

Death of Mrs. Ada Ferris, Lifetime Resident

Member of One of the Pioneer Families of the County—Funeral Services Thursday.

From Thursday's Daily—
The death of Mrs. Ada Ferris occurred last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Dooley, on South Ninth street, where she has been seriously ill for the past week. She has been in failing health for the past two years but it was not until the last week that her condition had grown serious.

Ada Ferris was born February 2, 1877 in Cass county near Murray. She was the daughter of Norman and Minerva Slocum.

She was married to Alvin D. Ferris in January 1902. To this union there were five children born, two passing away in infancy.

She leaves to mourn one daughter and two sons, Mrs. Ethel Dooley, Kenneth M. Ferris, both of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Edward Clair Ferris of Nebraska City; also six grand children and a host of friends.

She lived on a farm near Murray until eight years ago and since that time has resided in Plattsmouth.

She was a member of the Christian church in Murray and was a member of the Royal Neighbors lodge.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the Horton funeral home with a large number of old friends attending. Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the First Christian church had charge of the services. The interment was at the Eight Mile Grove cemetery.

TO ATTEND MARKET WEEK

From Monday's Daily—
Miss Mathilde Soennichsen and Miss Elizabeth Hinz, of the H. M. Soennichsen Co., with Miss Emma Hinz, departed this morning for Kansas City, Missouri, where they will spend a few days. The ladies are attending the market week held by the wholesale houses, a week given over to the demonstrating of the new goods for the fall and winter trade and which will be looked over to secure new features for the Soennichsen store here.

LEAVE FOR OUTING

Sunday a party of Plattsmouth ladies departed for the Ozarks and the southwest to enjoy a short outing and visit many places of interest. Those comprising the party were Miss Minnie Guthmann, Miss Hazel Dovey, Mrs. H. A. Schneider, Mrs. F. R. Gobelman and Mrs. Fred H. Mumm. Mrs. Mumm will stop at Wichita Falls, Texas, where she will visit her son, Ira Mumm. The ladies are anticipating a very pleasant outing and will cover much country before their return.

SERVICE CALL AT GLENWOOD

From Tuesday's Daily—
Elmer Webb was called to Glenwood last evening to do some repair work on the linotype in the office of the Opinion. The machine had quit early in the day, and it being press day, the operator was sent to Silver City to get part of the type on the machine there, until repairs could be made to their own machine. It was going by nine o'clock and the paper got to press about midnight, many hours late.

HORSE SENSE

WHEN you sell your cream to the buyer for an outside concern, you get the money for it and the buyer gets his commission. The Cream goes to a distant city.

WHEN you sell it to us, you get at least as much for it—and the cream stays here in Plattsmouth, providing not only a small profit for us as the buyer, but furnishing work to local people in the processing of same!

HELP us build a better market for your Produce and give more people employment by bringing us the Cream needed to operate at capacity. A growing demand for CASCO Butter enables us to handle all the Cream and other farm produce we can get, at highest cash prices.

PLATTSMOUTH CREAMERY
LOWER MAIN ST. PHONE 94

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—
Entertain Newlyweds—

Mr. and Mrs. William Woolcott entertained at a small dinner party at their home Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McNiff, the former a nephew of Mrs. Woolcott. The young people were married in Wilber just recently and arrived in Plattsmouth yesterday morning to spend the day with the Woolcotts. The dinner was served at high noon, Mrs. Woolcott being unassisted in the preparations and serving.

Summer flowers served as the decorative scheme of the Woolcott home; the dining table containing a huge wedding cake as its centerpiece.

Out-of-town guests at the dinner included Miss Margaret McNiff of St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. D. R. Gould, mother of Mrs. Woolcott, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McNiff, parents of the groom, of Lincoln.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Hold Family Gathering—

The home of William G. Meisinger on North 7th street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of the relatives on Sunday afternoon and evening to spend the day with their brother and uncle, Mr. Meisinger has just recently had the home redecorated and fixed up for the winter season and which made a very pleasant setting for the family party. Those who were here for the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Meisinger of this city, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Meisinger and daughter, Donna, of Myrard, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Meisinger and family of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cameron, Ceresco, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stoebr and family, Cullom.

