 Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Arn, Misses Laura Mrasek and Beatrice Arn, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Arn, and the guest of honor, Miss Twila Fay Hendrix.

Gate Reception Last Night—
 At the Methodist church at Plainview, Neb., last evening was held a very pleasant farewell for Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Glock, parents of Miss Dorothy Glock, teacher in the Platts-mouth public schools. Mr. and Mrs. Glock have made their home in Plainview for seventeen years where Mr. Glock has been station agent for the Burlington. They have been sincere workers in the Methodist church and Bible school and other church auxiliaries. The church there has as its pastor Rev. B. N. Kunkel, former pastor at Union. A very appropriate program was enjoyed but it was with regret that they saw the friends depart. Mr. and Mrs. Glock, who have received a promotion are moving to Havelock where they take charge of the Burlington station with the beginning of the coming week. Mrs. Glock is daughter of W. P. Cook of this city.

Farewell for Stone Family—
 Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sullivan entertained a number of friends last evening in honor of the J. Marion Stone family of Nehawka, who are to leave in the near future for Aurora, Nebraska.

Card playing was the chosen amusement during the evening and Bernard Klingner and Mrs. Ralph Gansamer won the high prize, while Mrs. Donald Born and Stanley Harris won the consolation prizes.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the card games.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gansamer, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Born, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Klingner, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sullivan and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marion Stone.

Altar Society Circles—
 The Altar society circles of the St. John's Catholic church met for their regular business sessions at the various places of meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

Circle 1 met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Webb where a business and social meeting was held. A large number of the ladies were present for the first meeting of 1939. Election of officers was the main feature of the afternoon and Mrs. Francis Toman was chosen president; Miss Marie Fitzgerald, vice-president; Mrs. Elmer Bennett, secretary; and Mrs. Elmer Webb, treasurer. Bingo was played during the afternoon and prizes were awarded each winner.

Refreshments were served to all present immediately following the meeting by the hostess, Mrs. Elmer Webb assisted by the co-hostesses Mrs. Oscar Sandin and Mrs. Baltz Meisinger.

Circle 2 assembled at the church clubrooms where an important discussion of business was held. Election of officers was held and the following ladies were selected as officers for the year of 1939: President, Mrs. Everett Elliott; vice-president, Mrs. George Downs; secretary, Mrs. Lucille Chandler; and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Smith. Plans and arrangements for a benefit food show to be held in February were completed.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Bierl, Mrs. Donald Harris, and Mrs. Alois Bierl.

Mrs. James Nowacek entertained Circle 3 at her home on Locust street. A large group of the ladies were present at the business and social meeting of the afternoon. The usual custom of the election of officers was carried out and the following women were chosen to head the group: Mrs. Maria Halth, president; Mrs. Cyril Kalina, vice-president; Mrs. John M. Meisinger, secretary; Mrs. Raymond Halth, and Mrs. James Nowacek.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John M. Meisinger, Mrs. Raymond Halth, and Mrs. James Nowacek.

To Attend Banquet—
 Mrs. Lora Lloyd Kieck, county superintendent of schools, with Mrs. H. L. Gayer, are to visit at Omaha this evening to attend the banquet of the Alpha Xi Delta Greek letter sorority. The local ladies were members of the sorority at the University of Nebraska. The banquet is given by the Omaha alumni at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Greene, 727 North 58th street.

Presbyterian Circles Meet—
 The circles of the Women's Federation of the First Presbyterian church met on Wednesday afternoon at the homes of members of the several groups where a large attendance was reported at each and most interesting programs offered. The circles all had their always interesting missionary lessons as a part of the program of the day. The hostesses of the circles had arranged very delightful refreshments for the social portion of the afternoon.

Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. John F. Wolff, who was assisted by Mrs.

Lewis Reinacke and Mrs. Mable Thimjahn in the entertaining.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. R. W. Knorr on high school hill with Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom and Miss Helen Franke as the associate hostesses of the afternoon. Miss Caroline Baird gave the missionary lesson and Mrs. Knorr and Mrs. L. S. Devoe two very delightful piano numbers.

Mrs. Henry F. Goos was the hostess for circle No. 3 and had as her associates Mrs. William Schmidtmann, Sr., and Mrs. John Sander. The ladies had the pleasure of having as a guest Mrs. Nellie Agnew of Omaha, formerly a member of the local church, with Mrs. Henry Herold and Mrs. Oliver C. Dovey.

Circle No. 4 was entertained at the pleasant home of Mrs. W. A. Robertson with Mrs. T. E. Olson as associate hostess. The members had as a social feature of the afternoon Mrs. Virgil Perry in a review of the talk of Dr. C. W. Welch, moderator of the general assembly, given in Omaha on Tuesday evening.

Circle No. 5 met with Mrs. Searl Davis, Mrs. Almeda Fleming and Mrs. O. C. Hudson being the associate hostesses. Mrs. George Lushinsky, chairman of the group gave a very interesting report. Mrs. L. O. Minor, who had attended the synodical conference in Omaha as well as the meeting addressed by Dr. C. W. Welch, moderator, gave most interesting reviews of these important Presbyterian meetings.

From Friday's Daily—
Afternoon Bridge Club—
 Mrs. John A. Donelan entertained the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club at her apartment at the Coronado yesterday afternoon.

Sharpnacks Entertain—
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack entertained a number of close friends at a six o'clock dinner at their home Wednesday evening.

