

Murray

We go when called. Porter Funeral Home, Nebraska City. Elmer Duerr and wife were in Plattsouth last Sunday visiting with friends for the day. J. D. Lewis was spending a number of days last week at the home of his son, Ed Lewis, near Union. Marjorie Lancaster of Plattsouth was visiting with her cousin, Dolly McCulloch over the week end. A. H. Easter and family of Lyons were guests over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Butler. E. J. Boedeker from near Nehawka was looking after business matters in Murray for a time last Monday morning. Fred Simonet of west of Plattsouth was looking after some business matters in Murray last Monday morning. Mrs. Harry McCulloch and Mrs. John Eppings were visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Arnold in Plattsouth. Miss Josephine Stastka was visiting for the day last Sunday at Nebraska City with a young lady friend and school chum. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles were in Nebraska City last Sunday visiting for the day and also remained for supper in the evening. Mrs. Harry Knabe of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray last Monday morning, looking after some business matters for a short time. Miss Dolly McCulloch is accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boedeker on a vacation into the mountains of Colorado for a two weeks vacation. Miss Velma Noell and Mrs. Marie Lutz favored the Bible school at the Christian church last Sunday with a special number which was greatly appreciated. James Hoschar was looking after the business at the Rock Creek service station operated by W. L. Seybolt, who was called away for the day last Sunday. Robert Elliott and family were in Weeping Water last Sunday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Janet Young and family. Mrs. Young being mother of Mrs. Elliott. Charles Stastka was down to St. Joseph last Sunday where he made arrangements for entering school there at the beginning of the school year in September. At the Bible school session at the Murray Christian church last Sunday there were $9 present with much interest manifested in the lesson and the work of the school. Mrs. Orvil Noell was recently taken to the hospital. Her little daughter is staying with her cousin, Mrs. Albert Griffin. She'll remain here until her mother returns. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Duerr of Brewster, parents of Alvin Duerr who have been visiting in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa were Sunday visitors with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt and Mrs. Margaret Brendel were guests last Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel of Avoca where they enjoyed a very fine dinner together. Mrs. Harry McCulloch, Dick March, Orval Wright and Dick's children were all out to Kearney visiting Mrs. March who for some time has been at the hospital. Her condition is very much improved. Grant Howard, who is employed in Lincoln was spending the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard and family and was taken back to work Monday morning by his brother, Charles Howard. Glen Kratz of Falmira where he has been employed in a business house has resigned his position to accept employment in the I. G. A. store in Murray and will be the meat cutter for this establishment and will move his family here. Frank Dugay of South Omaha, a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, came to Murray and with Mr. and Mrs. Merritt and a number of friends went to King Hill over near Rock Bluffs where all enjoyed a pleasant picnic dinner and supper. Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore were host and hostess to a number of their friends and relatives Friday evening at a very pleasant dinner. Those present were D. R. Frans and wife and son, James Frans, Mrs. Jennie Frans and Mrs. Myrtle Swan, all of Union. A party of Murray people were over to the Bell lake on the Missouri river at the Chris Bell home last Sunday where they enjoyed fishing, swimming and boating, closing the very pleasant day with a fish fry. It was feared that they would not get enough fish for all and some were purchased, only to have the luck to catch all that was wanted afterwards. Those present were Ben Noell and daughter, Albert Griffin and family, Harry McCulloch and family, Lawrence Smith and family, Robert Coffey and wife and Betty and Jack Noell. Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. C. H.