Honored on Birthday—
Monday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom, one of the long time residents of Plattsmouth, the occasion being very pleasantly observed in a family party at the home on South 9th street. Elmer Hallstrom, her son, with his children, Corrine, Jack and Tom came up from Avoca and were accompanied by Catherine Mae Sindelar of Lake Worth, Florida. The members of the party came with well laden baskets to help provide the surprise birthday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. James G. Mauzy and James, Jr., of this city were assisting in the family party. Mrs. Hallstrom has made her home here for the past fifty years and her many friends will join in their best wishes for many more such pleasant anniversaries.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mrs. Val Burkel Hostess—

The Tuesday afternoon semi-monthly pinocle club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Val Burkel. Two guests, Mrs. William Schmidtman, Sr. and Mrs. Muckenhaupt, were present; they substituted for Mrs. J. C. Petersen, who is vacationing in Minnesota, and Mrs. Fred Mumm, who is down in Wichita Falls, Texas, visiting her son.

Prizes for the highest pinocle scores were given to Mrs. William Schmidtman, Sr. and Mrs. John Schutz.

Assisted by Miss Beverly Ann Carter, the hostess served a lovely luncheon.

J. V. Hatts Entertain—
Mr. and Mrs. John V. Hatt served as host and hostess at a farewell dinner party last evening in honor of Mrs. G. A. Gauthier and Captain Alvin Palmer of Seattle, Washington. The dinner party was held at their home on Pearl street and was served at 6 o'clock by the hostess assisted by her daughters, Misses Ruth Ann and Mary Jean Hatt.

Guests at the dinner included Miss Florence Wiles, Lincoln; Miss Gerda Peterson, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Jacq. Hatt, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Genevieve Palmer, Minneapolis; and the guests of honor, Captain Alvin Palmer and Mrs. G. A. Gauthier of Seattle, Washington.

The honored couple, accompanied by Mrs. Genevieve Palmer, left today for their home in the northwest, after an extended visit with friends and relatives in Plattsmouth and nearby communities.

Mrs. Terryberry Honored—
At the home of Mrs. Lucile Terryberry a group of neighbors gathered on Tuesday evening, August 8th, as a surprise to help celebrate Mrs. Terryberry's birthday. Mrs. Terryberry was unaware of the surprise until their arrival when the tooted their horn and began wishing her a happy birthday.

The evening was spent playing cards, singing, and games. Later in the evening ice cream and cake was served which was brought by the guests. A lovely birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Terryberry, was served.

Guests present at the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hild and children, Leroy, Herbert, Betty, and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. John Alexen and children, Elmer, Irene, Marie, and Betty, Ivar Bomberg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Henning and son, Harlan Andrew Alexen, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Lucile Terryberry and her children, Donald and Mary.

Observes 11th Birthday—
Mrs. William Lindner entertained eight young ladies at her home at 202 South 16th street Tuesday afternoon. The occasion was in honor of her daughter, Miss Mary Ann Lindner, who observed the passing of her eleventh birthday anniversary.

The guests—three of them neighbor girls and the others members of the Presbyterian church Sunday school class—arrived with neatly wrapped packages which they presented to the guest of honor as tokens of congratulations.

Pink and white served as the color scheme for the decorations at the Lindner home. A birthday cake baked by the guest of honor's mother, served as the centerpiece of the dining table.

The guests amused themselves by playing a number of games—Misses Shirley Martin and Shirley Chamberlain receiving the prizes. Favors were also passed during the course of the afternoon.

At the close of the afternoon, her mother, assisted by her two aunts, Mrs. Vincent Kelley and Miss Margaret Mrasek served refreshments.

Present at the party were Misses Shirley Martin, Shirley Chamberlain, Marilyn Johnson, Gertrude Harris Dorothy Wurga, Joan Duda, Josephine Sedlak, Rose Marie Prohaska, Mrs. Vincent Kelley, Miss Margaret Mrasek, and the guest of honor, Mary Ann Lindner and her mother, Mrs. William Lindner; grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Mrasek.

