Elmwood News

Miss Irene Plymale visited her parents at Ashland Sunday evening.

Mrs. Harry Green was hostess to a number of her friends last Tuesday afternoon, serving tea and wafers.

The measles patients are all making satisfactory progress with those contracting the disease earlier about all well. Jean Adair Bothwell required a full week to go through the breaking out period.

The Extension club of Elmwood met last Tuesday at the home of one of the members, Mrs. B. E. Sumner.

A very delightful time was had by all who were present and some interesting discussion engaged in relative to improvements in the home and its surroundings.

Married Forty Years Thursday
Mr. and Mrs. August A. Bornemeier, who reside a few miles north-west of Elmwood arrived at the 40th anniversary of their wedding last Thursday and took pleasure in looking back through the years and the accomplishments they have brought, not alone to them, but to the country. In honor of the event, they held open house and a large number of friends called on them to extend congratulations and best wishes.

M. I. B. C. Meets Monday
On last Monday the members of the More Intelligent Bridge Club with their fellow member, "Bud" Clement, where some very interesting games were enjoyed. Due to the prevalence of measles, some of the members were kept away. With the number of conflicting reports as to the score, we hardly feel justified in even attempting to name the winners.

Edward Parmenter Very Poorly
Edward Parmenter, who has not been in the best of health for some time, and has refrained from doing any work on account of his delicate health, last Thursday suffered another sudden bad attack, and since has been in a very serious condition on account of the attack. He is at the home of his brother, Herman Parmenter. His sisters, Mesdames August Rutger and Henry Abker and their husbands of Otoe, and Mrs. Harry Wright and another sister of Omaha were calling on their brother. Mr. Edward Parmenter still remains very poorly although everything possible is being done for him.

SOUTH BEND

Mrs. George Vogel is on the sick list this week.

Frank Kozioł was a caller at the Wm. Blum home Friday evening.

Mrs. George Braun was a Sunday evening caller at the F. J. Knecht home.

Mrs. V. D. Livers and Verla were all day visitors Tuesday, with Mrs. Bernard Dill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell spent Saturday evening at the William Blum home.

Miss Adams of Omaha spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Adams.

Mrs. Mollie Neuman and Mrs. V. D. Livers and Verla called at the William Blum home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Thieman of Omaha spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Thieman and at the Herman Gakemeier home.

William E. Rosencrans spent the week end at home, returning to Lincoln Sunday to resume his studies at the University Monday morning.

Patsy Ann Armstrong of Lincoln is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rau. Her mother, Mrs. Keith Armstrong, has been seriously ill in a hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The meeting of the Friendly Circle club was postponed Thursday due to funeral services held for Chas. Brown. The next meeting will be held Thursday, March 16, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Carnicle.

During the past week this community received a nice snow and a few days later considerable rainfall, which have brought needed moisture to the farms, but left the roads in a deplorable condition. However, the moisture is far too valuable to permit of any complaints about the roads.

Funeral of Charles Brown
Funeral services for Chas. Brown of Omaha were held at Marcy's chapel in Ashland on Thursday afternoon with burial in the South Bend cemetery. Mr. Brown was the mail carrier out of South Bend for many years until retired by the government five years ago. Since that time the family have made their home in Omaha, where he passed away Tuesday after suffering a stroke. He was a friend of all, both young and old, on his mail route. Never too busy for a cheery greeting as they met him at their mailbox.

Besides the widow, two sons, Virgil and Francis, a daughter and one granddaughter survive.

His many friends in this community extend sympathy to the family.

AUDIT SHOWS SHORTAGE

LINCOLN, March 11 (UP)—State Auditor Ray C. Johnson announced today an audit of the accounts of Rudolph J. Abye of David City, former clerk of the Butler county district court had disclosed an alleged shortage of $1,642.83.

Johnson asserted in his report that "these items were checked with Mr. Abye by our examiner and the deficit as set forth was acknowledged by him, and was going to make every effort to secure the amount necessary to cover the deficiency in his accounts."

The state auditor was to present his findings at a conference this afternoon at David City with County Attorney Ray Sabata, county supervisor and the present clerk of the district court. The audit covered a period extending from January 1, 1937 to January 5, 1939. Abye was defeated for re-election last November.

