

Weeping Water

Week end visitors at Fairbury were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lien and son, Roger.

The Weeping Water band will go to Syracuse the coming week to help provide music for the Otoe county fair.

Edward Steinkamp is having a new corn crib erected at his farm to take care of the corn crop this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Newham enjoyed a visit to our neighboring town of Union Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wishart were Lincoln visitors Friday and Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Sorenson and Mr. Sorenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buchanan and the family of south of Nehawka, were visiting Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew.

Milford Smith, who is attending the University of Nebraska this summer spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith.

Earl Oldham was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday with a load of cattle for a number of farmers in the vicinity of Weeping Water.

Stuart Rough of Nehawka came this way and picking up his sister, Miss Agnes, drove her to Omaha where she was looking after business.

Oscar Hiatt of Tabor, Iowa, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a number of days during the past week visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Alonzo M. Cole.

Mogens Johnson is looking rather lonely these days as his wife is visiting in St. Louis with relatives. She left two weeks ago and expects to return the first of next week.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Chalk (Creda Baker Johnson) received word this week of the arrival of a dear little baby girl at their home at Newman Grove last Saturday.

The City Market which has been in need of more room is building an addition in the rear of the store building for storage space. Julius

Neilson has been doing the carpenter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hickerson, of Lincoln, were visiting relatives here over the week end. Mrs. Hickerson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Maddox, former residents of our community.

George Wiles has been rather poorly with an attack of the summer flu which has been making it rather uncomfortable for this gentleman, but he was able to get out and down town last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dennis are enjoying a visit from their son, Sterling Dennis, of Long Beach, California, and daughter Betty, of Lincoln, and a brother, Harry Dennis, also of Long Beach.

Leaving for Colorado Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray and family, who expect to spend two weeks enjoying the beauties of the mountain scenery, and the cooler weather to be found in Colorado.

Miss Janet Snell, who has been visiting for the past month in Chicago, guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jenkins, returned home last Sunday after having enjoyed her visit there very much.

Frank E. Wood will go to Lincoln Saturday where he will have charge of the pari-mutuel betting at the state fair. He will be assisted by W. E. Reynolds of Union and a number of others from that town.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Cole was made happy last Sunday when the stork brought them a very fine ten and a half pound baby boy, with the young man and his mother getting along very nicely.

The Camp Fire Girls served watermelon on the lawn of the Congregational church Friday evening. The Weeping Water chapter is active and enthusiastic, under the supervision of Miss Mayme Michelsen they always prove to be excellent entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hansen (Julia Ronne) of Center Point, South Dakota, have been in attendance at the Mennonite camp meeting and visiting Mrs. Hansen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ronne for the past ten days. Mrs. Hansen is the pastor of the Mennonite church at Center Point.

Miss Eleanor Clizbe, of Lafayette, Indiana, where she is the assistant food director at Purdue University, was a visitor at the home of her aunt, Miss Edith Clizbe, for two days last week. She had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clizbe at Ainsworth.

Miss Margaret Jane Robinson returns Sunday to Omaha, after a three weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson. Part of her vacation she and her parents spent at St. Louis, with Jack Robinson, who is employed in a bank, and was also having his annual vacation.

Mrs. Anna Treat Beemer, of Lincoln, visited with her many friends here over the week end. Mrs. Beemer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Treat, pioneers of this community. They were the former owners of the farm north of town now owned by Henry Smith, and built the stone house which is a landmark in this part of the country.

Grandpa W. H. Frizel has not been feeling very well for some time and just lately has been rather poorly, but is able to be out and around. Mr. Frizel is a veteran of the civil war and has a direct personal memory of the battles of the war and his many experiences. The ranks of the boys in blue are now thinning as there are not many left who recall this period. However, here's to you old friend may you live to see a world of peace and not the world armed to the teeth against their neighbors.

It is a pleasure to pass the Dr. Herman home these days and see the transformation which has taken place there this summer. He bought the former Seward Day home last spring and carpenters immediately began remodeling. When completed the exterior was painted white, and green shutters were added. Now the large old barn at the rear of the lot is being remodelled with a gymnasium on the upper floor and garage and workshop on the first floor. This has been painted white also, with green shutters to match the house.

Thursday Miss Ella Rhoden, of Plattsmouth, and Clifford Kirkpatrick were united in marriage and will make their home in Weeping Water, where the groom is employed at the Hamburger Inn. They left Saturday evening on a week's trip to Denver, Ogallala, Cheyenne and the Black Hills. They were accompanied by their friends, the Hubert Cappens. Clifford is the son of Mrs. James Haney, and is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school. He has been employed at the Hamburger Inn for the past four years, and has made many friends by his friendly and courteous manner with his customers. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is quite well known here as she has visited here quite often, and we extend to her a welcoming hand. To both of these couples we extend our congratulations and best wishes.

Two Weddings Last Week. Two weddings occurred last week which came as a surprise to the many friends of the happy parties. On Monday Miss Ann Kirkpatrick was married to Arnold Phillips, and they left immediately for California, where the groom has a position in the vicinity of San Francisco. They made a leisurely trip to the western coast and saw many interesting places en route. Mrs. Phillips is the daughter of Mrs. James Haney, and has grown to womanhood in our midst. She is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school, and has a host of friends in this community. The groom came to Weeping Water only a few months ago from California, and made his home at Hotel Rest Haven while here. He made many friends here.

