News From Washington Is Expected Very Soon.

WILL IT BE BUTLER, OR FOX?

Editor Calhoun is Turned Down, but Bryan Names the Man—The Farmers' Institute Session Comes to a Close at Nehawka.

Anxiously Waiting.

News from Washington concerning the appointment of a democratic postmaster for Plattsmouth has been anxiously looked for all day, but up to the hour of going to press nothing has been heard. It is generally given out that the plum will fall to Mayor Butler, but City Clerk Fox will remain in the race until the very end. When the news concerning the Lincoln office arrived this afternoon it was interpreted to mean that the president had concluded to allow Mr. Bryan to name the postmasters within his district, while others were of the opinion that a compromise had been effected whereby Bryan named the postmaster at Lincoln, Morton at Nebraska City and Boyd and Castor the local office. But, as one good democrat remarked, "we shall see what we shall see."

Calhoun is Turned Down.

A telegram from Congressman Bryan to THE JOURNAL this afternoon brings the information that the president refused to appoint Editor J. D. Calhoun to be postmaster at Lincoln, and requested Mr. Bryan to name another man for the position. The congressman named J. H. Harley, and the appointment was made and sent to the senate for confirmation.

All through the fight for the Lincoln office the name of Mr. Harley has never been mentioned in connection with the office, so that he was a dark horse in the race. He is a druggist by occupation, and is one of Lincoln's leading business men.

The many friends of J. D. Calhoun in the newspaper vineyard will be sorry to learn of his failure to secure the appointment.

Farmers at Nehawka.

The farmers' institute held in Nehawka Tuesday and Wednesday was a great success. The men who were sent by the Nebraska state university gave the farmers a great deal of practical information. The meetings were well attended and a great deal of interest shown. Prof. Card gave some very profitable information about grafting and planting trees. Hon. S. C. Bassett of Gibbon discussed "Dairying" in a business way that aroused an interest which brought forth a number of questions. Prof. Bruner of the state university talked to the school children about the different bugs and their habits of life and generation. He gave the farmers some remedies for destroying the cutworm, chinch bug and potato bug.

Hon. Charles Steele of Norfolk talked on the "Sugar Beet Industry." He showed the manner in which beets are raised, how to care for them and the financial gain to be derived. It was clearly brought out that it will be impossible to continue the beet industry if the tariff and bounty are both removed from sugar. Prof. Ingersol came to fill the place made vacant by the inability of Governor Furnas to be present. The professor spoke upon the general theme of the university. He showed the relation it bears to the people of the state. The state university is a child of the state, he thought, and all its citizens ought to feel free to apply to the university upon any subject. The benefits to be derived from an education and the need particularly of books on agriculture for every young man and woman was set forth very clearly.

Nehawka possesses some local talent that added much to the interest of things. Among the different papers read were: "The Trimming of Fruit Trees," Isaac C. Pollard; "Selecting Seed," Rev. Mr. Fulcomore; "Moral Culture for Boys," E. A. Kirkpatrick; "How to Make Farming Popular," D. W. Foster; "Farmers Institutes," G. F. Switzer; "Stock Raising," L. C. Todd. Some choice music interspersed here and there added much to the enjoyment. This is Nehawka's first institute, but judging from present indications it will not be her last. Every one was well pleased with the meeting and departed with a kinder feeling for the head of Nebraska's great school system.

Davis-Young.

This evening, at seven o'clock, at the home of County Commissioner Geo. W. Young, in Mt. Pleasant precinct, will occur the marriage of Stephen M. Davis and Miss Hattie J. Young, Rev. T. K. Surface officiating. The groom is a son of Anderson Davis of Eight Mile Grove, one of Cass county's prosperous farmers, and the bride is a daughter of Commissioner Young. The future home of the bride and groom will be on the Conally farm, near Murray, and THE JOURNAL extends congratulations and best wishes in advance.

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

The Todd, Dundas & Sage bridge company of this city had in a bid before the county board of Nemaha county for the county bridge work and were beaten out by the narrow margin of one cent a foot. Tom Crummel, the Otoe county bridge contractor, was the lowest bidder and was awarded the work.

Chet. H. Smith will be found in the future behind the prescription case of Druggist O. A. Brown, mixing pills with the same vigor he was wont in days of yore, when Smith & Black Bros. constituted one of the best-known drug firms in the city.

THE JOURNAL'S "Midway Types" are on hand and ready for distribution. Bring in your coupons and ten cents and get the first portfolio.

