Picnic at School Grounds.

A picnic closing the schools of Nehawka was held last Friday at the school grounds and was made up of students and patrons of the school, with a large number in attendance. A fine time was enjoyed by all present.

Ships Fine Hogs.

On last Saturday Harry M. Knabe shipped a very fine Hampshire gilt to Joan R. Gillespie at Bonnevill, Ky. This was an especially fine individual, and is going to breeder and grower of fine Hampshires which he is introducing in his territory. Monday one also went to Messrs. L. Hark and L. B. Hark of Roseland, Va., this one making a long ride away over near the Atlantic ocean where the western blood will enter the herds of these brothers. One was also shipped to Maxin, California to Otto Trabin. The fame of the very fine line of Hampshires of Mr. Knabe has found buyers on both coasts of the United States.

How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 38 to 52), who feels she'll lose her appeal to men, who worries about hot flashes, loss of pep, dizzy spells, upset nerves and moody moods. Just get more fresh air, 8 hrs. sleep and if you need a reliable "WOMAN'S" tonic take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made especially for women. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and assist calming jittery nerves and those disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. Pinkham's is WELL WORTH TRYING.

C. E. Pool, Ray Norris and Ernest Norris attended a past master's day festival at Masonic Temple, in Lincoln, and remained for the banquet in the evening.

Richmond P. Hobson is having the funeral home painted both inside and out. Henry Lempe is doing the work. The color is being made the same as heretofore.

Bert Fisher has accepted a position as salesman in the market conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender and should make an excellent salesman for the market.

Russell Van Every who has been attending the University of Nebraska with the closing of the school year will remain in Lincoln, having employment with a hatchery.

Mrs. Helen Clark and Mrs. Richmond Hobson entertained the Eastern Star Kensington at the home of Mrs. Clark on Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with needle work.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buchanan and family of near Nehawka were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew where all enjoyed the day very much as well as a very fine dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pool, Miss Eloise Pool and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris spent Sunday at Geneva, where they visited Miss Hazel Pool, and while there also visited the State Girl's Training School.

Miss Mayme Michelson, sponsor of the Camp Fire Girls, with them have a garden which looked rather sorry before the recent rain, but with the coming of the needed moisture is now growing very nicely.

Ellis LaRue left Thursday morning for Los Angeles, where he has accepted a good position. Mrs. LaRue and Patty will remain in Weeping Water for the present until he finds a suitable home for them.

Ellis LaRue has received from Los Angeles through his brother Luecan, a position commanding a good salary in the west coast city and will depart soon for the west coast. The family will follow later when Mr. LaRue finds a home for the family to live in.

Mrs. Thomas Coppinger, of Lincoln, attended the alumni banquet Friday evening. She remained to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ambler until Saturday morning when Mr. and Mrs. Ambler returned to Lincoln with her and remained until Sunday evening. While there they attended the Lincoln Garden show.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stranger entertained the Monday Evening Dinner club at Hotel Rest Haven Monday evening. After dinner the guests were taken to the Stranger home where the evening was spent playing bridge, with Mrs. Clair Wolfe winning high score for the ladies and Harold Powers high for the men.

Commencement Exercises.

The annual commencement exercises of the Weeping Water high school were held Thursday evening at the Congregational church with a large crowd attending. Mrs. Roy Haslam presided at the pipe organ and music was furnished by Miss Dorothy Everett, who played a cornet solo, with Jean G. Jones accompanying, and six members of the orchestra. Patricia Sperry, violin; Doris Marshall, clarinet; Dorothy Everett, cornet; William Finley,

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD

Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Fruit. The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich food or when you eat hurried, or eat when you are nervous, hurried, or when you are tired, your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over. Doctors say never take a laxative for constipation. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called "Bilex" for indigestion to make the stomach digest. Bilex is a natural substance in no time and get you back on your feet. Bilex is so quick it is amazing how fast it works. Ask for Bilex for indigestion.

also; Lyman Lorensen, trombone; Elizabeth Hinds, saxophone; and Mary Allen accompanying. Miss Elizabeth Hinds also sang an alto solo.

The address of the evening was by Dr. C. H. Patterson, of Lincoln, who took as his subject, "America." He said that the American faith is part of a priceless heritage, and that it is a great responsibility of the class to perpetuate this faith.

Patricia Sperry received the recent's scholarship. Scholarship of the Nebraska Association of Church Colleges went to Doris Janet Marshall; State Teachers College scholarship to Clinton Wilkinon.

Members of the graduating class were:

Restoring Old Building.

The residence property which has housed the Day family for many years and as well did a good service during the years, has been purchased by Dr. Hermann, is being almost entirely rebuilt and made most modern and will be used by the doctor for office and laboratory. Concrete walks and steps are being built and when completed will be one of the finest residences in the city.

Trees and Stumps Removed.

The residence of Richmond P. Hobson which has had some large trees in front of the house, but the very hot and dry weather killed most of them, so they have been removed and the stumps grubbed out and a number of smaller trees planted, the work being done by John Wishart and John McNeill.

