Mrs. A. O. Moore Returns from Wedding of Daughter

Attended Ceremony at Glendale, California, Joining Lives of Joan Moore and Herbert Minor.

Mrs. A. O. Moore returned home Wednesday morning from an extended visit of one month in California where she left the third week in June to attend the wedding of her daughter.

Miss Joan Elizabeth Moore and Mr. Herbert Pollock Minor were united in marriage on Friday, June 23 at the First Presbyterian church chapel in Glendale, California. The wedding ceremony was a candlelight service and was attended only by close friends and relatives of the young people. The service, performed at 7 p. m., was conducted by Rev. Hugh Reiner, assistant pastor of the Presbyterian church in Glendale.

Mrs. Helen Warner of Glendale, California and Mr. Robert Hinz, former Plattsmouth young man and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hinz, served as the bride's attendants.

The bride was attired in a dress which consisted of two combinations of blue—powder blue and the lighter shade of blue. She wore a corsage of white gladioli.

The bridesmaid wore a dress similar to that of the bride and she wore a corsage of sweetpeas.

The groom and his best man were attired in the light gray tweed suits with boutonnières matching the bride's corsage.

At the close of the nuptial service the bridal party all assembled at the home of Mrs. Jack Burroughs, who is a very close friend of the couple, and a reception was held during the evening.

The bride and groom are both descendants of prominent and pioneer families of Plattsmouth. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Moore who reside at 502 North Sixth street. Born and raised in this community, she attended the Plattsmouth schools and was a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1937. A granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leyda, Mrs. Minor possesses a charming personality and has a host of friends here who wish she and her husband a happy and successful wedded life.

The groom, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O. Minor of Kaukaee, Illinois, was also born and reared in the Plattsmouth community. A graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1935, Mr. Minor has attended a number of the well known colleges of the middle west before going to California. He attended college in Warrensburg, Mo., the University of Nebraska, then left for the west coast where he attended the ITI school in California. A grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock, Mr. Minor is engaged with the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation in Burbank, California.

Following a honeymoon trip to Catalina Island, the newlyweds are now located in their new home at 543 Riverside Drive, Glendale, California.

From Saturday's Daily— This morning at an early hour at the family home at 10th and Rock streets, Miss Elizabeth Spangler, 74, member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Cass county passed away.

Miss Spangler was stricken on Tuesday with a cerebral hemorrhage and has since that time been gradually sinking, never having regained consciousness.

The passing of this splendid woman takes from the community a lady who has given a lifetime of service to Christian living and teaching, serving in all ways she might to advance the cause of better living and Christian fellowship.

She was united early in life with the United Brethren church and has been a very active figure in that church and others where her services might be of aid to her fellowman.

Miss Spangler has long been active in the work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of this city and for many years has served as the treasurer of the organization, occupying that position at the time of her death.

Elizabeth Spangler, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spangler, pioneers of Cass county, was born in Plattsmouth, July 19, 1865, making her home on the farm for a great many years until the family moved to this city to make their home and where she has since lived.

The interment will be at the Horton cemetery, with the Horton funeral home in charge. Friends may call at the Horton funeral home at 7th and Oak streets from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Monday.

COLLECTING DELINQUENT TAXES

The Cass county treasurer's office has been kept very busy the last few days, as many people have paid their delinquent personal taxes. This response has been satisfactory but our sheriff informs us that there are still many people who are in arrears and have not as yet arranged with his office for the required payment. Our genial sheriff is doing his best to co-operate with all concerned but realizing his duty as required by law, he will be forced to levy on personal property as ordered by the distress warrants unless response is received from those still owing. He does not desire to do this unless circumstances demand, so he asks everyone to make a conscientious effort to make payment of or some arrangement on their delinquent personal taxes.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Comstock and son, Cecil, were in Omaha Friday afternoon and called on Edward H. Schulhof at the St. Joseph hospital where he has been for the past few months under treatment and undergoing an operation. The condition of Mr. Schulhof has shown little change in the past few days. It is expected that an operation would be performed today to try and secure some relief for the patient.

Plattsmouth People Return from West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson and Family and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Evers and Family Home.

