Wednesday Afternoon Club—
 The Wednesday afternoon bridge club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. J. Jaeger. All of the club members were present. Mrs. W. V. Ryan received the first prize, and Mrs. James Maury second. A three-course luncheon served by Mrs. Jaeger concluded the bridge party.

St. John's Circles Meet—
 Two of the three circles of the St. John's altar society met Wednesday afternoon. Circle 1, scheduled to meet at the home of Mrs. Berlette was postponed until today due to road conditions.

Circle 2 met at the home of Mrs. Julius Pitz in the south part of the city with Mrs. William O'Donnell, Jr., and Mrs. Corda L. Pittman as associate hostesses. Twenty, including a number of guests, were present at the Pitz home. Mrs. Everett Elliott, circle president, presided at the meeting, which was a business one; it was followed by a social hour; the members and guests engaged in playing cards, pinochle being the chosen game. A special prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank Mullen during the afternoon. The meeting was concluded by the serving of refreshments to the committee.

Mrs. F. I. Zimmerer, with Mrs. Joseph Sykora, Mrs. James Warga, and Mrs. William H. Woolcott served as hostesses to Circle 3 at the Zimmerer home Wednesday afternoon. Nine members and two guests, Mrs. Fay McClintock and Mrs. Howard Dow were present. The circle president, Mrs. Raymond Halth, presided at the business session. The circle secretary, Mrs. John Meisinger, read the minutes of the previous meeting. The meeting was followed by a social hour of pinochle and Chinese checker playing. Mrs. Marie Halth won the pinochle prize and Mrs. Emil Koukal was given the Chinese checker prize. The afternoon was concluded by the serving of a luncheon.

Presbyterian Circles—
 The circle meetings of the First Presbyterian church held their last meetings of the summer season on Wednesday as follows:

Circle 1 met at the home of Mrs. Warren Scharfenberg with Mrs. Howard Fullerton of Omaha, and Mrs. Henry Nolting of this city as assistant hostesses. The circle reported fourteen members present. The circle chairman, Mrs. George Lushinsky, presided at the meeting, with Mrs. Wiley Stigler giving the devotionals. The regular business meeting was transacted, it being followed by the serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Stephen Wiles entertained the members of Circle 2 at her home, this circle reporting twenty present. Among these twenty were included a number of guests. Mrs. Henry A. Schneider, circle chairman, presided, with the missionary chairman, Mrs. Bertha Shopp, leading the devotionals. Following the business meeting Mrs. H. G. McClusky gave a talk on "Missions." The ladies concluded the afternoon with the serving of refreshments by the hostess, Mrs. Wiles, assisted by the co-hostesses, Miss Olive Gass, Mrs. Earl Shanholz, and Mrs. John Sander.

Circle 3 met with Mrs. Herman Tiekotter with Mrs. John Buechler and Mrs. Richard Beverage as assistant hostesses. One guest, Mrs. Frank J. Koubek was present. Twelve were reported in attendance. Due to the absence of Mrs. Herman Gansemer, who was unable to be present due to bad roads, Mrs. Henry Goos presided at the meeting. Mrs. Virgil Perry gave the devotionals. The business meeting was followed by a luncheon served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Roy Knorr and Mrs. Hamilton Mark served as hostesses to Circle 4 members at the Knorr home at 909 Main street. Twenty members, including a number of guests, were present. The circle chairman, Mrs. Searl S. Davis, presided, and Mrs. Clayton Cross gave the devotionals. The business meeting was followed by a short program rendered by Mrs. Everett Pickens and Miss Jean Knorr. These two prominent pianists were heard in several piano numbers, "Chorale" by Bach, "Puck" by Grieg, and "Malaguena" by Lecouana.

The Fellowship room of the First Presbyterian church was the center of the business meeting of Circle 5 members. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Samuel Gilmour, Mrs. George Ebersole, Mrs. D. E. Waller, and Miss Margaret Iverson. Twelve were present. Due to the absence of Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., who is recuperating at her home from the effects of a severe fall which resulted in an injury to her foot, Mrs. E. C. Giles presided. The missionary lesson was given by Mrs. Raymond Larson who gave a report about Latin-American countries and a year's diary of a missionary in Mexico. During the afternoon Miss Helen Hiatt rendered a piano solo, "Chanson" by Friml. Miss Margaret Iverson gave a book review "The Grates of Wrath" by John Steinbeck. The program was followed by the serving of a luncheon by the committee of four.

