

Weeping Water

Cass county Farm Woman's chorus met Monday afternoon in town for their weekly rehearsal.

The members of the Bide-A-Wee club enjoyed a delightful afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harold Bowers.

Former Sheriff Homer Sylvester was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water Tuesday, of this week.

Miss Cena Olmstead, dietician at Iowa State college, was a week end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Robson.

Duane Harmon was down from the state university and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon.

The Friendly Ladies met with Mrs. S. Ray Smith Wednesday of this week where they played bridge and enjoyed a very fine luncheon.

After a week of battling with the flu Harry Doty who was kept to his home in the country and in bed was able to get out and was down town Tuesday.

W. I. Bickford has been able to get about in his yard during the past few days after having spent several months confined to his home on account of illness.

Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Hunt, Billy and Sarah returned home Thursday evening from Roanoke, Alabama, where they were called two weeks ago by the death of Rev. Hunt's mother.

Gospel meetings are being held in the room over the store of Miss Anna Hart, with good preaching, excellent singing, causing many to be interested. Many are attending the evening sessions.

Mrs. W. F. Skavdahl, and two children, left Monday for Harrison, Nebraska, after spending the past three months visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Lenker at the M. E. church parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott entertained six guests at a dinner at the Hotel Rest Haven Friday evening after which the guests were taken to the Wolcott home where the evening was spent playing bridge. Clint Wilkinson has been very poorly from an aggravated attack of the flu that compelled him to remain home and in bed the greater portion of the past week. He was able to be up for a time early this week.

Mrs. Ole Olsen and Mrs. C. E. Pool were hostesses to the Cheer-A-Bit club at the home of Mrs. Olsen, Monday evening. Chinese checkers was played and all spent a very delightful evening. Fifteen ladies were present.

Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Mrs. George Olive, Mrs. Ben Olive, Mrs. Ralph Keckler and Mrs. L. R. Wiseman were in Nehawka Friday attending the guest day luncheon of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Raymond Pollard.

Grandmother Olander, who is advanced in years, sustained a severe fall early this week and has been compelled to remain in bed for a number of days to recuperate from the shock. The many friends of this excellent woman are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Oscar Gopen of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday looking over the town with the view of business and visiting a number of friends, spending some time with Peter Spangler and Dan Sudduth. He was pleased to hear of the building of the new school and the community building and of the new sewerage system.

Observed Natal Day. Some two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham came to Weeping Water to make their home. They found many friends and after residing here for a time many more were added to the list. Mr. Oldham was passing his 51st anniversary and on last Sunday evening was joined by a number of friends in appropriately celebrating the occasion. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Oldham, Messrs. and Mesdames E. F. Stowessier of Nebraska City, Clifford Cooper, E. M. Ruby and Walter Little, the latter three couples from Weeping Water vicinity.

With a lot of good things to eat and a jolly gathering of friends, the evening was spent with much pleasure and with its conclusions greetings were extended for many more happy birthdays.

The boys who reside in California with their wives sent congratulations.

Home From the West. Peter Spangler who has been making his home in the west for the past three months, arrived home last Sunday night. He was a guest of Charles Spangler and family at Calloway and also visited at Miller with a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Crisman. While away he enjoyed a very pleasant visit with the relatives.

Home From Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tefft, of Chicago are spending their vacation with Mr. Tefft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tefft and with Mrs. Tefft's parents, Judge and Mrs. Shepherd, of Lincoln. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tefft and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Olive and family, and Ward Tefft of Chicago were also entertained at the C. E. Tefft home.

Woman's Club Meets. Weeping Water Woman's club had had some interesting meetings this year but none which have created more of a desire to know more on the subject than did the program Tuesday afternoon, as the subject was one dear to the hearts of all women, "The Romance of Old China and Jewelry." Mrs. L. H. Behrens was in charge of the business meeting, when pennies were received for the tree planting movement, and the meeting was turned over to Miss Anna Hubbard, who read a paper on "The Romance of Old China." Miss Hubbard had spent a great deal of time on the preparation of this paper and was well informed on the subject. Mrs. Thomas Murty had charge of an exhibit of old china and old glass, and Miss Hubbard designated the different patterns of sandwich glass. Mrs. George Shackley of Avoca, was a visitor who is also intensely interested and well informed on the subject, and much information was gained from the exhibit. Old treasures had been brought down from the top pantry shelves, and some very unusual old pieces of jewelry were on display. Knee buckles, worn during George Washington's time, belt buckle, worn during the Revolutionary war, a lovely old ring over two hundred years old. Altogether the display was a great success, for the reason that Miss Hubbard was so well informed and able to give her information to others. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Domingo and there was a large attendance.

