

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

Hon. A. S. Cooley, of Eagle, was in town Tuesday.

C. A. Pankonin of Louisville was a welcome caller at these headquarters Saturday.

T. T. Wilkinson, who has been serving as a United States juror at Lincoln, is at home.

Mrs. J. F. Polk of Greenwood was in the city Sunday, the guest of her sons, M. D. and C. S. Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummins are the proud parents of a new boy baby, which arrived at their home Monday.

Mrs. Sarah E. McElwain, of this city, has been granted a pension by the U. S. government, which was issued on Jan. 29th.

The Burlington's freight business is continually improving every day and extra freights are becoming quite common.

Sergeant Brown of the U. S. regular army with headquarters at Fort Robinson was in the city Monday in search of recruits.

Christian Metzger, one of THE JOURNAL's weekly readers at Cedar Creek, was in town last Saturday and called at these headquarters.

Miss Alice Eikenbary departed Sunday for Red Oak, Iowa, to attend the funeral of a cousin whose demise occurred Saturday at Creston.

Will Anderson, formerly of Glenwood, Iowa, was in the city last Thursday and departed Friday morning for his new home at Seattle, Washington.

The South Bend Times says: "The state fish distributing car was attached to train No. 30 Thursday and taken to the B. & M. shops at Plattsmouth for repairs."

Mrs. Hitt, the woman barber, has removed from Mynard to Plattsmouth and has taken up her abode in one of the Billings houses, on Lincoln avenue, near the shops.

D. R. Ebersole, a blacksmith in the local B. & M. shops for several years past, has resigned and has purchased the Donnelly blacksmith and wagon shop on Sixth street.

Andrew Darling of Glenwood, Iowa, has become a resident of this city, and is receiving instructions in the business of abstracting under the efficient tutelage of Thom. Walling.

A train load, consisting of twenty freight cars laden with farm implements, passed through town last Saturday over the B. & M. enroute from the factory at Canton, Ill., to the wholesalers at Omaha.

The brainless bincompop who presides over the Louisville Courier-Journal is evidently on the pay-roll of Polk's News, if to be such is really worth anything. In poker parlance they make a "great pair to draw to."

The Lincoln News says: Hon. Orlando Tefft of Avoca, Cass county, was in the city last evening. He had just learned that he had been read out of the race for the republican nomination for congress by his home paper, the Plattsmouth News.

Jas. Hall of Eight Mile Grove precinct journeyed to Alvo on Tuesday to take a first peep at a new grandchild, which has put in an appearance in that town. Mr. Hall has eighteen of such descendants, and he appears entirely willing that it were twice that number.

Mrs. Lathrop Ellis, wife of one of the most prominent farmers of Otoe county, died Thursday at her home, aged sixty years. She was among the county's oldest settlers. Her death was very sudden, she being in apparently good health to within an hour of her death.

Frank Jackson, formerly flagman at the Elm street crossing, but late of Malvern, where he held a similar position with the Q. has been transferred to this city and will again look after the safety of those who pass the company's right-of-way at Elm street.—Creston Gazette.

W. E. Copeland, of Plattsmouth, spent several days in town reorganizing the Jr. O. U. A. M. At a meeting held Tuesday evening nearly all the old members were reinstated, after which four candidates rode, or tried to ride, the goat. The boys expect to more than double their membership in a short time.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Abraham Gottlieb, one of the noted civil engineers of the west, who built the first bridge across the Missouri at Omaha, the B. & M. bridge at Plattsmouth, the Northwestern bridge at Blair and hundreds of other bridges throughout the country, died suddenly on the steps of the Rookery in Chicago Friday afternoon, before medical aid could reach him. Heart failure was the cause of his demise.

If any farmer in this section has procured samples of grain from the world's fair agricultural building he will do well to burn it forthwith. It has been found that the whole exhibit has been attacked by the weevil, a pest whose larva is a worm that burrows in the grain and has done enormous damage to the crops in south-western Russia and in India whence, doubtless, it was brought to the world's fair.

