

Mrs. Bessie Mickey Dies at Masonic Home

Member of Family Prominent in Masonic and Political Life of the State for Many Years.

Mrs. Bessie M. Mickey, 69, member of one of the prominent Nebraska families of the central part of the state, died Saturday evening at the Masonic Home where she has been a resident since March 15th of this year.

Mrs. Mickey was born on January 22, 1871, at Newberg, Pennsylvania, but has spent much of her lifetime in Nebraska in and near Osceola, where she was a prominent and active leader in the community life and a lady loved and honored by a large circle of friends.

She was the widow of Oliver E. Mickey, long a very active figure in the Masonic circles of the state and who was for years a member of the board of control of the Nebraska Masonic Home. Mr. Mickey preceded his wife in death June 6, 1933 and since that time Mrs. Mickey made her home in Osceola until her failing health made necessary her constant care and at which time she came to the Masonic Home. Ex-Governor John H. Mickey of Nebraska, was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Mickey.

Mrs. Mickey was a very devout member of the Methodist church and in her long residence in Osceola was active in all of the social and religious activities of the church. She was also a member of Osceola chapter No. 24, Order of the Eastern Star. She was admitted to the Home here from Osceola lodge No. 65, A. F. & A. M.

There is surviving a son, Arthur B. Mickey, of Laramie, Wyoming, and a brother, A. D. Detweiler of Millard, Nebraska.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MICKEY

Funeral services were held on Tuesday for Mrs. Bessie M. Mickey, 69, who died at the Nebraska Masonic Home here on Saturday. She was the widow of O. E. Mickey, well known Nebraska Mason and a sister-in-law of the late Governor John H. Mickey.

The services were held at the First Methodist church of which the deceased was long a member and the sermon given by Rev. Taylor, of Peru, an old friend and former pastor. The Horton funeral home of this city assisted in the services.

WILL VISIT IN WYOMING

Mrs. Robert Haight and Mrs. William Barrow, North Carolina guests of their cousin, Miss Mabel White for many weeks, left Monday morning for Laramie, Wyoming to spend an indefinite period of time visiting and vacationing. However, following their tour in the northwest, they will return to this city where they intend to stay a few more weeks with their cousin before returning to North Carolina.

TO VISIT MISSOURI

From Tuesday's Daily—
Frank Stone, son of Mrs. George Stone of this city, anticipates leaving for Springfield, Missouri tomorrow to spend three weeks visiting with his aunt, Mrs. H. E. Sybolt. Mrs. Sybolt and Mrs. Stone are sisters, the former having spent some time visiting at the latter's home just recently.

Honor Departing Friend—

In honoring Mrs. John Gochenour, a farewell party and handkerchief shower was given by Mesdames Bill Armstrong, Del Cadwell and Guy Hughson at the Hughson home.

Twenty-four guests were invited. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armstrong and family, Mrs. Del Cadwell and family, Miss Florence Rhoades, Mrs. Jack Reno, Mrs. Mart Sheldon and son, Mrs. Gochenour and family, Miss Genevieve Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hughson and family.

Prizes were given for games played and were won by Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Reno.

Mrs. Gochenour intends to leave tonight to take up residence in the western part of the state.

Junior Legion Auxiliary—

The Junior American Legion Auxiliary's monthly meeting was held at the home of Miss Ruth Westover on Friday, July 14.

Due to absence of the president, the vice president, Miss Shirley Walling, conducted the meeting. During the business session, new officers were elected as follows:

Miss Shirley Walling, president; Miss Betty Jean Vroman, vice president.

Miss Dorothy Jean Turner, secretary and treasurer.

Miss Mary Ann Winscott, news reporter.

Mrs. James Mauzy, sponsor. After the election of officers, the business session was adjourned and the girls were treated by Mrs. E. G. Ofc, who has been sponsor during the past year. It is with deep regret that the girls give her up.—Mary Ann Winscott, News Reporter.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Des Moines Guest Here—

Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Ryan motored to Des Moines, Iowa, Saturday, taking Dr. Ryan's mother, who visited in Plattsmouth last week, home Sunday evening they returned here with Dr. Ryan's father, J. W. Ryan who will spend this week with the son and his wife.

