The evening was spent in playing Bingo and Mrs. Ralph Hyde received the first prize, and Mrs. James Mauzy received second.

At the close of the party the hostesses served refreshments. Guests at the shower included Mrs. Charles Walden, Mrs. Ralph Hyde,

In buying and processing your produce, we are able to give employment to a number of local employees, which amounts to much more to the community than our own individual profit. When you sell to the representatives of outside concerns only the buyer's small profit is spent in this community. Processing is done in distant towns, which reap the benefit of increased payrolls. Help us employ more people and make more butter by bringing your Farm Produce to—

CORN QUALITY HIGH

The first corn received here at the Norfolk Packing Co. plant is of the very highest quality and the best that the plant has received since their first year here, both in quality and quantity. A great deal of the corn will be coming in each day now for the early pack at the plant and the officials and workers find that it is just what is desired for the pack, fine, large well developed ears and free from all defects, which makes the packing much better. The plant has 1,700 acres of corn under contract. Both of the early and the late varieties and which from now on should be coming into the plant for the pack.

LEAVING FOR WEST COAST

From Friday's Daily—

Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury and children, Dorothea and Richard, are leaving Saturday on their summer vacation and which this time will take them to the west coast for a fine outing and sightseeing trip and to visit with their relatives. They will enjoy the many points of interest through the mountain country before turning south to San Francisco and the exposition and at St. Carlos, California, they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Duxbury, whom they have not seen for several years, a very pleasant reunion of the brothers and sisters and with Mrs. Rose N. Creamer, mother of Mrs. Duxbury as well as other brothers in that section of the west. They expect to also visit Los Angeles in the south part of the state where many friends are residing.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

Wednesday afternoon F. T. Wilson, of Murray with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beins, Herbert and Mary Beins departed for Kearney, where Mrs. Roy Beins is to receive hospitalization. She has been suffering from a lung weakness that it was thought best to have treated at once. Mr. Wilson, brother of Mrs. Beins, will remain at once while the others will return for a few days.

RETURN TO DES MOINES

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Layton, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Niel, have returned to their home at Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Layton lived in Plattsmouth for a number of years and enjoyed a fine visit with many of the old time friends.
