

LOSE GAME THURSDAY

The local American Legion baseball team was at Omaha Thursday afternoon to play a return with the Holmes Recreational parlor team, the Holmes losing the contest 9 to 3.

The Plattsmouth team led 3 to 0 up to the last of the third when the Holmes team scored one. The fifth and sixth innings saw their lowup of the contest for the locals, three scoring for Holmes in the fifth and four in the sixth frame.

Sedlak and Noble labored on the mound for the locals while Phillips did the receiving. Howard and Vacanti were the batteries for the Holmes aggregation.

DRAWNS DOWN FINE

From Saturday's Daily—
This morning in the county court on the complaint of a representative of the state liquor commission, a complaint was filed against a young man residing near this city, charging him with misrepresenting his age for the purpose of purchasing liquor. The young man who was with a party of other young people, called at one of the local package liquor stores and desired to purchase some refreshments. He was questioned by the party in charge and stated that he was of legal age for the purchase of the liquor. As the youth emerged he was grabbed by a representative of the liquor commission and the liquor taken and offered today in evidence in the case.

The court after hearing the facts of the case and the plea of the defendant assessed a fine of $10 and costs for the offense.

RETURNS FROM COLLEGE

Miss Frances Clويدt has returned home from Columbia, Missouri, where she has been attending Stephens college, stopping on her return home at Kansas City, Missouri, where she visited with her friend, Miss Norma Lee Clyatt. Miss Maxine Clويدt accompanied her sister, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Hartford, (Marguerite Lynn) formerly of this city, Mrs. Hartford being a sorority sister of Miss Clويدt. The Plattsmouth ladies learned while there that Mrs. C. E. Hartford had been quite ill at her home in Florida, suffering from pneumonia. Mr. Hartford, long an invalid, is also not doing so well.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. George Kalasek was taken to Omaha Thursday where she underwent a major operation at the Clarkson hospital Friday morning. Mrs. Kalasek has not been the best of health for some time and her condition was such that an operation was necessary in the hope of giving her some permanent relief from the illness.

REPORTS FINE RAIN

From Friday's Daily—
Attorney J. C. Bryant of Ashland was among the visitors at the court house today. He reports that the vicinity of Ashland had a nice shower Thursday night and this morning a half inch rain that did much good.

PROVE GOOD SURGEONS

James Brown and Jack Lorenz, two of the young bird lovers of the city, have proven themselves real surgeons in caring for the injuries of birds. A short time ago a pigeon, a wing broken by the effects of a bullet fired by someone exterminating the bird life, came to the Brown home, limping into the shelter of this haven. The boys placed a splint on the wing of the bird and it has so far recovered that it was able to fly away and join its mates. The action of the boys is most commendable.

TO VISIT IN CALIFORNIA

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. Paul Vandervoort and son, Paul III left this morning on the Challenger for Burbank, California where they expect to spend some time visiting friends and relatives. During their stay in California they will be guests of Mrs. Vandervoort's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bullin.

HAVE PLEASANT VISIT

Miss Olive Jones, local librarian, has had the pleasure of having a number of guests with her, including Mrs. G. Dal Jones, sister-in-law of Miss Jones; G. Dal Jones, Jr., nephew; and Mrs. Joseph Kane, a niece, all of Evanston, Ill. The guests returned home Monday.

HERE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stokes and Mrs. Marie Richards had as Memorial day guests, Mr. and Mrs. Silas A. Green and family of Omaha. Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Richards are a sister and niece, respectively, of Mrs. Green.

SHOWS RAPID IMPROVEMENT

The condition of Bronson Timm, who is at the Clarkson hospital, at Omaha, continues to improve. The patient has shown rapid progress and it is hoped that he may be able to return home by the end of the week.

VISITS WITH OLD FRIENDS

Dr. Elmer Nelson, of Seminole, Texas, was here Wednesday evening for a short time visiting with his old friends. Dr. Nelson was at one time an operator for the Burlington at Orepolis and later studied as an osteopath and has been in practice for several years. He has been east and is now on the way home. While here he was a guest at the home of County Treasurer John E. Turner and Dr. O. C. Hudson.

ED SCHULHOF IMPROVING

The friends of E. H. Schulhof, who are legion over Cass county, will be very much pleased to learn that his condition at the St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha is very pleasing to the attending physicians. Mr. Schulhof is resting well and showing the most favorable reaction to the operation. He is being kept quiet and allowed only a few visitors as he is recuperating.

DRAWNS DOWN FINE

Thursday afternoon in the county court Duane Clark was arraigned on a complaint by County Attorney Walter H. Smith, charging the defendant with intoxication and resisting an officer.

The court after hearing the evidence in the case as to the intoxication of the young man and attempts to resist Officer Herbert Johnson, gave a fine of $25 and costs on the charge of intoxication and on the charge of resisting an officer, thirty days in jail.

FINED ON TRAFFIC CHARGE

In the county court Wednesday afternoon Harry Roach was arraigned on a charge of driving onto a public highway without first bringing his car to a full stop. After hearing the plea of guilty of the defendant, the court assessed a fine of $10 and costs.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. M. E. Nienart, who has been recuperating at the St. Joseph's hospital from a recent operation, returned to her home in LaPlatte, last evening. Mrs. Nienart, who underwent a major operation, is showing rapid improvement but it will still be some time before she will be able to resume her usual household duties.

FINED FOR INTOXICATION

From Saturday's Daily—
Edward Smith of Pacific Junction, was fined $5 and costs this morning in police court. He was arrested last evening and charged with intoxication. "Contrary to the peace and dignity of the people of the state of Nebraska."

WILL VISIT IN CITY

Mrs. M. T. Lasley, of Hannibal, Missouri, arrived Friday to enjoy a visit here at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans. She will enjoy a visit for the next few weeks in looking over the many places of interest in this section.
