IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

The annual teachers' institute for Cass county will open on June 18th.

The wife of County Attorney Travis is quite sick with a complication of lung fever and la grippe.

Geo. Traver, one of Greenwood precinct's prominent farmers, was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

The postmaster at Dakota City is not an ingrate. He has named his first born Tobias Grover Schriever.

Mrs. Sage, who has been the guest of relatives in this city for the past few days, departed last Thursday for her home at Alliance.

Wm. Taylor, son of A. B. Taylor, the well-known farmer out in the precinct, is quite ill with an attack of lung fever, and Dr. Schildknecht, his physician, is called out to see him almost daily.

Officer June Black, who has been bed-ridden for the past ten weeks, shows marked and continued improvement, and his physician hopes to have him out of the sick room within a fortnight.

The little village of Pleasanton, twenty miles north of Kearney, was entirely wiped out by fire on Monday afternoon. The only building left in the business part of the town was the bank building.

The funeral of Mrs. Bishop, a daughter of W. H. Shafer, occurred at noon Saturday from the Methodist church. Mrs. Bishop lived in this city for a number of years, but has lately been living near Ashland.

Chas. H. Warner last Friday purchased eighty acres of land just west of town from Leonard Borne, paying the neat sum of $4,000 for the same. The sale was consummated through T. H. Pollock's real estate agency.

Dr. F. N. Gibson, who formerly lived at Weeping Water, was seriously injured by being crushed in an elevator in the Burr block, Lincoln, Thursday morning. The doctor is a brother of A. B. Gibson, the well-known attorney.

The remains of the late T. J. Potter, a well-known Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway official, were disinterred, together with those of his daughter, at Ottumwa, Ia., Thursday and taken to Burlington for reinterment there.

The "Doc" Middleton wild west show of Chadron has written to Congressman Mercer at Washington, asking for his good offices in securing from the Indian office permission to take a number of Indians from the Pine Ridge reservation.

The will of the late J. W. Love was probated at Fremont last Saturday. It was dated April 12, 1886, and was as follows: "I will all my property, both personal and real, to my beloved wife, Therza S. Love, for the use of herself and our children."

A year ago last summer two Omaha real estate sharks through misrepresentation secured a warranty deed to the Hegeboom farm, near the town of La Platte. In the district court of Sarpy county last week the deed was ordered cancelled on the record.

For the benefit of the Louisville Courier-Journal we will state that Chris Wohlfarth is the Plattsmouth man who will embark in the furniture business in the town of Louisville. Messrs. Unruh, Streight and Bœck are perfectly content to remain here.

The Lincoln Journal's correspondent at the national capital says: "The white house is now using in its kitchen the product of the Nebraska City cereal mills, Secretary Morton having presented the president a line of these delicious edibles of home production."

Real estate matters are evidently picking up. C. H. Babcock, the Union block realty dealer, reports having consummated the sale on one day last week of 80 acres of farming land near Union, 30 acres adjoining this city, a house and lot in Vallery addition, 160 acres in Duell county, and 320 acres in Franklin county.

The outlook for the new distillery grows brighter daily, and subscriptions to the bonus fund continue to come. The soliciting committee's hearts were made glad on Saturday by generous subscriptions from two parties who now reside in Omaha and Lincoln, but who have large interests in this city.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Engel took place from the family home on North Fourth street at 2:30 o'clock last Friday. Mrs. Engel had been a resident of Plattsmouth for the past twenty-five years, and several years ago became demented and was taken to the state asylum at Lincoln, at which institution her death occurred Thursday. Three sons and one daughter survive her.

From the Auburn Post we learn that A. Bird, of local canning factory fame, has submitted a proposition to the Auburn people to locate a canning factory in their midst. If the people of Auburn, and Rush Fellows particularly, want to know how a real canning factory should be operated several people living in this city have a large amount of experience for sale cheap for cash.

WABASH NOTES.

Mrs. Rettie Hulfish of Murray is visiting in this vicinity.

John Colbert has moved from Murdock to this place.

Dr. D. Root, late of Elmwood, has located at Wabash.

The protracted meetings, which have been in progress here for the last two weeks, closed last Sunday night.

The Laurel Hill school has been temporarily closed, we are informed, on account of scarlet fever.

Mr. Squires of Weeping Water has rented the blacksmith shop formerly occupied by Joe Sever, and has gone to work. We bespeak for him a good patronage, as we are informed he is a first-class workman.

U. T. Richards is all smiles on account of a girl baby that came to his house Monday morning.

J. W. Staton, a former M. P. agent, is here awaiting a call from that company.

It speaks well for our town when we say we have no empty houses. If we are not mistaken, Wabash will awake from her Rip Van Winkle sleep and be heard from.

John Ellington and family are visiting in this neighborhood. The probabilities are that John will again become a citizen of Cass county.

Quite a number of Modern Woodmen from Murdock were down Saturday night visiting our local camp.

Miss Martha Shank departed last week for Chillicothe, Mo., to take up her studies in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Coppage, who have been here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Fowler, returned to their home on Friday last.

B. & M. Stockholders Will Meet.

Order to Show Cause.

In the district court of Cass county, Nebraska; in the matter of the estate of John B Beverage, deceased:

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of George W. Snyder, administrator of the estate of John B. Beverage, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate, to wit:

The south one-half (S½) of the southwest one-quarter (SW¼) of section seven (7), township eleven (11), range thirteen (13), east, in Cass county, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the amount of six hundred and sixty-eight (668.70) dollars and seventy cents, for the payment of debts allowed against said estate and the expenses of administration, there not being sufficient personal property to pay the said debts and expenses.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me, at the office of the clerk of the district court, in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, on the tenth (10th) day of February, A. D., 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell so much of the above described real estate of said deceased as may be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

Dated this 3d day of January, A. D., 1894.

SAMUEL M. CHAPMAN,
Judge of the District Court.
