

HAVE INTERESTING MEETING
 The Rotarians had a very interesting meeting Tuesday as a part of their weekly Rotary luncheon and which took them in camera and motion pictures as well as verbal descriptions of a journey to the mountain country and the west coast of our nation.
 William Baird was the leader of the meeting and presented as the first speaker, William A. Robertson, who gave the highlights of his recent trip to the west coast with his family and which had covered from southern California to Portland and the northwest and also the journey home through the park country. Mr. Robertson in turn presented William F. Evers, who had traveled over a large part of the west this summer and brought back with him a pictured record of the trip, both in stills and motion pictures which was very interesting.

 The event also marked the birthday anniversary of Frank A. Cloldt, an ex-prexy of the club and which was suitably recognized.
 Charles Spacht of New Rochelle, New York, was a guest of the luncheon.