Following the dinner, the group indulged in several games of pinochle and the winners of the evening were Bernard Meisinger and Mrs. Richard Beverage.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perkins of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack.

K. B. Club—
 The K. B. club met at the home of Mrs. Mollie Gobelman last evening. Two guests, Mrs. Lowell Devoe and Mrs. Frank Mullen were present.

The prizes of the evening were awarded to Mrs. Lowell S. Devoe, who won first prize; Mrs. John F. Wolff, second prize; and Mrs. Emil Ptak, the traveling prize.

Refreshments were then served by the hostess. All had an enjoyable time.

Stitch and Nibble Club—
 The Stitch and Nibble club met at the home of Miss Rose Janda last evening. An enjoyable evening was spent in stitching and nibbling by the young women.

At an appropriate hour refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Rose Janda assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Janda.

The next meeting will be with Miss Anna Knieke on Thursday evening, February 2.

Honor Miss Hendrix—
 Miss Laura Mrasek entertained at a handkerchief shower at her home last evening in honor of Miss Twila Fay Hendrix, who, with her aunt, is leaving for California soon. A large group of the young people were present at the farewell gathering.

The evening was spent in playing bingo and the awards of the evening went to Misses Margaret Ann Valley, Phyllis Hennings, and Twila Fay Hendrix.

Following the games, refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Laura Mrasek, assisted by her sister, Miss Margaret Mrasek.

Those present were: Misses Veda Capps, Shirley Selver, Margaret Ann Valley, Beatrice Arn, Laura Mrasek, Margaret Mrasek, Marlyne Hennings, Phyllis Hennings, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hennings, Mr. and Mrs. William Lindner and children, Mary Ann and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mrasek, and the guest of honor, Miss Twila Fay Hendrix and Mrs. Thomas Kriskey.

M. E. Circles Meet—
 The Dorcas circle of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. C. Jahrig, there being a very large attendance. The afternoon was taken up with a short business meeting and later a delightful program was rendered. Mrs. Robert Patton had charge of the devotionals.

Following the business session the program consisting of musical selections and group singing was heard. The group all sang old-time songs which are still favorites of the memory book. The singing was led by Mrs. Frank Barkus, Mrs. L. S. Devoe being the accompanist. David Fowler, music director of the Platts-mouth high school, was present and played several violin selections, Mrs. Devoe acting as the accompanist again.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Jahrig assisted by her daughters, Miss Fern Jahrig and Mrs. Henry Woeter.

The Gleaners circle met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Hallstrom on 823 Rock street where a general business discussion was held. Mrs. R. B. Hayes had charge of the devotionals, they being in the form of a questionnaire on Bible characters.

Refreshments were served immediately following the meeting by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. James Mauzy.

The Naomi circle met at the church with Mrs. Minnie Lillie and Mrs. Frances Allbee as hostesses. Mrs. V. T. Arn was in charge of the devotionals which preceded the business meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Wiles presented a very interesting talk on the "Marys of the Bible," which was very inspiring.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

From Saturday's Daily—
Carmen's Party—

The BREX Carmen's union and their families met for a social gathering at the Eagles hall last evening. A large number were in attendance and a good time was had by all.

The evening was spent in playing bingo and pinochle. The bingo prize was awarded to Perry Minnear, the pinochle award to Kenneth Farris, and the prize of the evening was won by Elmer Lohnes.

Following the games, refreshments were served cafeteria style. A good deal of credit and thanks is due the business men of Platts-mouth who donated a large number of articles for the occasion.

The following merchants contributed articles for the good of the cause: Knorr's variety store, Bestor & Swatek, Mauzy Drug Co., Carl's Market, Hinz meat market, Carr's bakery, George Conis, Warga hardware store and H. M. Soennichsen.

The committee responsible for the affair were: Fred Vincent, Edward Kohrell, Clarence Price, C. O. Carlburg, and V. E. Handley.

VISITS WITH SICK

From Thursday's Daily—
 Miss Helen Warner was in Omaha today where she was at the St. Joseph hospital during the surgical operation on her niece, Mrs. Arthur Blunt.

LOCAL BOYS SHOW CLASS

Among the entries in the amateur boxing tournament at Council Bluffs, Ia., next Wednesday night, Jan. 25, are two Platts-mouth lads. Three boys from here had entered, but an injury to "Tink" Wiles' shoulder will prevent him from entering the welter or 147 pound class.

The two, now in earnest training for the event are Elmer Newton, in the 160 pound, middleweight, class and Donald McBride in the 112 pound, flyweight division. The two "no money" scrappers are working diligently under the direction of Kid Graves, former world's welterweight champion. The ex-champion professional scrapper puts the Platts-mouth entrants through a stiff course of sprints and reports the lads are in first class shape and the spectators will know there has been a scrap when these two boys get in the ring and their opponents will know they've had one, when its over.

The winners of the Council Bluffs tournament will be entered in their respective classes in the finish of the Golden Gloves tournament in Omaha in February. Graves predicts that the two Platts-mouth lads will be among the Golden Gloves entries.

DIES IN CALIFORNIA

From Friday's Daily—
 The members of the Graves family in this community received word today of the death of Mrs. Mayme Lowry, 58, who passed away on January 17th at her home in Oakland, California. Mrs. Lowry has been in failing health for the past few years.
