

MANLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoback visited friends at Union over the week end.

John Bergman was looking after business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday and visited friends while there.

Mrs. Catherine Earhardt was visiting for a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Miller, of Louisville.

George Rau has been spending a few weeks at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, enjoying a rest and vacation for his health.

Mrs. Fred Bauer, who has been sick for the past three weeks with an attack of flu, is reported as being some better.

Herman Bergman has been confined to his home the past few weeks with an attack of quinsy, but is now recovering from the same.

Mrs. Theo Harms, who has been sick for the past three weeks with an attack of flu, is reported as some better and able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien were in Omaha several days at the bedside of Mrs. O'Brien's mother, the late Mrs. Frank Stander, and later attending the funeral which was held there.

Miss Leona Darveaux, housekeeper at the St. John's parsonage in Plattsmouth, was a guest at the home of Fred Bauers, Jr., who has been ill the past three weeks, and was seeking to minister to the patient.

A number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. John Rohrdanz called at her home Monday last week to surprise her on her birthday, and spend a very pleasant evening. Mrs. Rohrdanz received a number of gifts in honor of the occasion.

Entertained Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Hansen entertained a group of friends Saturday evening of last week at supper and a pinoche party. These present included Mr. and Mrs. Carter Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were united in marriage on January 15, 1914—twenty-five years ago—and have made their home near Manley during the entire quarter of a century of their wedded life. On the occasion of their anniversary last Sunday, they were guests at the home of Miss Anna Rauth of Omaha. The intention was to also have celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of her nephew, John Rauth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rauth, of near York, but due to illness the A. F. Rauth family were not able to be present. Included among those who enjoyed the day together were Miss Rena Christensen, of Omaha, a sister of Mrs. Rauth, Mrs. Boyd Reese and Mrs. Emma Simmons of Iowa Falls, Iowa, sisters of Mr. Rauth's mother. A most enjoyable day was spent and a fine wedding dinner served by the hostess, Miss Anna Rauth, with the guests of honor being showered with congratulations and best wishes for many more happy years of wedded bliss.

Remembered on Birthday

Mrs. E. M. Ruby enjoyed the passing of her birthday on January 15, and in the evening a number of friends came to help make the occasion a merry one. All enjoyed themselves and extended to Mrs. Ruby best wishes for many years of happiness and good health. Three days later, on January 18, Mr. and Mrs. Ruby arrived at their fortieth wedding anniversary, but concluded to wait another ten years when they reach their fiftieth anniversary before celebrating the occasion.

Dinner Club Supper at Rauth's

The Dinner club, which has as its members a number of families of this vicinity, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth on last Monday evening, when they played pinoche and enjoyed a splendid supper. Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haws, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dowler, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Weseman. The high scores went to Mrs. Bergman and Ralph Keckler.

Visited Friends Here

Miss Margaret Murphy of Omaha was spending a few days in the vicinity of Manley, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy, where all enjoyed a splendid time. Last Saturday they took Miss Margaret home, all being anxious to go, as a little nephew, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence

O'Brien, who was born January 6, was waiting to greet them. The mother was formerly Miss Anna Murphy of Manley.

Attended Funeral in Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rauth, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth, Father Hennessy and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rau, of Manley, and August Pautsch of Louisville were at Omaha on Friday, where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Stander, wife of Frank A. Stander and a sister of John C. Rauth. Besides those named, a large number of others from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mrs. Stander.

Having Dead Trees Removed

A number of large trees that for many years have graced the yard at the August Krecklow home, were unable to stand the prolonged drouth of the past few years and died. So Mr. Krecklow had John Gruber pull them out with his tractor last Wednesday. In the spring Mr. Krecklow will set out a grove of Chinese elm to replace them.

Wabash News

John Cardwell has disposed of his old car and acquired a late model Chevrolet.

John Sherman, of Louisville, was a business visitor in Wabash during the past week.

Kensington Ladies Meet

The Manley Kensington which has as members a goodly number of the ladies of this vicinity, met last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dorr. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in looking after the affairs of the society and in planning some work for the future.

Stone Business is Good

Ole Olsen, the stone merchant of Weeping Water, has just completed the shipment of some 500 tons of crushed rock to Scottsbluff, where it is to be used in the beet sugar factory during the process of refining sugar. He also has a contract to deliver 500 car loads of stone to Gibson, where it will be used in the Missouri river improvement program. Such orders as this help to give volume demands when the season opens up in the spring. Cass county's rock quarries have become one of the important industries and give employment to many men.

Entertains E. L. C. E.

Miss Geraldine Schmidt, of Murdock, where she conducts a beauty shop, was hostess to the E. L. C. E. of the Murdock church, which is a young ladies society, entertaining them at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmidt, who reside in this vicinity. Games and various other entertainment were featured and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess before the hour of departure.

JOLLY NEIGHBOR CLUB

The January meeting of the Jolly Neighbors club was most delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Knaupe. The lesson of the day was "Facts in Early Nebraska History Which Every Nebraskan Should Know" and proved most interesting under the clever handling of the leader, Mrs. August Wendt. The next lesson will be in the hands of Miss Esther Leutschens, February 8 at the home of Mrs. Henry Schlueter with Mrs. Wm. Von Spreckelson assisting hostess. Mrs. Howard McBride served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting.—Reporter.

AGED DOG LEAVES HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21 (UP)—Chessie, a Chesapeake Bay retriever, had been in Henry Lovell's home so long the family believed he knew what they were talking about most of the time.

