Enjoy Trip to Lincoln.

Sunday morning, May 28th, Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Oldham and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little motored to Lincoln, where they enjoyed the day sightseeing.

They drove to Antelope park, where they enjoyed the beautiful trees and plant life, also seeing the animals and pheasants, then on to the zoo building where they admired the rare and beautiful birds, also viewing the animals and reptiles. Then for a very enjoyable picnic lunch in such pleasant surroundings, appreciating so much the shade, comfortable seats and table of the park. After a pleasant and leisurely lunch they then visited KFAB studios where Jiggs Miller very kindly did the honors of showing them through the studio, also introducing them to Earl Williams, another well known KFAB announcer. From there to the great capitol building in time to join a party the guide was just starting on a tour of the building. Such architecture and grandeur was wonderful to behold.

Then back to the park for another enjoyable lunch, before returning home in the late afternoon. Incidentally it was Mrs. Oldham's birthday anniversary and she considered it a grand celebration, and the others a very wonderful day.

YOUNG MAN INJURED

Last Thursday while Roland Rikih, 20, of near Murdock was engaged in plowing with a tractor, the ground being uneven, it did not work so well and he detached the tractor from the plows and was so doing when the tractor which was on the uneven ground, turned over, catching the young man underneath. While his leg was badly lacerated and torn by the lugs of the machine, he immediately began with his hands to dig out of his perilous situation, meanwhile shouting for help and was heard by Jess Kliser and Chester, who is employed by the Kliser brothers, who when told by Miss Kliser, who chanced to be in the yard, heard cries for help and hastened to his assistance. They dug him out from under the tractor and hurried him to a Lincoln hospital after telephoning his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Rikih. In the dressing of the wound it was necessary to take some 96 stitches in the leg to close the gaping wound. While the injury was most serious, the young man is reported as getting along nicely. The many friends are hoping for the best in a complete recovery.
