SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—
Here for Easter Dinner—
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Larson had as dinner guests Easter Sunday, Mr. Larson's mother, Mr. L. G. Larson; and his sister, Mrs. R. E. Foster and family of Union.

Celebrates Birthday—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Meisinger was the scene of a very delightful birthday party on Sunday, the event honoring their son Leo, who was observing his eighteenth birthday. One feature was a fine angel food cake, a gift to the guest of honor. The members of the party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Meisinger, Myra Jane and Dick, Dale Meisinger, Edine Capsey, Gene Elliott and Leo Meisinger.

Have Family Gathering—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patton in the south part of the city was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering on Easter day, a fine dinner being a feature of the occasion and a day filled with visiting and family reunion. With the parents were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patton and family and Miss Ruth Ann Patton, while gifts and messages were received from other members of the family, among these being a beautiful bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Patton of Sacramento, California.

Celebrates Birthday—

Saturday evening a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Hamilton Mark to help celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Joe Faith, a sister of Mrs. Mark was also having a birthday the same day and this is the first time for many years that the sisters were not together on their birthday.

Mrs. Faith moved to Torrance, California last August.

Mrs. Mark received a number of very pretty gifts and all that were present enjoyed the evening very much.

Surprised on Birthday—

Saturday evening a group of close friends and associates gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Renner, residing in the west part of the city, and tendered her a surprise birthday party. The occasion was in the form of a covered dish luncheon and all came with well-laden baskets to help celebrate the passing of her birthday anniversary.

The evening was spent in playing pinocle and visiting.

Following the party refreshments were served by a number of the guests present.

The following guests were present at the observance: Mr. and Mrs. Will Renner, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Parker and son, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Higgins and child, Mr. and Mrs. James Ault, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smock, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Charles Renner.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Entertains for Miss Lowson—
Miss Shirley Selver entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Selver in honor of Miss Florence Lowson, a student at the Wesleyan University at Lincoln, who was here for the Easter holidays visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lowson.

Have Family Party—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Egenberger was the scene of a very delightful family party on Sunday when all of the children were here for the afternoon and to enjoy the Easter supper that had been arranged by Mrs. Egenberger. Those who were here were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Egenberger and children, Bernard and Henry, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Egenberger and son, John Louis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter and Beverly, of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger of this city.

Enjoy Easter Supper—

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker of Plattsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and family, Betty Ann, Jackie and Bonnie Bell of Union were dinner guests Easter Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hull and family. Also Mr. and Mrs. Hull Glaze and sons, Jackie and Dickie were Easter supper guests, all enjoying the day very much.

Farewell for Minors—

A group of friends and close associates, numbering eleven, assembled at the L. O. Minor home last evening where a "Dutch Treat" was held. The occasion occurred at 6:30 and was held in the form of a farewell party. Mr. and Mrs. Minor located in Kankakee, Illinois where Mr. Minor was transferred.

Following the luncheon a social evening was enjoyed by the old friends.

Among the guests present were: Mrs. John Tidball, Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Heineman, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Devoe and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor.

Honored on Birthday—

Last evening the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Starkjohn on North Ninth street was the scene of a very enjoyable birthday party to mark the eightieth anniversary of Mrs. Starkjohn. Mrs. Starkjohn, who was born in Illinois, came to Nebraska when a child and has been a resident here since that time and had a large part in the up-building of this section of the state. With her husband, who will celebrate his eighty-seventh birthday in August, they have been numbered among the most highly respected residents of the community. The birthday dinner was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn and Mr. and Mrs. William Starkjohn, who joined with the parents and grandparents. A lovely birthday cake, baked by Mrs. William Starkjohn was presented to the guest of honor.

Standard Bearers Meet—

The Standard Bearer girls of the First Methodist church met at the home of Misses Margaret and Billie Sylvester last evening for their regular meeting. Co-hostesses were Misses Opal Byers, Helen Johnson and Margie Lancaster.

The devotionals were given by Miss Dorothy Glock. Following the devotionals the club's lesson was given by different members of the group.

At the conclusion of the meeting the committee served refreshments to the twenty-one present.

Surprised on Birthday—

Mrs. Harold Hull was pleasantly surprised when a group of friends and neighbors came with well-filled baskets to help celebrate the passing of her birthday.