Had Beautiful Flower Show.

The ladies of the Weeping Water Garden club Tuesday of this week were staging one of the very best appointed flower shows in the basement of the Weeping Water Congregational church. The representative of the Journal took a peek at the exhibit, and first was greeted with the delicate perfume from the many kinds of flowers which permeated the air, and was a blaze of color and beauty greeted our eyes as we stepped into the room where the flowers were on exhibit, flowers of all colors and kinds, but with our limited acquaintance with flowers we plead guilty of not being able to do the scene justice. However we had to leave before the awards were made but will have another article telling more in particular of the beauty and elegance of the exhibit.

At Stirling Amick's Sunday.

Carl Engelke, who makes his home in Plattsmouth and is father of Mrs. Sterling Amick was celebrating his birthday last Sunday and by a clever invitation he and his wife, parents of Mrs. Amick, came to spend the day with their daughter and family. It was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Amick to have Mr. and Mrs. George Schumacher of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Engelke and children of Lincoln, Mrs. Lee Howe and son of Omaha present for the day and at the proper moment for the fact that the merry party was, was disclosed. A most delightful day was spent and a fine dinner in honor of Grandfather Engelke.

Nebraska City Was Host Sunday.

The Lions club of Nebraska City which was organized about the same time as the Weeping Water club and also the Syracuse club, accepted the invitation to be their guests. It was just a quarter of twelve when the Weeping Water delegation returned home. Now to find a quarter of twelve, divide it by four and you find it was three o'clock in the morning, for three is a quarter of twelve. Good time? We should say they had it.

Surprised on 37th Anniversary.

Thirty-seven years ago last Sunday Edward Freeman and wife were united in marriage, and as the happy years sped by children to the number of eight came to bless their home. Last Sunday, May 21, they had been married just thirty-seven years. It being Sunday they were in no hurry to get going and were just partaking of a late breakfast when they were surprised when their son, Earl, of Avoca came with his family, and was followed by other friends and relatives, some of whom Mr. and Mrs. Freeman had not seen for many years, until some fifty were gathered when it dawned on the happy couple that it was their wedding anniversary. The visitors were laden with good things to eat and were in a mood to make merry. The baskets were opened and an elegant dinner was served. All of the children were there with the exception of one son, Frank, who is a member of a CCC camp in the northwest.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cunningham of Omaha; Everett Moore, Havelock; Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn and family of Howe, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thompson and children, Glen, Bill and Mickle, Silas Miller, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Elgaard, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman and son, Corky, of Avoca; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nickles and Mrs. Frank Nickles, Charles Freeman, of Weeping Water; Dale Tigner and wife of Murray.

Enjoyed Very Fine Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ash were surprised when their daughter and son-in-law of Los Angeles arrived last week for a visit and were accompanied by an aunt, sister of Mr. Ash whom she had not seen for 30 years. They with Mr. and Mrs. Ash made a trip to Falls City where they visited for a few days.

Nature Study Club Visits Here.

The members of the Nature Study club, of Omaha, were on a sight-seeing tour Sunday. They first visited Springdale, near Union, after which a group of them visited at the Kunkel Museum at Weeping Water, and later visited the excavations east of town. Dr. Robert Gilder, archaeologist, was a member of the group. They spent an interesting afternoon here.

Wins Music Honors.

The Scottsbluff Daily Star-Herald, printed May 12, gives a report of the national music festival held at Colorado Springs, closing May 11th, when John Colbert, son of Dr. Harry E. Colbert, received the highest rating with his trumpet solo, and the Scottsbluff cornet trio, of which John is a member received a superior also. John's mother is the former Desdemona Kleckner, a former teacher in the Weeping Water Academy, and Dr. Colbert, his father, grew to manhood in Weeping Water and is a graduate of our high school, so John's success is of great interest to all here.

Leaves for California.

Mrs. Ralph Keckler left Thursday for Los Angeles, California to visit her grandchildren and also a sister of Mr. Keckler's, Mrs. D. Corwin. Ralph reports that he was quite worried for a while as he was surprised to receive from her a card written from Reno. Later, however he received a letter from Los Angeles, so everything was O. K. again. Mrs. Keckler wrote that she found the children getting along just fine. The little girl, who was so badly injured in an automobile accident some time ago, is improving. She is still in the hospital but they are greatly encouraged over her response to treatment.

Alumni Banquet.

One hundred two graduates of Weeping Water high school attended the alumni banquet Friday evening at the Congregational church. The theme of the evening was "Golden Spike Days." The waitresses were dressed in the costumes of '69, the toastmaster, Jim Wolcott wore a spike tailed coat and tall silk hat, and many of the guests wore the costumes of long ago, these mingled with the dainty evening gowns of the present period making a most colorful setting for an evening of fun and brought a bit of the Golden Spike celebration to our own town.

