Popular Young People Announce Their Marriage

Miss Marie Allen and Mr. Lloyd T. Frady Married at Boone, Iowa, on June 30.

From Thursday's Daily—
The announcement was made today by Lloyd Frady and Marie Allen, of their marriage which occurred on Friday, June 30th at Boone, Iowa, with only a few of the immediate family in attendance.

The wedding was held at the home of Mrs. C. D. Duncan, a sister of the bride, the simple and impressive ring service being performed by the Rev. R. F. Allen, father of the bride and a former pastor of the Plattsmouth Christian church.

Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Duncan served a lovely wedding dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Frady and the members of the bridal party. The dinner was arranged most attractively and with a large and handsome wedding cake with the miniature bride and groom as decorations.

The bride and groom are now home and starting housekeeping.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Frady are well known and very popular young people in the community, the bride having made her home here since 1936 and has been a member of the staff of the Nebraska Masonic Home. A young lady of charming personality, she has made many friends in the community.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Virginia Frady of this city and has made his home here since childhood. He is a graduate of the class of 1929 of the Plattsmouth high school and is now in the employ of the BREX shops.

The many friends will join in their best wishes to this estimable couple and the hope for many years of success and happiness.

CAR CRASH NEAR ALVO

Wednesday afternoon shortly after 5 p. m. a car-truck crash occurred on the highway a mile and a half west of Alvo when the pickup truck driven by Arthur Lindell, of Murdock, collided with a car driven by W. L. Cople, of Alvo. The cars were damaged to a great extent and Arthur Lindell suffered a fracture of the left arm which made necessary his being taken to Murdock for medical aid and later to a hospital at Otoe to have the injury set. Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Sheriff Emory Doody motored out to look over the accident.

INSTALLS AIR CONDITIONING

The air conditioning of the business houses and residences of the city is growing and one of the latest to adopt this modern method is the Timm Tavern on Main street. The conditioning is from a water plant that draws the cold water from a well in the basement, circulates it and then redistributes the cooler water. The new device is one that certainly will go far toward the comfort of the patrons.

RECEIVE CONDOLENCES

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen and other relatives received from the members of the family on the west coast a personal telephone message on the death of Mr. Krug, father of Mrs. Mullen. The call was from Edward Mullen and sister, Mrs. Lou Henry, who were unable to attend the funeral of their grandfather, Mr. Krug and sent their condolences to the family here.

THAT'S GOLD IN THEM HILLS—Breckenridge, Colo.—Carl Fulton, gold prospector since 1860, teaches little John Parker what to look for after sluicing the pan around. Gold fever is running high in Colorado since the discovery at Mancos of veins running around $2000 to the ton.

LARGEST RELIGIOUS STATUE—Paris, France—Georges Serraz works on his statue of the Blessed Virgin with Christ Child which will be set up in Massillier. The statue will measure 44 yards in height, weighing 1500 tons.

BEST OF FORTY THOUSAND—Winning entry in the art division of this year's American Youth Forum conducted by The American Magazine. James Gardner, 18 (inset) a senior in the Blewett High School of St. Louis receives $1,000 and a trip to the New York World's Fair for sending in the best of 44,311 paintings and drawings submitted by high school students. It is entitled "New Frontiers for American Youth."

FAIR JUDGE JUDGES FARE—Miss Eileen Herrick judges the Army-Navy Cooking contest at the Swift Exhibit in the N.Y. World's Fair. Score: Army—4, Navy—2.

JUVENILE STARLET—Tiny Carolyn Lee came to Hollywood at the request of a studio head, and though she won't be four until next month, already has a top role.

NATIONAL DEFENSE AID—W. B. Courtney (inset) Collier's war correspondent, hails growing use of small private planes as important defense item through creation of airmindedness. He cites fact that Piper Aircraft Corporation is now turning out a Cub plane like the one shown above every hour and ten minutes and will soon complete its 3,000th unit.

POTENTIAL PITCHING STAR—Chicago—A little young, perhaps, but very promising if he inherits some of his dad's skill is Bill Lee, Jr., 5-year-old son of the Chicago Cubs' ace pitcher.