Recent Newlyweds Feted—
Following their marriage which occurred on Saturday evening, July 15, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cottingham, the latter formerly Miss Anna Mary McMaken, are being feted at many parties and showers by a number of their friends. Two showers, one in the country and the other in the city, were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lancaster and Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Worthan tendered a personal shower in honor of the newlyweds on Friday, August 4 at the latter's home in the country near Murray. Sixteen young people were present at the occasion—Shelton Smith, George Thompson, Joe Hoschar, Harley Cottingham, Bert Worthan, Raymond Lancaster, Alice Campbell, Aubrey Zeck, Beulah Mae Belns, Lavern Cottingham, Lela Baxter, Gomer Worthan, Mrs. Raymond Lancaster, Mrs. Gomer Worthan, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cottingham.

Prizes were awarded and Mrs. Gomer Worthan and Bert Worthan received them. The bride and groom of three weeks were showered with many gifts as pleasant remembrances of the happy party that was given in their honor. The evening was concluded with refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ruby Lancaster and Mrs. Edythe Worthan.

"Heavy Showers" fell last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rae McMaken, parents of Mrs. Cottingham, when three of Mrs. Cottingham's closest friends—Misses Kathleen Nolte, Rosemary Steppatt, and Vivian Warner—entertained at a miscellaneous shower. Eighteen in all, including the guest of honor, hostesses, and the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Rae McMaken, gathered in the Coronado apartment to honor their high school classmate and friend.

Those present at the shower were Misses Opal Byers, Dorothea Fulton, Maxine Nelsen, Mary McCarroll, Shirley Jacobs, Kathleen Nolte, Ruth Ann Hatt, Betty Jasper, Mary Alice Ault, Kathryn Tschirren, Eleanor Giles, Rosemary Steppatt, Alice Jayne

FOOT PLACED IN CAST
Mrs. August Kopp, who suffered a severe injury to her left foot as the result of a fall that she was a victim of several days ago, is recuperating at her home on South Ninth street after having her foot placed in a cast. The injured member showed a broken bone just above the ankle had resulted and it was necessary to have the foot placed in a cast.

RECOVERING FROM BURNS
Mrs. Charles Tasler, who was severely burned a few weeks ago, is now recovering very rapidly at the Kaul hospital at Omaha. The burns which were very severe have healed to a great extent and it is hoped that in a short time she may be able to return home to recuperate from the effects of the injuries.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

FAMILY REUNION
About sixty-five descendants of the late Oliver and Sarah Ward gathered at Bethany Park in Lincoln on Sunday, July 30, for their annual reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward settled near Plattsmouth in 1863 and were among the sturdy pioneers who, while working hard to make a living, took time to instill in the minds of their children high ideals of Americanism.

Tribute was paid to Mrs. Emily Ward Sayles who was the oldest member present. She will be 89 years old in August. Charles Ward of Elmwood was also honored. He was the only other direct descendant present.

A male chorus rendered a splendid impromptu program of religious and patriotic songs. Plans were made for another meeting on the last Sunday of July in 1940, at the same park.

VACATIONING IN MINNESOTA
Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Knorr, Bill and Jean, departed yesterday morning for Hennepin, Minn., where they will spend a most delightful ten day vacation at Sandas Beach.

Other Plattsmouth folks who are vacationing there at the present time include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn, who own a cottage there; the Frank Clouid family and the Charles Peterson family. All of the latter went up a week ago.

The Knorrs have taken a cottage near that owned by the Starkjohns, and were looking forward to some splendid fishing.

RETIRE FROM STATION
Robert Rummel, who for the past four years has been the lessee and operator of the local service station of the Continental Oil Co., is retiring from the station and expects to take up other lines of activity. Mr. Rummel has been a very efficient and accommodating manager of the station and his friends will regret to see him step out of the active management of the station.

TOM SEDLAKS RETURN HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sedlak and daughter, Joetta, who have been in Plattsmouth for the past week visiting with Mr. Sedlak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sedlak as well as other relatives, returned to their home in Sedalia, Mo., Sunday evening. The son, Donald, remained here for another week's visit before going back to Missouri.

LEAVE FOR OUTING
Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Ofc departed this morning for their summer outing and which will take the rest of the month in a motor trip through the west to San Francisco and the world's fair and thence home. They are making the trip leisurely and will enjoy visits at the many places of interest along the way.

FOOT PLACED IN CAST
Mrs. August Kopp, who suffered a severe injury to her left foot as the result of a fall that she was a victim of several days ago, is recuperating at her home on South Ninth street after having her foot placed in a cast. The injured member showed a broken bone just above the ankle had resulted and it was necessary to have the foot placed in a cast.

