Misses Mary Hitt and Jane Hitt will give the demonstrations, Mary Hitt scheduled to sew a pocket on an apron and Jane Hitt is scheduled to darn a stocking. Plans and arrangements will also be completed to hold an Indian Tea for the mothers of the members.

CAR SKIDS IN DITCH

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening Carl J. Schneider, who was returning home from Lincoln, had his car start skidding when a short ways north of the Murray corner on highway No. 75. The driver was unable to get the car back under control and it finally skidded into a small ditch. It was necessary to have a wrecker come out and get the car back on the highway.

DROP GAME TO MANLEY

From Monday's Daily—
The C. Y. O. baseball team of the Holy Rosary church was defeated yesterday by the Manley C. Y. O., 14-6. The game proved to be a little wild as the Manley team scored five runs in the first inning, and one in the second. Trailing by six runs, Plattsmouth proceeded to draw up to within one run at 6-5. However, in the fifth and sixth innings the Manley boys scored as a result of hits mixed with costly errors. In the first of the seventh, trailing 11-5, the team from Plattsmouth rallied as Chovanec and Aschenbrenner hit safely with one out. However, Erhart, Manley chucker, retired Lutz and Gradoville in order. Chovanec scored when the Manley catcher dropped a third strike and was forced to throw to first.

Bill Erhart of Manley pitched a fine game, giving six hits, walking two, and striking out twelve. Chovanec, pitcher for the locals, gave up eight hits, walked none, and struck out seven. Manley made three errors while Plattsmouth erred seven times afield.

The lineups and batting orders of the two teams were as follows:

Manley—Keith O'Brien, first base; L. O'Brien, catcher; Herbert Standler, shortstop; M. Erhart, third base; G. Erhart, second base; H. Sands, center field; Dale Standler, right field; Harold Standler, right field; and W. Erhart, pitcher.

The local team was accompanied to Manley, where the game was staged, by the C. Y. O. moderator, Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula and John V. Svoboda, former prominent baseball player and first baseman.

DO EXCELLENT WORK

Monday night and Tuesday Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Sheriff Doody were very active in patrolling the highways and on the alert for any motor accidents that might occur or aid that they might give. Last night they were kept busy patrolling the highways, pulling a great many cars out of difficulties along the highways and securing help to get other cars out of ditches where they had been caught in the heavy rain and which made it difficult for the cars to proceed.

The sheriff and deputy proved a friend in need for a great many and deserve a great deal of praise for their excellent services to the traveling public.

MAKES ATTRACTIVE PICTURE

Passersby of the William Baird home at Seventh and Main streets have been attracted by the very attractive picture presented by the floral beauty around the home. Particularly striking is the colorful deep pink petunias which are displayed in pots on the porch rails on both the first and second floors of the house. These can be seen for quite a distance and certainly add a touch of color to the decorations of the home.

TO VISIT CANADIAN COAST

Mrs. John Donelan spent the Fourth of July at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Brown and their daughter, Marion, at Papillion. Early this morning the Browns and Mrs. Donelan left for a several weeks' trip, their destination being Nova Scotia. They are planning to visit the New York world's fair for a short time, also in Washington, New Brunswick and many other places of interest.

NEEDLE AND THREAD CLUB

The Needle and Thread club met at the home of Mrs. Newton Sullivan on June 22, and will meet again on July 6 at the same place. We are going to make needle cushions and hand towels for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Konfrst and three children accompanied by Louis Konfrst all of Chicago, Illinois arrived in Plattsmouth Saturday evening intending to spend a week here visiting with the former's parents and the latter's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Konfrst. Mr. Louis Konfrst had not seen his brother for the past twenty-six years and the visit was to be of great joy to him—but only to have it blotted out by death. Even before their destination in this city ended, a telegram received here by the Frank Konfrst family notifying them of the sudden death of Louis Konfrst's sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Kust in Chicago.

The Chicago parties were only over-night guests in Plattsmouth and early Sunday morning they returned to Chicago to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Kust. Two of Leslie Konfrst's children remained here to spend several days visiting with the grandparents.

ELECTRICAL DAMAGE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Lightning streaked its way thru the house wiring at the Elmer Webb home last night, blowing the main lead-in fuse on the second floor, going on through the secondary fuse block in the basement and finding outlet at the point of least resistance in the clock arm that extends above the gas stove in the kitchen. A fan had been left plugged into the appliance receptacle just below the clock, and the points on the plug were melted as the electricity jumped the brief gap to the grounded stove arm. Black streaks in all directions on the porcelain arm show the intensity of the current. Radios and other appliances were not disturbed, as was the fan itself damaged, but the stove lead remains grounded.

TO RE-ENTER SERVICE

Earl Lamberson, who was just recently discharged from his enlistment in the United States navy, returned home Monday from a visit with friends and former shipmates at Chicago. Mr. Lamberson was discharged at Coca Solo, Canal Zone, where he has been in the submarine service of Uncle Sam. Earl is expecting to re-enlist for a second hitch in the service but will have a visit here with his father and the many former school friends before he returns to active duty.

HERE FROM WEST COAST

Visiting with relatives and friends in this part of the state is Julius Toman, of Eugene, Oregon, a former resident here and well known to a very large circle of old friends. Mr. Toman is a brother of Anton, John, Frank Toman and Mrs. John Hiber of this city and has had a great pleasure in visiting them and with his many nephews and nieces through this section.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

C. E. Wilcox and daughter, Miss Marilyn, of Lake Worth, Fla., returned recently from Jacksonville, Fla. Accompanying them home was Mrs. Wilcox. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Propst and family. Mrs. Propst and Mrs. Wilcox have recently returned from a six weeks motor trip, which included visits in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.—Lake Worth (Fla.) Leader.

Earl Barkus of Lincoln, was in the city Tuesday for a few hours visiting with old friends. Mr. Barkus was here a number of years ago and engaged in barbering in the shop operated by Percy Dunn.

SMOKESTACKS and WHEATSTACKS

No better slogan has ever been thought of expressing Plattsmouth's objective—farming and industry. Our part in the program is the furnishing of one rather small smokestack (yet it might surprise you to know that we pay out between seven and eight thousand dollars each month for produce and wages—all of this money going to Cass county people—farmers and employees). Accept only Casco Butter from your grocer and help us maintain this smokestack.
