

Wabash News

Frank Reese and John Cardwell were looking after business matters in Manley last Monday.

In observance of Flag day, Wabash was outdone by none, as Old Glory floated proudly in front of every business house in town.

William Walters, who is employed at Weeping Water on the sewer job, strained his back last week, and has been kept from work several days.

Miss Mildred Stanley, who was so seriously ill and underwent an operation for appendicitis at a Lincoln hospital, is getting along nicely and will soon be entirely well.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendt in Lincoln last Sunday. The young man has been named Lyle. Mother and child doing nicely. The newcomer is a grandson of Gus Wendt.

Frank Reese is rebuilding his home and making some important changes in the structure. He has placed a new shingle roof on it and is making other changes which add to its appearance.

A small son of Wm. Walter, while playing around the old church that has caused much concern over the announcement it would be sold, found a few pennies and an old fashioned watch chain of the type worn back in the gay nineties.

Frank Marshall, the elevator man, was able to make a car lot shipment of corn last week. This is the first carlot in a long time, as what little corn is being sold is trucked to the city markets by the elevator instead of waiting for enough to make up a carlot.

Millard Sutphin, who has visited here and at Murdock numerous times in past years, when coming to Nebraska from his home in Norfolk, Va., this year is spending much of his time at Lincoln, to which place his nephew, Homer H. Lawton, has moved since he last was here.

At the annual school election last Monday evening, reports were given of the past year. There were nineteen present and voting and in the election of treasurer, August Wendt was named, polling ten votes to nine for his opponent. Now all those who voted for him claim they cast the deciding vote. Anyway he was elected and will serve during the coming year.

Visited Brother Here
Mrs. Mary Nogle, of Mound City, Mo., sister of our townsman, Frank Reese, spent a number of days here as a guest at the home of her brother. From here she went to Hot Springs, South Dakota, where she is visiting a sister, Mrs. Velda Reese—who married a man of the same surname as her own. She will remain there for some time.

Other guests of Frank Reese included Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reese of Nebraska City and Mr. and Mrs. John Cardwell. While here, Mr. H. L. Reese has been assisting Frank with work on his house.

Decorating Manley Bank
Harold Krecklow, who is a hustler, has the job of painting and decorating the interior of the Manley State bank and after the closing hours last Wednesday washed the walls and painted the ceiling, which took him until late in the night. Another evening he went ahead with the completion of the work and now the interior of the banking house presents a most pleasing appearance as a result of the paint and varnish that has been spread.

Well Attended Card Party
Mrs. Wm. Sheehan, Sr., and Mrs. John Sheehan entertained at an Altar Society card party in the hall on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Irene Cook received high prize and Mrs. Frank Riester consolation. A luncheon was served by the hostesses at the close of the afternoon.

Sentinel of Health
Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-ache, dizziness, frequent urination, backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feet tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed by the country over. Limit on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

PROVES A REAL FRIEND
Tuesday evening the telephone at the residence of Sheriff Joe Mrasek shrilled its call, the sheriff, expecting a call for a mad dash after some traffic violator or something, answered the phone. The call was from the vicinity west of Mynard and where a friend was reported as being stranded without gas. The sheriff jumped to his car, threw in the clutch, reeled the mainfalls and away over the shiny strand of silver roadway to the vicinity of the Plattsmouth suburb. Far over the hills rang the echo of the siren of the sheriff and his cargo of John D.'s product rushed to the rescue.

The sheriff was surprised on arriving at the scene to find that the parties in distress was the genial county attorney, Walter H. Smith and Mrs. Smith, who on a trip out to a friend in the country had found their car dry and far from the nearest station. The cargo of gas was transferred and as the story goes, "all's well that ends well."

STITCH IN TIME CLUB
The "Stitch in Time" learning to sew club is still increasing its membership. Each meeting day has added one or more new members. Donna Jean Embury joined the club Tuesday afternoon, June 13 when it met with Patty Heebner, making a membership of 20.

The girls have made some very useful and pretty kitchen hand towels. They are now making and equipping the sewing boxes.

Velma Edwards, roll call chairman, planned the roll call "Why I Like 4-H."

