a very lovely birthday observance which had been planned by Mrs. Charles Troop of this city and in which many of the friends joined.

This was the 51st anniversary of Mrs. Asch who has long been a leading figure in the Lewiston community where she has lived. Mrs. Troop, who arranged the party was a schoolmate of Mrs. Asch and the members of the group friends who had known this gracious lady for many years.

The members of the party enjoyed a fine dinner and Mrs. Asch presented with a large cake baked by Mrs. Troop with its eighty glowing candles, the guest of honor lighting the candles and later cut the cake which was distributed to the friends.

"Happy Birthday" was sung by the guests for their friends and a jolly time had in the group singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Mrs. J. M. Roberts playing the accompaniment. Miss Olive Gass also gave several delightful readings and Mrs. Asch also gave a group of very delightfully presented readings.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and renewing the pleasures of the past years.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troop, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pitz, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schutz, Mrs. J. M. Roberts, Miss Olive Gass, Mrs. John Chappell of this city, Mrs. Ida Young of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobscheidt, Mr. and Mrs. Art Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tompson, Mrs. Tony Klimm, Mrs. George Ray, Mrs. Lloyd Scott and Pattie, Mrs. Hannah Hansen, of Murray; Miss Bertha Nickles.

Christian Aid Society—
 A large crowd attended the First Christian church ladies' aid society meeting held at the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Mrs. William Hiner, Mrs. Frank Rice, Misses Frances Minniear, Shirley Jacobs, and Aileen Reed.

Mrs. Lester Thimman served as the program chairman for the aid gathering. Laverne Rice and George Jacobs sang a duet, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer." "The New Minister's Wife," a one-act play was enacted by a group of twelve young ladies of the church. The girls who participated in the playlet were Maxine Graves, Betty Lucille Read, Sylvia Moore, Lucille Moore, Betty Fae Reed, Nora Schaffer, Nellie Rainey, Georgia Carey, Georgia Stone, Eleanor Rozell, Aileen Reed, and Phyllis Tenzler.

A luncheon served by the committee in charge culminated the afternoon entertainment.

The officers installed were: Mrs. Edgar Newton, president; Mrs. Joseph McMaken, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Howland, secretary. Mrs. Albert Funk was elected treasurer but could not accept the position and, therefore, created a vacancy which will be filled later. Plans and arrangements were completed for a covered dish luncheon to be held at the church on Thursday, August 3. Mrs. R. B. Hayes completed the final lesson in the year's study book.

Your Interests ARE OUR INTERESTS

Without your produce—particularly CREAM—we could not operate. That is one of the several reasons we strive at all times to merit your business. Outside concerns could (and sometimes do) cease buying in this territory without feeling any perceptible loss. Not so us! We want your Cream and other produce the year 'round and pay top prices at all times!