Celebrate Anniversary—

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Schneider motored to Tarkio, Missouri, on Monday to enjoy a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster Patterson, and their family. The date was the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and in honor of the happy event Mr. and Mrs. Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson enjoyed a dinner party at Essex, Iowa.

Celebrates Birthday—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Kruger and children and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kruger and family were in Kansas City, Missouri, Sunday where they were guests for the day with relatives. The members of the party enjoyed a fine birthday dinner which had been arranged in honor of the 80th anniversary of Mrs. Clara Davis, mother of Mr. Kruger. The date also marked the anniversary of Glen Kruger. While at Kansas City the party also spent some time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kruger, the former a brother of H. L. Kruger.

Rambler's Honor Captain—

The Rambler's patrol of the local Girl Scouts gave a picnic supper and a handkerchief shower last evening at the home of Miss Ruth Westover. The occasion was tendered in honor of Mrs. James Mauzy, who served as patrol captain for a long period of time. Ten of the members were present to shower and honor Mrs. Mauzy.

The picnic supper was served at 6:30 p. m. and following a social hour, the girls, accompanied by Mrs. Mauzy attended the W. A. Gibbs shows in the Pollock pasture on Chicago avenue. After spending a short time at the carnival the group returned to the Mauzy drug store where light refreshments were served.

The girls are looking forward to a week of enjoyment at Camp Brewster, which will be held the last week in July.

The group present last evening to honor Mrs. Mauzy, who is retiring from her present position as patrol captain, were Margaret Fricke, Margaret Rea, Alice Rea, Mary Ann Winscott, Dorothea Duxbury, Ruth Lowson, Elizabeth Ann Wiles, Gertrude Cloldt, and Billy Sylvester.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Dinner for Tarkio Party—

Tuesday evening the home of Mr.

and Mrs. C. C. Cotner on South Sixth street was the scene of a very much enjoyed and jolly dinner party, a real Nebraska fried chicken dinner being served by Mrs. Cotner, as a compliment to R. Foster Patterson, instructor of history and the Plattsmouth boys who are students at that college. Besides Mr. Patterson the guests were Wayne Falk, Stuart Porter, Kenneth Armstrong, Joe Case and their host, Donald Cotner.

Florence Duda Honored—

Mrs. Michael Duda entertained at a birthday party at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Florence who observed the passing of her seventh birthday. Eight guests, including the Duda children were present, and many were unable to attend.

The children spent the time amusing themselves by indulging in a number of games. During the afternoon Florence had the pleasure of opening and displaying the gifts that she had received from her guests.

The party climaxed with the serving of cake and ice cream by the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Florence Duda. The birthday cake, with seven glowing candles, was baked by the guest of honor's great-uncle, John Bloom of Chicago and was brought to this city by her great-grandfather, Mike Wurga.

Those present at the occasion were Jennie Lee Spidell, Peggy Jo Kriskey, Stuart Sterling Spidell, Billy Lindner, Joan and Shirley Duda, and the guest of honor, Florence Duda.

Announce Engagement—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Steppat of Omaha announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Steppat to Harry K. Klabunde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Klabunde. A fall wedding is planned.

Miss Steppat is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steppat, Mrs. John M. Kaffenberger, Mrs. Wilhelmine Nolting and Mrs. P. A. Meisinger of this city. She has just been in Plattsmouth recently visiting with her relatives.

A photo of Miss Steppat was printed in last evening's World-Herald.

Honored at Stork Shower—

Mrs. Louis McConaha, who was formerly Miss Maude Stones, was the guest of honor at a stork shower tendered her by her mother, Mrs. George Stones and her sisters, Mrs. Harry Rainey, Mrs. W. E. Gochenour, and Mrs. Alvin Smock. The shower took place last evening at the Alvin Smock home with nineteen guests present.

Games of all sorts were played by those present and prizes for the lucky winners were awarded to Mrs. Fred Vincent, Mrs. Jack Reno, Mrs. J. J. Smock, and Mrs. Harry Rainey.

At the close of the party the hostesses served ice cream and cake.

Mrs. McConaha received numerous gifts from the guests present, one of them being Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, who was the only out-of-town guest here for the shower. The Omaha lady is a cousin of Mrs. McConaha.