From Friday's Daily— Last evening two families who have been touring the west coast country, returned to their homes after a very pleasant and worth while motor tour of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and their children had gone west earlier than the Evers family, they going to Los Angeles to convey Ensign James M. Robertson there to assume his duties on the U. S. S. Louisville, battle cruiser. They drove direct to Long Beach where the fleet was stationed and where Ensign Robertson took up his work as a member of the official force of the Louisville.

They had then driven to the northern part of the state and visited with Miss Vesta Gray, sister of Mrs. Robertson and for many years a prominent figure in Fremont. From there the journey had taken them to San Francisco to see the fair and the great bridges that have won world renown.

One of the thrills of the trip was the visit of the Pacific fleet to San Francisco and the exposition and they had the opportunity of seeing the great grey grim battle fleet steam through the Golden Gate in battle formation. Here they again came in contact with their son and brother, who had a short shore leave and in turn the Robertsons were guests on the Louisville, enjoying dinner there with the officers of the ship and the show and social evening that followed.

They had a delightful trip through the great redwood country and into the Columbia river down to Portland. There they met the Evers family. Mr. Evers being there for the National Masonic Home Executives association meeting and where he was named as national president.

Mr. and Mrs. Evers and family on their way to the west made the trip via Salt Lake City and visited the many sights of the great Mormon found city of the west. They drove through the mountains to view the many wonders of the great Rockies and their streams and valleys as well as the snow capped peaks that mark the way. They enjoyed also the trip to Seattle and Tacoma, Washington, seeing the Pacific ocean and inspecting the great western shipping cities. They were much impressed with the great markets at Seattle. While at Tacoma they had the pleasure of visiting with Mrs. Frank Cook, former Plattsmouth lady, and old friend who assisted in showing them around the cities of Seattle and Tacoma.

While at Tacoma they visited Mt. Hood, great snow capped peak and where is one of the greatest resorts of the west. Here William Evers, Jr. had the pleasure of skiing and the others of the party in snowballing.

On the homeward trek the Plattsmouth group visited at the Yellowstone and Teton national parks and enjoyed real outdoor life in the most beautiful settings for several days. On their way they stopped to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Guthmann and family at Boise and at the Yellowstone met Joe Guthmann and Miss Martha Gorder, both members of the staff at the great national park.

Free Street Dance Here on Wednesday Nite

Plattsmouth Merchants Arranging for Evening of Fun—KOWH Radio Orchestra to Play.

Page the man who said "There's nothing new under the sun." For several months up at Elgin, Nebraska, there has been something new under the sun, and growing in popularity its fame has spread all over the state. Two weeks ago, the Omaha World-Herald sent its staff photographer to Elgin to get pictures for the rotogravure section of its Sunday issue of this new thing that is creating such interest and drawing people from miles around.

The Elgin (and Elgin rates less than a thousand population) FREE STREET DANCE has become a permanent institution in that community. "Pop" Kelly drove up this week to observe the workings of the plan, after merchants here had arranged to hold one of these street dances this coming Wednesday night, July 26, on South 4th street, a distance on one-half block, from the intersection to the alley at the Richey Lumber company office. He came back filled with enthusiasm for the plan.

Elgin streets were literally thronged with people who had come from great distances. Cars were parked far back into the residence districts and on privately owned parking lots, with still more room needed. At the dance the happy throng mingled together and all were having a wonderful time, says "Pop."

Started as a free weekly feature, a small charge has since been added and the money spent for hiring bigger and better orchestras, and now Elgin is a mecca for some of the finest dance bands in the country. The night "Pop" was there, they paid their music $100.

Radio Orchestra to Play Here The Pete Cradoville Night Hawks, ten-piece radio station KOWH dance band has been secured to furnish music for this opening dance. In addition, before dancing starts the orchestra augmented with band members to the total number of fifty or more will play a free one hour concert.

Everyone is invited to come to Plattsmouth Wednesday night for this free street dance with full assurance that a good time will be had by all.

There is "Something new under the sun." It's the free street dance! It's "clicking" in Elgin . . . and there is every reason to believe it will click in Plattsmouth, say merchants who are backing the program for a trial in this city.

So come in Wednesday night and see this new thing in operation—join the throngs and enjoy yourself.
