THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Quivering nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—can keep you awake nights and rob you of good health, good times and jobs.

What you may need is a particularly good woman's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your shrieking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again.

More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

Howard Frizel who has been making his home at Los Angeles is to visit Weeping Water and the home folks and many friends here soon. He will drive an auto for Mrs. A. K. Murphey who is coming east to visit and expect to arrive near the middle of April. They expect to spend about 30 days here.

Present Operetta Last Friday.

The operetta, "The Magic Bean Stalk," was presented Friday evening at the high school auditorium before a crowded house, and all have expressed appreciation of the excellent work done by the cast of 184 children, from kindergarten to the eighth grade who took part in the entertainment, under the leadership of Miss Evelyn Long, with Miss Katharine Ellis as accompanist, and Miss Maude Baldwin in charge of costumes and stage settings.

The introduction was furnished by the kindergarten rhythm band, while between acts 1st and 2nd grades entertained the audience.

The leading character parts were taken as follows: "Jack," Carl Schomaker; "Mother," Gerda Anderson; "Captain Kidd," Jimmie Marshall; The cow, "Julien," Jack Hermon; Dick Powers and Herman Wade; "Gypsy," Ruth Lane; Fool-Em-Si, Jack Hermon; "Ogre," Neil Fitzpatrick; "Announcer," Billy Whitney; "Fairy," Peggy Amick.

Others in the cast were choruses of pirates, Dutch, Japanese, Chinese sailors, magic beans, and the English villager.

Entertain at Showers.

Miss Evelyn Johnson and Miss Aurel Cope, entertained twenty guests at a miscellaneous shower at Hotel Rest Haven Thursday evening, honoring Miss Doris Wolcott. Wedding bells and tapers were used for decorations and the color scheme was pink and white. For entertainment the guests were formed into a court with the defendants being compelled to produce a gift for the guest of honor, as a fine. Many beautiful gifts were presented and all enjoyed a most delightful evening.

On Friday evening Mrs. Harlan

MUSTEROLE

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

To bring speedy relief from the discomfort of chest colds, muscular rheumatic aches and pains due to colds—you need more than "just a salve"—use a stimulating "counter-irritant" like good old warming, soothing Musterole. It penetrates the surface skin breaking up local congestion and pain resulting from colds.

Even better than a mustard plaster—Musterole has been used by millions for over 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40¢. Approved by Good House-keeping Bureau. All druggists.

Win Honors at M-I-N-K Contest.

Jean G. Jones, music instructor, took five of his pupils to Peru Friday, to participate in the M-I-N-K contest, and each one of the five won high honors. Tom Moulden, low voice, won a very superior, Maurice Shirley, high voice, a superior; Junior Sloan, medium voice, good; Lyman Lorensen, trombone, excellent; and Dorothy Everett, trumpet, superior. Mr. Jones accompanied all singers.

New Enterprise Makes Progress.

The new refrigerator locker system which is just now being installed by Knude Jensen, has had the old building torn down and another one is now being built and is making good progress, with the building erected and enclosed and a roof on, promised by the end of the week. This will make an excellent place for the storing of perishable goods.

Visit Goldenrod Garden Club.

The Weeping Water Garden club were invited to Avoca Monday afternoon to be guests of the Goldenrod Garden club, at the home of Mrs. George Shackley. Programs bearing shamrock leaves on the cover were distributed and the following program was enjoyed:

Club song, "An Old Fashioned Garden"; "March Gardening," Mrs. True Harmon; "Sweet Pea Culture," Mrs. Morley; "Hot Beds, Cold Frames," Mrs. Mickel; Poem, Mrs. True Harmon; Seasonal discussion, Mrs. J. H. F. Rugha; Exhibit of flower containers, and arrangement of flowers, Mrs. Geo. Shackley; Contest, "A Green Romance."

Gibson and Mrs. Wilbur Long were hostesses at a kitchen shower for Miss Wolcott at the home of Mrs. Gibson, when there were fifteen guests. Each guest was asked to bring a favorite recipe, and each was asked to prove their artistic ability by tearing pictures of the bride-to-be out of colored paper. These were also preserved in a scrap book, for future reference. Bridge was then played, with the metemall system, which was greatly enjoyed, after which the guest of honor opened the many gifts, which will be used in her new home.

Surprise Dr. Kunkel.

Wishing to show their appreciation to their leader, Dr. L. N. Kunkel, the members of the Little Symphony orchestra gathered at the Kunkel home Monday evening, completely surprising Dr. Kunkel. Carrying well filled baskets of good things to eat, they were prepared to enjoy the evening. The evening was spent playing fantan and Chinese checkers after which a delicious lunch was served and all enjoyed a visit to the Kunkel museum. The members of this organization have worked hard this winter and all enjoyed this evening of fun.

Student Homemakers Club.

Student Homemakers club held their regular meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Clair Wolfe. The subject for March being "Table Setting and the Serving of Dinners," the members brought a covered dish luncheon, and a practical demonstration of the subject created much interest. Mrs. F. L. Hebard and Mrs. Oscar Uffelman had charge of the program. Mrs. Neil Munkers, group leader and Mrs. Ralph Keckler, county president were guests.

Eastern Star Meets.

Elizabeth chapter Eastern Star, 250, held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening in their lodge rooms with a good attendance. At six o'clock a fine covered dish dinner was served by Mrs. Muriel Smith, of Omaha, district supervisor, as guest of honor. At eight o'clock the stars and the officers of the lodge exemplified the initiatory work. Mrs. Smith and her daughter remained over night as the guest of Mrs. Fred Rehmeier.

Men's Brotherhood.

The regular monthly meeting of the Men's Brotherhood was held on Monday evening at the M. E. church with sixty-five men in attendance. F. L. Hebard and Fred Allen were the committee in charge of the program. A fine covered dish dinner was served after which Corporal Cawwiesel, in charge of Division I, with headquarters at Fremont, showed pictures of the training camp at Ashland, while the patrolmen were in training and gave an excellent talk on "Prevention of Accidents."

Those who were present felt that they had gained much information about the patrolman's work.

Jack Clifford at Porto Rico.

Mrs. R. S. Shields received a letter from her son, Jack Clifford, this week, from Porto Rico, where he is stationed at present on the U. S. S. West Virginia. In his letter he tells of President Roosevelt's recent visit and inspection of the fleet, and of how they all stood at attention as the president passed in his ship.

Death of Infant Son.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Newham (Minnie Baier) sympathize with them over the loss of a dear little baby boy who was born Monday, March 13, but who only remained with them a few hours. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon with Rev. W. D. Lenker in charge of the services. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

TROOP MEETING.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Plattsburgh Scouts held an exceptionally good meeting last evening at the Plattsburgh high school at 7:30.

E. H. Wescott urged the Scouts to pass their remaining tests for the next class so there would be at least a half dozen boys up for the next court of honor, as it is believed the next court of honor will be held at Plattsburgh in May.

Scoutmaster R. J. Larson passed out circulars containing information on blasting caps and urged all the boys to be careful if they were to come into contact with them.
