

Mrs. C. E. Withrow Dies Monday at Palmyra

Was a Resident of Plattsmouth While Husband Conducted the Plattsmouth Tribune.

Mary Roddy was born at Nebraska City sixty-seven years ago and has made her home in Otoe and Cass counties during her entire life. In 1890 she was united in marriage with C. Elmer Withrow. To this union was born, Elmer Withrow of Union; two daughters, Mrs. Dr. Nauveux of Omaha and Mrs. Cecil Conklin.

Mrs. Withrow was taken ill some years ago and has been taking treatment, being in the hospital a number of times. She was afflicted with cancer, and was at an Omaha hospital, also at the Mayo Brothers at Rochester, Minn., and for a long time at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City. The family have recently been making their home at Palmyra where Mr. Withrow conducts the Palmyra Items. Mrs. Withrow returned home from the hospital some weeks ago and has been gradually sinking until death came to her relief Monday noon of this week. Her brother, Jack Roddy was over to visit the sister Friday of last week when she knew him, but on Sunday when her son, Elmer Withrow of Union visited the mother she was not able to recognize him.

Later a further account of this excellent woman will be published in this paper.

METHODIST CHURCH

Good Friday evening the choir will present a liturgical cantata entitled "The Message of the Cross." Text by Rev. Louis Greene. Music by J. Sheldon Scott. This service will lead us into the significance of the death of Jesus and there is no more impressive way to tell the story of Calvary than in music. The antiphonal reading of the scripture will be given by Mrs. J. A. Capwell and Mrs. Wm. Heinrich. Solo parts by Wilbur Hall, Mrs. Earl Carr, Miss Shirley Seiver, Miss Mildred Hall and L. S. Devoe.

Sunday evening at 7:30 a group of the young people will present the drama entitled "The Challenge of the Cross." This is a most impressive presentation of the statement of Jesus, "If I be lifted up from the earth I will draw all men unto me." The characters of the play are: Mrs. Howard Davis, Evangelist; Disciples, Joe York, Shirley Seiver, Ruth Ann Hatt, Allan White, Shirley Mason and Fern Jahrig. Mrs. Earl Carr is the soloist. We invite the people of the community to join with us in these fine Easter services. Wilbur Hall will sing and the pastor will give a short presentation of the theme of the play.

PARITY PAYMENTS AVAILABLE

Parity payments for 1939 are available to farmers participating in the program. The appropriation of 212 million dollars was made June 21, 1938, to cover parity payments for 1939. The house bill recently defeated, carried an appropriation for 1940.

The house passed an appropriation Tuesday, March 28th carrying an appropriation of 509 million dollars in conservation payments for 1939, as authorized in the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

Farmers are making numerous inquiries at the Agricultural Conservation office, at Weeping Water regarding the status of payments for this year. The action taken by congress does not change the conservation or parity payments available to cooperators in the program.

IN MEMORY OF PHILIP T. BECKER

He has gone from our midst, Through a pathway of gold, And entered the Haven Where nothing grows old.

The good Lord has called him From this earth of ours And taken him from us Into his wonderful powers.

Though we may mourn For our loved one at rest No one knows why The good Lord knows best.

The Bible has told us these few words, "The young may die—the old must." (His Spirit to heaven is resting in peace, His body is mouldering to ashes and dust.

His cares are free, His trials are o'er, And we shall all meet him On that beautiful shore.

And live with him there As we did here on earth, And ever be happy With the Lord and his myrth.

—By Mrs. Earl H. Berglund, (Marie Speck) niece of the departed.