PILLIE BURKE INJURED

HOLLYWOOD, March 11 (UP)—Billie Burke, widow of Florenz Ziegfeld, broke her right ankle yesterday in a mishap at a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.

Officials said the actress had just completed her last scene in "Maiden Voyage" and was walking off the set, when she tripped and fell. Physicians reported the ankle was broken in two places. They said she would be hospitalized a week before being sent home.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Edward Stander of near Manley was looking after business matters in Murdock last Wednesday.

Jesse Stock has moved to the Ruge farm east of Murdock, where Frank Rosenow has been farming.

Anton King, who lives near Alvo, was a Murdock visitor Wednesday and looked after some shopping while here.

Homer Lawton was at Wabash Wednesday, going to look after the renting of the home that was owned by his mother before her demise.

T. A. Engle, of Auburn, who has the lumber yard here, was in town last Tuesday to consult with W. T. Weddell, manager of the local yard, on matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kruse, who have moved to Murdock and made the purchase of a home, have gotten nicely settled and Mr. Kruse is at work at the Murdock Mercantile company store.

W. B. Bailey, of North Platte, was calling on A. H. Ward one day last week. Mr. Bailey is connected with the U. S. Oil company, whose products Mr. Ward did handle at his service station here some time ago.

Jesse Kleiser of near South Bend was a visitor in Murdock one day last week. Asked about the condition of his brother, Wm. Kleiser, he stated the latter is very poorly and confined to his home.

J. Johansen and A. H. Ward began work Friday on some of the projects now under way at Weeping Water. With the school building, a community hall and a new sanitary sewer system, there seems to be plenty of work to do in the hustling Cass county town just now.

Attended Meeting Sunday
A number of the Christian workers of Murdock were in Plattsmouth last Sunday, where they attended the meeting of the Cass County Christian Fellowship organization, which was held at the Methodist church that afternoon. Those from here who attended were Rev. H. A. Schwab, Wm. Eisele, Otto Miller and Rev. F. C. Weber of the Callihan church. They report a very interesting meeting and a good attendance in spite of the weather and bad roads.

Had Their Pictures Taken
The nine students comprising the victorious Murdock high school basketball team went to Lincoln Wednesday, where they had their pictures taken. It will be recalled the boys won both the county and the district tournaments, but were eliminated by Roca from playing in the state tournament at the regional meet. The boys have a season's record to be proud of. They were driven to Lincoln for the picture by John Kruger, Lacey McDonald and Coach Elbert Miller. The young men going were Morris McDonald, Wayland Ward, Warren Rikil, Russell Goerthy, Niel McCrorey, Westly Reinke, Earl Westfall, Marcus Stock and Leo O'Brien.

Frank Rosenow Moves to Town
Frank Rosenow, who has been farming a few miles east of Murdock for a number of years, with the renting of the farm to another, and he hints himself not in the best of health, held a sale recently and has given up farming, moving to town to live in the house where Uncle Fred Dieckman resided.

Mr. Rosenow was counted as a very successful farmer and frequently raised five and six thousand bushels of corn, and even more during the good years. With the coming of the drouth years, like many another hard working farmer, he has been unable to grow enough crops to make his yearly expenses.

At present, he has not decided just what he will turn his hand to, but whatever the work may be, you can rest assured that he will tackle it with energy and enthusiasm.

Visited at Plattsmouth.
County Commissioner H. C. Backe-meyer was looking after business for the county and Homer H. Lawton accepted an invitation to accompany him. Homer visited friends for the day at the county seat as well as looking after some matters of business while there.

Admitted to Masonic Home
M. E. Shatto, who has made his home in Murdock for the past thirty-five years, has become of such delicate health it was difficult for him to keep going and make a living for himself. This fact induced him to apply for admittance to the Nebraska Masonic Home at Plattsmouth, as he has long been a member of the Elmwood Masonic lodge. His application was accepted and he went to Plattsmouth last Thursday to spend his declining years in the home that the Masonic fraternity provides for its aged and ailing members. All will rejoice in his being accepted there and hope he will find residence at the home pleasant.

Grandfather W. T. Weddell.
Good fortune in the shape of a granddaughter came to W. D. Weddell last Saturday when there was born to his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Lyon a very fine 7 pound baby girl. Mrs. Lyon was formerly Miss Ione Weddell.

