

UNION ITEMS.

No distance too far—our telephone makes us neighbors. Porter Funeral Home, Nebraska City.

A. L. Becker and grandson, Donald, were in Lincoln last Friday to look after some business matters.

Henry H. Becker and wife were in Omaha Monday of this week where they were called to look after some business matters for the day.

While D. Ray Frans was attending the graduation of their nephew, Dr. John Gilmore, Jesse Dysart was looking after the lumber yard.

Mrs. Robert Whitmore, formerly Miss Sara Upton who makes her home near Adams, was a visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Upton from last Friday until Sunday.

The Union ball team was over to Percival, Iowa last Sunday where they played with a ball team of that place with the result that the Iowa team won by a score of 11 to 4.

The members of the Union Woman's club were enjoying their annual outing on Tuesday, June 6 by driving to Omaha for a picnic and visit to Jeselyn Memorial and other places of interest.

Mrs. Victor Clarence was called to Nebraska City last Saturday and was accompanied by the children, where after attending to an errand they had in hand visited with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn were spending Sunday with friends at Beatrice, driving over in the morning and enjoying a visit for the day, with an excellent dinner and a very pleasant afternoon.

Messrs. and Mesdames Oscar Midkiff of Nehawka and Mathew Midkiff of Avoca were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Midkiff where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter who attend the Methodist church in Plattsmouth were over last Sunday and were accompanied by some of their friends, they attending the morning services as well as meeting a number of their friends in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. A. A. Taylor and grandson, Donald Hoback, were in Nebraska City last Saturday morning looking after some business matters for a short time, and in the afternoon Rev. Taylor was called to Plattsmouth to look after some business matters.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore of Murray and Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans were attending the graduation exercises at Lincoln Monday where John Gilmore was a graduate of the medical college of the University of Nebraska. He will be an interne at a hospital at Victoria, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin and daughter, Miss Ruthann were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin, where they enjoyed an excellent dinner. Miss Opal who is assistant postmistress, was spending her Sunday in Ashland with a lady friend.

Enjoyed Nice All Day Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bugby with Dale Karnopp and family made a happy party who last Sunday morning drove to Peru where they crossed the Missouri river into Missouri and drove to the farm of Supt. and Mrs. Bugby where they spent the day at the farm, with a picnic dinner at the noon hour and during the afternoon drove to a number of other places, returning through Iowa viewing the country and stopped at Shenandoah where the flower show was in progress.

Attended Family Gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning departed last Thursday for Keokuk and Grinnell, Iowa, where they visited with relatives of Mrs. Banning at both places and enjoyed a family reunion with the folks of Mrs. Banning which was held at Grinnell. Mrs. Banning formerly resided there and many of the relatives now make their home in and about Grinnell and Keokuk. Mr. and Mrs. Banning were able to visit them all and enjoying a very pleasant time there, returning home last Monday evening.

Visited Greenwood Sunday.

Frank and Anna Bauer, and the trio of granddaughters, Ruth, Dorothy and Bessie Anna Nickles who are house guests at the home of Frank and Anna, made a merry party who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schrader at Greenwood last Sunday. A very pleasant visit was had and an excellent dinner, with a merry ride through the western portion of the county, returning home in the evening.

Both Families Now Settled.

With the coming to Union last month of Gilbert Edmonds who purchased the garage of Charles Land when he went to farming, the Edmonds family were not able to secure a house to live in but later got one and were able to move to Union and become actual residents. Later George Paulas, Jr., mechanic at the garage was married and was not able to get a place to live until the closing of school when they were able to secure a residence property owned by Charles Atteberry.

Visited With Friends Here.

Thaddeus Becker, a brother of our townsman, A. L. Becker, the former making his home in California, but working as a traveling salesman in this territory, while the wife is visiting with her folks in Sioux City, was visiting over Sunday with his brother here. Register of Reeds Ray F. Becker and wife of Plattsmouth were also guests at the Becker home as well as Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ehlers and little daughter, Delores Anna.

Birthday Celebration.

As Thursday, June 1st was the birthday of Mrs. Clara James, Paul, Doris and Lenna Barber, who reside in the home, thought to give her a surprise by inviting in a few relatives for the afternoon.

Mrs. James, who was somewhat weary from her household duties, had lain down for a brief rest, and having fallen asleep was much surprised when awakened by a group of ladies singing "Happy Birthday to You." However she gave them a royal welcome, and they were soon all busy reminiscing about former associations together.

