From Thursday's Daily—

To Hold Picnic—
The members of the Bi-Monthly pinocle club—Mrs. Mable Tiekotter, Mrs. Edith Vandervoort, Mrs. Ida Waters, Mrs. Lorine Urish, Misses Helen Smetana, Mary Holy, Marie Horn, and Mrs. Mildred Newton—will stage a picnic party this evening at Plamore Park. The party, a no-host affair, will be in the form of a covered dish luncheon. This is the first outdoor occasion that the club has had during the summer.

Entertain at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Burke of Loraine, Ohio and Tim Finney of Nehawka were the guests of honor at a Wednesday evening dinner tendered them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Newton, Mrs. Burke being a niece of the Newtons. The Burkes have been in Cass county for some time visiting and vacationing.

Celebrate Birthdays—

A group of about thirty guests gathered at the Dan Schoeman home 1 1/2 miles south of Louisville, last evening and honored Mrs. Dan Schoeman, who observed the passing of her birthday yesterday, and Mrs. Edna Salsburg, whose birthday was on Monday. The occasion, which was a complete surprise to the ladies, was celebrated jointly—Mrs. Schoeman's husband serving as the host. The evening was spent in visiting and reminiscing among those present. Home made ice cream and other goodies were served at the close of the party.

Honor Mrs. Cottingham—

The Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church met on Monday evening, August 28 at the home of Mrs. Robert B. Hayes for their last meeting of the fiscal year. The meeting was a business-social event honoring one of its former members, Mrs. Anna Mary McMaken Cottingham, a recent bride.

The 1938-39 officers comprised Miss Shirley Mason, president; Miss Shirley Jacobs, vice-president; and Miss Ruth Ann Hatt, secretary-treasurer. The meeting was in charge of Miss Mason and Miss "Billy" Sylvester had charge of the devotionals. The business end of the meeting comprised reports from the committees and plans were discussed for the coming year. The election of officers for the 1939-40 period will take place next month.

Following the business meeting a social party was held in honor of Mrs. Cottingham. A gift from the organization was presented to the guest of honor.

The refreshments, prepared by Mrs. Hayes and served by a group of the girls, concluded the evening's business and social meeting.

Entertains at Swimming Party—

Mrs. Virgil Perry entertained informally Wednesday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Eleanor Minor, of Kankakee, Illinois, who with her mother, Mrs. L. O. Minor, is visiting the relatives here.

The event was in the nature of a swimming party at the attractive Merritt Beach, north of this city, which is one of the most popular resorts in this part of the state. The beach has been made into a very delightful summer resort with a lovely beach which under the direction of Mr. Merritt has been arranged into a large and adequate bathing spot. While many cities are maintaining swimming pools this community is fortunate in having one so fine at hand and which is at the disposal of the public without large financing of the project.

The jolly group after the swim enjoyed a picnic supper which was prepared over the outdoor stoves at the beach and served from the well arranged picnic tables.

The guests of the afternoon were Rachel Robertson, Jean Knorr, Frances Cloldt, Harriett Goos, Marjorie Tidball, May Kay Wiles, Betty and Beverly Thorn of Syracuse, New York, Eleanor Minor, Mrs. L. O. Minor, Elizabeth and Nancy Allan Perry and Mrs. Perry.

From Friday's Daily—

K. B. Club—

The K. B. Bridge club met with Mrs. Frank Gobelman last evening—Miss Margaret Scotten being the only guest present. Mrs. John Wolf won the first prize; Mrs. James Bulin, second; and Mrs. Frank Bestor, third. Mrs. Gobelman also served a luncheon at the close of the party.

Two Square Club—

Mrs. John Hadraba entertained the members of the Two-Square bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Due to the absence of Mrs. F. I. Rea, who is ill, Mrs. Frank Mullen served as the substitute. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Bergmann, Mrs. Frank Mullen, and Mrs. William Swatek. At the close of the party Mrs. Hadraba served refreshments.

Luncheon Honors Miss Minor—

Misses Mary Kay Wiles and Marjorie Ann Tidball entertained at a high noon luncheon at the Paxton Hotel in Omaha today in honor of their close friend, Miss Eleanor Minor of Kankakee, Illinois. A movie was enjoyed following the luncheon. Invited guests included Misses Frances Cloldt, Jean Knorr, Harriett Goos, and the guest of honor, Eleanor Minor.

Entertained at Moore Home—

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moore entertained Thursday evening at a very charmingly arranged dinner at their country home, near LaPlatte, Mrs. Henry Hierold and Misses Mia and Barbara Gering. The Moore home was very attractively arranged for the occasion which made a fitting setting for the pleasant event.

Thursday Bridge Club—

The Thursday bridge club were entertained at the home of Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., yesterday afternoon where the members enjoyed several hours of playing in the pleasant surroundings of the Sattler home on North Fourth street. The first honors were won by Mrs. Hilt Martin and the second by Mrs. W. V. Ryan. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Daryl Ashbaugh and Mrs. Carl Keil. The afternoon was closed by the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Ladies Honored at Party—

Mrs. John Alwin, whose birthday fell on Tuesday, and Mrs. W. A. Wells of California, were the guests of honor at a surprise party tendered them Wednesday evening at the John Alwin home. The occasion, given by the Neighborhood Pinocle club members, served as a surprise birthday party in honor of Mrs. Alwin and a welcome party in honor of Mrs. Wells. Other guests of the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Milo Price.

