Presbyterian Federation—
The Women's Federation of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Fellowship room. A large group, consisting of members and a number of guests, were present at the regular business session.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. R. W. Knorr and the devotionals were given by Mrs. H. G. McClusky. The reports on the recent flower and rummage sale were given by their respective committees.

Following the meeting a program, which was in charge of Circle 2, was presented. The report of the delegates that attended the sessions of the Nebraska City Presbyterian at Beatrice recently was given, these delegates comprising Mrs. Henry F. Goos, Mrs. Glenn Vallery, Mrs. Virgil Perry, and Mrs. H. G. McClusky.

Mrs. R. C. Shellenbarger was present and rendered three vocal solos, "The Elegie," by Massenet, "Three Chestnuts," by N. Clifford Page, and "Second Mueet," by Besly. Mrs. R. W. Knorr served as her accompanist. Mrs. Leonard Stoehr also led the group in the review of the last quarter of the book, "India."

The program was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the committee, which comprised Circle 2. The "May Basket" theme was carried out in the decorations of the tables.

Wednesday Afternoon Club—
The Wednesday afternoon bridge club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Schuetz in the Coronado apartments. Three guests, Mrs. D. B. Ashbaugh, Mrs. Walter Tritsch, and Mrs. Fred Bourck were present.

Mrs. Schuetz won the first prize; Mrs. Theodore Ptak, second; and Mrs. Neville Hodson, third. The Ace of Spades prize was awarded to Mrs. D. B. Ashbaugh.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Wayne Guests Here—
Mr. and Mrs. John Vallery, residing in Mynard, have as their guests their daughter and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Burr R. Davis and son, Jimmy Burr Davis of Wayne, Nebraska. The guests are spending this week visiting with the parents, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Davis. They will leave Saturday afternoon for Blencoe, Iowa where they will meet Mr. Davis and will later return to Wayne.

Entertains for Sister—
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. George Stones entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner at their home in honor of Mrs. Stones' sister, Mrs. Harry Sipple of Springfield, Missouri. A number of the relatives and friends were present at the occasion.

In the evening Mrs. Stones was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Harry Rainey, Mrs. Alvin Smock, Mrs. Sally Gochenour, Mrs. Louis McConaha, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leo Stones.

From Friday's Daily—

Thursday Evening Club—
Mrs. Marie Richards served as hostess to the Thursday evening bridge club at her home last evening. Two guests, Mrs. Richard Beverage and Miss Marie Horn, were present.
First and second prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ray Herring and Mrs. Walter Tritsch respectively. Refreshments were served at the close of the bridge party.

Hard Time Party—
The ladies of the Holy Rosary church altar society held a hard-time party last evening in the parish club rooms. Over forty, including members and guests, were present, each member bringing a guest.

The evening was spent in playing bingo from which all derived a considerable amount of enjoyment. Prizes were given during the evening.

The evening was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Honor Elmer Tritsch—
A number of the close friends and neighbors gathered together and surprised Elmer Tritsch last evening at his home west of this city. The occasion was given in honor of the passing of Mr. Tritsch's birthday which occurred yesterday.
Cards were played during the evening.

Following the party refreshments were served by the group, who came with well-laden baskets of a large variety of food.

Sextet Card Club—
The Sextet card club met last evening at the Michael Sedlak home where they were entertained by the hosts, Matthew Sedlak and John Slatinsky.

The evening was devoted to playing pinochle and Pfank Aschenbrenner, John Slatinsky, and Frank Krapil were awarded the highest honors for the evening.

Following the party a luncheon was served by Mrs. Anna Slayton of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Miss Florence Sedlak, sisters of Matthew Sedlak. The luncheon was followed by a social hour.

St. John's Altar Society—
The St. John's Altar society held a general meeting and a coffee luncheon in the parish club rooms Wednesday afternoon, May 3. Four guests and twenty-five members were in attendance at the social gathering.

The meeting was opened with a prayer led by Monsignor George Agius. The business meeting was presided over by the society's president, Mrs. Baltz Meisinger. Monsignor Agius served as the guest speaker of the afternoon and addressed the ladies on "Catholic Action," an address that was very instructive and interesting to all present.

Following the business meeting a social hour was held in which all participated in the playing of cards and Chinese checkers. Miss Alice Rhoren was awarded the prize for the Chinese checker game, and Mrs. F. I. Rea won the prize in the card playing.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses, which comprised: Mrs. John Hadraba, chairman; Mrs. E. J. Doody, Mrs. L. B. Egenberger, Miss Marie Fitzgerald, Mrs. Lucille Gaines, Mrs. Earl Hardison, Mrs. John Halmes, Mrs. Mike Hauslauden, Mrs. Joseph Heigl, and Mrs. Mary Dasher.
