

The Plattsmouth Journal.

Vol. No. LV

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1939.

NO. 38

Home Ceremony Joins Lives of Young People

Very Attractive Ceremony Held at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adam in This City.

Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock there occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adam the marriage of their daughter, Vlasta, to Hillard W. Land of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Land of Omaha.

A double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. H. G. McClusky. It took place in the living room of the Adam home, which was decorated with pink and white roses, with the other pink and white color scheme.

The bride was attended by Modenna Land, sister of the groom. Jerry Adam, brother of the bride, accompanied the bridegroom as best man. Little Joanne A. Wetenkamp was ring bearer, carrying the rings in a white robe.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a lovely wedding gown of white double net starched lace, trimmed with white velvet bows. She wore a bridal veil of white tulle edged with lace which fell in a two yard train. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of hyacinth blue double net which had a ruffled cape made of the same material. She carried a sheath of pink and white gladiolas.

The groom wore a suit of oxford blue. The best man wore a brown dress suit.

Especially impressive at this happy event was the Bohemian wedding march played by the bride's father on the accordion.

The bride, born and reared in Plattsmouth is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adam. She received her schooling in the Plattsmouth public schools and graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in 1937.

The bridegroom was born in Plattsmouth, later moving to Omaha where he graduated from Technical high school of Omaha and spent most of his youth there. He spent the last five years in the vicinity of Plattsmouth engaged in the business of truck transportation.

The happy couple will reside in their new home located on Lincoln avenue south of the city where they will be close neighbors of the bride's family.

The groom will continue to pursue his business of commercial transportation.

Following the ceremony a delightful wedding dinner was served. The wedding was witnessed by some 50 close friends and relatives of the young couple, who bestowed on the happy pair many fine gifts which will prove useful and worthwhile to the newlyweds.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Land and daughter, Miss Modenna Land, Mr. Mark Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adam, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martis, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kiema and son Frank, Frank Luksa, all of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. John Bergman of Manly; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Land and daughter, Nancy Jane of Union; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long of Murdock; Miss Helen and Leo Fiala of Spencer; Miss Dorothy Field and Jerry Adam of Lincoln; and the following persons from Plattsmouth: Mrs. Emma Long, Jess Long, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long and daughter, Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Painter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Wetenkamp and daughter, Mary Kathryn, Dr. and Mrs. McClusky, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wetenkamp, Jr., and daughter, Joanne Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adam and son, George, Mrs. Ed Ulrich and daughter, Dorothy, Miss Betty Vallery and Donald Mrasek.

ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

A number of the young ladies recent graduates from the Plattsmouth high school, are now attending the summer school at the State Teachers college at Peru this term. Those from here who are now taking up educational work at that place include Clara Toman, Vivian Warner, Kathleen Nolte and Mary McCarroll.

TELEPHONE COMPANY PICNIC

From Tuesday's Daily—

The employees of the three areas, Plattsmouth, Nebraska City, and Auburn, of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company held a picnic at the Riverside Park in Nebraska City last evening. A large number of the employees of the local area attended.

A picnic dinner was served at 6:30 p. m., and this was followed by a program arranged by the Nebraska City area at the Grand Hotel.

Attendees at the affair from this city stated that no rain had fallen during the picnic hour.

School Levy to be Raised for Coming Year

Board of Education Votes Increase of a Mill and a Quarter for Coming Tax Year.

The board of education at their session Monday afternoon after a thorough discussion of the matter, voted to increase the school levy for district No. 1 from sixteen mills to seventeen and a quarter mills, this being to cover costs of necessary upkeep and management of the schools.

The board also decided to have a new stairway placed in the Central building during the summer vacation and exterior painting on the Columbian, Wintersteen and Mercerville school buildings. One of the very much needed improvements decided on was that of the redecorating of the halls and entry of the main high school building, which will be a much appreciated improvement.

The board also awarded the contract for the janitor supplies to Jess F. Wurga, hardware, as the lowest bidder.

FUNERAL OF YOUTH

The First Methodist church was filled Monday afternoon by a large group of the friends and associates of Lee Capper, 14, whose death had occurred at Omaha on Friday.