Cade Rogers, the veteran pasteboard manipulator, was again on the streets Saturday, having completed his sentence of forty-five days for assaulting Officer June Black. Over at the jail Cade was a model prisoner. He was particularly cautious that Harry Hill should not get his clutches on anything with which he could escape or suicide, and in this regard he rendered the jailor and guards no small service.

One of Sheriff Eikenbary's guests over at the county jail, named Madden, is suffering from a severe attack of lagrippe. Madden was brought down from South Bend on Wednesday to serve out a ninety days' sentence accorded him by the South Bend justice for hurling stones through the windows of the Rock Island depot in that town. Dr. E. D. Cummings, the new county physician, is attending to his wants.

One of Saline county's successful farmers says that he has within the past few months fed several hundred dollars' worth of wheat to his hogs with much better profit than he could have made by selling it at present prices. He soaked the wheat and fed it to his hogs mixed with corn meal and found that they thrived much better than on a whole corn ration. The animals eat the mixture with better relish and it proves a better flesh producer than corn alone.

MURDOCK.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Meeker, cashier of the State Bank of Murdock Jan. 31, '94.

Mr. W. Wendt and wife are visiting with Mr. W's parents way up in the northwest. They will be gone several weeks.

The first fruit of the gospel meetings is a prayer meeting which will be held every Wednesday evening at the school house.

L. Neitzel, our hardware man, is receiving immense lots of goods for the spring trade. He is taking advantage of the present low prices, buys for cash, and will and can sell very cheap. See him if you need anything in his line.

H. Kupke is getting figures on his large barn which he intends to build this spring. Aug. Pansky is also getting ready for the building of a first-class barn. H. Schmidt will soon start the building of a new house, which will be quite an improvement over the one he erected two years ago.

The gospel meetings, which are held by the Christian church, at our school house, are of unusual interest; the proof for the above lies in the fact that several heads of families have confessed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Rev. Allen of Elmwood is conducting the meetings.

Messrs. W. M. Moore, S. Cox and Leslie Rush were baptized in the Christian church at Elmwood last Sunday and were received into the church. They are some of the converts of the recent gospel meetings held in our school house by Rev. Allen. The meetings came to a close last Sunday. We know that much good has been accomplished.

The wedding of H. Bornemeier to Miss Lena Klemme occurred at the home of the bride last Thursday. A very large number of friends had been invited, and as the day was exceptionally fine, all came. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Altshouse of Elmwood, who is the pastor of the young married couple. The presents to Mr. and Mrs. Bornemeier were not only very numerous, but also very useful and valuable.

Take Off the Horns.

The undersigned is now ready, with a good portable chute and tools, to remove the useless weapons of horned cattle at ten cents per head. It never gets too cold to dehorn cattle; any time except fly-time is the right time. If those who wish such work done would address me at Rock Bluffs, Neb., they will be promptly answered.

S. L. FURLONG

Fits, dizziness, hysteria and all nervous troubles cured by Magnetic Nervine. Sold and guaranteed by Fricke & Co.

The Burlington railroad, under the circumstances which have existed for a week past, has no particular cause to complain. Its freight business has shown a wonderful improvement of late, and according to indications the improvement should continue. A heavy freight traffic means the hiring of workmen to repair rolling stock, and work for the laborer means more prosperous times. By all means let the improvement in railroad business continue.

Wilburn, plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which is to quiet and confirm the title of the land hereinafter described in said plaintiff, to-wit: The northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of the south east quarter (SE 1/4) of section twenty (20) in township number twelve (12), range nine (9), east of the sixth P. M., in Cass county, Nebraska.

That said defendant's deed of record, bearing date 26 January 1874, is a cloud upon plaintiff's title, who holds said land under a quit claim deed of August 31st, 1882, the basis of said quit claim deed resting upon a tax deed, bearing date of Sept. 14th, 1872.

That said plaintiff further sets up in his said petition against said defendant as a further cause of action exclusive adverse possession of the above described lands for the full extent of the statutory limit vesting said plaintiff with complete title in and to the above described lands.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that the cloud cast upon his title to said land by said defendant's deed of record as aforesaid may be removed and that the title to said lands may be quieted and confirmed in plaintiff, and that all such other aid further relief as justice and equity may require.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 15th day of March, A. D. 1894. Dated this 31st day of January, 1894.