Boedeker and little one departed for the west, going to Estes Park where they will spend some time and later visit Yellowstone park. They expect to be gone about two weeks. The bank is being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boedeker during the absence of Charles and family. The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Spangle of Plattsouth was held at the Mynard U. B. church Monday afternoon and was attended by many of her Murray friends. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Mrs. Margaret Todd and son, Dick, Everett Spangler and family, Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, Mrs. Margaret Brendel, Mrs. G. E. Brubacher, Mrs. E. S. Tutt and many others. Hit by Truck on Highway. While Lloyd Lewis and his little daughter Thelma were driving along, a truck being behind them, and traveling at a good rate of speed sought to pass, and pulled out to go around when it met another truck and the driver was forced to try and get back of the Lewis car again, but was going too fast and swung into the rear of the car of Mr. Lewis. It was fortunate no one was in the back seat, for as it was Mr. Lewis sustained a severe wrench in his neck and the little daughter was bruised. Vacation in Canada. Rev. O. K. Stewart and wife of Omaha, Rev. Stuart being son of Rev. and Mrs. Neil Stuart were over night visitors last Wednesday at the parsonage in Murray. They departed the following morning for northeast Canada at Sellarsville, where they go to visit Mrs. Cora Sellers, mother of Mrs. O. K. Stewart where they will stay for some time. They stopped at Dunlap, Ia., for a visit at the home of R. C. McKie and wife for a short time, Mrs. McKie being sister of Rev. O. K. Stewart. Visited at Smith Home. Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Hadsell and daughter of Auburn and Mr. and Mrs. Veston Robb of Julian were visiting for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith. These three families have been friends for more than forty years and it has been their practice for on one day in the year to meet at one of their homes. The call Sunday was not a regular meeting, which will come some time in the fall and this year the get-together will be at the Smith home in Murray. Taking Vacation in West. Thursday of last week Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and little daughter departed for the west and will go for some two weeks and will visit the national park and other attractive places in the west and enjoy a vacation where it is cool and pleasant. Also they will visit with relatives, as Dr. Tyson has a brother or two in the west. While Dr. Tyson is gone Dr. G. H. Gilmore will look after the practice. Work Going on Nicely. The Murray water system is progressing nicely and to put it concisely, in the construction of the water tower they are having "a rattling time" of it. Water leads have been placed in many of the subscribers homes and places of business and the other work of installation is being pushed forward and it is expected by the middle of the coming month the work will be completed and everybody enjoying the convenience of the new water system. Viaduct Work Being Pushed. The work of the placing of the overpass and the grading of the roadway on highway No. 1 at Murray is rapidly assuming proportions indicating an early completion of the work. At the closing of last week the concrete had been poured on the first span of the overpass and work being pushed as rapidly as possible on the other spans. The grading which will connect the approaches to the overpass will require some time and as well the guard rails which will have to be placed before it can be opened to the public. Conservative estimates place the date for the completion some time during the fore part of the month of September. Y. P. C. U. Meets. The Murray Y. P. C. U. of the United Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting and social hour at the home of Lois and Flora Belle Mead Friday evening. The young people joined in a treasure hunt which led them to many different places and finally to the Mead home where the treasure of watermelons was found. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Stewart, Jean Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Morris, Robert and Ellis Schlichte, Emma Reine Topfiff, Yvonne Deles Dernier, Grace Louise Wiles, Stephen Wiles, Donald Nelson, Edward Wehrbein, Ruth Morris, Bernard Morris, Leroy Topfiff, Lois and Flora Belle Mead.