The death had come as a very great shock to the bereaved family as well as the friends who had but a few brief days before knew the youth as one filled with life and hope.

Rev. J. C. Lowson, pastor of the church, brought the message of faith and hope that brings comfort and consolation to the ones left behind in the promise of the rich reward that has been given them that sleep.

During the service Mrs. E. H. Westcott gave two of the songs of hope and comfort, "Christ My Pilot" and "God Holds the Key." Mr. Westcott playing the accompaniment at the organ.

An impressive feature of the service was the guard of honor composed of boys of the American Legion drum and bugle corps, of which Lee had been a faithful member, the guard serving to escort the friend to the last reward.

The pall bearers were selected from the members of the drum corps and the Sunday school associates of Lee, they being Allan White, Stephen Devoe, Billy Robertson, Cary Marshall, James Mauzy and Joe York.

The Sattler funeral home had charge of the services and the interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery.

MINNESOTA GUESTS HERE

From Tuesday's Daily—

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson had as their guests for the last two days Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Blue Earth, Minnesota, the latter being a sister of Mr. Hudson; and Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson of Duluth, Minnesota, the former being a brother of Mr. Hudson. The Minnesota party arrived Sunday and left for their homes early this morning.

VISIT AT LINCOLN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Tutt, and Edward Howard of Murray were visitors in Lincoln Sunday, they being guests of Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luke, Mr. and Mrs. Luke are to leave for California soon where they will make their home in the future.

Cass County Women Enjoy Fremont Week

Council of Home Demonstration Clubs Hold Sessions at New Auditorium at Fremont.

The Nebraska Council of Home Demonstration clubs held their annual convention at the beautiful new auditorium at Fremont Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, June 8, 9 and 10.

On Friday the group of women to attend from Plattsmouth were Mrs. Roy Cole, Mrs. Sherman Cole, Mrs. Sanford Short, Mrs. Edgar Newton and Mrs. R. C. Shellenbarger. A very fine program had been arranged and was thoroughly enjoyed by all of the nine hundred women who were registered.

Mrs. Lydia Lynde, specialist on parent education from Washington, D. C., and Rabbi David A. Goldstein of Omaha were speakers who highly impressed their audience. Maude Nugust, Newton Gaines and Elton Lux all of Lincoln also spoke.

Five county choruses were presented during the day, they being from Lancaster county, Cass county, Otoe county, Cedar county and Douglas county.

The Cass county chorus was presented by Miss Evelyn Wolph of Nehawka and was very well received, they rating high in appearance and musical selections.

A picnic supper and vesper services in the city park concluded a full and happy day, although for the Cass county women the thought that their club activities must end because of a recent court decision caused a depressed feeling that could not be overcome. For many years the Cass county women have received many benefits from their extension work, to say nothing of the wonderful work done by 4-H for their boys and girls, and lately the work in the county chorus which is a credit to any organization. It is their sincere hope that these worthwhile activities may function again in the near future.—Contributed.

FUNERAL OF YOUNG WOMAN

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the First Christian church for Miss Ann Hofaker, who died on Friday evening after an illness of some duration.

The church was well filled by the group of friends from this section of Cass county to pay their last tributes to the memory of the young woman who had been called to the last rest.

Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the church, brought the message of the scriptures to the congregation with their comforting thoughts of the glory of the undying day.

During the services Mrs. Hal Garnett and David Robinson, of the church choir gave three of the old and loved hymns, "God Will Take Care of You," "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Nearer My God to Thee," Mrs. Hugh Stander being the accompanist.

The Horton funeral home had charge of the services and the interment at the Oak Hill cemetery.

RETURN FROM CAMP

Saturday Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury and son, Richard, motored to Columbus where they visited at Camp Sheldon, Nebraska, where a number of the Plattsmouth girls of the Epworth League have been spending a camp period.

The camp was arranged to give the young people a fine period of well balanced activities, recreational, instructive and with the religious periods to make a most worth while experience for the young people. Those attending from here were Dorothy Mae Duxbury, Willa Sylvester, Ruth Lawson, and Mary Ann Winscot.