Those present to enjoy this pleasant gathering besides the family were: Mesdames Laura and Mable Reynolds, Myrtle Swan, Robert James, Alvin Madsen, Fannie Elkens and sister, Mrs. Carper. Also Ada Clark and Mary Davis, sisters of Mrs. James.

Lovely angel food cake, ice cream, strawberries, wafers, candy and coffee were served at the close of the afternoon.

WOULD ELIMINATE ALCATRAZ

WASHINGTON, June 7 (UP)—Attorney General Frank Murphy today termed Alcatraz prison a "place of horror" and proposed transfer of hardened criminals from the "rock" in San Francisco bay to a new security penitentiary to be located in some isolated part of the country.

"It is a great injustice to San Francisco to have that place of horror on the doorstep of the city," Murphy said at a press conference.

"The whole institution is conducive to psychology that builds up a sinister and vicious attack among prisoners," he said. Murphy said no definite action was likely for two or three years but that he had ordered justice department officials to study the situation.

Weeping Water

Miss Mayme Hillman has bought a restaurant at Louisville. She took charge June 1st.

Knude Jensen was in Omaha last Sunday attending the races and visiting his many friends.

G. R. Binger was called to Omaha last Tuesday where he had some business matters to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler were in Omaha last Sunday attending the Ak-Sar-Ben races and visiting with friends.

Miss Cleo Jameson left Sunday night for Chicago, after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jameson.

Lawrence Earhardt of between Murdock and Wabash was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Lauren Mickle, of Denton spent last week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. M. Ruby and Mr. Ruby, and at the Clifford Cooper home.

H. A. Henderson, who was taken ill while at his office at the U. S. Engineers quarry, a week ago is able to be out and around again, and is improving rapidly.

Henry Crozier was in Elmwood on Tuesday of this week, called there to look after some business matters in connection with some property interests he has there.

Clifton Cooper, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper, has been in bed for about five weeks with an infected hip. His condition remains about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Almquist, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Almquist and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Almquist enjoyed a picnic dinner Sunday at Morton park at Nebraska City.

The new residence which is being built by Troy Davis for a home is progressing rapidly and it is expected that it will be completed in a short time and ready for occupancy.

Miss Vera and Reba Stock were at Milford Sunday attending the regional conference of the young people of the Menonite church. There were about one hundred delegates in attendance.

Miss Marve Way, a freshman in the Weeping Water schools, was taken to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City where she underwent an operation and since the ordeal has been getting along nicely.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Herman and son, Jack, moved into their newly remodeled and redecorated home this week. They have been making their home at Rest Haven. They are now at home one block south of Rest Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Philpot received a gift last week which they prize greatly. It came from a cousin, Lynn Barrett, of Calgary, Canada, and was a silver tea spoon engraved with the picture of the king and queen of England.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Wilson were down from Crete and spent Saturday night visiting friends in Weeping Water. Mr. Wilson was connected with the Missouri Pacific railroad here for several years, and their visit was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dawson, of Gandy, arrived in Weeping Water in time for Decoration day, and visited with friends and relatives until Wednesday evening when they went to Omaha to visit with Mr. Dawson's sister, Mrs. David Foltz.

Eugene Ludwick and family were over to Lorretta last Sunday visiting for the day at the home of the parents of Mrs. Ludwick. Mr. Ludwick returned home while Mrs. Ludwick and the kiddies are to remain for a week and visit the folks.

Edmond Moore left this week for Peru, where he will attend school this summer. Mr. Moore has taught the Laurel Hill school for the past three years. He has been elected as teacher in the Chilson school north of town for the coming year.

Paula and Reginald Speak are in Liverna, Iowa, visiting with their paternal grandparents. They were taken to Omaha and traveled alone on the train to Des Moines, where they were met by an aunt who took them on to Livonia. They expect to remain a month.

Mrs. Henry Lemke was in Omaha Friday when she had two impacted wisdom teeth removed. These teeth had given her trouble for some time and it is to be hoped that their removal will be of great benefit to Mrs. Lemke. Mrs. Cy Erandt, her daughter, accompanied her to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were in Plattsmouth last Sunday, just driving around and looking over the country. They report much evidence of small grasshoppers but not as yet doing much damage but in sufficient numbers that they may eat the crops if it should continue dry.

Louis F. Neuman who farms between Manley and Murdock was a business visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday morning. He tells of young grasshoppers being very numerous in the vicinity of his farm but says no particular damage is being done yet but expects great damage to crops should the weather remain dry, but says if there is plenty of moisture the damage will be negligible.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pool received word that their cousin, Rev. Abraham Woodard, of Bloomington, Indiana, his wife, and son, will arrive here for a few days visit on Thursday of this week. Rev. Woodard was born in Weeping Water and attended our public schools, and it will be a great pleasure to his friends to have a visit with him and his good wife. Rev. Woodard is superintendent of the Methodist church, with headquarters at Bloomington.

