

MURDOCK ITEMS

Walter Thimman has purchased a new tractor for use on the farm.

Paul Stock, the implement man was looking after business in Weeping Water Tuesday of last week.

Nels Petersen has been assisting with the work of harvesting and threshing at the Albert Thell place.

Jess Stock and John W. Kruger, who have been busy combining wheat for some time, have just about completed their work.

Ray Gamlin departed last Thursday for Clinton, Mo., where he secured a truck load of watermelons and brought them back to supply the towns of this vicinity.

George Small, the patrolman, with the aid of Earl Elliott and another mechanic, have been overhauling the tractor which is used by Mr. Small in the road work in this vicinity.

Roland Rikil, who was so seriously injured by a tractor rolling over on him, has been getting on nicely, and while the severe lacerations he received at the time have not all healed he is now able to get about with the aid of crutches and is showing good improvement each day.

Lee Armer of Nebraska City dropped into Murdock one day last week and called on J. H. Buck and W. T. Weddell, two old friends whom he had not seen for more than forty years. It was purely a coincidence, but they had been talking about the whereabouts of this old friend just before he appeared. All enjoyed the meeting and reminiscences of old times when they were all many years younger.

Supper in Honor of Mother

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald entertained at a supper one evening last week celebrating the passing of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hannah McDonald. Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Besack (both ladies being sisters of Mrs. McDonald), Lacey McDonald (a son) and wife, and Mrs. Chester Mooney. A most pleasant evening was had and all expressed congratulations and best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Getting on Nicely

Bryan McDonald, who was so severely injured when a pole fell on him, tearing his leg, has been getting along very nicely since the accident. However, the lacerations that were very extensive, will require some time to heal. Mr. McDonald has been able to be down stairs and to get about some with the aid of crutches, but the leg still is far from healed. His many friends are hoping for a rapid and complete recovery.

New Pump Arrives

The new pump for the new well for the Murdock waterworks system arrived last week, and preparations have been made for its installation. It is hoped the new well will furnish an abundance of good water and the water problem in the city will be solved.

To Swim This Week

This is swim week at South Bend, an event sponsored by the American Red Cross in order to teach folks, especially youngsters to take care of themselves in the water. Murdock youngsters will take their training there again this year. Louisville had its turn two weeks ago and last week the instruction was given at Merritt's beach north of Plattsmouth.

This is one of the fine services that the Red Cross is rendering throughout the nation.

Swim week begins Wednesday afternoon July 19, at Lake Park near South Bend. There will be no training on Sunday, but Monday and Tuesday will finish up the training under Loren Huzida, who has been the efficient instructor for the Red Cross for several years.

Permits for this training must be obtained and signed by parent or guardian before free admission will be given at the park. It is understood those granted permits will take the training. Permits may be obtained at the bank.

Owing to depletion of fund for local program it will be up to the parents to take care of transporting children. This is our sixth year we have provided instruction, free admission to pools and volunteers have given transportation.

The Chapter officers and local representatives of Red Cross have been tireless in their work in promoting this work to make the existing hazards of our sandpits safer for those who play near them. These workers receive no pay for this service.

Making Improvements at Home

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bushnell, who live north of Murdock, have been making numerous improvements to their farm home, including a new porch and other alterations designed to provide greater convenience and comfort. The house is also to be repaired. J. C. Crawford has been doing the repair work.

Visiting Folks in Murdock

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyers of Sioux City arrived in Murdock Wednesday last week for a short visit, coming to get their children who have been visiting here at the home of the grandparents, Mrs. August Panska and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool. The children of Mr. and Mrs. George Work were also visiting at the home of Grandpa and Grandma Tool. Mr. and Mrs. Work came Sunday for them and with the departure of the Meyers children quietness has settled over the home. They were all full of life and the grandparents were very glad to have them with them.

Depart for Home

William Gakemeier and family of Chicago, who have been visiting relatives in Murdock for some time, departed last week for home, but are areveling a circuitous route that will take them into Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan before they get back to their home in the windy city. They enjoyed a pleasant visit here and were expecting to call on other relatives at different points.

Celebrate 58th Anniversary

Henry Gakemeier, who has reached children for supper, Rev. Walter is near that age, were celebrating the passing of their 59th wedding anniversary on July 6th. On that date in the year 1880 Henry Gakemeier and Miss Bertha Thieman were united in marriage and made their home near where in later years the town of Murdock was established. They remember well the coming of the railroad and establishment of the town of Murdock, having had a part in this early day development.

The anniversary was quietly observed, they being joined by their ed his 83rd year and his wife who and wife of Arlington were also present for the evening meal and to extend congratulations and best wishes to this venerable couple whom all hope will live to enjoy other happy anniversaries.

Swimming Awards Made

Mrs. H. A. Tool, secretary-treasurer of the Cass county chapter of the American Red Cross, together with Mrs. Ray Norris of Weeping Water, life saving and swimming chairman, were at the pool near the Cass county line north of Nebraska City to attend the making of awards to student swimmers at the end of swim week there. Nebraska City had many enrolled, also a goodly number from Union and Nehawka who found it their closest point of contact.

The swim week program of the Red Cross is proving very popular. This coming week, starting Wednesday is Murdock's turn at South Bend. Details are found in a separate article in this department.

Free Swim Week

The free swim week and training course will be held at Lake Park, at South Bend, under the auspices of the Red Cross, starting Wednesday, July 19th and ending Tuesday, July 25th. This will be the last of the series that have been held over the county and residents of Alvo, Murdock, Elmwood, Wabash, Greenwood, and South Bend, are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to have the youngsters receive proper training for safety and life saving. On Wednesday there will be a meeting of the representatives from all of the communities to receive instructions and also a picture of the group. It is hoped that there will be a fine cooperation in transportation and aid in making this a success.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, chief operator at the Elmwood telephone exchange, who is on a vacation, has been spending some time in Denver, where she found the climate very cooling and refreshing. Leaving there she visited in Kansas and will also visit in Missouri before returning to her home here.

Free Swim Week

The free swim week and training course will be held at Lake Park, at South Bend, under the auspices of the Red Cross, starting Wednesday, July 19th and ending Tuesday, July 25th. This will be the last of the series that have been held over the county and residents of Alvo, Murdock, Elmwood, Wabash, Greenwood, and South Bend, are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to have the youngsters receive proper training for safety and life saving. On Wednesday there will be a meeting of the representatives from all of the communities to receive instructions and also a picture of the group. It is hoped that there will be a fine cooperation in transportation and aid in making this a success.