Miscellaneous Shower. A miscellaneous shower was given Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Merton Norris (Doris Wolcott) at the home of Mrs. Frank Marshall when thirty ladies were present to honor Mrs. Norris. Little Patty Larue, dressed as a rainbow fairy, appeared and informed the guest of honor that wherever and whenever she heard the alarm clock there she must go to find a gift. As the gong sounded in all sorts of unusual places Mrs. Norris was kept busy answering their summons finding gifts both lovely and useful. Miss Esther Tefft was in charge of the entertainment for the afternoon and everyone was kept busy. Out of town guests were Mrs. Robert Wolcott, of Lincoln, Mrs. J. J. Meir, Lincoln, Mrs. Wm. Dunn, Omaha, and Mrs. Frank Cook, Alvo.

Entertained at Dinner. Mrs. O. A. Specht entertained thirty-six guests at dinner Thursday evening at Hotel Rest Haven in honor of Dr. Specht's birthday. The guests were seated at nine small tables, which were decorated with sweet peas. Other decorations carried out the St. Patrick day motif. The evening was spent playing bridge.

Jolly Mixers Meet. Monday evening was "gentlemen's evening" with the Jolly Mixers when they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Shields at a 6 o'clock dinner, with Mrs. E. F. Marshall and Mrs. Wm. Jameson as assistant hostesses. Later pinocle was played during the evening.

L. H. Behrens Re-elected. L. H. Behrens has been re-elected as superintendent of the Weeping Water schools. Mr. Behrens came to our schools in 1935 as principal of the high school and six years ago was promoted to superintendent. All teachers have been re-elected except the coach and assistant coach. As yet no action has been taken regarding those two positions.

Opportunity Extension Club. Opportunity Extension club held their regular monthly meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Win. Jameson, with sixteen present. A dinner was served with lessons on serving and table etiquette by the leaders, Mrs. V. Barton and Mrs. Wilbur Fitzpatrick. The members of the club represented the members of a family.

Luncheon for County Chairmen. Mrs. Ralph Keckler, county chairman of Home Extension clubs, entertained the Cass county group chairmen at a luncheon Monday at Hotel Rest Haven, when plans were made for Achievement Day. It was decided that there will be no county achievement day exercises this year, but that there will be three group achievement days, as follows: Louisville, April 5; Elmwood, April 21, and Nehawka, April 28. Recognition services will be held at each group.

Those present at the luncheon were Miss Jessie Baldwin, county home extension agent; Miss Helen Norton, stenographer; Mrs. Harry Fisher, Eagle; Mrs. Skyles Miller, Jr., Elmwood; Mrs. Nelson Berger, Nehawka; Mrs. John Weest, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Clarence Ackles, Louisville; Mrs. A. J. Tool, Murdock; Mrs. Neil Monkers, Weeping Water.

Mrs. Lars Nelson Dies. Mrs. Lars Nelson passed away at her home in Weeping Water early Tuesday morning after an illness lasting several weeks. She leaves one son to mourn her loss, Ralph Nelson, of Chicago.

Brought Here for Burial. Ira C. Smith, 62, died March 20, 1939 at Shenandoah, Iowa, where he has lived for the past nine years. Funeral was held at Shenandoah and the body was brought to Weeping

Water and laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery beside his wife and son, who had preceded him in death. Mr. Smith owned a cleaning establishment and a tailor shop in Weeping Water leaving here after the death of his wife.

Out of town relatives here to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Staats Ruth Smith, Omaha; Fred Smith and daughter, Denver; Dick Smith, Iowa, and a grandson, who is attending school in Omaha.

Home From Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tefft, of Chicago are spending their vacation with Mr. Tefft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tefft and with Mrs. Tefft's parents, Judge and Mrs. Shepherd, of Lincoln. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tefft and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. A.