Weeping Water

A. L. Proctor of Ashland was a business visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Cole, of Lincoln, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Ellis and Mr. Ellis. Frank Wolcott, of Hastings spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott. The ladies of the Methodist church served home made ice cream and cake Saturday evening in the church basement. Chris S. Lein last Monday made the purchase of a new Ford V-8 which he secured for his and the family's transportation. Mr. and Mrs. James DeLancey have as their guests this week, a niece of Mrs. DeLancey, Mrs. Houser and daughter, of Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lauritzen, of Lincoln were guests at the home of Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Stock (Genevieve Albin) were made happy Tuesday, July 25, by the arrival of a nine pound baby girl at their home. Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Hunt, Sarah and Billy, left early Monday morning for Wadleigh, Alabama, to spend a month's vacation with relatives and friends. Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Herman and son Jack, went to Grand Island last Wednesday, and returned Thursday bringing Mrs. Herman's mother, Mrs. Nellie Benson home with them for a visit. Melville Specht, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Specht, arrived home Saturday evening from Ft. Riley, Kansas, where he has spent the past six weeks taking a course in military training. Mr. and Mrs. Cy Brand and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jacobson spent Saturday night on a vacation camping trip at South Bend, and stayed over Sunday to attend the boat races at Lake Park. Guy Buchanan and family of near Nehawka were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew, parents of Mrs. Buchanan, where all enjoyed a most pleasant visit. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Henderson went to Brownville Saturday afternoon to attend the annual homecoming day. They ran into rain just south of Nebraska City. Later in the afternoon the rain reached Brownville. Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Neilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neilson returned home last week from Bakersfield, Cal., where she has been for the past year and a half with her brother, Pete, who passed away July 1st at Bakersfield. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Gaylord, of Lincoln, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Duane Harmon to Weeping Water Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Harmon played two trumpet duets at the community program. All were guests at the Harold Harmon home while here. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender, proprietors of the City Market departed a few days ago for the west and will visit Estes Park and Pikes Peak and other places of interest in Colorado. Edward Norton and Mrs. W. O. Johnson will look after the business while they are away. P. H. Miller, who has not been in the best of health for some time, accompanied by his son, Pete Miller, were in Omaha Tuesday looking after business and as well consulting a specialist about P. H. Miller's legs which have been giving him trouble for some time past. Earl Oldham was in Omaha last Tuesday with a load of cattle for the Omaha markets. He reports the side roads very muddy when he went to collect the stock, as over an inch of rain had fallen. However he was pleased as it seems now a corn crop is assured, the first for a number of years. Herman Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Wade, had the misfortune Saturday to have a ten gallon can of water fall on his leg, causing a severe fracture. He was hauling water and when unloading the same a ten gallon can fell off the rear end of the wagon. He was taken to the Kunkel hospital, where he was cared for. Mrs. Earl Oldham and Miss Lizzie Spangler of Plattsouth were close friends for a number of years. Miss Spangler died last week following a stroke and Mrs. Oldham went to Mynard Monday to attend the funeral. She was driven over by Miss Pauline Towle, who was accompanied by Miss Winona Philpot. They report a large number in attendance at the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Meyer of Deunion were visiting in Weeping Water Monday of this week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Towle. The families for some time were neighbors and the ladies attended school together. Last Monday the two families with Miss Pauline Towle drove to Omaha and again Wednesday went to Lincoln where they visited the state capital and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crozier had as their guest last week, Mrs. Crozier's aunt, Mrs. Eli Pittman, of York. Mrs. Pittman is ninety years old. Her son brought her to Lincoln and she first visited relatives there and then came to Weeping Water and to Elmwood. Mrs. Pittman is very active and enjoys meeting her friends. As her former home was at Nehawka, she spent one afternoon calling on friends there. Mrs. Howard Brown (Maude Colbert), and three sons of Wauneta, left Monday after spending a few days at the C. E. Pool home and at the Alfred Stroehmer home at Alvo. Mr. Brown spent the time with his father, John Brown, who has been in very poor health for several months. Mrs. Alcide Vanasse (Mildred Brown) of Worchester, Mass., and her sister, Mrs. Stroehmer, of Alvo were visitors at the C. E. Pool home Wednesday for dinner. Entertain at Family Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Donelan, residing near Havelock were host and hostess last Sunday to a number of the members of the Rough family, Mrs. Donelan being formerly Miss Rough. Those present were Guy Lake and daughter Maxine of Lincoln, Arthur Rough and family and Miss Agnes Rough of Weeping Water. A most enjoyable day was had as well as an excellent dinner. Married at Plattsouth. Miss Marguerite Lake and Mr. Milton Johnson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lake went to Plattsouth where they secured a marriage license and were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lake serving as witnesses. Miss Lake, the bride is well known in Weeping Water where she has lived most of her life and the groom is a member of the CCC camp here, a young man with high integrity and well thought and spoken of by his fellow workmen at the camp. They will make their home in Weeping Water for the present. Lad Sustains Fractured Leg. Herman Wade, 12, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wade, while working with a cream can filled with water, which he was getting for some workmen to drink, allowed the can to slip and fall on one of his legs, fracturing it badly. After having the fracture reduced the young man is getting along nicely, although causing him considerable pain and is causing him to walk on crutches while the fracture is healing. Visiting Here from Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shields and daughter, Miss Doris, all of Gosport, Indiana, arrived in Weeping Water last Saturday and have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields, the gentleman being brothers. They selected a day to go to Omaha to see the city and another day to see Lincoln, as this is the first time that the Earl Shields family have been in the west. The trips to Omaha and Lincoln were greatly enjoyed as also was the visit with relatives here. Walker-Nielson. Miss Berniece Walker, of Bakersfield, California, and Swain Neilson, of Weeping Water, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neilson, were married July 14, 1939, at the First Presbyterian church at Bakersfield, California. Rev. Murdock, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. They left the following morning for Weeping Water, where they expect to make their home. Mr. Neilson, who has lived his life in and near Weeping Water is one of the very best of men, and with his winsome wife will make a fine addition to Weeping Water and community. The Journal with their many friends joins in extending best wishes for health, prosperity and happiness. Visitors From Michigan. Carleton Rush and sister, Miss Lucille Rush, accompanied by Miss Cadawaller, all of Carson City, Michigan, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott. They were returning from San Francisco, where they had attended the world's fair, and the two ladies, who are teachers, had attended the National Educational Association, also at San Francisco. They left Monday morning for their home. Carleton Rush and his sister, Miss Lucille are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Rush, former residents of this community. Colorado Visitors Here. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rafanider, son William, and Mrs. James Rice and son Jimmie, all of Ft. Morgan, Colorado, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lemke on their return from an eastern trip, which took them to Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois. On Sunday the Lemkes and their guests enjoyed a picnic dinner at South Bend, where they were joined by Jasper Rhoten, of Unadilla, an uncle of Mrs. Lemke and Mrs. Rafanider, Mrs. Rhoten, wife and children, of Unadilla, Carl Rhoten, wife and family, of Palmyra, Howard Rhoten, wife and daughter of Unadilla, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Brandt, and son Kenneth, of Weeping Water. It was a happy reunion for the relatives. Monday morning the guests left for their home at Ft. Morgan.