They forgot about that, however, last night when at the dinner table, with Chessie sitting nearby awaiting a scrap or two, they talked about disposing of him.

He was 14—a ripe old age for a dog—and feeble and his muscles were stiffening, they said, so it would seem the most merciful thing to have a veterinary destroy him painlessly. After a time, Chessie rose, took a long glance at his master, and left the house. He has not returned.

Winter Flower Show is Much Appreciated

Many Attend Event at the Public Library Auditorium With a Large Number Showing.

The second annual winter flower and weed show, sponsored by the Plattsmouth Garden club, was held Wednesday and Thursday, January 18 and 19 in the Plattsmouth public library auditorium. The flower show was an event that was attended by a large group of the residents, including a large group of children, to witness the many various displays. Five states, sending in different contributions, were represented, they being Kansas, Idaho, Oregon, California and Texas, as well as a number of nearby cities who also sent in contributions.

One of the most outstanding contributions was the Obsidian feldspar rock sent to Miss Minnie Guthmann from her nephew, Francis Nitzel of Idaho. The rock was procured from near Yellowstone Park.

One of the most unique and interesting displays was the display of hats that were seen. The hats were formed out of fruit, vegetables, and various other odds and ends which certainly made an unusually good display.

One of the classes that showed the greatest amount of attraction was Class 8, School and Junior Department of which Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., chairman, and Mrs. Clement T. Woster were in charge. This was the contribution of the Plattsmouth public schools who sent down miniature gardens and indoor aquariums. The thought of having their treasured school work on display attracted many students and their parents.

The shadow boxes, which have proven to be a popular event of this time, were also on display and the following contributed shadow boxes: Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mrs. Carl Ofe, Mrs. Luke Wiles, Miss Julia Svoboda, Mrs. William Schmidtman of this city; Mrs. Fred Grousman, and Mrs. Murray of Omaha.

A display commonly known as the "Texan display" included a number of articles that came from Texas and one that was donated by Mrs. George K. Hetrick.

The following are the entries that were on display and those that were responsible for the exhibit:

Class 1—Christmas wreath and sprays. Miss Barbara Gering, chairman; Miss Gering, Mrs. Carl Ofe.

Class 2—Basket or dish arrangement of any flowers, plants, or fruits or any combination as a Christmas or sick gift. A small decoration suitable for invalid's tray. Mrs. Pete Carr, chairman; Mrs. L. S. Devoe, Mrs. J. C. Lawson.

Class 3—Arrangement for a Christmas table or buffet centerpiece. Table arrangement for other purpose or occasion.

Class 4—Arrangement of any seeds, pods, berries or other material suitable for a living room.

Class 5—Arrangement suitable for other purposes. Mrs. L. L. Wiles, chairman; Mrs. J. H. McMaken, Jr., Mrs. Harry Kruger.

Class 6—Tray or dish gardens suitable for living room. Dish garden with growing plants. Terrian-Janus, Mrs. E. H. Wescott, chairman; Mrs. J. M. Roberts.

Class 7—Arrangement of specimen of gourds, pinecones, Romona strings, etc. Mrs. Lillian Freeman, chairman.

Class 8—School and Junior Department. Mrs. William H. Schmidtman, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Clement T. Woster.

Class 9—Pantry, garden, head-gears or hats. Mrs. A. J. Trilety, chairman; Mrs. G. K. Hetrick.

Class 10—Collection of seeds, pods, berries and other material suitable for winter house decoration varieties names. Miss Julia Svoboda, chairman; Miss Anna Heisel.

Class 11—Window Gardens. Mrs. J. W. Crabill, chairman; Mrs. J. E. Wiles, Mrs. William Baird.

Class 12—Display of vases. Mrs. John Woest, chairman.

Class 13—Specimen house plants. Mrs. Augusta Haupt, chairman.

Class 14—Bird-nests, feeding trays, bird houses, etc. Litchens, wasp nests, novelties, etc. Mrs. P. T. Heineman, chairman.

Class 15—Conservation display. A. L. Tidd, chairman.

Class 16—Specimen of the different kinds of trees, evergreens and shrubs, all varieties named for identification. Julius Pitz, chairman; Frank Karvanek, Stephen Devoe, Fred Heisel, A. L. Tidd.

Class 17—Wall pockets. Miss Dora Fricke, chairman.

Class 18—Shadow boxes.

The flower show was one that showed much enthusiasm among the great flower and nature lovers of the community. The committees and their various chairmen as well as the Plattsmouth Garden club are to be complimented on the splendid work and effort that they put forth in affording the people of this community the opportunity of seeing a real winter flower and weed show.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

The first meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary for the year 1939 was held at the Legion hall Wednesday, January 18. Business matters were taken care of in the usual procedure. Mrs. Lorena Van Camp, of Waverly, a new member, was present and welcomed to the unit. To date our membership is nineteen, within two of our 1939 quota. Mrs. Collins, unit president, gave a talk on "Legislation," stressing the fact that the Auxiliary is behind the five-point program as outlined by the American Legion, namely: Protection for World War widows and orphans. Adequate national defense. Universal service. Employment for veterans. Strengthening of immigration, naturalization and deportation laws of the United States. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Downing. Mrs. Gribble will be hostess at the February meeting.

Birthday Party

A birthday party was given in honor of De Lores Meyers and Charlotte Bachman at the Meyers home Wednesday evening.
