

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

MRS. R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

Murray

John Murdoch, Jr., was visiting with relatives in Omaha over the week-end.

Earl Merritt last Monday was papering a room at their home upstairs over the barber shop.

Mrs. Grace Chambers of Denver who has been caring for her mother was visiting Mrs. Don Rhoden one day last week.

Mrs. Belle Frans was spending a number of days last week at the home of her son, John Frans and family in Murray.

Mrs. Earl Merritt has been wrestling with a severe case of bronchitis for the past week and while much improved still is troubled with the cough.

Mesdames Frank Marier and Jane Dill were in Plattsmouth last Saturday doing some shopping as well as looking after some business in the county seat.

John Toman and family were in Plattsmouth last Sunday visiting at the home of David Toman as well as watching the angry swirling waters of the old Missouri.

Mrs. Henry A. Schwartz, living southwest of Murray has been very poorly at her home for the past more than a week, but later was reported as being somewhat improved.

Mrs. John L. Young was hostess to the Pleasant Hill Neighborhood club last week when she entertained the fellow members with a very pleasant afternoon. The exchange of flowers was featured.

Fred W. Woolsey of Nebraska City was in Murray the first of this week looking after some business and getting estimates on the cost of a barn which he is to build on one of his places near Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles were over to Plattsmouth last Sunday.

WHEAT DRILL FOR SALE

One Van Brunt Grain Drill, in very fine condition, in fact has been used on a 40-acre field once. Better come see it.

MURRAY HARDWARE
Phone 2411 Murray, Nebr.

OVERLAND

Theatre - Nebraska City
Sat., Sun., Mon., Tues.
Big Easter Show—Carol Lombard and James Stewart in 'MADE FOR EACH OTHER'
Matinee Sunday, 2:30
Balcony, 20c
News - Comedy - Cartoon

CASS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
DOUBLE FEATURE
John Garfield and Rosemary Lane in
'Blackwell's Island'
The Star of 4 Daughters in a Drama exploding with action. Dorothy Page in
'Ride 'Em, Cowgirl'
A Western picture that's different.
Also Lone Ranger Rides Again Serial.
Matinee every Saturday at 2:30. Two complete shows each night—7 and 9.
Adults... 25c Children... 10c

SUNDAY - MONDAY
BIG SPECIAL EASTER AD
Loretta Young, Richard Green and a
Big Cast in Technicolor Picture
'KENTUCKY'
Truly a great picture. Also Walt Disney's
Mother Goose Goes Hollywood, Charlie
McCarthy and News.
SUNDAY MATINEE AT 2:30
Night Shows, 7 and 9
Matinee, 10-25c Nights, 10-30c

TUESDAY ONLY
BARGAIN DAY
Don Ameche, Rita Ross, and a Big Cast
'The Three Musketeers'
Thrill-packed, fun-jammed adventure.
Also Comedy and Crime Doesn't Pay
Short. Matinee Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.
All Shows, 10 and 15c

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY
DOUBLE FEATURE
Priscilla Lane and Jeffrey Lynn in
'Yes, My Darling Daughter' and Lynn Overman and Patricia Morrissey in
'Persons in Hiding'
Two hit pictures for the Mid-Week.

Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler visited at Crete and at Wilbur Sunday. Workmen have been busy during the past week redecorating the Laurel Hotel.

Rev. G. S. Hunt was confined to his home the first part of the week with an attack of the flu.

Harry Knabe of Nehawka was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. O. Herman spent three days the latter part of the week visiting with friends in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. John Norris were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Norris in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Almqvist spent the week end at Central City where they were visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott, Jim Wolcott and Billy Findley were Sunday visitors at the Dan Switzer home in Valley.

Ole Olsen, the stone king, was called to Plattsmouth last Tuesday to look after some business matters at the court house.

Will K. Homan was over to Louisville last Saturday where he and party were trying their luck fishing in the Platte river.

C. Wally Johnson who has been spending some time in California, returned last week to Friend where he has a picture theatre.

Art F. Meeske, the new owner of the Gamble Store, has rented the Lars Nelson home and will move into it during the coming week.

Elmer Michelsen and family were enjoying a visit in Louisville last Sunday, guests at the home of Carl Christensen for the day and dinner.

The Dorcas Circle of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jake Renner, with Mrs. LeRoy Zessin as assistant hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grapenthin of Minden spent the week end with Mrs. Grapenthin's aunt, Mrs. Matilda Lorensen and Miss Addalene Lorensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gorthey and the children of Murdoch, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jones. Mesdames Jones and Gorthey are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore and their two children, Maurine and Donald of Sedalia, Missouri, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Edna Dowler.

Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Mrs. Oscar Johnson and daughter, Father who have been living in Weeping Water went to Friend one day last week and will assist Miss Clara Johnson who is conducting a cafe there.

Miss Jessie Baldwin and Mrs. Ralph Keckler were in Louisville Wednesday afternoon attending the Achievement Day exercises for the Louisville district of Home Extension clubs.

Stanley Wood had the misfortune to step on a nail protruding from a bit of board, which caused the nail to pierce the foot, the nail going in the bottom and coming out the top of the foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolcott spent Saturday night at the L. P. Wolcott home and left Sunday morning for Oxford, Nebraska where Robert will be employed by the state highway commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Brandt visited Arbor Lodge Sunday and while there went on into Nebraska City, where they witnessed the burning of the Riss Construction company quarter-boat on the Missouri river.

Fred Sorensen who has been making his home in Weeping Water with the wife and family departed early last week for Fremont where they will make their home in the future. They have been offered work there.

Richard P. Hobson the funeral director, went to Lincoln last Tuesday morning to bring the body of a Weeping Water lady here, she having died the last Tuesday morning. He was accompanied by Chris Rasmussen.

