

ATTENDS SCHOOL MEETING
 Lora Lloyd Kleck, county superintendent, was at Fremont Monday to attend a conference of the county superintendents of district No. 2. A large group of the eastern Nebraska superintendents were in attendance at the meeting.

PARADE OF PROGRESS BRANDS YOU KNOW

Hinky-Dinky has the Brand I Want... at a LOW PRICE!
 This week we are celebrating the Parade of Progress of Grocery Brands You Know. Celebrating the contribution that modern grocery products have made to the health of the American family and the freedom from drudgery which they have brought to the American homemakers.

HINKY-DINKY always features a large selection of locally and nationally advertised brands. We have the brand you want—not 'something just as good.' And HINKY-DINKY offers you these well-known brands at prices that are always low — prices that mean real savings.

Death of Mrs. Nellie Schluntz at Omaha Home
 Former Resident of Plattsmouth for a Great Many Years—Funeral Here Tuesday Morning.
 From Monday's Daily—Mrs. Nellie Schluntz, 72, widow of the late Henry J. Schluntz, died at 11 o'clock Saturday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William T. Monahan, at Omaha.

The Schluntz family made their home in Plattsmouth for a great many years, Mr. Schluntz being engaged in the Burlington shops. On leaving here they located at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and there and at Omaha has been their home since that time. The husband and father died a year ago.
 There is surviving the passing of Mrs. Schluntz, one son, Chris, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., three daughters, Mrs. W. J. Shanahan, Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Fred Lapham, Ottumwa, Ia. Mrs. W. T. Monahan, Omaha; two sisters, Mrs. M. R. Cusack, Mrs. J. M. Green, both of Cedar Rapids. There is also eleven grandchildren to survive her passing.
 The body of Mrs. Schluntz will be brought here Tuesday morning by the Johnson & Salantro mortuary of Omaha, to the St. John's church where the requiem mass will be celebrated. Old friends of the family will serve as pall bearers and are asked to meet the cortege at the church at 9 o'clock. The pall bearers will be L. W. Lorenz, R. C. Jahrig, E. A. Wurl, Michael Bajack, Emil Ptak, William Schmidtman, Jr.

ATTENDED LEAGUE MEETING
 From Monday's Daily—Elmer Webb attended a meeting of the executive and legislative committees of the League of Nebraska Municipalities in Lincoln yesterday. Continuing its neutral policy as regards L. B. 185, the League legislative committee is making every effort to secure passage of its bills 168 and 170, which provide condemnation rights against the public power districts by cities similar to those permitted against the private companies and also provide for payment of a sum equivalent to former taxes received from the private company, as well as requiring a franchise for operation in any town, in which a schedule of maximum rates shall be provided.
 Regardless of whether 185 (the vote requirement measure) is passed, the League officials feel the safeguards of their two bills as to franchise, tax payments and condemnation rights are highly important. All power bills (168, 170, 185 and 190) were set for consideration by the legislature at 10 o'clock today, but postponed until this afternoon. There appears probability of passage of 168 and 170 with minor amendments, and the real fight to come up on 185.