From Friday's Daily—
Stitch and Nibble Club—
 Misses Antonette and Lillian Koubek served as hostesses at a two-course luncheon served at 6 o'clock last evening to the members of the Stitch and Nibble sewing club. The total membership present was reported as eleven.

Following the luncheon the young ladies busily engaged themselves in their usual semi-monthly sewing duties.

Thursday Afternoon Club—
 Mrs. Henry Goos entertained the Thursday afternoon bridge club 1 members at her home yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Knorr was a guest of the club.

The afternoon bridge winners were Mrs. Knorr, who won first prize, and Mrs. Frank Cummins, second.

Mrs. Goos, assisted by her daughter, Miss Harriett, served a luncheon at the conclusion of the party.

Entertains Guests—
 Thursday evening Mrs. R. A. Bates entertained at her home on North Seventh street her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thomas of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Pearl Mann and son, County Surveyor Robert M. Mann. The very pleasant dinner party was honoring the visitors as well as the birthday anniversary of Mr. Mann. The table decorations were in blue larkspur. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, who have been here for the past few weeks, are planning on leaving Tuesday on their return to the west.

St. John's Circle—
 Circle 1 of the St. John's Altar society held its postponed meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Berlette north of this city. Seventeen members and 3 guests were present at the meeting.

Following the business meeting, which was presided over by the president, the group spent the time in visiting and social gathering.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Phillip Lepert, Mrs. Joseph Heigl, and Mrs. Clement Nave.

Entertains California Cousins—
 Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hirtz entertained at dinner last evening a group of friends and relatives in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Homer McQuillan and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thomas and son, Donald who are in Plattsmouth visiting with their many friends and relatives. The two families are from Los Angeles, California and the ladies are cousins of Phillip, Misses Emma and Elizabeth Hirtz of this city.

The guests present at the dinner included the Californians, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sikora and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hirtz and family, Misses Emma and Elizabeth Hirtz.

Following the dinner Mr. Thomas showed moving pictures of his family from the time they were small until they were grown, this feature of the evening proving most entertaining.

From Saturday's Daily—
Entertain for Hadrabas—
 Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Heineman entertained at a 6:30 dinner last evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hadraba of Prague, Czechoslovakia who are visiting with Mr. Hadraba's father, Joseph Hadraba as well as other relatives and friends. Mrs. Heineman was unassisted in the arrangements and serving.

Guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. George Dobson, Joseph Hadraba, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hadraba of Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Entertained at Omaha—
 Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thomas of Los Angeles with their hostess here, Mrs. R. A. Bates, were at Omaha as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McCleave, 1510 South 56th street. The guests were entertained at a very charmingly appointed dinner at the McCleave home and later the time spent in visiting among the members of the family group.

Mrs. McCleave is an aunt of Mr. Thomas and at the dinner were present Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, the former an uncle of Mr. Thomas, as well as Mrs. Mark Todd, of Kimball, Nebraska, who is visiting the relatives in this part of Nebraska. Mrs. Mark Todd is a daughter-in-law of the late L. C. Todd of California.

Charivari for Worthans—
 On Thursday evening, June 22 another charivari party was tendered in honor of a recently-wedded couple, Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Worthan, the latter formerly Miss Edythe Lynn Lushinsky, who were married Sunday evening, June 18 at the First Presbyterian church in this city. The charivari, held at Mr. and Mrs. Worthan's new home in Murray, was attended by some seventy-five friends and relatives of this popular couple, Plattsmouth, Mynard, and Murray being represented.

The evening was spent in visiting and social gathering among the large group present. Favors were also given out to the men and women present.

At a late hour refreshments were served the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Worthan, assisted by a number of their friends and relatives.