but slightly more of a shock could have wrecked the transport and sent flaming gasoline over the entire bus load of passengers. It seems as though the penalty was not adequate, for traveling the highways with heavy loads and faulty brakes could result in fatal accidents. Rain Revives Hope. The farmers who have seen their corn crops sizzle under a scorching sun, with the thermometer over the hundred mark in the shade, were more than pleased last Monday night with the rain came. The rain was general over most of the state and county and revived hopes that there will be a full corn crop this year, although some of the corn had been damaged beyond repair. As there has been only a partial corn crop the past five years the farmers are anxious to get a good crop of corn this year. Entertain at Family Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Donelan, residing near Havelock were host and hostess last Sunday to a number of the members of the Rough family, Mrs. Donelan being formerly Miss Rough. Those present were Guy Lake and daughter Maxine of Lincoln, Arthur Rough and family and Miss Agnes Rough of Weeping Water. A most enjoyable day was had as well as an excellent dinner. Married at Plattsouth. Miss Marguerite Lake and Mr. Milton Johnson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lake went to Plattsouth where they secured a marriage license and were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lake serving as witnesses. Miss Lake, the bride is well known in Weeping Water where she has lived most of her life and the groom is a member of the CCC camp here, a young man with high integrity and well thought and spoken of by his fellow workmen at the camp. They will make their home in Weeping Water for the present. Lad Sustains Fractured Leg. Herman Wade, 12, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wade, while working with a cream can filled with water, which he was getting for some workmen to drink, allowed the can to slip and fall on one of his legs, fracturing it badly. After having the fracture reduced the young man is getting along nicely, although causing him considerable pain and is causing him to walk on crutches while the fracture is healing. Visiting Here from Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shields and daughter, Miss Doris, all of Gosport, Indiana, arrived in Weeping Water last Saturday and have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields, the gentleman being brothers. They selected a day to go to Omaha to see the city and another day to see Lincoln, as this is the first time that the Earl Shields family have been in the west. The trips to Omaha and Lincoln were greatly enjoyed as also was the visit with relatives here. Walker-Nielson. Miss Berniece Walker, of Bakersfield, California, and Swain Neilson, of Weeping Water, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neilson, were married July 14, 1939, at the First Presbyterian church at Bakersfield, California. Rev. Murdock, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. They left the following morning for Weeping Water, where they expect to make their home. Mr. Neilson, who has lived his life in and near Weeping Water is one of the very best of men, and with his winsome wife will make a fine addition to Weeping Water and community. The Journal with their many friends joins in extending best wishes for health, prosperity and happiness. Visitors From Michigan. Carleton Rush and sister, Miss Lucille Rush, accompanied by Miss Cadawaller, all of Carson City, Michigan, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott. They were returning from San Francisco, where they had attended the world's fair, and the two ladies, who are teachers, had attended the National Educational Association, also at San Francisco. They left Monday morning for their home. Carleton Rush and his sister, Miss Lucille are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Rush, former residents of this community. Colorado Visitors Here. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rafanider, son William, and Mrs. James Rice and son Jimmie, all of Ft. Morgan, Colorado, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lemke on their return from an eastern trip, which took them to Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois. On Sunday the Lemkes and their guests enjoyed a picnic dinner at South Bend, where they were joined by Jasper Rhoten, of Unadilla, an uncle of Mrs. Lemke and Mrs. Rafanider, Mrs. Rhoten, wife and children, of Unadilla, Carl Rhoten, wife and family, of Palmyra, Howard Rhoten, wife and daughter of Unadilla, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Brandt, and son Kenneth, of Weeping Water. It was a happy reunion for the relatives. Monday morning the guests left for their home at Ft. Morgan.

UNION ITEMS.