PARENTS OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knaup of near Wabash are the parents of a daughter, Roberta Gene, born May 30th at the Dr. Kunkel hospital in Weeping Water. Mrs. Knaup was formerly Miss Gene Ola Fitch of Elmwood.

RETURN FROM OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jaeger and daughter, Charlotte, returned home Monday from a very pleasant outing in the east where they visited many of the places of interest in and near Washington, D. C. At historic Alexandria, Virginia, they visited with their relatives in this attractive city of the old south, and also at Washington where the many sights of the capital city furnished a never failing source of pleasure, they note the great growth that has occurred in Washington in the past three years. They also stopped at Baltimore for a short time to visit with old friends for a few days.

Popular Young People Wedded at Fremont

Miss Margaret Henton and Mr. David Toman Make Announcement of Marriage on June 7th.

The revelation of the wedding of two of Plattsmouth's young people was made known Saturday when Miss Margaret Henton and Mr. David Toman made the announcement of their marriage.

The couple, unaccompanied, motored to Fremont, Nebraska, Wednesday, June 7 and were made man and wife at high noon before the county judge of that place. The attendants at the wedding were Frances Anderson and Kitty Roush.

Following the marriage the couple returned to their home here in Plattsmouth and have been able to keep their wedding plight a complete secret until Saturday.

Miss Henton is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henton, who reside on a farm south of this city. A graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1936, Miss Henton entered the Beau-Ide-Al beauty school in Omaha where she spent eight months in training for the beauty profession. Following that period of time, she came to Plattsmouth and was employed in the Powder Puff Beauty shop of Mrs. Arnold Lillie for the last eight months.

Mr. Toman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Toman, Sr., prominent farmers residing near Murray. A young man of keen ability in the interests of farming, he and his wife expect to make their home on a small acreage east of the Burlington depot where they will farm.

NOW GRANDPA HORTON

L. L. Horton of the Horton funeral home, had the very pleasant news Sunday of the fact that he is a grandfather, a seven and a half pound son having arrived Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendt at Murdock. Mrs. Wendt and the little one are doing nicely the reports state and Mrs. Horton was present to be with the daughter and greet the little grandson.

VISITING IN CRETE

Master Richard Rummel departed for Crete Sunday, being accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Robert Rummel and grandmother, Mrs. Will Rummel to spend a few days at the home of Mrs. H. B. Hall and family. On their return they will be accompanied by Miss Joan Hall who will spend her summer vacation here with the grandparents and aunts until school begins in the fall.

VISIT AT TRILETY HOME

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Coe, of Laramie, Wyoming, are here as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trilety, parents of Mrs. Coe. They have motored through and will spend a few days here with the relatives and old time friends. Mrs. Coe will be remembered as Miss Clara Trilety.

RETURN FROM VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kopp spent the week end in Norfolk visiting with Mrs. Kopp's parents. On their return home Sunday evening, they were accompanied by Mrs. Kopp's sister, Miss Viola Rohlf, who will visit here for several days.

Legion District Baseball Season Opens Today

District No. 19 Starts in Work with Plattsmouth at Gretna and Elmwood at Syracuse.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Elmwood—Emmett J. Cook
Syracuse—H. S. Tucker
Plattsmouth—Lowell S. Devoe
Gretna—H. Schumann
H. S. Tucker, Dist. Chairman

The winner of this schedule becomes champion of District No. 19. District champion then enters state championship competition. District champion team must be certified to the state chairman on or before July 20th.

Sunday games are optional with the managers. A scheduled game may be moved either way to allow playing on Sunday or holiday.