Some Changes in the Faculty
There have been some changes made in the personnel of the school faculty in Murdock for the coming year, including a reduction in the number of teachers. Those to whom contracts have been voted by the board have not all accepted the proffered positions at this time and we shall make no attempt to give our readers the list at present.

It is our information that Coach Elbert Miller has been tendered the position of superintendent and coach as well, but has not yet indicated acceptance of the offer.

Greenwood

Mrs. Edith Waite of Scottsbluff is visiting her mother, Mrs. Joe Brown.

Mrs. Blanche Downing was hostess to the L. C. C. Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. F. H. Le Prevost and son visited relatives in Clinton, Iowa, several days.

Mrs. Dora Leesley and Mrs. Katie Behrens visited relatives in Omaha a few days last week.

Mrs. Bess Buckingham, of Essex, Iowa, visited at the Carl Buckingham home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and Russel, Mrs. Ray Rouse and Mrs. R. C. Burks were in Lincoln Wednesday.

Alonzo Clymer, of New York City, N. Y., visited his father, Earl Clymer and other relatives, the past week.

Miss Faye Watkins, of Kansas City, visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dora Leesley, last Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Elsie Shellberg, of Omaha, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Katie Behrens and Mrs. Dora Leesley.

C. A. Mathis underwent an operation at Bryan Memorial hospital the past week. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wich-wire of Ashland a baby girl March 8th. Miss Wichwire was Miss Mildred Griffith before her marriage.

Mrs. Blanche Hoig was taken to Nicholas-Senn hospital Wednesday. She is seriously ill and it will be necessary for her to submit to an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Andersen, of Chicago, Ill., visited at the Earl Hartsook home the first of last week. Mrs. Andersen was formerly Miss Jean Hartsook.

A large crowd attended the W. O. W. dance Thursday evening. Members of Greenwood camp and their friends were invited. Music was furnished by an orchestra of the Lincoln camp, W. O. W. Officers from different camps attended.

Woman's Club Meeting
Mrs. Leona McDonald entertained the Greenwood Woman's club at her home Monday, March 6th.

The subject of this March meeting was "Literature." Each member responded to roll call with the name and a brief resume of a new book. Two book reports were given. The review of "Grandma Called It Carnival," by Bertha Damon, was charmingly handled by Miriam Hartsook, and Mrs. Ruth Leadabrand reported "My Sister Aileen," a humorous book by Ruth MacKinney. The committee was Mrs. Elsie Peters and Mrs. Ruth Leadabrand.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Next month's meeting considers the subject of "Gardening," and will be held at the home of Mrs. Hazel Dyer.

AVOCA NEWS

Martha Ruge spent the greater part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Gonzell, at Lincoln.

Chester Welshimer and John Alwin of Plattsmouth were looking after business matters in Avoca last Monday.

Mrs. Earl Freeman and little son spent the greater part of last week at Union, where they were guests of Mrs. Freeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Midkiff.

Ruth Carsten, with the return of Senator Carsten to Lincoln after the spring vacation, accompanied him and spent the day in Lincoln, returning home in the evening.

Earl Freeman and family were in Weeping Water last Sunday, at which place they were guests for the afternoon and evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman.

Miss Ruth Wessell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wessell, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the hospital, is so far recovered that she is home again and doing very nicely.

Marius Nelson, after getting a load of cattle ready to take to the Omaha market last week, had to have a break repaired before he could proceed. C. O. Zaiser, the garage man, pulled the crippled truck in and made the repairs.

Feeling Much Better Now
Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser have both been confined to their home, suffering from attacks of flu, but by the fore part of last week were feeling much better and Mr. Zaiser was able to return to the garage and look after business.

Pleased with Fine Address
Rev. Bashford and wife, of Exceter, were in Avoca to conduct Lenten services a week ago. Rev. Bashford was pastor here some 23 years ago, and many of those who were little children in Sunday school then are now grown to manhood and womanhood, married and have children of their own. The address of Rev. Bashford was much enjoyed.

During their stay here, Rev. and Mrs. Bashford were over night guests at the B. C. Marquardt home and dinner guests the following day at the Wm. Maseman home.