The 500 club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen. This club meets every two weeks and is composed of a group of eight ladies who always enjoy an evening together.

Miss Marie Wade was taken very ill last Friday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital in Omaha, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is reported to be improving rapidly.

Mrs. Edd Scown, of Marion, Iowa, left for her home Wednesday after a week's visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Maude Moulton.

Jean Elizabeth Day, of Lincoln, came down Monday and visited until Wednesday afternoon with friends. Jean reports that her grandmother, Mrs. Murfin, of Denver, is visiting at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott motored to Crete last Sunday to attend the Baccalaureate services at Doane college. After dinner, at Gaylord Hall, they attended the alumni reception and the hobby show at the college. They report a most enjoyable day.

Mrs. F. H. Gorder entertained at a luncheon Wednesday. Guests were Mrs. C. E. Pool, Mrs. Edward Lorenson, Mrs. J. M. Ranney, Mrs. C. E. Tefft and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott.

Mrs. Fred Klepser was hostess to the Bide-A-Wee club this afternoon at her home. The Bide-A-Wees are the oldest social club in town, and include a congenial group of women who visit as they ply their busy needles and spend a most delightful afternoon together every two weeks.

Mrs. G. S. Hunt, Mrs. Ole Olsen, Mrs. W. D. Ambler, Mrs. John Domingo and Mrs. Robert Hall, of Avoca, left Wednesday afternoon for Crete to attend the Women's Retreat of the Congregational churches of Nebraska. This meeting is held each year on the campus of Doane college and lasts from Wednesday afternoon through Thursday and Friday.

Among the Graduates

O. R. (Ray) Clark received his doctor's degree in botany this spring at the University of Nebraska. Duane Harmon is a graduate of this year's class also, and three daughters of former Weeping Water people are among the graduates this year. They are Mary Beth Hitchman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hitchman, of Ord, and Miss Betty Clizbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clizbe, of Valentine, both at the University of Nebraska, and Miss Ann Stoker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Stoker, who graduated from Christian college for girls at Columbia, Missouri.

Milford Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith, was a member of the 1939 graduating class of Wahoo Lutheran college. Graduating exercises were held May 29, with 42 graduates. Milford is a graduate of Weeping Water high school and attended the University of Nebraska before entering Wahoo college. He left this week to enter the summer school of the University of Nebraska to take preparatory work so that he will enter a school of embalming this fall, probably at Cincinnati, Ohio.

To Hold Joint Meeting Here

A meeting of the Fellowship of Congregational Women will be held in the Weeping Water Congregational church next Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. This group is composed of the women of the Congregational churches of Paisley, Syracuse, Avoca and Weeping Water.

Mrs. Ole Olsen, president of Women's Work for the Lincoln district, will preside, and the Syracuse women will have charge of the program.

Undergoes Critical Operation.

Mrs. Wm. Gussett who has been troubled with a mastoid growth for some time was taken last week to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln where she underwent an operation for the removal of the growth, and was kept on the operating table for some two hours and a half, the operation being very severe and requiring delicate work in the removal of the growth from the base of the brain. Following the operation the patient was very seriously ill, but after a few days showed indications of improvement.

Mother and Daughter Luncheon

The annual Mother-Daughter luncheon given by the ladies of the Congregational church was held on Tuesday of this week, with eighty-five in attendance.

Mrs. Edward Lorenson and Mrs. B. A. Olive were in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. L. H. Behrends superintended the serving of the luncheon and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott was the toastmistress who guided the passengers on their journey by airplane, as the airplane was the theme of the after luncheon program.

Plane models were suspended from the ceiling over the tables and at each plate were air mail letters bearing the program.

With Mrs. Wolcott as pilot the guests had a happy journey as they were entertained with music and talks furnished by the passengers, as follows:

Invocation, sung by the passengers.

Welcome, Camp Fire Girls.

Song, by passengers.

"High Flying," Mrs. Frank Marshall.

Vocal Solo, Sarah Hunt.

Piano Solo and Duet, Janet Lorenson and Patricia Waincott.

"Air Currents," by Mrs. Herbert Ambler.

Song, "Whir of the Motor," by Camp Fire Girls.

"Flares and Beacons," by Mrs. Lloyd Ranney.

Vocal Solo, Miss Betty Hinds.

"Sky Pilot," Mrs. John Domingo.