Joan Krapp, president appointed a program committee to plan a program for each meeting. They are Doris Midkiff, Mary Lou Taylor and Gwen Burton.

The next meeting will be June 27 at the home of Gwen Burton. We will have installation of officers and our assistant leader, Marie Anderson, will tell of her trip to club week at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Stalkley were recent guests at the home of Mrs. L. F. Weigart. They were long time friends of Rev. Weigart and wife in the years when Rev. Weigart was minister both at Elmwood and other charges over the country.

Sunday guests at the Lewis Hollenbeck home were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Glock of Summerfield, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hollenbeck and two sons Irwin and Cheryl Lee and Mr. Edward Renner, of Beattie, Kansas. They report wheat looking fine there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schlichtemeier and the children were guests at the home of Mr. Schlichtemeier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlichtemeier, near Murray, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Koch, of West Bend, Iowa, were also there, and a most enjoyable family gathering was held.

Many Attend Den Show
For its size, Elmwood was the best represented southeastern Nebraska town at the Ak-Sar-Ben den show in Omaha last Monday night. Besides the Elmwood band, a large number of citizens of the community went, all enjoying the show. Elmwood received much favorable comment on its band, and was represented by a speaker during the intermission between acts. It was well after midnight when the group from here arrived home. The truck of Emil Bornemeier was used to help provide transportation for the large number who desired to attend.

Attending CSan Francisco Fair
Thor Boyles recently purchased a new late model Chevrolet and with Mose Rodaway left for California, where they will take in the sights of the San Francisco World's Fair. They expect to be gone for some time and in addition to seeing the fair, will also see much of the country, coming and going.

Enjoyed Family Night at Hall
The Daughters of Rebekah lodge have been making a practice of holding what is termed family night, on which occasions, after the regular business has been completed, they observe open house and a social time for all with plenty of refreshments. Mesdames Herman Penterman and Morris Penterman comprised the refreshment committee for the meeting last week.

Home from Kansas
Mrs. C. D. Quellhorst, who has been visiting for several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ward of Paola, Kansas, returned home last week end. Mr. Quellhorst driving down after her. Mrs. Quellhorst enjoyed a very fine vacation visit there and returns rested and refreshed.

They were accompanied home by another daughter, Miss Andrea, who has been making her home in the Sunflower state, having employment there. She will spend a two weeks' vacation at the home of her parents here.

Suffered Severe Injuries
While Donald Hollenbeck and his younger brother Victor were making hay one day last week, Donald suffered severe injuries. Victor was driving and Donald pitching the hay from the winrows onto the rack. The team became unmanageable and Donald sought to aid in controlling them by going to their heads, but they pushed on out of the hay meadow and into the corn field, where Donald stumbled over the rows and was thrown under the horses and wagon. One front and one rear wheel passed over his chest and he suffered other severe bruises.

The young man was brought to town and given a critical examination by the family physician. Luckily no bones were broken, but his injuries were so severe that he was left in town for treatment. Fortunately Victor got hold of the lines and was able to stop the team before they ran far into the corn field, probably saving the hayrack from being overturned with serious injuries to himself.

At latest reports, Donald was resting nicely and will probably suffer no permanent injuries.

Attended Telephone Picnic
Mrs. Lucy Lyle and Miss Opal Thimgan, employees of the telephone company here, were at Nebraska City last Monday night, where they attended a picnic of telephone company employees from various towns in this area.

Sister Dies in Wisconsin
George Blessing, Sr., editor of the Leader-Echo, received the sad news last week of the death of his sister, Mrs. C. R. Lowe, at her home in Monroe, Wisconsin. Her husband, Rev. C. R. Lowe, is a minister, and they have been located at Monroe for some time. They visited here about two years ago.

Mr. Blessing and his son, George, Jr., departed by auto for the Wisconsin city to attend the funeral. As they started rain began falling and they drove through rain most of the way. They remained for a day following the funeral, before starting home. Mr. Blessings says things were looking fine in that vicinity, where dairying is carried on extensively. Every farm has a large herd of pure bred dairy cattle and in the towns there are creameries and processing plants turning out cheese and evaporated milk.

Mrs. Lowe was 56 years of age and the last surviving sister of Mr. Blessing.