Several lovely birthday cakes were presented and were enjoyed immensely by all. The evening was spent in playing pinocle and Chinese checkers. High score in checkers went to Malvern Reed and low to Mrs. F. G. Hull. High score in pinocle went to Mrs. Newton Sullivan, Mrs. Ralph Sullivan and Arthur Sullivan. Low score was won by Claude Hutchison. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tiekotter and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hutchison, Jimmie and Betty Mae, Mrs. Newton Sullivan and Barbara Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Tomer Headlee, Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Reed, Rose Ella, Harold Hull, George and Ruth and the guest of honor, Mrs. Harold Hull.

At a late hour a delicious lunch was served by the ladies and all departed wishing Mrs. Hull many more happy birthdays.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Tuesday Pinocle Club—
Mrs. Val Burkel served as hostess to the Tuesday afternoon pinocle club at her home yesterday afternoon. Miss Minnie Guthmann was the only guest present.

First prize was awarded to Mrs. August Roessler and Mrs. William Puls received the consolation prize.

At the conclusion of the party Mrs. Burkel served refreshments.

Westminster Guild—

The Westminster Guild of the First Presbyterian church met last evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. Louis Lohnes with a number of the members present. One guest, Mrs. Beasley was present at the meeting. Miss Sue Simonton served as the hostess.

Mrs. H. G. McClusky had charge of the April lesson, her topic being "Mission Schools."

Following the April business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Card and Checker Party—

The Plattsburgh Woman's club held a very successful card and checker party Tuesday afternoon and evening. The event took place at the home of Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom who so generously donated the use of her home for the good of the organization. A large number of women participated in the games during the afternoon and a still larger crowd of men and women were present during the evening.

Prizes for the card and checker party were given during the afternoon and evening and were all donated to the club by the business men of the city. The business houses responded very well and the members of the organization desire to thank them whole heartedly for their acts of kindness and generosity in aiding the club to that extent.

At the close of the party refreshments were served by a group of young women who assisted the ladies in serving.

Farewell for Minors—

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor were royally entertained at a 6:30 dinner in the Fellowship room of the First Presbyterian church last evening, the occasion being given in their honor by the Presbyterian church choir of which they were long and active members. The members and former members of the choir and their wives and husbands were present. The table decorations consisted of floral bouquets of Easter flowers.

Immediately following the dinner informal talks were given by the pastor of the church, Dr. H. G. McClusky, who paid a fitting tribute to this estimable couple in their untiring efforts during the years they were members of the choir.

Frank A. Cloldt was also called upon and spoke a few words in behalf of the choir of the church honoring their faithful members. Both speakers were presented by Mrs. J. R. Reeder, who served as the toastmistress.

As a token of esteem and appreciation for their splendid work the choir presented Mr. and Mrs. Minor with a gift of brass candlesticks.

Shower for Mrs. Fisher—

A large group of friends and close associates from this city motored to Omaha last evening where they tendered a surprise shower in honor of Mrs. Fred Fisher. The occasion was held at the Fred Fisher apartment and the event was a complete surprise to the young couple. Mrs. Fisher, who was the former Miss Mildred Dvoracek, was united in marriage to Mr. Fisher in January and since their marriage they have resided in Omaha where Mr. Fisher is engaged as a barber.

The evening was spent in playing cards, pinocle being the chosen game. The time was also spent in visiting and social gathering.

Following the party refreshments were served by a number of the group present who came with well-laden baskets of food.

The group attending from Plattsburgh were: Mrs. Helen Farney, Mrs.

Joseph Warga, Miss Helen Smetana, Mrs. Elmer Lohnes, Mrs. Josie Tallas, Mrs. Frank Horsak, Miss Ruth Warga, Mrs. Arley Christensen, Mrs. Vaclav Dvoracek, and the Misses Anna and Celia Palacek.

THERE are more Ford cars in use today than any other make. And there are more Ford V-8s than any other 8-cylinder car.

The 1939 Ford V-8 represents the broadest experience in building cars any manufacturer ever had. You will find values in it far beyond what any other maker can put into a car at the low Ford price.

Ford performance, traditional for a generation, has reached new heights in the 1939 V-8.

And now Ford style leadership is equally outstanding. "The smartest cars on the road" is the way owners describe their new Fords. Smartest in action. Smartest in appearance. Leaders, as they deserve to be.