Death of Mrs. Minnie Orhke
Mrs. Minnie Orhke, age 65, died early last week at the farm home four miles from Nebraska City. The deceased lady was a sister of Mrs. Zimmerer and aunt of Oscar Zimmerer and Mrs. Albert Stock. She had continued to reside on the farm after the death of her husband a few years ago. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, being attended by a number of relatives and friends from this vicinity.

Visited State Legislature
Fred Marquardt and Montgomery H. Lum were in Lincoln Tuesday, calling at the state senate chamber for a visit with Senator Fred Carsten, and while there enjoyed watching the operations of the unicameral legislature and some of its committees. They are interested in a prospective law that would regulate the business of foreign trucks coming in and picking up grain shipments for transport to other areas, that they feel should pass through regular channels. Just what will be the outcome of the proposed law is problematical.

Visited Sister Here
Mrs. Rachel Everett enjoyed a few days' visit during the past week from two of her sisters, Mrs. Frank Brenner, who resides in Oregon, and Mrs. Charles Hackathorne, who lives at Winnebago, Nebraska.

The sisters left for their respective homes the latter part of the week.

MANLEY NEWS

Fred Stohlman and George Rau were called to Lincoln on business matters Wednesday of last week.

Herman Dall was sick during the past week and was not able to be down town for a number of days, but is improving now.

Mumps have invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien, where both Miss Joy and Master Keith are afflicted with the malady.

The Manley Elevator and Grain company were holding a meeting of the directors of the company at the elevator office last week.

Mesdames W. J. Rau and Ralph Keckler were in Omaha last Monday, where they did some shopping, driving up in the latter's car.

Miss Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller, who has been making her home in Omaha, where she is employed, spent last Sunday and part of the week at the home of her parents.

Miss Hilda Schliefer, who has been at Hoardville for some weeks, where she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Kuppe, and husband, returned home Saturday last week.

Eli Keckler was on the sick list with an attack of the flu which kept this gentleman at home and in bed for a week. He has been up and around for nearly a week now, and seems fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arris and their daughter, Mrs. Louis Hite and husband of near Lincoln were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mockenhaupt, driving over for the visit.

J. W. Browne, a resident of the Nebraska Masonic Home at Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Manley one day last week, accompanying the Journal field man on his rounds of this part of the county.

Pastor Entertains Class
The class of eight who were recently confirmed as members of the church of which Rev. Cattau is the pastor, having passed their examinations in very creditable manner, were entertained by the pastor at his home with a very fine supper. Among those who were confirmed were Teddy Harms, Jr., and Miss Dorothy Stohlman.

Young Lads Organize Pig Club
A 4-H pig club was organized at the home of Walter O'Brien last Monday night, with Mr. O'Brien as leader. The members are all greatly interested in the work which is provided by this newly organized club, and we are certain they will demonstrate their respective abilities in the matter of growing pigs.

Getting on Nicely Now
Miss Rena Christensen, a sister of Mrs. Herman Rauth, was at the hospital some time ago, where she underwent an operation from which she rallied nicely, but a supplementary operation was found necessary and last week she returned to the hospital for this second operation. Her recovery was so rapid that by the middle of last week she was allowed to return to her home in Omaha and the latter part of the week came to the home of her sister, Mrs. Rauth, where she will remain until fully recovered.

Celebrated 75th Birthday
Mrs. E. T. Mockenhaupt arrived at her 75th birthday anniversary last week and in recognition of the fact her many friends showered her with birthday cards expressing their best wishes. Members of the Altar Society of St. Patrick's Catholic church, of which she has long been a devoted member, made her a generous box of home made candy. Mrs. Mockenhaupt has not been in the best of health for some time, and she enjoyed very much the greetings and well wishes of her many friends.

Celebrated Passing Birthday
Mrs. Rudolf Bergman was passing her natal day recently and her many friends in Manley and a number from Weeping Water gathered to assist Mrs. Bergman in enjoying the occasion. Games were played and a good time had by all, with many tokens for the guest of honor to attest the high esteem in which she is held by her friends.

The Doctor Says Quit.
Rev. W. A. Taylor has been in very delicate health and has had many spells which seem to almost sap him of his strength and his condition is counted as being very critical. His doctor has forbidden him to preach any more funeral sermons. Rev. Taylor fully appreciates the desire of his friend to have him conduct services, but as a safeguard of his own health he has to abide by the orders of his family physician.

Joyed very much the greetings and well wishes of her many friends.