Song, "Follow the Glean," by passengers.

Business Changes Hands

The bowling alley which was established in Weeping Water a short time ago has been sold by the man who installed it, the purchase being made by Ralph Keckler and Knude Jensen, who have installed James Wilcott as manager. Mr. Wilcott is well acquainted with the game and should make an excellent man to care for the business.

Visited Folks Here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buchanan and family of near Nehawka, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sudduth and family from southeast of Murray were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew Sunday, the ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Askew and sisters of Lawrence Askew. They all enjoyed a very pleasant day and an excellent dinner.

Sewer Work Progresses.

With some hundred men actively working on the installation of the Weeping Water sewer system the work is progressing very satisfactorily and every day sees the work farther ahead and completion nearer in sight. It is necessary to go deep in some places to get the proper drainage, which of course requires more work, but with the completion of the work will be the very best.

Taking Their Vacation.

Rev. Harold Baker and wife and their three children of Valley were visiting at the home of the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker for a few days and while Rev. and Mrs. Baker are looking after some work out of town the kiddies are staying at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother Baker.

While they are taking their vacation Mrs. Baker had her tonsils, which have been giving her much trouble, removed.

Visited With Friends Here.

David Ewart, a former citizen of Weeping Water, who has been making his home at Wahoo where he has been employed on the Wahoo Wasp, a newspaper of that place, and making his home there for a number of years, was visiting friends in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week. David has many friends here where he lived for many years and graduated from the Weeping Water school.

Earl Oldham Very Poorly.

Earl Oldham, the trucker and proprietor of the produce station, has been feeling quite badly for some time past on account of returning attacks of asthma which makes it very difficult for him to breathe. During the summer when pollen is on the vegetation he is troubled with the asthma to that extent that it seems sometimes he will be compelled to give up the business here, altho it is paying very well, but health comes before even business.

New Weeping Water School.

The new school house which has been under construction for the city of Weeping Water has been going forward with much alacrity, and besides the very rapid manner in which the building has been erected the building is one of great beauty and most substantial and up-to-date in every respect. The marble floors are being laid and are a piece of work of great beauty. While the time for the opening of school in the fall is some distance away the contractors are to move to Fremont where they have another building under construction and are desirous of getting their force of men at work there.

Sells Many Poppies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Philpot received a letter from their son, Lloyd, who lives at Garden City, Kansas, telling them that their grandson, Marvin, seven years old, received the prize of a Legionnaire son's pin for selling the greatest number of poppies on "Poppy Day." He was the youngest person to sell poppies and sold $27 worth of the flowers. He was also chosen to place the wreath on the unknown soldier's grave on Memorial day.

Makes New Discoveries.

Dr. L. N. Kunkel has made some new and important discoveries recently when searching for Indian relics. He unearthed some Indian corn and fragments of matting made of hemp and cornstalks, some rare pipes made into the form of animals, such as ducks, deer and antelope. He also unearthed specimen of paint rock, a fine specimen of grinding stone and muller, beside many new and beautiful specimens of pottery, some of which are in a good state of preservation. Dr. Kunkel states that the corn is about one thousand years old.

Celebrate Birthdays.

Twenty-eight relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper Sunday, to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Lauren Mickle and Mr. E. M. Ruby. All brought well filled baskets and a bountiful dinner was served. The afternoon was spent in visiting and late in the afternoon ice cream, cake and home grown strawberries were served.

Those who were present to share in the happy event with Mrs. Mickle and Mr. Ruby were Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Mickle, Bonny and Wayne, of Denton; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Elrod, Benton; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mickle, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. John Dietrich, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ruby and Charmaine, Shenandoah, Iowa; Blain Racine, Clarinda, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ruby, Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Philpot, Mrs. Nettie Amick, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper, Clayton, Roland and Lulu Jeanine.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Mary Adams and daughter, Jane, arrived in Eagle last Sunday from Phoenix, Arizona.

E. P. Betts is visiting in Akron, Iowa, with his granddaughter, Mrs. Jay Busker and Mr. Busker.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Pauline Ollerman last Thursday evening were her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Wulf, Mrs. Lloyd Vance and Mrs. Carrie Daugherty of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McMaster and sons of Beloit, Kansas, came Saturday evening. Mr. McMaster returned Sunday evening, leaving the other members of the family for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Saxon and other relatives.

Mrs. Mary Wachter spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Lincoln with her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Peterson and family.