The guests were seated at long tables which were lighted with kerosene lamps. Nut cups were yellow in color and had a red lantern tied to their handles. Place cards were illustrated with two trains meeting and a golden spike, also glass lanterns and glass engines.

Jim Wolcott welcomed the incoming class with well chosen words which was responded to by Clinton Wilkinon, president of the senior class of 1939.

Supt. Behrends then gave a brief historical review of the years since '69, after which the toastmaster introduced some famous characters of days gone by, "Roaming Mike" (Mayme Michelson) who talked about "Ties"; "Two Gun Lottie," (Mrs. Lottie Davis) "Ralls"; "One Eyed Willie," (William Finley) "Spikes." New officers elected for the coming year are: Miss Mayme Michelson, president; Dorothy Rehmeier, vice-president; Eudora Wiles, secretary-treasurer.

Family Gathering.

Mrs. John Domingo entertained at a family dinner Sunday when her guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. George Domingo, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender, Joan Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Domingo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Domingo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snell, Miss Jeanette Snell, Mrs. W. D. Ambler and Mrs. Anna Thomas.

ALVO

(Arrived too late for Monday)

Miss Margaret Greer returned to Lincoln with Mrs. Hughes after the party Thursday evening where she spent a few days with the Hughes family and other friends before leaving on her trip.

Correction.

Recently a mistake was reported concerning the amount taken in by the seniors for their class play, "Tell the Judge." The amount reported by the writer was $27 which should have been $47. Beg your pardon.

Sings Solo Parts with Symphony.

Dale Ganz was one of the four University of Nebraska students to sing solos, for the closing concert of the university symphony orchestra, held at the coliseum Sunday. Dale sang very beautifully "Mother O' Mine."

Dale also took part in the annual recital held at the Temple theatre Monday evening in Lincoln.

Away for a Few Days.

Mrs. Buechler and baby, Maurice Lee, went to Liberty Monday where they will spend a few days as Maurice Lee had been ill with what the parents thought might be measles. Because the little fellow's case was so uncertain the mother thought she would spend a few days with her parents and carefully guard the child with her mother's keep.

Baccalaureate Address.

Sunday evening at the local church the baccalaureate address was delivered by Rev. John Hammel to the graduating class. A large crowd was present to hear the address which was encouraging and challenging to all who heard the message.

The church was beautifully decorated with garden flowers. Don Davis sang a solo. Vera Vickers played processional and recessional marches.

To Attend Boys State.

James Ganz will be one of the 279 citizens to attend the second Boys State that will be held at the agricultural college in Lincoln commencing on June 10. Here he will practice "good government."

Entertains Club.

Mrs. Don McKinon with Mrs. Martin Zoz as associate hostess very pleasantly entertained the Alvo Women's Reading club Thursday afternoon.

Nieces Give Aunt Farewell.

A very delightful party was given by Mrs. Vernon Greer and Miss Dorothy Greer at their home Thursday afternoon in honor of their aunt, Miss Margaret Greer who is sailing soon for Ireland.

About 75 guests were present to bid Miss Greer farewell and wish her a pleasant trip.

Friends were present from Greenwood, Alvo, Eagle and Lincoln.

Gives Book Review.

Mothers-Daughters club members and several visitors were entertained during the program hour Friday afternoon by Mrs. Emil Reike who reviewed the book, "The Horse and Buggy Doctor," by Dr. Arthur Hertzler. The book review proved to be most interesting and entertaining as Mrs. Reike gave the story in a most pleasing manner. Many interesting facts were learned about Dr. Hertzler and his work.

The club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Hummel who entertained the ladies in a most delightful manner.

A delicious lunch consisting of fresh strawberry short cake and coffee was served.

The last meeting for the spring will be held with Mrs. Earl Bennett Friday, May 26.

To Visit in Ireland.

Miss Margaret Greer who has resided for many years on a farm between Alvo and Greenwood left Sunday evening for New York where she will sail on the Queen Mary for Ireland, her native country. Miss Greer came to America when a young woman and has made her home near Alvo and Greenwood ever since.

This is the fifth trip for Miss Greer to Ireland. She has two sisters and two brothers living there whom she expects to visit for the next few months. She plans to remain until autumn. Relatives there are urging her to remain but she has much interest here, many friends and says she loves the U. S. too much to plan to make her home elsewhere. This is the first time for Miss Greer to sail as an American citizen. She has become naturalized since her last trip to Ireland 19 years ago.

Class Night.
Class night for the seniors was held Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium with a large crowd present. Certificates of honor were made to the entire school while diplomas were awarded to the eighth graders.

The exercises of the evening were in three parts. The first part was presented by the band under the leadership of Mr. Peter Gradoville of Plattsmouth. The band played several numbers.

The second part included the seniors part at which time they presented the following parts: Class history, Ruth Rueter; class horseshoe, Ruth Schuelke; class poem, Dean Taylor; class will, John Hursh; class prophecy, James Roeloffs; and presentation of class gifts which was a bust of Washington by Forrest Hardnock.