Pinocle was played and prizes were awarded to Elmer Lohnes, John Woest, Mrs. John Woest, and Mrs. Raymond Larson.

Miss Wilma Pickard served a luncheon at the close of the party.

Wintersteen Hill Sewers—

The Wintersteen Hill Sewing club members—Misses Irene and Cathryn Anthes, Marion Olson, Helen Ledgway, Hilda Wallengren, Edith Solomon, Juanita and Elva Johnson, and Genevieve Whelan—met at the Whelan home last evening. Two guests, Mrs. C. J. Rhylander and her daughter, Janet of Handley Falls, Minnesota, were present. The usual activity, that of sewing and embroidering, was carried out and was followed by the serving of a luncheon.

Stitch and Nibble Club—

The Stitch and Nibble Sewing club members—Mrs. John V. Svoboda, Mrs. Frank Koubek, Mrs. Ernest Janda, Mrs. James Zitka, Mrs. William Nelson, Mrs. Louis Svoboda, Mrs. Theodore Spaustat, Misses Lillian and Antonette Koubek, Dorothy Svoboda, Rose Janda, Anne Knieke—motored to Omaha last evening where they met with Mrs. Theodore Spaustat at 4518 South 14th street. Mrs. Edward Remar and Miss Dorothy Zitka, former members, were the guests present. The transportation committee, William Nelson, Leo Hohman, and Frank Koubek.

RECREATION TIME

IT DOES US ALL good to get away from cares and everyday routine for a little rest and recreation.

THIS WEEK the State Fair at Lincoln and the Free Bridge Celebration at Louisville offer such an opportunity.

NEXT WEEK our own Cass County Fair at Weeping Water offers much in the entertainment line.

FOLLOWING WEEK (Sept. 20 to 23) brings the big King Korn Carnival in Plattsmouth, with plenty of fun for everyone.

YOU MAY not be able to take in all these attractions—but it will be to your benefit to attend at least part of them.

REMEMBER the saying... 'All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.'

Searl S. Davis has just returned from the west part of the state where he has been visiting at Gandy and Stapleton, where the large Philpot estate has much grazing and farm land. Mr. Davis is the special administrator of the Philpot estate and reports that in that area the grass and hay crops are good and the stock in fine shape.

Death of Mrs. W. S. Smith After a Long Illness

Member of Pioneer Family of Cass County and Resident Here for Her Lifetime.

From Friday's Daily—

This morning at 3:30 at the Clarkson hospital at Omaha occurred the death of Mrs. William S. Smith, 76, of Murray, a lifelong resident of Cass county, and a loved and honored figure in that community for many years.

Harriet A. Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes, pioneer residents of Cass county, was born at the family home in Rock Bluffs, where at an early day the family settled. She grew to womanhood in that community and was married to William S. Smith. They located in Murray and for many years Mr. Smith has been engaged in business there and in which Mrs. Smith assisted.

In her lifetime at Murray Mrs. Smith was a very active figure in the work of the Presbyterian church at Murray and as long as her health permitted assisted in every way in the betterment of the community life.

There is surviving her passing, the husband, three brothers and one sister, J. W. Holmes of this city, Troy Holmes of Chicago, Archie Holmes of Santa Monica, California, Mrs. C. A. Rawls of this city and Mrs. D. R. Churchill of Twin Falls, Idaho.

PREPARING TO GO SOUTH

From Saturday's Daily—

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mayfield of Louisville, were in the city today for a few hours to attend to some business and meeting with the old time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield are planning on leaving in October for the south where they will be located near Corpus Christi for the late fall and winter season. They will enjoy the bridge celebration at Louisville the coming week, Mr. Mayfield having been one of the boosters that has made possible the bridge that will now be made a toll free structure.

TO RECUPERATE IN ARKANSAS

From Saturday's Daily—
Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula, pastor of the Holy Rosary church, left this morning for Hot Springs, Arkansas where he will undergo treatment for a serious leg ailment. Father Sinkula expects to be away for the next three weeks. During his absence the clergymen from the Creighton university will conduct the services on Sundays.

Factory Showing Betty Rose Coats

Large Number of New Garments to be Shown Here Tuesday Afternoon from 3 until 6.

The Ladies Toggery announces a complete factory showing of Betty Rose Coats on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 5, from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock. Not only will these garments be shown, but there will be a regular style show in which Miss Frances Fisher of Kansas City will model the coats.

This is the first time the Betty Rose people or any other large manufacturer has ever consented to bring their extensive sample coat line into town of this size, and it is with great pleasure we announce having been able to get them here, even if for only a three hour period.

This will give you one of the largest displays of coats, both fur trim and untrimmed to select from. It gives you the opportunity of selecting the exact material, color and style that you desire. Phone 61 for appointment.

THE LADIES TOGGERY, Shop of Personal Service.

Miss Virginia Gish of Weeping Water is spending her vacation with her cousin, Mrs. Jennie Klimm. Miss Gish is the daughter of Mrs. Vernon Gish.