Moving to Olsen Apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Wilson are moving into the Olsen apartments this week. They will have the apartment vacated by Mrs. Thomas Murtey, who bought the small house which formerly belonged to the Ingerson estate, and has had it remodelled into an apartment type house. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Thurlund moved last week into the house on Eldora Avenue, which also formerly belonged to the Ingerson estate, and it has also been completely remodelled inside. Mrs. Thurlund (Irene Gibson) has remodelled one room into a beauty parlor, which will have its separate entrance.

Mennonite Meeting Closes. The annual state camp meeting of the Mennonite church closed Sunday evening, and it left a fine impression on the hearts and minds of our people. The outstanding feature we believe is that they show such great interest in their young people and they were a fine looking and well behaved group to which we extend a hearty welcome for their coming again next year. These young people are receiving excellent training for their future places in their communities. To the adults who attended the meetings we also extend an invitation to again visit our community. We have been enriched in spirit by your ten day stay among us.

Here from California. Mrs. Edna Wolfe, sister of Mrs. Steele and their brother, A. C. Munn, who has been making her home at Rodondo Beach, Calif., arrived in Weeping Water last Monday a week and is visiting with her brother and sister. Mrs. Wolfe expects to remain all winter. Speaking of the west, Mrs. Wolfe says that the Weeping Water, Nehawka and Plattsmouth contingent of the Nebraska colony on the coast are getting along very nicely and are liking their adopted home in the west.

Has Hand Badly Injured. Mayme Hillman, who some time ago went to Louisville where she established herself in the restaurant business some time ago while working with the dressing of a cat fish, had the slippery creature slip and horned one of her hands in such a manner that she was unable to use the hand. However with careful treatment, the hand is getting better, although badly swollen and tender as yet. Miss Hillman was visiting and looking after business in Weeping Water last Tuesday.

To Make Advertising Tour. With the local people who have always been boosters for the county fair and the Weeping Water band, this Friday are making a tour of the towns in the county, dispensing music and literature for the advertising of the fair, visiting all the towns in the county. At each town additions are made as the booster troupe is added to by the friends of the fair.

This year there is more to exhibit and this year the fair promises to be bigger and better than former years. The new county fair community building which has been in the process of building, while still not completed, the basement is far enough along to permit its use for exhibits.

Every citizen of the county should come and see the fair and the community building which is the property of the county fair and therefore of the people of the county. There

LOCALS

From Wednesday's Daily— Mayor Troy L. Davis of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters of business and visiting with friends.

From Monday's Daily— Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Randall of Omaha were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis.

Mrs. Maria Barritt of Union, with her son, Dr. Lemuel Barritt of Orman, Arizona, were here Saturday afternoon to visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Royal of Lincoln, were here Sunday to visit with Judge C. L. Graves, father of Mrs. Royal and attending the Rock Bluffs picnic.

Sunday guests at the W. A. Swatek home included their children, Mr. and Mrs. George Swatek of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Spaustat of Omaha.

William and Emil Watts, residents of south of Pacific Junction, were here for a short time today looking after some matters of business and trading.

NEBRASKANS MEET AT SEATTLE The former residents of Nebraska living in and near Seattle, Washington, staged a very much enjoyed picnic at Woodland park in that city on Sunday, August 13th. There were more than 500 persons at the picnic and all were enthusiastic over making this an annual affair.

The Nebraskans named O. H. Montgomery, formerly of Stanton, as the president of the association. One of the interesting features was the display of some forty different weekly papers published in Nebraska and among these was the Journal, which was read over by the Cass county group at the picnic.

The Cass county people that registered comprised Irene Willis Armstrong, Buren, Washington, Ethel Willis Suple, who came to Washington in 1904 from Plattsmouth, George A. Leis and Cora A. Leis of the University of Washington who came from Nebraska in 1908; D. B. Lynde and Elma Hall Lynde, formerly of Union, who left Nebraska in 1923; R. E. Kinkead, formerly of Stanton, who had come to Washington in 1906.

Mr. Kinkead will be remembered by the older resident here as a son of the late Benton Kinkead, a painter and paper hanger here, for many years. His sisters, Etta and Laura Kinkead, also are living at Seattle.

DIES AT MASONIC HOME From Wednesday's Daily— Fred Walliwey, a five-months' resident of the Nebraska Masonic Home here, passed away at the infirmary this morning following an illness of many weeks.

The deceased was born in Dakota county, Nebraska on August 9, 1869, and at the time of his death, August 23, 1939, he was 70 years of age. A member of Covert Lodge No. 11, A. F. & A. M. in Omaha, Mr. Walliwey had formerly made his residence in Arcadia, Nebraska for a long period of time. In March, 1939 he was admitted to the Home where he had lived only five months.

The deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Burke of Arcadia, Nebraska as well as several sisters in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed but burial service will be held at the Prospect Hill cemetery in Omaha.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, August 27th By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

Uzziah: A King Who Forgot God. II Chron. 26:3-5; 16-21.