Frank Greenrod, the auctioneer who makes his home east of Avoca was in Weeping Water crying a sale of furniture for Mrs. Lars Nelson, who passed away last week. The husband preceded the wife some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor, who have been living at Weeping Water last week moved to Nehawka where they will make their home. John

Thomas Walling Company
Abstracts of Title
Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

Trizel with his truck assisted in moving their goods from Weeping Water to the new home.

Mrs. Wm. Spangler suffered a fall at her home last week which caused her to sustain injury to one of her shoulders which rendered her unable to do the work at the home and while she has been getting better she has had Mrs. Roy Sperry do the housework.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wise (Rosa Kimrey) are visiting at the home of Mrs. Wise's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kimrey. Mr. Wise will go from here to Des Moines, where he is employed by a bridge construction company, and Mrs. Wise will remain here for a longer visit before going to Iowa.

Dick Lane was injured while working on a step ladder about the house, when the ladder slipped, throwing him to the ground, his back striking on the floor of the porch in his descent and injuring him as the blow came in the small of the back. He was unable to work for some time but is getting around after a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler were hosts to the Friday evening dinner club at Hotel Rest Haven. Later they took the guests to their home where the evening was spent playing bridge. Those belonging to the club are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Crozier, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abrams of Plattsmouth.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wiles last Sunday they entertained for the day and a very pleasant 6 o'clock supper, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hart and Rev. and Mrs. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Grosser and children. Arrangements were also made for a meeting at one of the homes the coming Sunday.

The many Cass county friends of Rev. Charles Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Livingston, of Weeping Water, are happy to know that he is again in Nebraska. Since graduating from college, he has been located at Enid, Oklahoma. On March 1st, he accepted the pastorate of the Christian church of Hebron and with his wife and baby daughter moved to their new home, where his parents visited them last Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Henegar who has been at a Lincoln hospital receiving treatment has been showing improvement and was able to return home this week. Her many friends are greatly pleased that she has been able to return home.

An Appreciation.
Deeply grateful for the many acts of friendship, the expression of sympathy, beautiful flowers and gifts, and personal calls and messages, I wish to let my friends know how much I have appreciated them during my seven weeks stay at the hospital. I was taken to the home of my grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Knabe, 2939 P St., Lincoln, Neb., March 12.—John Ahrens.

Ladies Welfare Club.
The Weeping Water Ladies Welfare club held their regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at the Congregational church with Mrs. E. K. Norton, Mrs. C. E. Pool, Mrs. Lenora Luhring as hostesses. Mrs. Thomas Colbert presided at the business meeting, after which the afternoon was spent piecing comfort tops to be finished next fall to be given away to those in need.

Death of B. J. Hopkins
Bartley J. Hopkins, 81, died at his home west of Weeping Water Tuesday evening, April 4th, at eight o'clock. Mr. Hopkins had been ill since a week ago last Sunday. During his last hours, he suffered greatly.

Bartley J. Hopkins and Mary Ann Mitchell were married near Griswold, Iowa, January 15, 1882, and came to Cass county, Nebraska, in 1883, and moved onto the farm which has been his home since then. To them were born ten children, eight of whom are still living and all live in Cass county. They are Mrs. Herman Brunkow, Mrs. Carl Compton, Mrs. Edward Steinkamp, John Hopkins, Guy Hopkins, Chester Hopkins, Floyd Hopkins and Mrs. John Ruge.

Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Hopkins preceded her husband in death by a few months.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the M. E. church

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

Mrs. Susan A. Maddox
Mrs. Susan A. Maddox was born June 1st, 1856 at Chickasaw, Iowa where she resided during her childhood and for some time after. She came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.

came to Nebraska over 60 years ago and was united in marriage with Wm. Maddox, making their home in Cass county for many years. Mrs. Maddox has just now been making her home with her son of Ogallala, Nebraska, where she passed away Sunday, April 2nd. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and cared for by the Hobson funeral home.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon at the funeral home, supervised by Richmond P. Hobson, the funeral oration being given by Rev. Lenker, pastor of the Weeping Water Methodist church. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Celebrate Sixth Anniversary.
At the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Weeping Water will celebrate the sixth anniversary of this organization over the nation next Saturday afternoon. The public is urged to come and inspect the camp and know just what is taught and expected of the members. There will be exhibition of the educational and recreation features as well as some special features. There will be a softball game between the camp team and the Weeping Water Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ladies Enjoy Convention.
The delegates from Weeping Water and Louisville to the district Woman's club convention at Auburn last week enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mrs. A. H. Jones who has been district treasurer for the past term with the completion of the term was pleased to have the office pass to another. She has conducted the affairs in an excellent manner and received the commendation of the delegates. At the election which was held Mrs. Scott McGrew of Louisville was selected as the district president.

Clock Refused to Function.
The clock on the time lock at the Nebraska State bank failed to function and when the time came for the opening of the bank, the time had not elapsed for which the safe was to open and the funds and papers of the bank were securely locked. The dilemma was finally solved by Mrs. John Finkel who with the husband have been making their home in Weeping Water, while Mrs. Finkel has been employed in Lincoln was visiting at home over the week end.

Getting Ready for Concerts.
With Dr. Kunkel as instructor the Weeping Water band started last week with their practice, that they may as soon as the weather is favorable provide concerts on the streets. There is much excellent talent in the band and they have an excellent instructor.

Home From the Southwest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole late in November were taken by their son-in-law Edward Olsen of Oshkosh to Arizona where Mr. Cole and wife remained for the winter spending four months at Phoenix and enjoying the very mild climate, renting an apartment with all modern conveniences at a nominal cost of $25 per month, with the living expenses very low and costing for the entire four months less than $200.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. George Olive where they enjoyed a pleasant time playing contract bridge, and a fine luncheon.