departed last week, having told his friends he was going to South Dakota, and it was supposed that he had gone there, but it seems that his auto had some of the traits of the airplane of Wrong Way Corrigan, for when it stopped for gas and oil the auto was away down in Texas. He wrote a letter to his landlady, Mrs. Rainey, advising of his arrival in Texas. It is to be hoped he will find profitable employment there.

Doane College a Cappella Choir.
Weeping Water people had the rare privilege Wednesday evening of hearing the Doane College a cappella choir and Madrigal club at the Congregational church. This organization never fails to please its audiences. Unfortunately the weather man's prediction for snow came true. The landscape was beautiful with snow laden shrubbery and trees, but streets were sloppy and highways bad for driving. However these young people are undaunted by weather conditions, rather they seem to welcome them as obstacles to be overcome by giving of their best. The college messengers sent out from the colleges to sing their way into the hearts of the people are always a source of inspiration and pleasure.

Here From New York.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jameson and son, Robert, of Schneclady, New York spent the week end with Mr. Jameson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jameson and other relatives. From here they will go to Arcadia, Nebraska to visit with Mrs. Jameson's parents, after which Mr. Jameson will go to St. Louis to attend to business for the General Electric company. Mrs. Jameson will remain in the state for a longer visit.

Four Birthdays Celebrated.
Four birthdays were celebrated Sunday evening, with Miss Betty Wolcott as hostess. Sixteen guests were entertained at a 6:30 dinner after which the evening was spent in visiting. All reported a most delightful evening. Those whose birthdays were honored were Mrs. Harley Thurland; Mrs. Harlan Gibson, J. Paul Fowler and Robert Wolcott, of Lincoln.

Here From Mikey, Idaho.
Charles Munday who has been with the government in Idaho, where he has been serving as a baker, arrived in Weeping Water late last week and has taken charge of the baking at the CCC camp here. Mr. Munday comes well recommended and will make his home at the camp.

P. E. O. Holds Meeting.
Chapter BT, P.E.O. held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at the C. C. Baldwin home with Miss Jessie Baldwin and Miss Maude Baldwin as hostesses. Mrs. H. A. Crozier presided.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary.
To celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Allen entertained thirty-two guests at a dinner at the Hotel Rest Haven Sunday evening. The guests were served at eight small tables, and pastel colors, and Easter decorations were used, making the tables very attractive. After dinner the tables were used for playing bridge, when Henry Mogensen and Mrs. Harold Wiles proved to be the winners.

Undergoes Serious Operation.
W. E. Maxfield a trusted and long time employee of the telephone company, making his home in Weeping Water has been troubled with an inward gouter, and wishing to be free from the suffering and inconvenience of the growth, went to Lincoln where at the hospital the growth was removed. Dr. Kunkel of Weeping Water accompanied the patient and assisted in the delicate operation.

Many Properties Change Hands.
It has been several years since so many houses in this town have changed hands. Leo Christmas has bought the Wade property, in the block south of the new school house, and has moved his family into their new home. Mrs. Wiles sold her home on the hill and bought the property west of the Kunkel hospital, and is nicely located there. Ben Olive and Mrs. Ben Rich have made a deal, which has resulted in the Olives now being owners of a large modern home located on twenty-eight acres of land on the southwest edge of town and Mrs. Rich becomes the owner of the Olive's former home near the Menonite church.

Everyone Working.
Weeping Water is filled with workmen. Taking a walk Monday we noticed a large force of men at work digging for the new sewerage system, just one block south of Main street. At the new auditorium every one was as busy as a swarm of bees, with the cement mixer going and cement being poured on all sides. At the new school house work is progressing rapidly, and everyone was busy. Linemen are in town also stringing new copper wires for the power and light company. The U. S. Engineers quarry has again opened up for work, and every man in town seems to be busy.

Weeping Water Garden Club.
The Weeping Water Garden club met Friday evening with Mrs. L. P. Wolcott, with twenty members present. Mrs. H. C. Wilkinson presided at the business meeting and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. V. Barton, secretary, after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. J. L. Ranney, chairman of the program committee, who introduced Sigveid Jensen, florist and gardener, who talked on "The Pruning of Plants," and illustrated by showing the different methods used, and also told when to prune. He also told of the different methods of propagation. Seeding, grafting, cuttings and layerings were all illustrated by samples so that all were able to understand better the simplicity of each method.

As the last meeting had been postponed a double treat was in store for those present, as Rev. G. S. Hunt and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott talked on "Rock Gardens." As both are enthusiastic rock gardeners, they presented many interesting ideas. Mr. Hunt talked on the "Relation of the Lily Pool to the Rock Garden" and read "The Legend of the Water Lily." The guests were then invited to the dining room where they were served with sandwiches, cakes and coffee, and a social hour was enjoyed before leaving for home.

DEATH OF STEPHEN BUZZELL.

While here he was married to Miss Exa Critchfield of Weeping Water, a sister of Mrs. George M. Porter of Lincoln. Mrs. Buzzell preceded her husband in death.

Mrs. Hillard Grassman, who has been at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha for the past two weeks, was able to be brought home Tuesday and will recuperate here at home. ## VISIT WITH OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Walton and daughter, Mary Louise, of Onawa, Iowa, former residents of Plattsmouth came down Sunday morning and attended church with Methodist friends. The rest of the day was spent with associates who are engaged in work on the river and Monday morning Mr. Walton returned to Onawa where they lived before coming to Plattsmouth. Mary Louise remained here visiting with friends as she had been active in Epworth League and Standard Bearers of the church and president of her high school class which are seniors now.

Mrs. Walton returned Tuesday to call on more friends here and a few hurriedly got together a covered dish lunch and surprised her at the home of Mrs. Howard Davis where she had been invited for the noon hour. It proved a very happy affair and with regrets that we are no longer permitted to have the fellowship and inspiration of Mrs. Walton in our meetings we bid her Godspeed as she left to call for her daughter and return to cook the evening meal for her husband at their home in Onawa.