Shower for Miss Simonton—
 Mrs. Louis Lohnes and Miss Marie Vallery entertained at a miscellaneous shower last evening at the latter's home at 902 Second Avenue in honor of Miss Sue Simonton whose marriage to Mr. Ralph Hyde will take place Sunday, June 25 at Louisville. A large group of the close friends of the bride-to-be were in attendance at the shower.

The evening was spent in playing games with prizes being awarded to Mrs. George Thun and Mrs. Arlie Christensen. A bride book was made as a convenience to the coming bride and the prize for the best book was given to Miss Frances Koebel. During the evening the guest of honor, Miss Simonton opened and displayed the many useful and beautiful gifts, that were arranged in the umbrella style.

Following the party the hostesses served a luncheon.

VETERAN PITCHER HERE
 Thursday evening one of the best known figures in Omaha baseball history was a visitor in the city for a few hours, coming down with Earl Jardine for a short combined business and pleasure trip. This ball player was Joe Lotz, who for a great many seasons with the big shot of the metropolitan semi-pro ranks and later entered professional ball. Joe in his price was one of the best men in the game, leaving a record that has been hard for his successors to shoot at.

Time to Think About the 4th
Wherever You Celebrate You'll Need Clothes for the Occasion—A Few Suggestions Offered

The Fourth is just around the corner. If you are going on a picnic, you will need a play suit or a slack suit. Why not drop in and see those new slack suits made by Sally Togs, inspired by Ginger Rogers. Sizes 12 to 20. Price is only $1.95.

Then, for those going to a celebration, there's need for a new dress and we recommend Nelly Don Soap-sud fashions, priced as low as $1.95 and up to $7.95. They make summer lighter in every way. Keep you looking blithe and gay. Make those cleaning worries nil, in other words—they fill the bill. Nelly Don styled them just for you, with all your summer plans in view—for work and play, for travel fun—in colors bright as a summer's sun. Just try one on (or try them all). Wear them now—and on to fall.

Also new cool summer sheers at only $1. Not just a few, but dozens of these dresses to select from in sizes 12 to 52.

Then, you'll undoubtedly want a new hat for the fourth or your trip. We're showing many new white straws and linens, also navy and black. Felts in pastel shades, priced at $1.00 and $1.95.

Come into the Ladies Toggery this week and see the new merchandise arriving for Fourth of July shoppers. It's always a pleasure to show you the new and becoming modes. We invite comparison of quality and price.

Coats and Suits
 These grand fashions are being ticked off fast by vacationers and those planning for early fall. Our remaining entire stock of dark dress coats, pastel and tweed casual coats are on sale at greatly reduced prices from $2.95 to $10.95.

Whatever your needs and desires in ladies apparel, you can fill them most economically at—

MARRIED AT GRAND ISLAND
 Miss Henrietta Oxley, daughter of Mrs. Edith Oxley of Cedar Creek was united in marriage at the Christian church at Grand Island by Rev. Lowell MacFarlane Monday, June 19 to Mr. Daniel Lee, Jr., of Polk, Nebraska, son of Mr. Daniel Lee of Wyoming.

The bride wore a blue dress with black accessories. The groom wore a business suit of Oxford gray.

The young people will motor to Washington state where they expect to make their home. The bride attended Plattsmouth high school one year.

"JUST SO" SEWING CLUB
 Betty Schubeck entertained the Just So sewing club Friday morning at her home.

The members of this Learning to Sew 4-H club are working on their aprons.

Louise Miller gave a demonstration on buttonholes and Betty Schubeck showed how to apply rockcrack.

They are planning an Apron Parade at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Ruth Ann Hatt next Friday morning at 9:30. All members are urged to bring their completed aprons.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Ernest Schubeck and Betty.

MARRIED AT GLENWOOD
 Before the district judge in Glenwood, Iowa, Mrs. Florence Brown and Mr. Willie Robinson of this city were united in marriage in the Glenwood courthouse on Friday, June 2, 1939. The couple was accompanied by the groom's father, who served as witness during the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a blue satin frock and the groom wore a gray suit.

Following the wedding ceremony the wedded couple motored back to Plattsmouth where they started housekeeping immediately. They are residing in one of the residences on North Fifth street.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Kennedy of this city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson, also of Plattsmouth.

The Journal with their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.