We go when called. Porter Funeral Home, Nebraska City. Ben Martin of Nebraska City was looking after business matters in Union Monday. Mrs. Flora Taylor was guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry A. Schwartz for a number of days the past week. Henry Chappell departed for Plattsouth last Monday where he goes to accept a position in the Norfolk Packing company. Ernest Ahrends and daughter, Mrs. Dan Anderson were called to Nebraska City Monday afternoon to look after some business. Hallas Banning and his lady friend from Lincoln were visiting over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning. Mrs. W. A. Taylor and Don Hoback were down to Nebraska City last Saturday night looking after some shopping for the evening. Aida Taylor and Loy Pell departed for a point in Missouri where they visited for a number of days at the home of the mother of Mr. Taylor. In a ball game played at the Union park last Sunday between the local team and a team from Omaha, the local boys won by a score of 5 to 4. Mrs. Thomas Chapman at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitworth is getting along nicely now and was up for a short time last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Linn, a nephew of T. L. Crunk are visiting here from their home at Coffeyville, Kansas. They were accompanied by Mr. Harley Hoide. A party of young people of Union were over to Bell Lake on the Missouri river north of Union last Sunday where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and supper. Mrs. Henry Ruhmann and daughter, Mrs. W. E. Reynolds, who were at Denver attending the funeral services of the late John Carper, returned home Friday last week. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor and Jack Frans moved to Plattsouth last Saturday where they will make their home for the present, this placing them nearer the work of Mr. Taylor. Peter Gradoville and Elmer Sundstrom of Plattsouth were in Union last Monday looking after business in connection with the recreation work of which they are connected. Gilbert Edmonds was not feeling very well the latter part of last week and was unable to work Friday and Saturday, but was able to go to Nebraska City Monday for supplies for his repair shop. Miss Velma Ackley, a nurse at a hospital at Yuma, Colo., who is taking her vacation, came home and has been enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ackley and with her many friends. Miss Dorothy Nickles departed this week for Ponca, Oklahoma where she will attend summer school, while her sisters, Misses Ruth and Betty Ann will remain until near the time for school to begin in September. E. C. Harris and wife were visiting in Union last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Greene. Mr. Greene and Mrs. Harris are brother and sister. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn. Mrs. Esther Bryan, sister of Mrs. Wm. Barritt who injured herself when slipping on a varnished floor at hte Barritt home some weeks ago is at her home in Omaha where she is still kept to her bed, altho she is slightly better. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Midkiff were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman, while Mr. Freeman and Oscar Midkiff came to Union and looked after the service station of Edward Midkiff. All enjoyed a very happy time. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Banning were down to Nebraska City last Sunday visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters. Mrs. Peters who has been in the hospital and underwent an operation is feeling very fine and was about her old self again. Mrs. Fannie Elkenbary and sister were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wood of Talmage, old friends of Mrs. Elkenbary, the friendship formed while she was an employe of the Lincoln Telephone Co. in that place. Entertained at Bridge Friday. Miss Pearl Banning entertained at her home in Union last Friday and had the members of her bridge club and three guests, Mesdames C. E. McCarthy, W. B. Banning and Mrs. Mickey. Mrs. Joe Banning was high in the scoring. New Girl Gladdens Home. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leach was made happy last Monday morning when the stock and family doctor brought to the happy parents a bright eyed baby girl, with the mother and daughter getting along nicely. The mother and as well the father were at their home in Union and hastily repaired to the parents of the young mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boardman, where at 4 o'clock the baby was born. Methodists Hold Evening Services. The Methodist church held a very interesting service Sunday evening when a large number of the members and as well members of the Baptist church were present. A special feature of the service was a song by the "Oklahoma Trio" composed of Misses Dorothy, Ruth and Bessie Ann Nickles, who are spending the summer with Frank and Anna Bauer, who sang to the tune of "Whispering Hope" with other words, making a wonderful effect. Died at Barada, Nebr. Mrs. Mary Bollman, formerly Miss Mary Ira and a half sister of Uncle W. L. Hoback, who has made her home at Barada, Nebr., for many years, passed away at her late home last Thursday, July 20, aged 76 years, 6 months and 17 days. Mrs. Bollman was born near Union. The funeral was held at the Evangelical church at Barada last Saturday, the services being conducted by Rev. De Vohl. This woman was held in high respect, for the ladies' aid of another church prepared a dinner for the out of town guests who were present to attend the funeral. She had been a blessing to the community where she had spent so many years of her life. She leaves a large family to mourn her departure. Those attending the funeral services from Union were Mr. and Mrs. John Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoback and daughter, Miss Marjory, and Ivan Hoback, Jay Austin and Mrs. Paul Swan, and Uncle W. L. Hoback, her half brother. The interment was in the beautiful Barada burying grounds, known as the Harris cemetery.

Friday, 28th

FOR HAIL Insurance - ON - CORN. PRICE REDUCED! GEM SINGLEDGE BLADES 2 for 10c. At this reduced price it pays to buy the blade that fits your Gem Razor exactly and gives a smoother, closer shave! The thick Gem Blade takes a keener wedge-edge, holds it longer. Get this handy package today!

Subscribe for the Journal.