 15th at the age of eighty-nine years, eleven months and thirteen days.

That is just the place where too many Christians (?) are to be found today; they have their names on the church rolls, but are far away from Christ; they are never in a prayer meeting, seldom in Sunday school or the regular services. They have taken a journey into a "far country." But John finds Peter and gets him within sight of Jesus—but Peter has not the courage to take a stand beside Jesus. So are many content to sit with the enemies of Christ and warm themselves by their fires, join in their jokes and ridicule of the church and the Christ—and feel at home.

But trouble is on the way for Peter. The woman who had admitted him takes a good look at him, recognizes Peter and says: "This man was with him." Where is courageous Peter? See him squirm and get uneasy. At last he blurts out: "Woman, I know him not." After a little while a man saw him and said: "Thou also art one of them." But Peter grew bolder and said: "Man, I am not." An hour later, while the trial of Jesus goes on, another man says: "This man was with him... he is a Galilean." This man was a friend of Malchus, whose ear Peter had cut off and Jesus restored (the last act of mercy of Jesus). This is too much for Peter; he throws all restraint aside, begins to curse and swear that he does not know Jesus. Is it possible that a man can fall so low? Peter, who had been with Jesus off and on for three years, seeing what he did, hearing what he said, and in six hours deny it all. Many are doing the same today—even crucifying Christ anew. The trial in the priests' palace is over; Jesus is condemned by them to die; he is led away to Pontius Pilate, and at the moment of the third denial the cook crew and Jesus caught the eye of Peter. There was no bitterness or disappointment in that look—but tenderness and love—that look said: "Peter, I warned you, but don't despair nor lose faith; I have prayed for thee, take courage, all will end well."

That brought Peter to his senses; tears of penitence roll over his face—three long days in agony and contrition and the Easter morning brings him the glad news of his forgiveness by Jesus... who told the women at the sepulchre by an angel: "Go your way and tell his disciples and Peter." So deals God with penitent souls. Peter is saved from his fall; what a blessed assurance!

Seek Solution of Taxes on the Hydro Holdings

Taxation of Properties Bought by Power Districts to be Subject of a State Meeting.

LINCOLN, Jan. 18 (UP)—Attorneys representing the public power districts and members of the executive board and legislative committee of the League of Nebraska Municipalities will meet here Sunday and Monday to prepare two power bills for introduction in the legislature.

C. A. Sorensen, attorney for rural power districts said one of the bills would propose submission of a constitutional amendment at the 1940 election. The amendment would subject to taxation properties of private power companies which are purchased by the districts. The constitution now forbids taxation of state and governmental subdivisions if the districts fall within the latter classification.

The bill would exempt from taxation, however, the original properties of the public and rural power districts. "We believe such property is exempt," Sorensen said, "because it's constructed with the property funds of government subdivisions."

The second bill would permit directors of the hydro-electric districts to pay taxes on their acquired property until the amendment is adopted.

Work on the Missouri is Now 70% Complete

Navigation in This Section of River Is Seen by 1940, According to Engineer's Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (UP)—Work of making the Missouri river navigable between Kansas City and Omaha is 70 per cent complete and navigation will be possible on this stretch of the river by the spring of 1940, according to a report of the chief of army engineers today.

The report, made by Maj. Gen. J. L. Schley, chief of army engineers, recommended to the committee studying rivers and harbors appropriations, that a total of $17,000,000 may profitably be spent on the Missouri river this year. Included in this amount would be $7,750,000 new money for the river between Kansas City and Sioux City.

The sum of $8,250,000 is needed for completion of the vast hydroelectric, navigation and flood control project at Fort Peck, Schley said. Fort Peck is essential, he said, to stabilize the flow of the lower river.

Gen. Schley asked for a total expenditure of $351,255,700 for new river, harbor and flood control projects during the 1940 fiscal year and $51,738,210 for maintenance costs. For the Mississippi river and its tributaries, $50,000,000 was asked.

Between Kansas City and St. Louis Missouri river work is 89 per cent complete and between Omaha and Sioux City 43 per cent complete, the report said. If funds are available the river will be navigable to Sioux City by 1941. It has long been navigated from Kansas City to its mouth.

As far north as Rulo, near Falls City navigation is now possible except in periods of extremely low water, it was stated, but considerable work must be done between Rulo and Quindaro Bend.

"Between Rulo and Omaha," the report said, "the major portion of controlling works are in place. Early success in overcoming five remaining troublesome areas will insure through navigation to Omaha by the spring of 1940. A special effort is being made to expedite completion of this section and to that end dredges and draglines are being used to the maximum as an aid to fulfilling project width, depth and alignment."

"Above Omaha limited funds prevent rapid development. Work in this section is being withheld in order that sufficient funds will be available for completion of that portion below Omaha."

The report points out that terminal facilities considered adequate for present needs already have been constructed at Plattsmouth, Neb., and Leavenworth, Kan.

During the year 206 dikes totaling 222,365 linear feet have been completed and there are under construction 105 more of 155,413 linear feet, the report said. Snagging operations resulted in removal of 335 snags, removing of 2,477 trees from river banks and clearing of 149 acres of brush.

The report stated that $7,750,000 in addition to the unexpended balance can profitably be expended in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940.

Work of protecting the town of Niobrara, Neb., from floods for which $130,000 was appropriated in 1936 has been completed at a total cost of $99,696, the report said.

The engineers also reported completion of work on Indian creek in Council Bluffs, Ia., at a total cost of $1,468,388. The improved channel is designed to discharge 6,000 cubic feet per second which corresponds to the high water mark in the disastrous flood of 1881.