In King Uzziah we have a man who had a fine heritage, a godly mother, and the high priest Zechariah was his teacher; his father, Amaziah, had not many good qualities to be commended. (See preceding chapter regarding his reign and untimely death).

At the age of sixteen, after his father's death, the people made Uzziah king. What a wonderful record he had. "He did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah." Can a man do more? And the record says further that as long as he followed God, he was prosperous. From this part of the lesson we learn that it pays to serve God—materially and materially. This was true in the Old Testament times and is taught again in the New Testament. Paul writes to Timothy (4-8): "Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." The next lesson is: To start early in life to serve God. At sixteen years of age this lad loved and served God. He had a good mother, Jeroliah, and a good teacher, Zechariah—good home training that was needed. When they reach the age of sixteen, many of our young folks leave the Sunday school, and are not often brought back to church. The injunction of Solomon (Ecl. 12:1): "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth" should be emphasized strongly at this point of the lesson.

This young king had a glorious future before him. No one knows what an influence home training may have on the children by a God-fearing mother. It is never wasted and often in after years the seed is found coming to fruition. This is all we can do, sow the seed. The wise man gives us another word from his rich experience. (Ecl. 11:6): "In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand . . . etc."

Uzziah held on to God a long time. For 52 years he ruled and walked with God; he was one of the good kings of Judah; his might and fame was great among the nations around him. But sad to say, he did not end in the way he began to reign. We have cases a plenty of people who were examples to others in right conduct and living during the time they were in poor circumstances—how fervently and faithfully and earnestly they serve and work for God. But as they grow prosperous, their ardor and enthusiasm chills, they grow weaker, the salt loses its savor, and they lose their first love. (Rev. 2:4). They still have the name that they live, but in reality they are dead. (Rev. 3:1).

Uzziah, who gave promise of becoming one of the outstanding kings in Judah—of bringing honor and glory to God and his people—became such a great disappointment that God's mercy could not save him. The severest punishment was visited upon him—a living death—leprosy.

The cause—PRIDE! It was pride that caused the fall of Satan, himself. Pride always goeth before a fall. "The pride of life" is not of the Father, but is of the world—the devil. (I John 2:16).

Assuming the role of the High Priest, going into the Holy place to burn incense—that was the end of Uzziah's career. Four score priests tried to prevent him from committing this act of sacrilege, but he persisted and the disease struck him like a bolt of lightning out of a clear sky. We would make note of the heroic act of the priest. The king had the power to have them put to death, but they would obey God rather than men—even if they should lose their life for so doing. So should the minister of God speak out courageously against the rich sinner in the church—God would protect them.

Uzziah was bad at the core, his heart was bad. That is where the trouble starts. It is concealed and may deceive the church and even the world for a long time, but eventually the leprosy will break out—the church is choked, but the festering of the sore has been going on for a long time. How true spake the wise man (Prov. 4:23): "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." King David realized this after his fall, when he came to himself; and then he cried out to God: "Create in me a clean heart, O God!" (Ps. 51:10). What a sad ending of such a promising beginning; banished from the house of God, from family and society, in a separate house—a pesthouse—where he ended his lonely life.

This should be a warning to men in and out of the church. God will not be mocked—his love and patience have limits, then justice steps in and rewards every man according to the deeds done in the body. "Be thou faithful unto death." (Rev. 2:10). "Fight the good fight of faith; I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." The crown of righteousness is the sure reward.

Every citizen of the county should come and see the fair and the community building which is the property of the county fair and therefore of the people of the county. There has been much improvement in Weeping Water during the past twelve months which should be of interest to everyone, among which is the new school building, which is ready for the opening of the school year; the buildings of the Mennonite church for the state where there has just been a successful state convention and camp meeting of the membership of the state; a new highway and a sewer system, besides a change in the water system providing more and better water for the city. Come, do what you can for the benefit of the fair which belongs to the entire county.

Two Weddings Last Week. Two weddings occurred last week which came as a surprise to the many friends of the happy parties. On Monday Miss Ann Kirkpatrick was married to Arnold Phillips, and they left immediately for California, where the groom has a position in the vicinity of San Francisco. They made a leisurely trip to the western coast and saw many interesting places en route. Mrs. Phillips is the daughter of Mrs. James Haney, and has grown to womanhood in our midst. She is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school, and has a host of friends in this community. The groom came to Weeping Water only a few months ago from California, and made his home at Hotel Rest Haven while here. He made many friends here.

Thursday Miss Ella Rhoden, of Plattsmouth, and Clifford Kirkpatrick were united in marriage and will make their home in Weeping Water, where the groom is employed at the Hamburger Inn. They left Saturday evening on a week's trip to Denver, Ogallala, Cheyenne and the Black Hills. They were accompanied by their friends, the Hubert Cappens. Clifford is the son of Mrs. James Haney, and is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school. He has been employed at the Hamburger Inn for the past four years, and has made many friends by his friendly and courteous manner with his customers. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is quite well known here as she has visited here quite often, and we extend to her a welcoming hand. To both of these couples we extend our congratulations and best wishes.