Schedule
June 13—Elmwood at Syracuse; Plattsmouth at Gretna.
June 16—Elmwood at Plattsmouth; Syracuse at Gretna.
June 20—Gretna at Elmwood; Plattsmouth at Syracuse.
June 23—Syracuse at Elmwood; Gretna at Plattsmouth.
June 27—Plattsmouth at Elmwood; Gretna at Syracuse.
June 30—Elmwood at Gretna; Syracuse at Plattsmouth.
July 4—Elmwood at Syracuse; Plattsmouth at Gretna.
July 7—Elmwood at Plattsmouth; Syracuse at Gretna.
July 11—Gretna at Elmwood; Plattsmouth at Syracuse.
July 14—Syracuse at Elmwood; Gretna at Plattsmouth.
July 17—Plattsmouth at Elmwood; Gretna at Syracuse.
July 20—Elmwood at Gretna; Syracuse at Plattsmouth.

TO VISIT IN OLD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hadraba, who have just recently returned to the United States from Prague, Czechoslovakia, are expected here this week to visit with Joseph F. Hadraba, father of Mr. Hadraba, as well as with the other relatives and friends. Mr. Hadraba has spent several years at Prague as a representative of the United States department of commerce, but when the country was taken over by the German troops and government, the American force was withdrawn with the exception of the consular staff.

Mr. Hadraba has been visiting at Chicago where he attended a reunion and the commencement exercises of Northwestern University of which he is a graduate.

This is the first visit of Mrs. Hadraba to the United States as she was a native of Czechoslovakia, and the visit with the family here is being looked forward to with the greatest of interest.

SELECTED AT GIRL'S STATE

Catherine Strickland, Plattsmouth high school girl, who was named by the local American Legion Auxiliary as a member of "Girl's State," has been selected as one of the officers in the "State." She has been named a member of the library commission and will study the methods of handling the state library work over the state. The "State" is being held at Milford and has representatives from all parts of the state, the girls taking up the duties of state, county and municipal offices, learning by experience just what are the duties and methods of handling the various offices and the methods of the popular form of government.

DISTRICT COURT HAPPENINGS

District Judge W. W. Wilson was here Monday to hold a session of court and to take up a number of matters pending before the court. In the case of H. A. Crozier vs. L. J. McLaughlin, a judgment on a note was given for $1,097.93.

In the case of Theodore Baker vs. Delia Baker, plaintiff was ordered to pay into court $25 for the defendant.

Suit for divorce was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court by Lucille Helkes vs. Albert J. Helkes. The petition asked that the plaintiff have her maiden name of Lucille Mason restored.

Judge Wilson will be here on Friday, June 16th to hold court.

TO WED IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Andrew O. Moore and daughter, Miss Joan Elizabeth, departed Sunday for Los Angeles. On Friday, June 16th at the First Presbyterian church in Glendale, California, will be celebrated the marriage of Miss Joan to Mr. Herbert Minor, former Plattsmouth young man, and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor, now of Kankakee, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Minor will make their home on the west coast where Mr. Minor has been located for the past few years.

In their new happiness they will carry the best wishes of a very large circle of friends in this community.

Mrs. James Jelinek Laid to Rest Today

Funeral Services Largely Attended This Morning at 9:30 at the Holy Rosary Church.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The funeral services for the late Mrs. James Jelinek, who passed away Sunday morning at 5:45 a. m. following a week's illness, were held this morning at 9:30 at the Holy Rosary Catholic church of which the deceased had been a long and faithful member during her residence in Plattsmouth. A very large number of the old-time friends and neighbors as well as a large number of the relatives from Omaha, Brainard, and Prague were present at the services.

A short service was held at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Anna Zitka at 1727 Pearl street, the Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula, pastor of the church, conducting the prayer service.

The requiem mass was celebrated by Father Sinkula, assisted by Edward and Dowel Anthony Kubicka who served as acolytes. Father Sinkula also delivered the sermon in the Czech and English languages, bringing words of comfort to the members of the family who are left behind to bear the loss of the beloved mother, sister, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

The choir of the church also assisted the priest by singing Singenberger's requiem mass, Miss Dorothy Svoboda, organist of the church, playing the accompaniment. The choir also sang a Czech hymn, an old favorite of Grandma Jelinek.

Following the services at the church the body was tenderly borne to the Holy Sepulchre cemetery west of this city where it was laid to the last rest beside other members of the family who have preceded her in death.