Mrs. Carl Oberle and sons returned on Wednesday of last week from Venango, where they had visited Mrs. Oberle's parents for the past ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Morrison and family of Gandy came last week and are visiting Mrs. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Scattergood and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hursh and Floyd left last Friday morning for Denver, Colorado, where they will visit until the middle of this week with Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hursh.

Mrs. Myrtle Blanchard and daughter, Mrs. Archie Miller, of Wray, Colorado, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Oberle, Mr. and Mrs. William Ketelhut and Mr. and Mrs. William Winters the first of this week.

Mrs. Lennie Deles Dernier visited from Saturday until Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horn. She returned to University Place on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. George Winkler entertained the Trinity Lutheran Aid at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Carl Rodaway, who has been visiting here for several weeks, left for California last Saturday morning.

He was accompanied by Ralph Ramsford, who will make an extended visit with relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wulf and Mrs. Pauline Ollerman visited at the Albert Maahs home last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lois Jean Lytle is employed at the Eagle Cafe.

Daymond Norris and family moved out to their farm on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Blair and daughter, of Harlan, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. Blair's sister, Mrs. John Peterson and Mr. Peterson.

Miss Aletha Tyson, who taught during the past year at Mitchell, Neb., visited last week with her sisters, Mrs. Ira Stull and Mrs. Elmer Frohlich and their families.

William Hobson was in Eagle on Thursday of last week visiting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Palmer, of Detroit, Michigan, arrived Sunday and are visiting Mrs. Palmer's mother, Mrs. Leona Gardner and other relatives.

Mrs. Rudolph Umland, who recently underwent an operation at the Lincoln General hospital, is reported to be getting along nicely. Her friends hope she will be able to return home soon.

Caddy-Schrader

Miss Edith Caddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy, became the bride of Richard Schrader of Lincoln, June 3rd. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald Springer at the home of the bride, in the presence of the immediate families and intimate friends.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Gaddy and Willard Gillespie was best man. After a wedding trip, they will reside in Eagle. Best wishes are extended this young couple.

Bride-to-Be Honored

The Blackbird honored Miss Edith Caddy at a party at the home of Mrs. Willard Gillespie in Lincoln on Wednesday evening of last week. The honoree was presented with a lamp. After an informal evening, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Those present were Miss Edith Caddy, Mrs. Alfred Thomson of Palmyra, Mrs. Paul B. Johnson of Alvo, Mrs. Howard Stege of Elmwood, Miss Melva Wall, Miss Maxine Wetenkamp and Mrs. Willard Gillespie of Lincoln.

Forestry and Bird Club Meets

The Camp Creek Forestry and Bird club held their fourth regular meeting at the home of Dorothy Frohlich, May 31st. We were to have had one bird house made and also a bird bath. Our trees are to be taken care of and later each member is to judge all the trees.

We planned a hike for our next meeting, so we will have an opportunity to observe different kinds of birds and trees. We plan to meet at the home of our leader, Mrs. Bert Muenchau, very soon, where a program for the Camp Creek Women's Home Extension club will be planned.—Club Reporter.

Snappy Stitchers Club Elects

The Snappy Stitchers held their first meeting at the home of their leader, Helen Nelson, Monday, May 29th. Officers were elected, as follows:

Inez Althouse, president; Verda Roekenbach, vice president; Dorothy Frohlich, secretary, and Doris Bird, news reporter.

After the business session adjourned a delicious lunch was served. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Dorothy Frohlich.

Yum-Yum Cooking Club

The Yum-Yum cooking club held their first meeting at the home of Miss Hazel Rudolph. The members are taking up cooking and are busy pouring through recipe books.

Those who have joined the club are Betty Folken, Hazel Rudolph, Fay Scattergood, Fae Rudolph, Marion Dysart, Elizabeth Gardner, Lauretta Herrmann, Eva Mae Roekenbach, Virginia Meyers, Margaret Wulf, Velma Siekman and Barbara Boren.

The officers are: Margaret Wulf, president; Hazel Rudolph, vice president; Velma Siekman, secretary, and Barbara Boren, news reporter.

The club leaders are Inez Althouse and Viola Root. All the members were present at this first meeting of the club, and Virginia Wall was a visitor. Delicious refreshments were served, after which the members enjoyed playing games.—Barbara Boren, Reporter.

See the goods you buy. Catalog but how about the goods when descriptions are alluring enough, you get them?

Put an Umbrella Over Your Crops

Hartford Hail Insurance costs little and is such a comfort!

SEE

PHONE #9 SEARL'S DAWS

The World's biggest-selling SINGLE-EDGE Blade
STAR
 SINGLE-EDGE BLADES
 4 FOR 10¢
 Famous Since 1880
 For