

ALVO

February 3rd marked the seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hiers. Friends extend congratulations.

Now is the time to renew your subscription to the Semi-Weekly Weekly Journal. Money may be sent direct or given to this correspondent.

Meeting Postponed

Due to the illness of Mrs. Earl Keller during the past week, she was unable to entertain the Mothers' and Daughters' Council club members as previously arranged and the club meeting has been postponed till a later date.

Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Frank Taylor's birthday occurred Monday and that evening she had the pleasure of celebrating the occasion with a group of friends who came up from Weeping Water to participate in an evening of games and visiting.

and a half, sold his farm northeast of town Saturday. Until moving to town to be close to his grocery business, the Jordan family had resided on their farm continuously from the time of their marriage.

The farm was sold to Joe Parsell. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Howe have been residing on the place the past year.

Quite Ill

Joe Armstrong, who has not been in the best of health for the past few years, has been quite ill this week. Mr. Armstrong has been confined to his bed and relatives are much concerned over his condition.

Friends hope that in a very short time, Mr. Armstrong will be about again.

PTA Meeting Wednesday

Wednesday evening, February 8, at 7:30 o'clock at the school auditorium, the P. T. A. will hold its regular February meeting, which is scheduled one week earlier than the usual meeting date.

Dr. Werner from the State University Extension department will address the association.

Dr. Werner has been a guest speaker at Alvo some time ago and was greatly appreciated and enjoyed, so there is no doubt but what he will be equally as well enjoyed upon his second appearance.

The committee is trying hard to secure some very special music in addition to the address.

Everyone is invited to be at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening, February 8.

Entertains Aid Society

Members and several guests of the Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Coppel Wednesday afternoon for their regular February meeting.

A very large crowd was present to enjoy a most profitable and pleasant afternoon.

The devotions were in charge of Mrs. Mark Nickel.

The president, Mrs. Talbert, presided over the business meeting. Mesdames Albert Swanson, Frank Edwards and Hardnock were assistant hostesses.

Some of the guests present were: Mesdames Paul B. Johnson, Clyde Johnson and Raymond Bornemeier.

Entertains Club

Mrs. Mabel Winn most delightfully entertained the Mothers' and Daughters' Council club at her home Friday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Carl Sutton was to have been hostess, but due to Mrs. Sutton moving, Mrs. Winn entertained.

A large crowd was present and the ladies greatly enjoyed the lesson prepared by Mrs. Earl Bennett on "Protecting Our Teeth."

After the regular lesson, the letters from away were continued and members who had not previously read their letters did so at the close of the lesson.

A delicious hot lunch was served at the close of the afternoon's activities.

Mrs. Grover Hill was a guest.

Parents of Fine Son

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dieckman are the proud parents of a fine big son born early Monday morning.

Mrs. Dieckman and son are doing fine. They are at a Lincoln hospital.

Served Ground Hog Supper

Mrs. Ed Schuelke and her group of the Ladies Aid society served a delicious ground hog supper which consisted of pancakes, sausage, coffee and prunes, Thursday evening at the church basement.

Telephone Office a Beauty Spot

Believing that a business place might as well be one of beauty as one of drab surroundings, operators at the Elmwood telephone exchange have a liberal supply of growing plants and flowers, many of them in bloom, which enlivens the place and makes it one of cheer for both the employes and patrons.

Quite a good crowd attended and enjoyed the event.

he was able to visit Honolulu. Since then they have turned eastward and gone through the Panama canal to Cuba, where he will remain several weeks as a student in a naval school, while the ship on which he was stationed goes on to New York City.

Benefit Bingo Party

A benefit bingo party was arranged to raise funds for improving the Elmwood park. Prizes were given by the merchants and a large crowd turned out, including several delegations from neighboring towns.

A fine time was had by all, and a neat sum was realized with which to carry on the park work.

Quite a good crowd attended and enjoyed the event.

Elmwood News

Guy McGill, living a short distance east of town, was looking after business matters in Weeping Water last Tuesday.

Cyrus Maires, who has been making his home in Elmwood, went to the home of Clark Gonzales, where he will make his home and work on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Julian visited friends in Omaha over Sunday.

Guy Clement was called to Omaha last Tuesday to look after business for the American Exchange bank.

Mrs. Emma Shreeves was taken suddenly ill last Monday evening and was very ill throughout the night. By the next day she was somewhat better, though not entirely over the malady.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Penterman and their son Morris Penterman and wife were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Adams and family, of Ashland. Mrs. Herman Penterman and Mrs. Adams are sisters.

W. W. Coatman was called to Weeping Water last Monday, where he had business matters to look after for his father, William Coatman, who owns property there. The elder Mr. Coatman is making his home with a daughter, Mrs. M. L. Gollhofer, of Grand Island.

Richard De Les Dernier has received word from his cousin, J. Stuart Rough, of Nehawka, who has been spending the winter in California, that he has gone to Austin, Texas, to visit at the home of a daughter the next six weeks before returning to Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood have been experiencing their share of illness with the flu and other prevailing maladies. Mr. Wood got by with only about eight days of having to stay at home, but Mrs. Wood was compelled to miss eight weeks from Bible school, which she attends regularly when not indisposed.

Members of the Elmwood Volunteer fire department held a most enjoyable meeting at the community building Wednesday night. Following their business session, all enjoyed a fine oyster stew which was prepared by Herman Penterman and N. D. Bothwell.

Many at Plattsmouth More than a score of Elmwood people went to Plattsmouth Monday to attend a county court hearing in which certain local parties were involved, growing out of the robbery of the Hall store. Several of the group had business to transact there, but the court hearing was what took most of them to the county seat.

Enjoyable Bridge Party Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clement entertained the members of their bridge club at their home in Elmwood last Monday evening. High scores among the ladies were won by Mesdames Ronald Schlichtemeier and Orley Clement, while among the menfolk, Harry Sexton and Bud Clement carried off the honors. A most delicious luncheon was served to climax the evening, and all are looking forward to another meeting at this hospitable home.

Seeing Much Country Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parriott have received word from their son, Edward Parriott, who last summer joined the navy, telling of the traveling he has been doing. The Pacific fleet ship on which he is stationed was among those that went to the Hawaiian islands for maneuvers, and