Lawyer J. H. Haldeman, of Weeping Water, was at County Judge Ramsey's court today arranging for a final settlement in the estate of the late Ann Allison, of which he is administrator. Incidentally it might be proper to mention that Mr. Haldeman is planning to remove hither in a few months to continue in the practice of law in this city. Mr. Haldeman has no property interests in the town, but he was magnanimous enough to subscribe toward the distillery project. Mr. Haldeman is welcome. There is room for such men in our midst.

A FRIGID PLUNGE.

Wm. Eikenbary had a bath Wednesday that he did not enjoy to any great extent. While assisting in getting out his supply of ice at the river he stepped upon a large piece which had been sawed, and the consequence can easily be guessed. By the assistance of bystanders he crawled from the hole, and suffered only a cool, refreshing bath in the muddy waters of "Old Muddy."—Union Ledger.

Theodore Davis was arrested at Nebraska City yesterday, charged with robbing a store at Julian, Otoe county, a few days ago. The stolen goods were found in his house. His brother, who was his accomplice, escaped.

AWAITING THE ASSAY.

Mrs. Palmer's Meeting.

A full house greeted the evangelist, Mrs. Anna Palmer, at the M. E. church last evening. From the scripture lessons she proved the importance and power of God's spirit as a controlling influence in the hearts and lives of Christian people; the efficiency of united, earnest prayer, and with a consecrated church the rum traffic and its attendant evils would be banished from our midst. Mrs. Palmer is a fluent, ready, happy speaker, and held the attention of the audience throughout the evening. It is safe to predict much good will result from her week's labors in Plattsmouth.

Ed C. Bailey, a representative of the Hawkeye Commission company, has rented the room in the Rockwood block just above the Bennett & Tutt grocery store, and will open therein a commission house. Arrangements have been perfected with the telegraph companies which will enable Mr. Bailey to post the latest Chicago markets at all times of the day. The place will be ready for business before the last of the week.

Will Petition Judge Dundy.

It is expected that representatives of the American railway union will be in Omaha Thursday to present to Judge Dundy a petition signed by 5,000 employes of the Union Pacific protesting against the recent equalization wage schedule ordered by the circuit court of this district. Eugene Debs, president of the union, has wired the Omaha union officials that he will be in Omaha Thursday, and it is expected representatives of unions on the entire system will be present to urge Judge Dundy to withdraw the order granted some days ago. In speaking of the order Mr. Debs is represented to have said:

"The court not only reduces wages, but compels the employes to accept the reduction. If they submit without a fight their enslavement is accomplished, and no possible plea can lift them a thousandth part of an inch above the dead line of degradation. Federal judges are treading on dangerous ground. If they are not totally mortgaged to their corporate bosses they will take warning of the mutterings their cruel and infamous decisions are exciting. The American railway union may be relied upon to do its duty, totally regardless of Judge Dundy. The real anarchists occupy the federal bench. The issue is upon us and I am in favor of facing it. If the men are true to their manhood they will rise as one man from end to end of the system, to resent the monstrous judicial outrage that strips them naked of their guaranteed constitutional rights."

The "Plan Sifter" flour is the popular brand. Ask for it from your grocer.

The "Dress Rehearsal."

On next Saturday night the two-act operetta, the "Dress Rehearsal," will be presented by home talent at White's opera house. The best talent of the city, including Mrs. Geo. E. Dovey, Mrs. Geo. F. Houseworth, Mrs. Chas. S. Sherman, Misses Minnie and Florence White, Tillie Vallery, Ethel Dovey, Florence Waugh and Phyllis Petts, will take part in the production, and they will be assisted by a chorus of twelve or fifteen voices. An admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged, and the proceeds of the entertainment will be used for charitable purposes.

Constable J. H. Thrasher will promptly attend to all business entrusted to him. Collections a specialty.

"Plattsmouth Illustrated."

City Clerk Fox has several thousand copies of "Plattsmouth Illustrated" yet on hand which will be furnished free of cost to parties who desire to send copies to their out-of-town friends. These books contain several dozen half-tone engravings of the public and private buildings, besides descriptive matter, and everybody should send several copies away. The postage is two cents per copy.

Vest's Eyes.

What the Hon. George G. Vest says in regard to the superiority of the Hirschberg diamond and non-changeable spectacles: "I am using glasses which I purchased from Prof. Hirschberg, and they are the best I ever tried.