RECOVERING FROM BURNS
Mrs. Charles Tasler, who was severely burned a few weeks ago, is now recovering very rapidly at the Kaul hospital at Omaha. The burns which were very severe have healed to a great extent and it is hoped that in a short time she may be able to return home to recuperate from the effects of the injuries.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

FAMILY REUNION
About sixty-five descendants of the late Oliver and Sarah Ward gathered at Bethany Park in Lincoln on Sunday, July 30, for their annual reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward settled near Plattsmouth in 1863 and were among the sturdy pioneers who, while working hard to make a living, took time to instill in the minds of their children high ideals of Americanism.

Tribute was paid to Mrs. Emily Ward Sayles who was the oldest member present. She will be 89 years old in August. Charles Ward of Elmwood was also honored. He was the only other direct descendant present.

A male chorus rendered a splendid impromptu program of religious and patriotic songs. Plans were made for another meeting on the last Sunday of July in 1940, at the same park.

VACATIONING IN MINNESOTA
Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Knorr, Bill and Jean, departed yesterday morning for Hennepin, Minn., where they will spend a most delightful ten day vacation at Sandas Beach.

Other Plattsmouth folks who are vacationing there at the present time include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn, who own a cottage there; the Frank Clouid family and the Charles Peterson family. All of the latter went up a week ago.

The Knorrs have taken a cottage near that owned by the Starkjohns, and were looking forward to some splendid fishing.

RETIRE FROM STATION
Robert Rummel, who for the past four years has been the lessee and operator of the local service station of the Continental Oil Co., is retiring from the station and expects to take up other lines of activity. Mr. Rummel has been a very efficient and accommodating manager of the station and his friends will regret to see him step out of the active management of the station.

TOM SEDLAKS RETURN HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sedlak and daughter, Joetta, who have been in Plattsmouth for the past week visiting with Mr. Sedlak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sedlak as well as other relatives, returned to their home in Sedalia, Mo., Sunday evening. The son, Donald, remained here for another week's visit before going back to Missouri.

LEAVE FOR OUTING
Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Ofc departed this morning for their summer outing and which will take the rest of the month in a motor trip through the west to San Francisco and the world's fair and thence home. They are making the trip leisurely and will enjoy visits at the many places of interest along the way.

FOOT PLACED IN CAST
Mrs. August Kopp, who suffered a severe injury to her left foot as the result of a fall that she was a victim of several days ago, is recuperating at her home on South Ninth street after having her foot placed in a cast. The injured member showed a broken bone just above the ankle had resulted and it was necessary to have the foot placed in a cast.

RECOVERING FROM BURNS
Mrs. Charles Tasler, who was severely burned a few weeks ago, is now recovering very rapidly at the Kaul hospital at Omaha. The burns which were very severe have healed to a great extent and it is hoped that in a short time she may be able to return home to recuperate from the effects of the injuries.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.

RETURN FROM THE WEST
James Jones and Elmore Brink returned Saturday afternoon from a week's outing in the west, spending a very pleasant time in the mountain sections of Wyoming. They visited at Casper for a time and later enjoyed several days in the Big Horn mountains, guests of Eugene McNair, the young men having a great deal of success in their fishing in the mountain streams.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Carl Patschies and little daughter returned to their home yesterday following several days of recuperation at the St. Joseph hospital where the little one was born. The mother and daughter are improving very nicely and their return home brings the greatest of joy to the father as well as other members of the family.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. George W. Olson, who has been at Omaha for the past several weeks undergoing a very severe operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return home. Mrs. Olson is feeling much improved and it is thought that the operation will give her permanent relief from the very severe illness.

VISIT AT LINCOLN
Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis and sons, Stephen and Corbin and daughter, Elizabeth, were at Lincoln Sunday. They visited with Mrs. Mary M. Davis, mother of Mr. Davis and with Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now making her home at Lincoln.

VISITS AT KEARNEY
Leslie Potts of Nebraska City was visiting for the week end in Kearney with his wife who is taking treatments at the hospital there, finding her in the best of health.

The daughter, Barbara, is spending a week with her grandparents at Dunbar while Mr. Potts was away.