ENROLL FOR BOXING CARNIVAL

Seven Plattsmouth amateurs have signed up for the open air boxing tournament during the King Korn Carnival, but they are not in any one weight class. Three bantams have entered, two lightweights and two middleweights also agreed to do battle on the platform.

Some of the youngsters who wanted to try for local fistie honors are unable to enter, because of family objections and had to withdraw their entries. Former Champion Kid Graves is still looking for seven entries in one weight division to fill out a full card for the boxing program.

Any and all amateurs in Plattsmouth, who are desirous of gaining laurels in fistieuffs are urged to see promoter Graves or leave their entry at the Journal office. Graves is endeavoring to arrange a special attraction in the boxing line and if he can arrange it, will announce a special boxing feature to go along with the amateur bouts.

FAIR BOOSTERS HERE

From Friday's Daily—
This morning with the sounding of horns, the clanging of bells, a motor caravan arrived in the city on a county wide boosting trip to advertise the county fair at Weeping Water on September 12, 13, 14 and 15. The party brought a large number of the enthusiastic boosters for the fair which has proven one of the very best in the state of Nebraska down through the year, this year promising even a greater success.

The group was headed by President Henry Ragoss of the fair association, Frank Woods, secretary, and Mayor Troy L. Davis of Weeping Water.

The Weeping Water band under the direction of Dr. L. N. Kunkel gave several numbers and the committee extended the invitation to the local people to come to the fair and enjoy seeing the fine exhibits that await them.

MISSOURI VISITORS HERE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Smetana on North 14th street, is the scene of a very pleasant family party over the week end as their children are here from out of the city to visit them. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smetana and daughter, Jean, of Sedalia, Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smetana and son, Gene, of St. Louis are stopping here for a few days. They arrived here from the west coast where they have been enjoying a motor trip over the west and have covered some 7,000 miles which has taken them through seventeen states.

ANTON SVOBODA RECOVERING

Anton Svoboda, who some time ago fell and broke his hip, is showing splendid improvement at his home at 1514 Granite street despite his advanced years.