The pallbearers were selected from among the relatives and close friends, they being Joseph, James, and Ernest Zitka, of Plattsmouth; Edward Remar, of Omaha; Joseph Knoflicek and Raymond Wysel of this city.

ARRIVES IN NEW CHARGE

From Wednesday's Daily—

This morning Rev. and Mrs. Samuel G. Schlick and two children, arrived here to take up their residence, Rev. Schlick being the new pastor of the St. Paul's church. They visited for the day with the mother of Mrs. Schlick, who resides at Omaha. They expect to get settled in the next few days and Rev. Schlick to preach his first sermon on Sunday in the new charge.

ENTERS ANNAPOLIS

Eugene G. Richardson, formerly of Mynard, Nebr., reared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wiles has entered the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Md. He passed the eight grades in Dist. 45, graduated from Central high school in Omaha and has completed two years at the University of Nebraska. While en route he visited Washington, D. C., and various other points.

NEBRASKA CITY COMING

The Nebraska City Boosters of Ed McCord are to be the attraction here on Sunday afternoon, June 18th at Athletic park. The Nebraska City team the past season ranked as one of the best in the southeast and should give the fast going Merchants a good game.

Veteran Priest Celebrates 25th Year of Service

Parishes of Avoca and Syracuse Honor Father Elmer C. McFadden on Silver Anniversary.

Members of the Catholic parishes of the Holy Trinity at Avoca and St. Paulius at Syracuse, joined Monday in the observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of Father Elmer C. McFadden, their beloved pastor.

The celebration was staged at Avoca with the masses at the Holy Trinity church and the free dinner to the members of the two parishes at the town hall, where also was held the banquet for the priests of the Plattsmouth deanery that participated.

Father McFadden is one of the best known priests in western Nebraska and has a state wide reputation for his American Legion work as state chaplain and director of the athletic program for several years.

The silver anniversary mass was held at the Holy Trinity church, with Father John Kane of Palmyra delivering the sermon of the impressive service. The church was filled with the members of the two parishes and the group of fifteen priests from all of the parishes of the deanery.

In the evening the ladies of the two churches served a very sumptuous banquet at the Avoca town hall for the visiting priests and distinguished guests that had called to offer tribute to Father McFadden.

Father James Hennessy, of the St. Patrick's church at Manly was the toastmaster, carrying out his part of the program very cleverly.

Rev. Monsignor George Agius of the St. John's church of Plattsmouth, gave the toast, "Our Holy Father, the Pope," a very ably delivered tribute to the head of the church and whom the speaker had personally known and associated with in their college life.

Father Adam Szymdt of Nebraska City gave a toast "The Diocese of Lincoln" and paid honor to Bishop Louis B. Kucera.

E. R. Straub of the Avoca parish and James Carper of the Syracuse parish, gave tribute to Father McFadden and presented the guest of honor with an appropriate gift in honor of the silver anniversary.

Father McFadden very ably and feelingly responded to the expressions of kindness and honor that had been tendered him by his friends and associates in the priesthood and the members of his charges.

BOARD HEARS COMPLAINTS

The county board of equalization met Tuesday at the commissioners room at the court house to hear complaints filed on the amount assessed against properties. The complaints came from residents in various parts of the county and were carefully heard and considered by the board, comprising County Assessor W. H. Puls, County Clerk George R. Sayles, Commissioners George L. Farley, Ray Norris and H. C. Backemeyer.

MURRAY STUDY CLUB

From Wednesday's Daily—

The members of the Murray Study club motored to Omaha today and enjoyed a picnic and a day of sight-seeing. Among the group who attended was Mrs. Fannie Crosser of this city. The group comprised around twenty women.

A picnic dinner was served at the noon hour at Elmwood park, followed by a sightseeing tour through a number of the largest business houses in Omaha.

GOES TO NEW DUTIES

From Wednesday's Daily—

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son, John Gilmore, left this morning for Gering, Nebraska to spend some time visiting friends and relatives. From there John Gilmore will leave for Victoria, Canada, tomorrow, where he will enter the Royal Jubilee hospital to serve as an interne.

Subscribe for the Journal.